

Index

Note: Page numbers followed by “n” with numbers indicate footnotes.

- Academic psychology, 12
- Acid Bath albums, 104
- Actively planning, 101
- ‘Angry metal’ bands, 85–86, 88
- Aspirations (see also Heavy metal dreams), 14–18, 20, 26–27, 92, 97, 141–142, 171, 172
 - back-up plan, 115, 116
 - flexible versus fixed, 99, 118
 - metal-inspired, 144, 169
 - metal-related, 103–104
 - plan B, 100, 101, 113–115
 - reality checking and re-authoring aspirations for success, 141–142
 - subjectively perceived futures, 15
- Authenticity, 93–95
- Becoming metal, 18, 24, 27, 29, 50, 52, 66, 68, 72, 80, 97, 166, 167–168
- Bedroom metallers, 77–80
- Black metal, 79, 83–84, 86–88, 91–94, 96, 110–111, 123, 128
- Black metallers, 79, 81, 84, 87, 93, 103, 128
- Bloodstock festival (UK), 103
- Bullying
 - coping with, 38, 41, 65
 - intervention strategies, 67–68, 172
 - and social vulnerability, 50–51, 55–58, 65
- Causality, 10
- Centrelink, 89n8
- Circle pit, 76n1
- Class, 81–82 (see also Socio-economic status [SES])
- Confidence, 139–141
- Conservative detractors, 8
- Consumerism, 94
- Corpse paint, 79, 79n5, 91
- Daddy* (song), 35
- Damaged stereotypes, 67
- Days Turn Blue to Gray* (song), 36
- Death Cult Armageddon* (album), 88
- Deathcore/metalcore bands, 83
- Devil Driver* (Fafara), 76
- Devil Worship: Exposing Satan’s Underground* (documentary), 10
- Digital media, 78
- Dimmu Borgir (album), 83, 86, 88, 91
- ‘Do-it-yourself’ biographies (DIY biographies), 42
- Domination* (song), 41
- Economic factors, 95, 112, 134
- Emotions/emotional, 51, 72
 - pain, 52
 - wellbeing, 39
- Empowerment
 - self-empowerment, 50, 168
 - and wellbeing, 67
- Escapism, 112
- Families, key messages for, 161–162
- Fear mongering, 12
- Fleshies, 87n7
- Flexible Learning Options (FLO), 124–125
- Global Financial Crisis (GFC), 131
- Global metal community, 71, 167
- Globalisation of metal, 93

- Goth subculture, 20
- Hammer Smashed Face* (song), 38
- Headbanger's Ball*, 2
- Heavy metal dreams, 99–102, 138, 169–170
- David case study, 115–118
 - metal-related travel, 103–113
 - playing and plan B, 113
 - thematic differences of Zack and David case study, 118
 - Zack case study, 113–115
- Heavy metal music, 7
- Heavy Metal Parking Lot* (Krulik and Heyn), 77
- Heavy Metal: The Music and its Culture* (Weinstein), 8
- