

Index

- Active Ageing agenda, 53, 145, 226
- Age Action Alliance, 229
- Age-based seniority pay systems, 10
- Ageing workplaces, 2
  - in China, 5–7
  - in Europe, 7–9
  - Tiger economies. See Tiger economies
- Ageism and manager attitudes, learning and training
  - ageist stereotypes, 197
  - age norming, 198–199
  - external stereotyping, 197
  - human capital theory, 197
  - individual career trajectories, 198
  - inter-generational conflict and tension, 198
  - older worker learning and development, 196–197
  - productivity and return-on-investment, 198
- Age Management (AM), 36, 176, 181, 182
  - policies, Korea, 131
- All China Federation of Trade Unions (ACFTU), 146–147
- Amartya Sen's Capability Approach, 12
- Anti-age discrimination legislation, 114
- Authoritarian state control, 125
- Auto-enrollment pension scheme, 87, 118, 120
- Average life expectancy, 5
- Bismarckian PAYG scheme, 56
- Block model, 57
- 'Business case' arguments, 114
- Career-stage model, 188
- Caring responsibilities, eldercare management, 210
  - demographic change, 210–212
  - welfare state, 218–219
- Cascade Healthcare, 219
- Central Statistical Office, 30–31
- Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD), 181, 186, 215
- Chemical, Steel and Retail sectors, collective agreements, 9
- Chile's pension reforms, 25
- China Aging Problem National Commission Office, 218–219
- Chinese Communist Party (CCP), 147
- Chinese government's Development Research Foundation, 4

- Class-based and enterprise unions
- ageing populations, 142
  - challenge-facing representatives, 142
  - Civil Service, Hong Kong, 158–159
  - collective bargaining, 156–157
  - dependency ratio, 142
  - employment relations, 143
  - lifelong learning opportunities, 142
  - lump of labour theory, 142–143
  - macro-level balance, 142
  - older workers' perceptions
    - agency model, 154
    - awareness of, 151–152
    - careers and retirement plans, 154
    - datasets, 151
    - final solidarity factor, 152
    - linear regressions, 150, 154
    - pension and retirement income, 154
    - planned retirement age, 154
    - pre-retirement planning services, 153–154
    - retirement age, 154
    - service-related unionism, 150, 160
    - solidarity-based unionism, 151
    - survey responses, 154
    - Western trade unionism, 152
    - see also* Older workers
  - social equality, 143
  - trade unions and retirement. See Trade unions
- Collective bargaining, 156–157
- Community Business, 228, 229
- Community care, 216
- Community social service stations, 216
- Company-based early retirement offers, 53
- Company-based enterprise unions, 148
- Comparative public policy research, 244
- Comparative welfare states, 244–245
- Confidence interval (CI), 97
- Consumer Price Index, 156
- Continuity theory, 190
- Coordinated Market Economy, 125
- Cross-sector strategy, 31
- Data Centre of the German Centre of Gerontology, 66
- Defined Contribution (DC) pension scheme, 88
- Demographic window, 4, 226
- Department for Work and Pensions UK (DWP), 201
- Disability-free longevity, 3
- Diversity and Inclusion in Asia Network (DIAN), 228
- Domestic economy, 20–21
- Domestic labour market, 25
- Eastern welfare states, 149
- Educational level, 68
- Education, labour market resource, 54, 65
- Elder Academy, 190
- Eldercare management, United Kingdom and China
  - care requirements, 209
  - caring responsibilities, 210
  - demographic change, 210–212
  - welfare state, 218–219

- Cascade Healthcare, 219
- cognitive dissonance, 210
- cultural dimension
  - care and work
    - coordination, 213
  - economic opportunities, 214
  - family planning policy, 212–213
  - family responsibilities, 214
  - household structure, 214
  - pivot generation, 213
  - public policy, 215
  - sandwich generation, 213
- employment rights, 215–217
- medical treatment and public health promotion, 208
- multiple health conditions, 208
- one-child policy (OCP), 208
- sandwich carers, 210
- social and cultural values, 209
- survey results, 220–222
- ‘unexpected career’, 211
- women’s labour force
  - participation, 219
- workplace flexibility policies, 208
- Employees’ Social Security Act, 180
- Employer defined-benefit pension schemes, 117
- Employer networking organisations, 227
- Employers’ Forum on Age (EFA), 229
- Employers’ Network for Equality and Inclusion (enei), 229
- Employer-sponsored pension plans, 25
- Employment Equality (Age) Regulations, 61, 145, 146
- Equal Employment Opportunity Law, 29
- Equal Opportunities Commission, 62, 233–234
- Ethical/value-based agencies, 227
- European Agency for Safety and Health, 175–176, 181
- European Employment Strategy, 8
- European Social Survey, 13
- European Working Conditions Survey, 13
- European Year for Active Ageing and Solidarity between Generations (EY2012), 35
- Europe’s growth strategy, 35–36
- EUROSTAT, 8
- Exploratory data analysis (EDA), 95
- Family care, 216
- Family planning policy, 212–213
- Family Status Discrimination Ordinance, 218
- Federal Ministry for Family Affairs, Senior Citizens, Women and Youth, 65–66
- Financial planning security, 31
- Financial situation, 54–55, 65
- Financing retirement
  - confidence interval (CI), 97
  - demographic components, 108
  - economic growth and movement, 84
  - empirical models, 109
  - employee data, 84
  - household income, 108

