

Index

- Achievement, 19–20, 118
  long-term goal, 47, 65 personal and interpersonal, 72 self-achievement, 272 students' long-term, 56, 60 of team's objectives, 153
- Action, 27, 33–34, 37, 252, 258, 262
  plans, 76, 156
  quick-tempered, 229 readiness, 29, 32
  social, 33, 37
  tendencies, 31
- Adaptability, 274
  adaptability EI, 198
- Adrenaline rush, 1, 17
- Affect(s) affect-cognitive theory, 218 forms, 29 nature of emotions, 30–34
  nature of feelings and moods, 29–30
  theory, 95, 218
- Affection (see also Caring), 29, 33, 152, 248
  affective-neutral relationship, 19 aspects, 28
  empathy, 18
  relationship, 19
- Affects and emotions (AE), 94–95
- American Islamic schools, 134, 137–140, 143, 147
  leaders, 139–140
  women leading, 138–139, 143
- American Muslim community, 134, 137
- Anger, 2, 13, 16–18, 30, 37, 74, 95, 114, 120, 122, 127,
  134–135, 141, 179, 185,
  187–188, 197, 209–210,
  216, 225, 240
- Appraisal analyses and modelling, 31 emotion, 35–38, 40 process, 32, 36
  theories of emotions, 30–31
- Arab deputy-principals, 4 data analysis, 119 deputies' emotional regulation in era of reform, 115–117
  findings, 119–127
  in Israel, 113
  methodology, 118
  research population, 119
  semi-structured interview, 118–119 sociocultural context of research, 117–118
- Arab education system, 115, 117, 119
- Ascription, 19–20
- Assertiveness, 107, 127, 265
- Authority, 35, 37, 139, 178, 187–188, 212 claims to, 135 formal, 152
  headteacher's, 40
  leadership, 5, 190
  local, 76, 205
  managerial, 12
  unprecedented, 20
- Autocracy, 20
- Awareness, 1, 3, 13, 76, 82, 85, 95, 115, 223–224, 269
  conscious, 160
  emotional, 49, 106, 153–154, 165–166
  emotional self-awareness, 79–80 of personal needs and feelings, 263 self-awareness, 49, 93, 265, 269
  social, 49
- Bartlett's test of sphericity, 54
- Behavior, 80, 123, 181, 219, 273–274

- empathy, 18
- responses, 31, 33
- Benevolence, 5–6, 237, 240–241, 244, 247–248, 252–253
- Blameworthiness, 223–228, 230
- Calmness, 127, 248, 253
- Caring, 1, 13, 15–17, 135, 208, 210
  - attitude, 211
  - community, 94, 100
  - emotional work, 146
  - teachers, 249
- Challenged feeling, 186
- Chilean educational context and
  - characteristics of teachers, 241–242
- Chinese teacher emotions, 15, 48, 51
- Classroom teaching, emotion
  - management in, 55–56
- Cognition, 1, 17, 29, 33, 93–95, 239–240, 262, 269
  - analysis, 31
  - cognitive-behavioural theory, 218
  - component, 4
  - emotion theories, 31
  - empathy, 18
  - learning, 114
- Colleagues, 62, 249–250
  - personal well-being, 250–251
  - Shanghai teachers' priority work
    - during interactions with, 58–60
  - teachers' trust in, 248
- Collective orientation, 1, 19, 117
- Compassion, 1, 13–14, 18, 20, 81–84, 114, 116, 126
- Competence(s), 5, 152, 156, 222, 237, 240–241, 244, 248, 251–252, 264
  - emotion management, 58
  - emotional, 152–154
  - empathetic, 17
  - teachers' emotional, 49
- Constructive discontent, 80–82
- Constructivist emotion theories, 30–31
- Continuing professional development (CPD), 177
- Coping (emotion-evoking event), 4, 30, 32, 70, 77–78, 81–82, 85–86, 198, 211
- Counter-transference, 36
- Covert coalitions, 36
- Creativity, 1, 72, 80–82, 117, 265
- Critical incident technique (CIT), 5, 181, 243
- Critical incidents (CI), 176
  - Figaro's CIs case, 183–184
  - leadership–school culture
    - interactions through, 182
  - Quincy's CIs case, 182–183
  - Remmy's CIs case, 184
- Cross-cultural differences, effect of, 93
- Crystallisation, 77
- Cultural/culture (see also National culture), 2, 12, 75, 137–138, 203–207, 260, 274
  - context, 134
  - cultural-cognitive element, 39
  - cultural-cognitive pillar of
    - institutionalisation, 40
  - dimensions, 200
  - on emotions, 5
  - impact on emotions, 199–200
  - motives, 203
  - rules, 28
  - willpower and, 259–260
- Decision making process, 93, 99–100, 104
- Defamation, 223–224, 227, 230
- Deliberativeness, 223, 228
- Democracy, 20
- Denial, 36–38
- Deputies' emotional regulation, 115–117
- Deputy-principals, 116, 118, 120
- Disappointment, 14, 114, 185, 188–189, 240, 271
- Discomforted feeling, 185–186
- Disgusting, 30, 95
- Disrespected feeling, 185, 188–189

