

INDEX

- Abnormal return, 218, 234
 - cumulative, 218
- Achilles heel of a global corporate culture, 137
- Adaptive corporate strategies, 1
- Agency theory, 42
- Alterity, 131, 132, 133
- Asset-driven knowledge, 90
- Autonomous initiatives, 19, 72, 75, 76
- Autonomous responsive initiatives, 76, 80, 83, 84
- Autonomy, in subsidiaries, 53–54
- Autonomy and control, in dynamic environments, 51–52
- Autonomy and subsidiary performance, relationship between, 8

- Backup systems, 195
- Behavioral finance, 212–213
- Bureaucratic mechanisms, 43
- Business diversification and performance, relationship between, 4
- Business relationships, 143

- Center for Global Strategic Responsiveness, 3
- Central coordination, 14
- Centralization–decentralization, 186, 194
- Centralized organizational structure, 48, 77
- Central planning and decentralized decision-making, performance effect of, 20

- CIT-based information systems, 21
- Clan control, 44–45, 63, 64
- Cognitive dissonance, 132
 - and construction of business strategies, 133–134
- Cognitive diversity, 74
- Collaborative innovation network, 6
- Collaborative learning, 24, 78, 84
- Collective intelligence, 75, 77, 80, 82, 83
- Collective wisdom, 74, 75, 82–83
- Collective wisdom intelligence, 76
- Collective “we”, 141, 142–143
- Combined strategy-making processes, 19, 21
- Commitment to resilience, 184, 192–193
- Communication and information processing systems, 22
- Communication exchange systems, 21
- Communication systems, 191, 192, 198
- Compaq Computer, 77
- Compensation, 162, 164–165
- Competitive landscape, 17, 27
- “Constant care”, 139, 140, 142
- Contingency plans, 171, 173, 174, 190, 195, 197–198
- Corporate and societal culture, distinguishing between, 136–137
- Corporate culture, 84
 - versus global corporate culture, 137–138
- Corporate leadership, 79, 82, 84
 - primary role of, 76

- Corporate strategy, 3, 30
- Corporate strategy-making, 19, 21, 72, 76
- Crisis management (CM), 9, 169, 172 combined model of CM practices, mindfulness and outcomes from responses, 200 communication, 198
 contingency plans, 197–198
 crisis plans and their limitations, 173–175 crisis response, 175–176
 crisis teams (CTs), 177–178
 high reliability organizations. See High reliability organizations (HROs) leadership, 176–177
 organizational mindset, 196–197
 organizational structure, roles, and responsibilities, 197 post-crisis management, 176 in practice, 172–173 signal detection and categorization, 173 training, 178–179
 training and learning, 198
- Crisis Management Plan (CMP), 187–188
- Crisis Task Force (CTFs), 187, 190–191
- Crisis teams (CTs), 177–178
- Crowdsourcing technique, 74, 78
- Cultural alterities, 132
- Culture, defined, 130
- Culture and context, relationship between, 133
- Culture as process, 128
- Cumulative abnormal returns (CARs), 218
- “Dao” and “Three Talents” philosophy, 151–154
- Daoism, 150, 151
- Daoist philosophy, 150
- Decentralization, 2, 52, 79, 186, 193–194
- Decentralized decision-making, 20, 79–81
- Decentralized organizational structure, 48
- Decision-making, 43, 53, 195–196, 197
 in strategic planning, 48–51 themes within, 47
- Decision-making, decentralized, 79–81
- Decision-making autonomy, 8
- Decision power, delegating, 23
- Decision power, dispersion of, 17, 20, 23
- Decision processes, democratizing, 77
- Decision structure, 30 influence on strategy-making process, 22 strategic autonomy as, 23
- Deductive top-down, 19
- Democratized information process, 73
- Democratizing process. See Multinational corporation (MNC), democratizing
- Differentiation and integration, distinction between, 16
- Distributed network for collaborative innovation, 6
- “Di”, 154
- Dynamic adaptive system, 2, 80, 82
- Dynamic environments, autonomy and control in, 51–52
- Eclectic paradigm, 90
- Ecosystem for co-creation as “ocean”, 165–166
- Efficient market hypothesis, 211, 217
- Emergency responses. See Crisis management

