Index

Advertising, 59, 62, 66, 106–108, 132
Ageism, 95, 162–163
Agility, 73
Analysis, 137, 157
Androids, 64–66
Artificial intelligence (AI) (see also Organisational implications), 1–2, 10–11, 45, 57, 75, 95, 99, 108, 122–123, 129, 131, 143, 164
  AI–AI interactions or communications, 61–62
  androids, auto-updates and model changes, 64–66 communication and information, 66–68
  creativity, 62–64
  and human interactions, 58–61
  and organisation, 11–14
  organisational improvements, 72–73
  organisational structures with, 69–70 platform, 81
  revolution, 57–58
  service and maintenance, 70–71
  version controls and advancement, 71–72
  workplace standards and collective bargaining, 68–69
Assessment tools for culture, 163
Attitude changes, 53–54
Auto-updates, 64–66

Blockchain technology, 39–40
Brazilian project manager research, 110
Brexit, 23–26, 123, 164
  vote in UK parliament, 118
Business
  moral dilemmas, 160
  performance, 127
Business-to-business (B2B), 141
  interactions, 61–62
  relationships, 45
Business-to-customer (B2C), 62

Carbon certificates, taxes and trading, 43
Catalonia, 26–26
Catastrophic system failures of GFC or Asian crisis, 160
Change, 3–4, 136
Chief Information Office (CIO), 45–46
China
  disruption, 32–34
  supporting emerging power sources, 44
Climate change, 41–42, 119
  power alternatives and associated costs, 44–45
  property and staff, 44
  resource management, 42–43
Climate disruption, 44, 119
Cohesion and integration, 50–51
Collective bargaining, 68–69
Communication, 66–68, 77, 79, 85–86, 108–109, 136, 141
  CRT, 82
  disruption, 48–50, 51
  processes, 80
  sessions, 84
  style table, 83
Communication regularity table (CRT), 82
Community, 158
Competitive advantage, 67, 101
Computing power, 10–11, 14, 57, 59, 67
Confidentiality, 87
Confirmatory factor analysis (CFA), 151

Control, 137
organisational, 51, 94
risk management and, 116–120
Corporate image, 60, 159
Corporate social responsibility (CSR), 158–159
Creativity, 157, 166
in data analysis and sourcing, 123 Critical thinking, 2–3, 15, 157, 160, 165
on disruption, 22
Critical thought, 166
Cronbach's alpha scores, 148
Cross-cultural mixes, 50
Cryptocurrencies, 39–40
Cultural/culture, 79, 88
change, 161–163
value differences, 50
Currency (see also Cryptocurrencies)
disruption, 41
risk, 40–41
Current risk registers, 152–153
Customer service, 140–141

Data, 67
disruption, 51–52
integrity, 123
Decision makers, 16
Decision making, 128, 137
skills of management, 106
Defensiveness, trade and, 36–37
Delegation, 110
Diesel disruption, 31
Direct communication, 77
Direction (leadership quality), 79
Disruption (see also Organisational impacts from disruption), 1, 3–6, 88, 95, 108, 129, 131, 164 avoidance of, 21
effects, 159
events, 118
importance, 7–10
for instance, 133
pandemic, 10–11
register, 152–158
Disruption event monitoring table (DEMT), 153–156
Documentation, 137
Driverless cars, 58
Driverless vehicles, 58
Drones, 12–13, 122
Dynamic market instability, 131

Early adoption, 102
risk, 66
Emerging currencies, 39–40
Emotional intelligence, 136
Employee
creativeness, 135
resistance, 144
Employee change, 52–53
attitude changes and generational imbalances, 53–54 knowledge and skills changes, 53
work-life balance changes, 54–55
Engagement, 77, 79, 84
Enterprise resource programmes (ERP), 46, 66
Entrepreneurs, 128
Ethics, 79, 159–161
European Community disruption, 30–32
European Union (EU), 23–25
Exploratory factor analysis (EFA), 148 component matrix, 149
KMO and Bartlett's test, 150
leadership, 151–152

Facebook, 67
Factor correlation matrix, 150
Feedback loops, 108–109
Financial market change, 37–38
Flexibility, 60, 133, 166
Ford motor company, 15–16
Formalised structures, 127
France disruption, 30–32

Gap analysis, 81–82
Generational imbalances, 53–54
Geopolitical changes, 35–36, 38
German disruption, 30–32