- Education(al), 2–3, 96, 147 administration, 12
 community, 153
 institutions, 28
 leaders, 2, 17, 19, 274
 management, 3–4
 reforms, 114
 research, 136–137
 researchers, 17 system, 96, 117
- Educational leadership (see also Leadership), 2, 11, 33, 137, 154, 258, 260 emotion in, 17–18
 and management, 2
- Educator emotion challenging ponderings, 20–21
 in educational leadership, 17–18
 ponderings about emotion, contexts and schools, 18–20 research on teacher emotion, 13–16
- Educators, 3–5, 160, 200, 212
- Emotion(al) (see also Feeling(s)), 1, 3, 11, 18–20, 28–29, 93–95, 134, 147, 179, 197, 215–216, 218, 240–241, 270 and affects, 104 appraisal processes, 35
 awareness of others, 79–80 basic emotion theories, 30 at beginning, 202–203
 as burdens, 143–144
 competences, 152–154
 components, 4, 93
 decision-making process, 92
 development, 114
 display rules' of organisation, 179
 in educational leadership, 17–18
 emotion-evoking event, 31, 37 emotionally fluent, 144–145
 expression, 115 faith, culture and, 203–207
 honesty, 179–180
 hypocrisy, 179
 interpersonal guidelines, 49 language, 116
 and legitimacy of schools as institutions, 39–40
 nature, 30–34
 as nurturing, 141–143 performance, 135 reactions, 1 relationships, 49
 as resistance, 145–146 response, 223–224
 rules, 15–16, 20
 self-awareness, 79–80
 self-expression, 79–80
 self-knowledge, 156
 self-regulation, 156
 shame, 216–217
 silence, 179
 social defences in management, 38 woundedness, 2
- Emotional intelligence (EI), 93, 116, 154, 198, 263 skills, 70 testing for, 71–74
- Emotional labor/labour (EL), 48, 71, 115, 179, 198 policy, patriotic ideals and, 207–209
 in teaching, 15
- Emotional leadership, 145–146, 152
 in high complexity schools, 156–157
- Emotional management (see also Female school leader), 49, 70 in classroom teaching, 55–56 in professional learning community, 56–57
 of school leaders, 152
 Shanghai teachers' choices, 60–63 strategies, 54–55, 57–58
- Emotional regulation (ER), 100–102, 197–198
- Emotionality, 134–135, 139–140 collective, 136 expertise, 138
 of leaders, 263 proficiency, 147