- logistic regression analysis
  - results, 97, 105–107
- policy makers, 84
- quality of life, 84
- respondents characteristics, 91–95
- retirement and retirement income, 109
- saving options, 97, 101–103
- social change and attitudes, 84
- statistical analysis, 90–95
- test of associations, 97, 98–100
- in United Kingdom and Hong Kong, pension systems, 85–89
- welfare and non-welfare states, 84
- zero-order correlation analysis, 95, 96
- Finnish Institute for Occupational Health, 9
- Finnish Workability Model, 9, 122
- Firm-based mandatory retirement ages, 10
- Flat-rate pension, 85
- Formal-based learning, 196
- Gender, retirement preferences, 54
- Gender-segregated labour markets, 54
- German Ageing Survey, 65–66
- German policy makers, 57
- Government-established labour policy, 35
- Government Programme for Promoting Senior Citizens Social Activity, 28
- Hazard Identification Risk Assessment & Risk Control (HIRARC), 174
- Health management programmes, 242
- Health, retirement preferences, 54
- Healthy life expectancy, 211
- Healthy workplaces
  - creation, 180
  - economic and social development, 171
  - global life expectancy, 167
  - hazard exposure reduction, 172–174
  - hazardous working conditions, 166
  - hazards identification, 167–168
  - indirect costs, 171
  - management systems approach, 171
  - mental/physical health, 171
  - occupational risks, 166
  - older workers
    - ability to work, 180
  - Age Management, 181, 182
  - Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD), 181
  - chronic illness, 179–180
  - European Agency for Safety and Health, 181
  - health status, 180
  - injury risks, 180
  - participatory approach, 182
  - physical changes, 178–179
  - Retirement and Re-employment Act (RRA), 181

- Scottish Centre for Healthy Working
   Lives, 181
 Special Employment
   Credit (SEC),
   181–182
   violence and stress, 180
   see also Older workers
 personal health resources, 168 policies, 174–175
 practices
   Age Management framework, 176
   European Agency for Safety and Health,
     175–176
   implementation, 175
   Industrial Code of Practice
     on Indoor Air Quality, 176 internal and external drivers, 175
   Occupational Safety and Health in the Service
     Sector and Health
     Management System
     (OSHMS), 176
   risk reduction measures,
     176–177
   Systematic Occupational Health Enhancement-
     Level Programme
     (SOHELP), 176
 psychosocial work
   environment. See
   Psychosocial work
   environment
 risk management measures,
   171–172
 skills and experience,
   167
 State Pension Age, 167
 Work Ability concept,
   177–178

 World Health Organization
   (WHO), 168
 Hong Kong Special
   Administrative Region
   (HKSAR), 50–51, 55,
   78–79, 148, 233
   see also Retirement plans
 Household income, 68
 Human capital theory, 197

 Ikigai concept, 33
 Individual learning, 239
 Individual level, 68
   factors, 54
 Individual psychology models,
   120
 Individual retirement plans, 52
 Industrial Code of Practice on Indoor Air Quality,
   176
 Institutional and workplace contexts change
   Hong Kong Special
     Administrative Region
     (HKSAR), 50–51
     see also Retirement plans
   multi-pillar pension structure, 77
   pension reform cohorts, 77
   political and management interventions, 50
   political level, 50
   retirement ages
     level differences, 68
     multivariate linear
       regression analyses,
       69, 70–75
     orientation marker, 68
     sectoral characteristics,
       69 workplace characteristics and conditions, 69
   retirement preferences
     demographic ageing,
     51–52