- Emerging markets, 127, 139, 143
emic approach, 128, 129
- Empathy versus competitiveness, 136 as personal drivers, 142–143
- “Emptiness”, notion of, 166
- Encoder and decoder, 133
- Environmental intelligence, 82
- Environmental uncertainty, 48
etic approach, 127
- Event approach, 172
- Event windows and abnormal returns, 218
- Evolutionary strategy-making, 19
- Evolutionary strategy perspective, 72
- Explanatory framework, 126–127, 134
- Face-to-face communication, 191
- Fast and slow cognitive processes, 2
- Fast–slow dynamic adaptive system, 78, 80
- Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), 187
- Feedback responses, 77
- Financial incentives, 44
- Financial markets, 206, 207 intersection of terrorism and, 210–211
- Firm performance, 92–93
 internationalization and, 94–95
- Food poisoning, 187–188
- Forecasting errors, 213
- Foreign direct investment (FDI), 15
- Foreign market penetration, 90
- Foreign production presence, 90
- Foreign subsidiaries, 40, 44, 45, 46, 116
- “Frame-maker”, 133
- “Generalized other”, 130, 131
- Generic multinational strategy-making model, 8, 14
- Geographic scope, 90
- Global catastrophe effects. See Terrorism, impact of
- Global corporate culture, navigating, 125 cognitive dissonance and construction of business strategies, 133–134
 corporate and societal culture, distinguishing between, 136–137 empathy versus competitiveness as personal drivers, 142–143 and local adaptation, 137–140
 methodology, 134–135
 navigating differences, 127–132
 objectivism and subjectivism, distinguishing between, 135–136
 organizational changes, functionality, and organic innovation, 144–146
 sense making in corporate context, 140–142
- Global democratization, enabling, 76–79
- Global integration, 15, 17, 18
- Global market opportunities, 28
- Global markets, turbulence of, 14
- Global strategic intelligence, 78
- Global strategy process, democratizing, 74–76
- Global Terrorism Database (GTD), 220
- Good to Great*, 153
- Governing without intervening as “sky”, 166–167
- Group thinking, 83
- Guided evolution, 19
- Haier Group, 9, 149
 construction of self-management paradigm, 157–158

- “Dao” and “Three Talents” philosophy, 151–154
- future management methodology, 167
- hexagram of “Qian” and the six stages of Haier’s development, 154–157
- self-management, six stages of the development of
 - ecosystem for co-creation as “ocean”, 165–166
 - governing without intervening as “sky”, 166–167
 - independent operating unit (ZZJYT) as “lake”, 163–165
 - market chain as “river”, 161–163
 - self-organizing team as “water drop”, 158–160
 - strategic business unit as “creek”, 160–161
- Headquarter mandate, 22, 25, 26–27, 29
- Headquarters, role of, 38–39
- Headquarter–subsidiary relationship, 37, 41
 - control and monitoring in, 42–45
- “Here and now” decisions, 171
- Hexagram, 151, 153
 - of “QIAN”, 154–157
- High reliability organizations (HROs), 180, 199
 - analysis, 186
 - empirical findings, 194–196
 - food poisoning at a Mediterranean Hotel, 187–188
 - Hurricane Katrina in New Orleans, 186–187
 - expectations and mindfulness, 181
 - principles of anticipation, 181
 - commitment to resilience, 184, 192–193
 - deference to expertise, 185–186, 193–194
 - patterns of resilience, 184–185
 - preoccupation with failure, 182, 188–189
 - principles of containment, 184
 - reluctance to simplify, 182–183, 189–191
 - reporting errors, 182
 - sensitivity to operations, 183, 191–192
 - reliability, 180–181
- Hofstede’s cultural dimensions, 127
- Horizontal communication, 21
- Host-country policy makers, 40
- Humanistics, 144
- Humbleness, 139, 140, 156
- Hurricane Katrina in New Orleans, 186–187
- I-Ching*, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 159, 160, 166
- Identity formation, 130
- Independent operating unit (ZZJYT) as “lake”, 163–165
- Inductive bottom-up, 19
- Informal communication networks, 24–25
- Informal exchanges of information, 78
- Informal information exchange, 24, 25–26, 27
- Information and communication technology (ICT), 19
- Information-driven knowledge, 89
- Information processing capabilities, 20
- Innovation, 88, 91–92
 - internationalization and, 94
- Integration-responsiveness (I-R) framework, 16, 17, 50
- Inter- and intra-organizational business networks, 5