- Empathy, 17–18, 57, 93, 152
- EQ Map, 3–4, 69–77, 86–87
 registers, 81 scale, 79–80
 scores, 82–83
- EQ Scoring Grid, 73, 78
- Ethical commitment, 4, 151, 159–162, 167
- Excitement, 1, 17–18, 95, 134–135
- Face-to-face interactions, 19
 interviews, 75, 221
 semi-structured interviews, 261
- Faith, 5, 83, 139, 143, 195, 203–207, 220, 273 faith-based identity, 147 faith-based norms and behaviours, 138 faith-based school contexts, 134 faith-based school leadership, 147–148
- Fear, 2, 4, 30–31, 95, 114, 116, 125, 135, 141–142, 165, 197–198, 203, 216 and control, 75 of failure, 2, 17, 83, 209–210
 of Islamophobia, 139
- Feeling(s), 3, 28–29, 116, 152–153 challenged, 189
 discomfited, 185–186
 disrespected, 185, 188–189
 nature, 29–30
 overwhelmed, 186
- Female school leader (see also Emotional management) competencies, 80–82 current environment, 77–79 emotional intelligence and leadership, 71
 EQ map, 86–87
 EQ scoring grid for Julie, 78
 findings, 77
 literacy, 79–80
 methodology, 75–77
- Ofsted inspections and special measures, 74–75
 outcomes, 84–85
 review of literature, 70–71 testing for emotional intelligence, 71–74 values and beliefs, 82–84
- Feminist research, 140
- Field theory, 259
- General health, 84–85
- Global Leadership and Organizational Behavior Effectiveness (GLOBE), 260
- Gratitude, 185, 187–188, 240
- Grounded theory, 260
- Grup de Recerca en Orientació Psicopedagògica model, 153–154
- Happiness, 18, 30, 60, 104, 210, 216, 240
- Headteacher, 3, 30, 38, 40, 70, 74–75, 79 emotional responses, 85 in England, 76
 female, 70–71, 76
- Hesitation, 145, 223–224
- Highly complex schools, emotional management in emotional competences, 152–154 emotional leadership in, 156–157 leadership orientation, 162–164 organisation of school and service to families, 166–16 practices of emotional leadership in school, 164 professional identity, 160–161
 results, 160
 sample, 157–158
 school principal and self-management, 154–156 self-knowledge and professional formation, 164–166 social and ethical commitment, 161–162

- study, 157
- tool, 158–159
- Honesty, 5, 237, 240–241, 248, 251–252, 267
- Hurt, 37, 123, 125, 127, 185, 188–189
- Immigration and Naturalization Act (1965), 137
- Implication (emotion-evoking event), 32
- In-depth interviews, 157–158, 244, 261
- Individual orientation, 19
- Innovativeness, 20
- Institutional
  - primary task, 39–40
  - rules, 28
- Institutionalisation, 39–40
- Integrated schools, 200
- Integrity, 82–84
- Intentionality, 80–82
- Inter-coder reliability, 221–222
- International Institute for Restorative Practices approach (IIRP approach), 94–95
- Interpersonal
  - connections, 80–82, 86
  - levels, 49
  - rules, 29
- Interviews, 261
  - face-to-face, 75, 221
  - face-to-face semi-structured, 261
  - in-depth, 157–158, 244, 261
  - in Liberia, 96
- Intuition, 82–84
- Joy, 1, 4, 17, 95, 120, 134–136, 141, 152–153, 197
- Junior high school teachers in Shanghai, China
  - choices of emotion management strategies, 60–63
  - classroom teaching, 55–56
  - emotion management and professional agency, 48–50
  - findings, 54
  - literature review, 48
- methods, 52
- mixed-methods research design, 52–53
- momentary emotion management
  - vs. long-term mood regulation, 57–58
- priority work, 58–60
- professional agency studies and teacher emotion, 50–51
- professional learning community, 56–57
- survey construct and analysis, 53–54
- work settings and professional relationships, 51–52
- Kaiser-Meyer-Olkin test (KMO test), 54
- Leadership (see also Emotional leadership; Principalship), 17, 71, 92–95, 97, 136, 139, 178–179, 197, 239, 258–259, 264, 275
  - actions, 28
  - approach, 97–98
  - leadership–school culture interactions, 182–184
  - orientation, 159, 162–164
  - strategy, 148
- Learning process, 58, 63, 114, 143, 239
- Liberia, 92, 95–96, 100–101, 105
  - comparison between each of positions in SDWs in, 103
  - culture in, 104
  - demographic information about Liberian participants, 111
  - interviews in, 97
- Life events, 77–79, 83, 86
- Local phenomena, 199
- Long-term mood regulation, 3, 54, 57–58, 64
- Long-term oriented planning, 56, 60
- Masculinity, 128, 135
- Member checking, 222