- individual financial situation, 55
- individual level, 54–55
- institutional
  - characteristics, 55
  - institutional level, 52–53
  - nation-specific survey, 55
  - plans, in countries. See Retirement plans
  - workplace level, 53–54
- Institutional care, 216
- International financial institutions, 2
- International Labour Organization (ILO), 2
- International Social Survey Project and National Adult Learning Survey, 13
- International Trade Union Confederation, 147
- Japanese Ministry of Health, Labour and Social Affairs, 27
- Japanese old-age employment regime, 11
- Japanese pension system, 24
- Japan Institute for Labour Policy and practical training (JILPT), 34
- Japan NGO Council on Ageing (JANCA), 34
- Job retention system, 27
- Keynesian welfare state, 125
- Korean Federation of Trade Unions (KFTU), 147
- Labour force participation rate, 23
- Labour Force Surveys, 13
- Labour market developments
  - business perspective, 36
  - governmental perspective, 34–36
  - individual perspective, 37–39
- Labour Retirement Benefit, 149
- Learning and Talent Development' (L&TD), 187
- Learning and training, 200–202
  - ageism and manager attitudes. See Ageism and manager attitudes, learning and training
  - in Asia, 199–200
  - Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD), 186
  - definition, 186
  - EU labour force survey, 188
  - heterogeneity, 193–194
  - Learning and Talent Development' (L&TD), 187
  - learning organisations, 195–196
  - life stages
    - cognitive changes, 191–193
    - motivation, 188–191
  - organisation culture and climate, 194–195
  - reactive learning, 187
  - service-learning, 187
  - skills maintenance and enhancement, 186
  - training rates, 187–188
- Life-cycle approach, 8
- Lifelong learning opportunities, 142
- Lifetime employment model, 148
- Linear regressions, 150

- union membership and retirement plans, 154–155
- Lisbon Council, 8
- Lisbon Protocol, 145
- Logistic regression analysis, financing retirement, 97, 105–107
- Lump of labour theory, 142–143, 236, 241
- Malaysian Social Security Organization (SOCSO), 179, 180
- Management systems approach, 171
- Mandatory Provident Fund (MPF) Ordinance, 60, 85–88, 149
- Manual Handling Operations Regulations, 173
- Mentoring and reverse mentoring, 241
- Mid-Career Review (MCR), 237, 239
- Multi-generational workforces, 244
- National Council of Social Services, 85
- National Employment Savings Trust (NEST), 59, 86–88
- National-funded pension schemes, 149
- National Health Service (NHS), 156, 157
- National Institute for Care Excellence, 124–125
- National Institute of Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH), 169
- National Insurance system, 86
- National labour markets, 52
- National social security systems, 114
- Nation-specific institutional configurations, 52
- Neo-liberal global economic order, 125
- Non-financial Defined Contribution model, 147–148
- Non-regular employment employment proposition, 29, 30 motivational factors, 33
- Normative life stages models, 188
- Occupational Retirement Scheme Ordinance (ORSO), 60, 87, 88
- Occupational Safety and Health Act, 170
- Occupational safety and health (OSH) hazard, 170
- Occupational Safety and Health in the Service Sector and Health Management System (OSHMS), 176
- Occupational Safety & Health Master Plan (OSH-MP), 172
- Office for National Statistics (ONS), 210, 211
- Old Age Allowance, 59
- Old-age dependency ratio, 26
- Old-age poverty, 3
- Older workers
  - European Social Survey, 13
  - European Working Conditions Survey, 13
  - experience dataset, 13
  - Amartya Sen's Capability Approach, 12
  - attitudes, 12
  - quality of life, 12