- International business (IB), 14, 15–18
- International interdependency, 45
- Internationalization, 27, 46
 in knowledge-based industries. See Knowledge-based industry,
 internationalization in
- International management, 51
- International market access, 170
- International strategic mentality, 39
- Inter-organizational network relationships, 46–47, 59–60, 65
- Intimidation of a larger audience, 209
- Intra-organizational business network, 29
- Intra-organizational information and communication exchange systems, 21
- Intra-organizational network
 relationships, 41–42,
 58–59, 63–64
- Irish Republican Army (IRA), 210
- Islamic extremism, 211, 215
- Islamic State (IS), 209
- IT-enhanced data platforms, 84
- Knowledge-based industry,
 internationalization in, 87
 definitions and measures, 89
 firm performance, 92–93
 innovation, 91–92
 internationalization, 90–91
 knowledge-based industries, 89–90
 productivity, 93–94
 discussion and implications, 106 future research, 115 implications of findings, 112
 knowledge-intensive industries, 112–114
 limitations, 115
 scale internationalization, 106–108
 scope internationalization, 109–112
- empirical study, 98
 control variables, 100 dependent variables, 98–99
 discretionary variable, 100 independent variables, 99–100
 methodology, 98
 sample selection, 98
- hypothesis development, 95
 scale internationalization, 96
 scope internationalization, 96–98
- results, 100
 experimental validity and reliability, 104–105
 stepwise multiple regressions, 102–104
- theoretical links between key concepts, 94
 internationalization and firm performance, 94–95
 internationalization and
 innovation, 94
 internationalization and
 productivity, 95
- Knowledge-based resources, dispersed, 28–29
- Knowledge-based view (KBV), 89
- Knowledge-intensive work, 90
- Kurtosis, 234, 235
- Labor productivity, 93
- Language encoder and decoder, 133
- Leadership, 176–177, 182
- “Liabilities of foreignness”, 4, 46, 91, 133
- Local adaptation, 15, 60, 145
- Local market intelligence, 80
- Local product adaptation, 53
- Local responsiveness, 42, 49, 50, 52, 54, 55
 orientation toward, 17