- Mental health, 268
- Middle-level leader emotional intelligence, 17
- Mindfulness, 81, 269
- Ministry of Education (MOE), 96, 104, 107, 115, 180, 202
- Ministry of National Education (MoNE), 200–201
- Miserableness, 223–224, 226–228
- Mixed-methods research design, 52–53
- Modern values, 12–13
- Modernisation process, 11–12
- Modernism, 12
- Momentary emotion management, 54, 57–58
- Moods, 1, 3, 28–30, 54, 64, 80, 269
- Motivation(s), 32, 34, 50, 81, 93, 127, 199, 211, 219, 262–263 limitations, 258
 self-motivation, 156
 streams, 265
- Mukhtar*, 205
- Muslim women mobilising emotionality burdens, emotions as, 143–144 emotionally fluent, 144–145
 findings, 141
 literature review, 134–139
 methodology, 139–140
 nurturing, emotions as, 141–143 resistance, emotions as, 145–146
- National culture, 137, 259–260 emotion display rules, 190
 T&T, 188
- Native cultures, 260
- Negative beliefs, 270
- Negative-emotion expression, 15
- New principals' emotions, 177–178 affected by unfamiliar, 185–187 being wounded, 188–189
 CIT, 181
 findings, 184
 in interactions with inherited school cultures, 185
- leadership–school culture interactions, 182–184
- methods, 180–181
- professional challenges, 175–176
- safe to share, 187–188
- T&T context, 180
- T&T primary education system, 180
- T&T principals, 176–177
- theoretical framework, 177–178
- Non-cognitive model, 198
- Normative element, 39
- Ofsted inspections and special measures, 74–75
- Openness, 5, 237, 241, 248, 251–252
- Optimal performance, 77, 84–85
- Organisation(al)
 processes, 1
 research on shame in, 218–220
 routines, 35
 rules, 28
 of school and service to families, 166–167
 shame, 223–224
 socialisation, 175
- Organising in schools, 28
 emoting and affective content of social actions, 34 emotion process and legitimacy of schools as institutions, 39–40 forms of affect, 29–34 nature of affects, 29
 social defences, 35–38
- Outlook of individuals, 82–84
- Palestinian Arabs in Israel (PAI), 92, 96 demographic information about, 112
 principals, 98
- Parents, 100, 105, 121, 177, 183, 185, 189, 201, 265, 268 characteristics, 156 emotional support to, 142