Global financial crisis (GFC), 23, 159 catastrophic system failures, 160 monetary change and, 38–41
Global organisations, organisational change in, 47–51
Global political change, 23
  China, Russia and North Korea disruption, 32–34
  Germany, France and European Community disruption, 30–32
  Iran, Iraq, Syria and Turkey disruption, 34–36
  trade and defensiveness, 36–37
  Trump disruption, 26–30
  UK and Brexit, 23–26
Global positioning system (GPS), 12, 57
Globalisation, 1, 15, 98, 157, 164
Governance, 65–66, 159–161
Governance protocols, 59
Government policy, 7, 42

Human interactions, 58–61
Human resource management (HRM), 113–115, 139–140

IBM®, 9
Improvement processes, 111
Independent review of risk, 120
Industrial Revolution, 15, 58
Industrialisation and invention, 3
Inflexible organisations, 55
Influence (leadership quality), 79
Informal or verbal decisions, 128
Information, 49, 66–68
  flow in new age, 37
  gaps, 80
Information technology (IT), 45 resources or skills, 68
Innovation, 89–91, 166
Insurers, 88
Integration
  cohesion and, 50–51
  risk and complexity, 47
Intellectual property (IP), 52
Interconnectivity of globalised trade, 29
International organisations, 127
Internet, 6, 12
Investigative journalist, 128
Iran disruption, 34–36
Iraq disruption, 34–36

Key performance indicators (KPI), 59, 109, 111
Knowledge, 135
  changes, 53
  mobility, 51–52
Kodak®, 9

Leadership (see also Organisation management), 2, 76, 85, 121, 134, 143, 151–152, 161–162 ambitions, 78
  communication, 80–86
  engagement, 135
  function, 77
  fundamentals, 75–80
  innovation, 89–91
  innovation assessment tool, 90
  in new age, 163–166
  new age pressures, 91–92
  organisational, 164
  positions, 158–159
  transformational leadership, 91
  trust, 86–89, 165
Leadership qualities assessment table (LQAT), 78–79
LEAN, 107
Long-term strategy, 125

Management, 2, 14–15, 76, 121, 125, 127, 134–135, 143, 151, 158
  in new age, 163–166
  political skills, 94
  structures, strategy and processes, 17–18 styles, 94
  task alignment, 93–94

Market, 38–41
disruption, 37, 39
dynamics, 131–133
management, 104–108
Matrix structure organisations, 127
Mentoring programmes, 78
Middle East disruption, 34–36
Mobile phones, 11
Model changes, 64–66
Modern organisations, 89
Monetary change and GFC, 38–41
Moore's law, 67

Net present value (NPV), 65
New age pressures on leadership, 91–92 proposed strategy process, 99–100
technology, 73
New age function (NAF), 130
New age stakeholder assessment table (NSAT), 104–105
New age strategy assessment tool (NASAT), 123
for AI/robotic, 124
New idea generation function (NIGF), 112–113
North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), 28
North Korean disruption, 32–34
Nvivo10, 144–146

Openness, 76, 103, 125, 136, 165–166
Operational cycle, 109
Operational management, 111
Operations and project management, 108–112
Organisation management (see also Leadership), 93
fundamentals, 93–95
HRM, 113–115
market management, 104–108
operations and project management, 108–112
risk management and control, 116–120
stakeholder management, 102–104
strategic management, 95–102
Organisation(al), 22–23
AI and, 11–14
culture, 60, 88
delegations, 128
effectiveness and survival, 58
of future, 129
improvements, 72–73
investment, 7, 17
knowledge, 52
leadership, 162, 164
performances, 77–78
processes and culture, 60
resistance, 86
size, 116
survival, 14–18, 144
value and reputation, 106
Organisational change, 2, 3, 6, 15–16, 76, 143, 162
cohesion and integration, 50–51
communication, 48–50
cross-cultural mixes, 50
CSR, 158–159
cultural change, 161–163
disruption register, 152–158
EFA component matrix, 149
factor correlation matrix, 150
factor research, 143–152
in global organisations, 47–48
governance and ethics, 159–161 independence test–management association, 148
leadership and management in new age, 163–166 negative change factors frequency table, 145 positive and negative interview references, 146 positive change factors frequency table, 145 survey data Cronbach's alpha–post-optimisation, 148
word similarity clusters, 147
Organisational control, 94
wiki and impacts on, 51