- M&A transactions, 81
- Maersk Line
 global corporate culture, 127, 131, 132, 136, 137–138, 141, 144
- Maersk Way, 138, 139, 145
- Management theory and practice, 135
- Managerial implications, 58, 62–66
- Market chain as “river”, 161–163
- Memory bias, 213
- Microchip strategy, 82
- Mindfulness, 181, 182, 186
- Mindfulness and outcome effects from responses, model of, 186
- Multi-cultural and/or multi-linguistic organizations, 126
- Multinational adaptive system, 14
- Multinational business environment, reality of, 2
- Multinational corporate strategy, 3–8
- Multinational corporate strategy-making, 13 contours of a model, 22–27
 international business (IB), 15–18
 strategic management (SM), 18–21
- Multinational corporation (MNC), 3, 14, 15, 36, 45, 89, 90, 126
 headquarters, 38, 81
 integration-responsiveness (I-R) framework, 16
 managing, 49–51
 organizing autonomy in, 55–57 performance, subsidiary effects on, 26
- Multinational corporation (MNC), democratizing, 71
 autonomous initiatives, 72, 75, 76
 corporate culture, 84
 decentralized decision-making, 79–81
 enabling global democratization, 76–79 global strategy process, 74–76 using collective wisdom, 82–83
- Multinational network structure with dispersed communication, 5
- Multinational strategic mentality, 40
- Multinational subsidiaries, 26–27
- Narrative pictogram data collection mode, 134–135
- National markets, 220–222, 228–229
- Network, defined, 41
- Network structures, 5
- New Orleans Police Department (NOPD), 186–187, 189, 190, 193–194
- Non-financial incentives, 45
- Notion of culture, 126, 129
- Objectivism and subjectivism, distinguishing between, 135–136
- One-way analysis of variance (ANOVA), 219
- Operating autonomy, 23, 30
- Operational autonomy, 22, 24, 53, 60–61, 65–66
- Operational management, orientation toward, 17
- Opinion polling, 77
- Organizational adaptation, 2
- Organizational changes, functionality, and organic innovation, 144–146
- Organizational complexity, 37
- Organizational crisis preparedness, 174
- Organizational culture, 136, 174
- Organizational differentiation, 16
- Organizational mindset, 196–197
- Organizational structure, 37, 47–48
 roles, and responsibilities, 197

- Overall Every Control and Clear (OEC) management, 158, 159–160, 162
- Overseas sales, 9
- Overseas subsidiaries, role of, 29
- Parent company management, 40
- Participatory decision-making approaches, 73
- Patent citations, 92
- Patent count, 92
- Patent productivity, 93
- Personal supervision, 43
- Person-order pay, 165
- Pharmaceutical industry, 88, 90, 112, 113, 114, 115
- PI Learning Indicator (PLI) test, 144
- Portfolio theory, 212
- Predictions, 76–77, 78, 83
- Predictive Index (PI), 144
- Process approach, 172
- Process Philosophy, 152
- Process theory, 153
- Productivity, 93–94
internationalization and, 95
and R&D interaction, 111–112
- Profit margin (PM), 93
- Psychic distance, 46, 50
- “Qian”, hexagram of, 154–157
- Qingdao Refrigerator Factory, 151
- R&D investment, 8–9
- R&D productivity, 93–94, 109, 111
- Redundancy, 183
- Reliable systems, 180
- “Ren”, 154
- Resilience, 184
- Resource-based view (RBV), 16
- Resource support, 41
- Return on assets (ROA), 92–93
- Return on equity (ROE), 93
- Return on sales (ROS), 93
- “Room for maneuvering”, 132
- SAS Studio, 100
- Scale internationalization, 90–91, 96, 106–108
- School shooters, 209
- Scope internationalization, 90, 91, 96–98, 109–112
- S-curve model, 94
- Self-driving, 158
- Self-management paradigm, Haier Group, 9, 153 construction of, 157–158 six stages of the development of, 158
ecosystem for co-creation as “ocean”, 165–166
governing without intervening as “sky”, 166–167
independent operating unit (ZZJYT) as “lake”, 163–165
market chain as “river”, 161–163
self-organizing team as “water drop”, 158–160
strategic business unit as “creek”, 160–161
- Self-organizing, 158–160
- Self-venturing, 158
- Senior managers, 79, 80
- Sense making in corporate context, 140–142
- Sensitivity to operations, 183, 191–192
- September 11 attacks, 207, 230–231, 236
- Skewness of the distribution, 234
- Societal and economic costs, 213–214
- Sociological hermeneutics, 129
- SST market-chain system, 156, 161
- State-owned enterprises (SOEs), 160
- Strategic adaptation, 3, 21