- retirement plans, 12, 13
- risk factors, 12
- skills and abilities, 12
- work choices, 1
- work environments and context, 12
- International Social Survey Project and National Adult Learning Survey, 13
- Labour Force Surveys, 13
- learning and training. See Learning and training
- UK and Hong Kong Survey demographic profile, 249–251
- survey question responses, 252–266
- One Child Policy, 4, 208
- Organisational workforce planning, 115
- Organisation culture and climate, 194–195
- Pay-as-you-go pension scheme, 24
- ‘Peak wage’ system, 129
- Pension Commission Report, 86
- Pension Kosei nenkin, 24
- Pension Reform Act, 116
- Pension systems, 2
  - in Europe, 7
  - Tiger economies, 10
  - in United Kingdom and Hong Kong, 59–60
  - auto-enrollment scheme, 87
  - data, 90
  - Defined Contribution (DC) pension scheme, 88
  - flat-rate pension, 85
  - income and wealth sources, 89
- National Employment Savings Trust (NEST), 86–88
- National Insurance system, 86
- occupational pensions, 86, 87
- Occupational Retirement Scheme Ordinance (ORSO), 87, 88
- pension age, 86
- Pension Commission Report, 86
- residual welfare states, 85
- retirement plans, 89–90
- satisfaction/dissatisfaction level, 89
- security model, 85
- self-employed workers, 86
- social insurance contributions, 85
- UK Department for Work and Pensions (DWP), 87
- welfare states, 88–89
- work and career, 90
- workplace pension scheme, 86
- Personal responsibility agenda, 118
- Polish pension system, 25–26
- Positive working environments, 233
- precariousness in work, 3, 29, 57, 119, 128, 131, 148, 150, 154
- quality of work, 12, 198, 233
- Productive ageing society, Japan and Poland
  - baby boomer generation, 20
  - broad-based social media campaign, 40
  - characteristic work motivation, 23–24
  - definition, 20, 23

- domestic economy, 20–21
- early retirement, 24
- economic and social
  - contributions, 20
- employment proposition
  - attitudes and behaviours
  - characteristics, 31
  - Central Statistical Office, 30–31
  - cross-sector strategy, 31
  - dependency ratio, 30
  - employment rate of population, 30
  - Equal Employment Opportunity Law, 29
  - feature, 29
  - financial planning security, 31
  - non-regular employment, 29, 30
  - psychological maturity, 32
  - work culture, 29
- external and internal
  - stakeholders, 41
- external factors, 22
- financial situation, 24
- framework of, 23
- labour costs, 22
- labour force participation rate, 23
- labour market developments
  - business perspective, 36
  - governmental perspective, 34–36
  - individual perspective, 37–40
- motivational factors
  - ikigai concept, 33
  - Japan Institute for Labour Policy and practical training (JILPT), 34
  - labour force participation rate, 32–33
  - mental balance, 33–34
  - regular/non-regular employment, 33
  - retirement age, 32, 33
- national economies, 21
- pensions
  - Chile's pension reforms, 25
  - domestic labour market, 25
  - employer-sponsored pension plans, 25
  - individual pension savings programs, 25
  - life expectancy, 24
  - national and occupational pension funds, 24–25
  - old-age dependency ratio, 26
  - open pension funds, 25
  - participation rate, labour market, 26
  - pay-as-you-go pillar, 25
  - pension Kosei nenkin, 24
  - policies, 21
  - population structure, 26
  - provident fund Kyosai nenkin, 24
  - public social security programme, 25
  - retirement pension, 25
  - state/quasi-state pension fund, 24
  - see also* Pension systems
- personnel policy, 21
- productive activities, 23
- Rhineland economies, 21
- silver economy concept, 40
- stability employment act, 39
- welfare policies. See Welfare policies
- working lifetime, 22
- Provident fund Kyosai nenkin, 24
- Psychological development theories, 189

- Psychosocial work environment, 168 decision-making processes, 170 impact of, 169
 inter-personal and social interactions, 168
 job demand, 168
 job satisfaction, 169
 National Institute of Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH),
 169
 Occupational Safety and Health Act, 170
 occupational safety and health (OSH) hazard, 170
 poor psychosocial work
 environments, 168
 positive psychosocial work
 environments, 168
 violence and stress, 170
 workers' mental health, 169
 work-related stress, 170
 Public social security
 programme, 25
- Quality of life, 12, 84, 189–190
- Reactive learning, 187
- Residual first-tier pension, 85
- Residual welfare states, 85
- Retirement Age Act (RAA), 234
- Retirement and Re-employment
 Act (RRA), 181, 234
- Retirement benefits, 52
- Retirement plans
 in Germany, 55, 78
 contribution-based
 German system, 76
 data, 65–66
 education, 77
 employer policies, 58
 labour market, 57
 multivariate linear
 regression analyses,
 planned retirement
 age, 74–75
 operationalisation and
 methods, 66–68
 pension systems and
 retirement pathways,
 56–57
 institutional features, 62, 63
 planned retirement age, 62, 64
 trade unions. See Trade unions
 in United Kingdom and HKSAR, 55, 78–79
 age discrimination
 regulation and
 retirement age, 60–61
 company policies, 61–62
 data, 65–66
 education, 73
 liberal system, 76
 multivariate linear
 regression analyses,
 planned retirement
 age, 70–73
 operationalisation and
 methods, 66–68
 pension, 59–60
 welfare state and labour
 market, 58–59
- Retirement policy
 in China, 5, 6
 in Europe, 9
- Retrospective analyses, 51
- Return-to-work (RTW)
 assistance, 179
- Rhineland economies, 21
- Riester reform, 56
- Scottish Centre for Healthy
 Working Lives, 181
- Second-tier pension system, 85,
 87