- Shanghai Teachers' priority work during interactions with, 58–60
- Passion, 1, 15, 17, 135–136, 197
- Patriotic ideals, 207–209
- Peer debriefing, 221–222
- Personal level, 49 power, 82–84
 pressures and satisfactions, 77–79 routines, 35
 rules, 28
- Physiological responses, 3, 30
- Pleasant emotions, 1, 117
- Policy, 207–209
 makers, 264
- Political context, 98, 134
- Positionality, 261
- Positive-emotion expression, 15
- Post-9/11 context, 146
 of anti-Muslim sentiment, 140
- Practices of emotional leadership in school, 159, 164
- Predictability, 32, 240–241
- Primary school(ing), 51, 106, 158–159, 180, 201, 243–244
- Principal(s) (see also Leadership; Turkish principals), 17 address problems and providing advice to teachers, 247–248 care and support teacher, 246 principal–subordinate interactions, 114 principal–teacher interactions, 17 providing positive welcome to new teachers, 246 transformational behaviours, 17 value in teachers, 245–246
- Principalship, 114, 178, 184 effects of shame in, 220 school, 216, 230
- Private system, 241
- Privatisation, 242
- Professional agency, 48–51
 emotion management in professional learning community, 56–57 formation, 164–166 identity, 4–5, 159–161
 relationships, 51–52
- Projective identification, 34
- Psychoanalytic theories, 218
- Psychological changes, 3, 31, 33
 responses, 28, 30
- Public financing system, 241
- Q-Metrics, 72, 81
- Quality of life, 84–85
- Quasi-market dynamics, 241–242
- Rational decision-making process, 92
- Rationality, 93–95
- Reappraisal strategy (see also Appraisal), 199, 203, 206
- Regression, 35–36
- Regulative element, 39
- Relationship
 management, 49–50
 quotient, 84–85
- Relevance (emotion-evoking event), 32
- Relief, 1, 17, 38, 204, 206, 211
- Repentance, 223–228
- Repression, 16, 18, 36
- Resilience, 80–82, 262–263
- Resistance, 37–38, 50, 122, 139, 259, 275
 act of, 143, 145–146 emotions as, 145–146
 modes, 147
- Responsible decision making, 49–50
- Restorative affects, 222–224, 228–229
- Restorative approach to valuing emotion management decision making, 99–100 demographic information about Liberian and PAI participants, 111–112 emotional regulations, 100–102

- findings, 97
- implications for future research, 108
- leadership, emotions and rationality, 93–95
- leadership approach, 97–98
- method, 95–97
- principals' gender differences, 106–107
- restorative practices framework, 102–105
- school principals' roles, 105
- Tompkins' Affect Theory, 106
- Restorative leadership approach (RL approach), 92
- Restorative practices (RP), 92
  - framework, 94–95, 102–105
  - Social Discipline Window, 94
- Restraint, 121, 123, 126, 224
  - emotional, 16
  - temporary, 121
- Sadness, 30, 136, 160–161, 216
- Satisfaction, 1, 4, 17, 77–79, 84, 135, 152–153, 197, 210, 237, 248, 251, 253
- Scholarship, 3, 136, 139, 147
- School(s), 18–20
  - community, 141
  - culture, 177
  - leaders, 58–60, 136
  - leadership, 70, 154
  - management, 116–117
  - organisation and service to families, 166–167
  - principals, 105, 154–156
  - teachers' trust in school leaders, 244
- Self-awareness, 49–50, 93, 265, 269
- Self-conscious emotions, 216, 218, 231
- Self-control, 16, 228–229, 263, 267–268
- Self-esteem, 13, 57, 72, 219, 268
- Self-government, 125–126
- Self-knowledge, 155, 164–166
- Self-management, 49–50, 154
  - assumption of office, 156
  - control of stress, 155–156
  - self-knowledge, 155
- Self-motivation, 156
- Self-regulation, 93, 207, 263
- Semi-structured interviews, 75–76, 118–119, 201, 221, 261
- Sense-making
  - processes, 31
  - sense-making/interpretation/appraisal, 40
- Shame, 5, 216–218
  - cross-cultural studies, 231
  - data collection and data analysis, 221
  - emotional response, 224
  - emotions, 215–216
  - findings, 222
  - inter-coder reliability, 222
  - meaning, 222–224
  - member checking, 222
  - methodology, 220
  - participants, 220–221
  - peer debriefing, 222
  - questions included in semi-structured questionnaire, 236
  - research on shame in organisations, 218–220
  - restorative affects, 228–229
  - school principals, 229–230
- Shanghai Municipal Education Commission, 52
- Shanghai teachers
  - choices of emotion management strategies, 60, 63
  - emotions and emotion management strategies, 53, 55–57
  - work settings, 51–52
- Significance (emotion-evoking event), 32
- Single-case study method, 201
- Situational Theory, 92
- Social actions, 3, 28, 37
  - emoting and affective content, 34