- Strategic autonomy, 23, 25–26, 27, 30, 53, 61–62, 65–66
- Strategic business units (SBUs) as creek, 160–161
- Strategic decision-making, 73, 74, 79
democratizing, 8, 78
- Strategic integration, 49
- Strategic intent of the MNC, 75, 76, 79
- Strategic management (SM), 14, 18–21
- Strategic planning, decision-making in, 48–51
- Strategy typologies, 17
- Structuration, dynamic notion of, 130–131
- Student's t-test, 219
- Study of Terrorism and Responses to Terrorism (START), 220
- Subsidiary autonomy for multinational flexibility, 29, 35, 91 approach, 37
autonomy, in subsidiaries, 53–54
autonomy and control, in dynamic environments, 51–52 control and monitoring in headquarter–subsidiary relationship, 42–45
bureaucratic mechanisms, 43
clan control, 44–45
financial incentives, 44
personal supervision of managers, 43 decision-making, in strategic planning, 48–51 managing multinational corporation, 49–51 effects of autonomy, 58–61 control mechanisms, 59
inter-organizational network relationships, 59–60
intra-organizational network relationships, 58–59
operational autonomy, 60–61
empirical study, 57–58
interdependency between subsidiaries, 45–46
inter-organizational network relationships, 46–47
intra-organizational network relationships, 41–42
managerial implications, 62–66
inter-organizational network relationships, 65
intra-organizational network relationships, 63–64 operational and strategic autonomy, 65–66 negative consequences of, 54–55
organizational structure, 47–48
organizing autonomy, in MNC, 55–57 role of headquarters, 38–39 role of subsidiary, 39–40
strategic autonomy, 61–62
subsidiary network relationships, 41 themes within decision-making, 47
- Subsidiary initiatives, 23, 25
- Subsidiary management, 40
- Suicide bombers, 209
- Sun Tzu's Art of War*, 162
- “Suo chou”, 161–162
- “Suo pei”, 162
- Taoism, 151
- Tao Te Ching*, 151, 166
- Teamwork, 195
- Terrorism, impact of, 10, 205
behavioral finance, 212–213
confirmation and falsification of the hypotheses, 232 cumulative abnormal returns (CARs), 218
definitions, 208–210

- development over time, 215–216, 226–227
- empirical findings, 214–215
- estimation windows and average returns, 217
- event study methodology, 217
- event windows and abnormal returns, 218
- financial data, 219
- geographical distance, 231–232
- implications, 235–236
- industries, 229
- intersection of terrorism and financial markets, 210–211
- limitations, 233–235
- literature review, 210
- longer-term effects, 207, 213
- medium-term effects, 207, 213
- methodological limitations, 219
- methodology, 216
- national markets, 228–229
- one-way analysis of variance (ANOVA), 219
- portfolio theory, 212
- rational expectations and efficient markets, 211–212
- research scope, 208
- results, 220, 228
- short-term direct effect, 207, 213
- size of the attack, 230–231
- societal and economic costs, 213–214
- student's t-test, 219
- terrorism data, 220
- threat characteristic, 215, 222–225, 229–230
- time dimension, 231
- Thomson ONE Banker, 98
- Thomson Reuters Datastream database, 219
- Threat characteristic, 209, 215, 222–225, 229–230
- “Three Talents” philosophy, 151–154
- “Tian”, 154
- “Tiao zha”, 162
- Tobin's q, 93
- Top-down governance structure, 145
- Training, crisis management, 178–179
- Transnational strategy, 50
- Turbulence of global markets, 14
- Uprightness, 140
- US Maritime Transportation Security Act, 214
- Vertical communication, 21
- “We”, 140, 141, 142–143
- “What if” questions, 173, 183
- Win–win partnerships, 165
- World Trade Organization (WTO), 27
- “Yaoming”, name rule of, 155
- “Zizhu Jingying Ti” (ZZJYT), 163–165