- Self-employed workers, 86
- Sequential life stages, 189
- Service-learning, 187
- Service-related unionism, 150, 160
- Silver economy concept, 40
- Single Equality Act, 146
- Social Care Service System
  - Construction Plan, 216–217
- Social inequalities, 3
- Social Security Act, 144
- Social security systems, 51
- Social welfare policies, 3
- Social welfare states, 3
- Socio-economic recovery, 26–27
- Socio-emotional theory, 189
- Special Employment Credit (SEC), 181–182
- Stability employment act, 27, 39
- State-controlled enterprises, 119
- State-financed and state-organised early retirement schemes, 114
- State pension age (SPA), 116
- State-run Social Insurance Institution, 25
- Statistical analysis, financing retirement, 90–95
- Stockholm Council, 8
- Systematic Occupational Health Enhancement-Level Programme (SOHELP), 176
- Taiwanese unions, 148
- Tax-benefit systems, 8
- The Age and Employment Network (TAEN), 229
- Tiger economies, 4
  - age-based seniority pay systems, 10
  - features, 9–10
  - firm-based mandatory retirement ages, 10
  - Japanese old-age employment regime, 11
  - pension systems, 11
  - phased retirement, 10
  - trade unions and retirement, 147
- Trades Union Congress, 146, 229
- Trade unions
  - Active Ageing framework, 145
  - All China Federation of Trade Unions (ACFTU), 146–147
  - ancillary social unrest, 144
  - Chinese Communist Party (CCP), 147
  - company-based enterprise unions, 148
  - duality strategies, 146
  - Eastern welfare states as Productivist, 149
  - economic security, 144
  - Employment Equality (Age) Directive, 145, 146
  - four-year part-time phased retirement, 145
  - Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (SAR), 148
  - International Trade Union Confederation, 147
  - Korean Federation of Trade Unions (KFTU), 147
  - Labour Retirement Benefit, 149
  - lifetime employment model, 148
  - Lisbon Protocol, 145
  - Mandatory Provident Fund, 149
  - mass unemployment, 144

- national-funded pension schemes, 149
- Non-financial Defined Contribution model, 147–148
- post-war enterprise unionism, 143
- Single Equality Act, 146
- Social Security Act, 144
- state and occupational pension schemes, 144
- state early retirement welfare scheme, 145
- state pension systems, 143–144
- Taiwanese unions, 148–149
- Tiger economies, 147
- Trades Union Congress, 146
- Western state pension systems, 149
- worker solidarity, 148
- Two Child Policy, 5

- UK Department for Work and Pensions (DWP), 87
- UN International Plan of Action on Ageing, 2
- Uniwersytety Trzeciego Wieku (UTW), 28–29
- UN Political Declaration, 2

- Varieties of Capitalism framework, 125

- Walking the Tightrope Report, 215
- Welfare policies
  - age-appropriate workplace design, 28
  - baby boomer generation, 27
  - job retention system, 27
  - personnel policy, 28
  - socio-economic recovery, 26–27
  - stability employment act, 27
  - state-interventional measures, 28
- Uniwersytety Trzeciego Wieku (UTW), 28–29
- Welfare states
  - caring responsibilities, 218–219
  - labour market, United Kingdom and HKSAR, 58–59
  - subsystems, 52
  - workplace age diversity, 236
- Western economies, 51
- Western Pacific Region (WPRO) Guideline, 171
- Western state pension systems, 149
- Western trade unionism, 152
- Work Ability concept, 177–178
- Work and Families Act, 215
- Workforce management and older staff retention
  - age-diverse teams, 114
  - age-positive HRM, 114
  - Age Related Human Resource Management (ARHRM), 1, 61, 114–115
  - competitive pay packages, 113
  - employees' employment status, 113
  - externalisation strategies, 115
  - Human Resource Management (HRM), 112–116, 130
  - institutional contingencies, 113
- Korea
  - age management policies, 131
  - authoritarian state control, 125