Organisational impacts from disruption (see also Disruption)
climate change, 41–45
employee change, 52–55
financial market change, 37–38
global political change, 23–37
knowledge mobility, 51–52
monetary change and GFC, 38–41
organisational change in global organisations, 47–51
technological change, 45–47
Wiki and impacts on organisational control, 51
Organisational implications (see also Artificial intelligence (AI)), 121
customer service, 140–141
market dynamics, 131–133
staff requirements, 133–140
strategy, 121–126
structures and processes, 127–130
Organisational structure, 111, 127
with AI, 69–70
Outsourcing, 50, 59

Pandemic disruption, 10–11
Paris Agreement, 42–43, 45
Personality, 76
Policy, 110
government, 7, 42
uncertainty on climate change, 42–43
Politics, 152
Positive perceptions of change and leadership, 166
Postal services, 5
Power alternatives and associated costs, 44–45
Predictable disruption factors, 4
Prices, 38–41
Process map, 108
Product or organisational marketing, 107
Programmable logic controller (PLC), 70
Project governance, 159
Project Management Offices (PMO), 116, 159
Property and staff, 44

Redundancy, 65
Research and Development (R&D), 123
Resistance to change (RTC), 144
co-existence and interrelationships, 151
Resource management, 42–43
Respect, 79
Restrictions to credit, 37
Risk, 116, 119, 132–133
assessment bias, 116
assessment in new age, 66
evaluation, 96
management and control, 116–120
mitigation, 151
register preparation, 153
registers, 117–118, 120
Robots, 12, 63, 71, 122, 164
Russian disruption, 32–34

Scams, 45–46
Senior management, 66, 120, 130, 165
Sense-giving, 79
Service and maintenance, 70–71
Simple language, short form no graph communication style, 83
Skill-based teams, 157
Skills, 136
changes, 53
decision-making, 2, 106
political, 94
Skills assessment tool for new age tool (SATNA tool), 137–140 high-impact change role, 139
low-impact change role, 138
Small-to medium-sized organisations, 68
Smartphones, 46–47, 57, 59
Social media, 58–59, 98
Societal change, 15–16

Society, 103, 158, 161
Speed to market, 63
Staff, 80–81
  connection and engagement, 78 considerations for new age, 136 individual change skills table, 137 property and, 44
  requirements, 133–140
  roles descriptions, 110
Stakeholders, 8, 14, 65–66, 80, 88–89, 91, 96, 100, 120, 123, 153 diversity, 81
  management, 102–104
  performance expectations, 127 support, 125
Strategic management, 95
  technique checklist, 97
Strategy, 121–126
  development, 96
  plans, 96
Strategy iterative gate process (SIGP), 126
Strengths weaknesses opportunities and threats (SWOT), 133 Support (leadership quality), 79
Syrian disruption, 34–36

Technically superior staff, 134
Technological change (see also Organisational change in global organisations), 45
  scams, 45–46
  smartphones and technology, 46–47
  technological integration and ease, 47
Technology, 59, 98
  adoption or disruption, 81
  change, 12
  integration and ease, 47
  organisations, 140, 159
  smartphones and, 46–47
Tolerance, 54
Trade
  and defensiveness, 36–37
  requirements, 70–71
  wars, 27–28, 33, 118, 164
Traditional governance structures and processes, 159
Traditional iterative improvement process, 112
Traditional organisations, 89
Training, 60, 136
Trans-pacific partnership (TPP), 29
Transactional leader, 91
Transformational leadership, 91
Trump disruption, 26–31
Trust, 14, 79, 84, 86–89, 125, 136
  in leadership, 165
  trusted market models, 133
Turkey disruption, 34–36

Uber-type organisations, 122
Uncertainty, 116, 132–133, 137
Unethical organisational behaviours, 77
United Kingdom (UK), 23–26
United Nations Paris Agreement (2015) (see Paris Agreement)
United States (US) policies in renewable sector, 44–45
Universal serial bus (USB), 6
Unpredictability of disruption, 38

Verification, 157
Version controls and advancement, 71–72
Voice recognition forms, 58

Word similarity clusters, 147
Work-life balance changes, 54–55
Workload, 151–152
Workplace games, 60
  standards, 68–69