- Social awareness, 49–50
- Social cohesion and inclusion, 166
- Social commitment, 159, 161–162
  - to community, 4–5
- Social construct, 118, 211
- Social contexts, 117–118, 134, 154, 160, 218, 240
- Social defences, 35
  - covert coalitions, 36
  - denial, 36–37
  - in management of emotion process, 38
  - personal and organisational routines, 35
  - regression, 35–36
  - repression, 36
  - resistance, 37
  - splitting and projection, 37–38
- Social Discipline Window (SDW), 94, 102
- Social justice, 4–5, 157, 162, 167
  - advocacy, 136
  - leadership, 18
- Social phenomena, 140, 199
- Social responses, 3, 28–31, 33
- Social skills, 93, 152, 154, 156, 167
- Societies, 2–3, 92, 217, 220
  - Arab, 20
  - collectivist transitional, 91
  - individualistic, 19
  - traditional, 11–13, 21, 115–116
- Sociocultural context of research, 117–118
- Special measures, 70, 74–75, 84
- Splitting and projection, 37–38
- Stress control, 155–156
- Students
  - and leadership, 136
  - long-term achievement, 56, 60
  - Shanghai teachers' priority work during interactions, 58–61
- Suppression, 2–3, 15–16, 21, 114, 117–120, 123, 126, 179, 190, 199, 203
- Surprise, 30, 185–186
- Sympathy, 57, 63
- Syrian Civil War, 196
- Syrian Refugees, Turkish experience with, 200
- Teacher(s), 19, 115–116, 136, 238
  - emotion management, 48–50
  - emotional labour, 48
  - social emotional competence model, 49–50
  - teacher–leader interaction, 52
  - teacher–students relationships, 16
  - teacher–teacher interaction, 52
- Teachers' trust, 237–241
  - associated teacher's emotions, 248, 250
  - Chilean educational context and characteristics, 241–242
  - in colleagues, 248
  - initial welcome and support for new teachers, 248–249
  - literature review, 238
  - methodology, 243–244
  - personal well-being of colleagues, 250–251
  - principals address problems and providing advice to teachers, 247–248
  - principals care and support teacher, 246
  - principals providing positive welcome to new teachers, 246
  - principals value, 245–246
  - providing support, advice and help to teachers, 249
  - results, 244
  - safeguard information, 250
  - in school leaders, 244
  - transparent and direct, 249–250
- Temporary education centers (TECs), 200–201
- Tompkins' Affect Theory, 106
- Traditional societies, 2, 11, 18
- Traditional values, 12–13, 20
- Traditionalism, 12
- Transference, 36

- Transgression, 39, 217, 231
- Trinidad and Tobago principals (T&T principals), 176–177
 context, 180
 primary education system, 180
- Triune of consciousness, 29
- Trust (see also Teachers' trust), 17, 237–238 as dynamic phenomenon, 239–240 and emotions, 240–241 radius, 82–84
 in school context, 238–239
 in teachers, 245–246
- Turkish education system, 196
- Turkish principals, 215
 cross-cultural studies, 231
 findings, 222–229
 methodology, 220–222
 questions in semi-structured questionnaire, 236
 research on shame in organisations, 218–220
 school principals, 229–230
 shame, 216–218
- Turkish school leader in Syrian Refugee School (see also Female school leader and emotional management) emotions, faith and culture, 203–207 emotions and school leadership, 197–200 emotions at beginning, 202–203
 findings, 202
 methodology, 201–202
 policy, patriotic ideals and EL, 207–209
- Uniqueness of context, 199
- Volition, 29, 33, 262
- West African Senior Secondary School Certificate Examination (WASSSCE), 96
- Willpower, 6, 258–259, 262–263, 268–269 adapting principles or values to behaviour, 273–274 adverse effect in person's life, 270–271 changing behaviour according to principles or values, 272–273 and culture, 259–260 dealing with negative thoughts, 269–270
 development, 269
 factor affecting work, 263–264
 findings, 262
 indispensable, 264–265 influencing personality, 265–267 in job, 267–268
 positionality, 261
 rating, 272 research design, 260–261
 sample, 261
- Women
 leading American Islamic schools, 138–143, 146
 principals, 116
- Work pressures and satisfactions, 77–79
- Wounding, 5, 180, 188–190