- contractual mandatory retirement, 127
- Coordinated Market Economy, 125
- developmental welfare regime, 125–126
- early retirement pathways, 130
- export-dominated economy, 126
- free market mechanisms, 125
- ‘honourable retirement’ policies, 127
- income inequality and old-age poverty, 129
- labour force, 127
- labour market flexibility, 130
- life-time employment contracts, 130
- national pension scheme, 126
- neo-liberal global economic order, 125
- ‘peak wage’ system, 129
- pension eligibility age, 129–130
- policy-makers, 128–129
- policy solutions, 125
- post-retirement career, 127–128
- post-secondary institutions, 128
- public pension benefits, 127
- retirement age, 127
- social policies, 126
- Varieties of Capitalism framework, 125
- younger workers, 128
- labour market group, 113
- national and international competitiveness, 112
- national labour market, 116
- national social security systems, 114
- negative stereotypes, 113–114
- older job applicants and staff, 115
- organisational politics, 113
- organisational workforce planning, 115
- ‘reserve army’ employers, 115
- retirement saving, 114
- small- and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs), 115
- state-financed and state-organised early retirement schemes, 114
- strategic organisational goals, 112
- United Kingdom
  - auto-enrolment pension scheme, 118, 120
  - decision architecture, 123
  - decision-making, 123
  - dependency ratio, 116–117
  - employer defined-benefit pension schemes, 117
  - experience and skill-set, 122
  - financial implications, 116
  - Finnish workability concept, 122
  - government-funded research, 120
  - individual psychology models, 120
  - individual responsibility, 124
  - manipulative motives, 118–119
  - National Institute for Care Excellence, 124–125

- neo-liberal orientation, 117
- occupational pension membership, 119
- opt-out rates, 119
- pension failures, 120
- personal responsibility agenda, 118
- public policy reticence, 124
- public sector pension eligibility, 116
- socio-technical and psycho-social components, 123
- State-controlled enterprises, 119
- State pension age, 116
- taxation arrangements, 123
- tax liabilities and impacts, 121
- traditional apprenticeship opportunities, 121
- welfare state regulation, 116
- see also* Older workers (OWs)
- Working hours systems, 66
  - Chinese law, 217
- Working Longer Review
  - partnership group, 156
- 'Working pensioner' policies, 2
- Work–life balance (WLB), 211
- Workplace age discrimination, 3
- Workplace age diversity
  - Active Ageing agenda, 226
  - active ageing policy and research agendas
  - age intersection, 244
  - business case, 245–246
  - comparative public policy research, 244
  - comparative welfare states, 244–245
  - generational perspectives, 243
  - joblessness and age, 245
  - multi-disciplinary perspective, 243
  - multi-generational workforces, 246
  - training and development, life course, 239
- Age Action Alliance, 229
- Age and Employment Network (TAEN), 229
- ageing demographics, 226
- ageing workplaces, 230–231
- benefits, 231
- challenges
  - baby boomers, 240
  - economic development and transformation, 241
  - health management programmes, 242
  - intergenerational work teams, 240
  - long-term employment, 240
  - lump of labour theory, 241
  - mentoring and reverse mentoring, 241
  - multi-generational workforce, 241
  - UK National Health Service, 242
- Community Business, 228, 229
- demographic dividend, 226–227
- demographic window, 226
- Diversity and Inclusion in Asia Network (DIAN), 228
- eldercare employees challenge, 232

- employer networking
  - organisations, 227
- Employers' Forum on Age (EFA), 229
- Employers' Network for Equality and Inclusion (enei), 229
- generational diversity, 228
- Government agencies, 230
- large-scale loss of expertise, 231
- multi-generational workforces, 227
- personnel management
  - profession, 227
- positive working environments, 233
- public policy
  - age discrimination ordinances, 235
  - career development and planning, 239
  - employer identify training/development needs, 235
  - employment regulations and pension rules, 233
- Equal Opportunities Commission report, 233–234
- individual learning, 239
- job security, 237
- knowledge transfer, 237
- 'lump of labour' theory, 235
- Mid-Career Review (MCR), 237, 239
- Retirement Age Act (RAA), 234
- Retirement and Re-employment Act (RRA), 234
- retirement plans, 234
- sectoral agreements, 238
- skills/vocational training, 238
- Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) government, 233
- tax and pension rules, 235
- training, 238
- welfare states, 236
- working conditions improvement, 238
- silver dollar and marketing strategies change, 232
- support career development, 233
- Trades Union Congress, 229
- traditional retirement ages, 231
- workplace networking organisations, 228
- young talent shortage, 231–232
- Workplace conditions, 66
- Workplace level, 50
- Workplace pension scheme, 86
- Work strains, 66
- Work tasks satisfaction, 66
- Zero-order correlation analysis, 95, 96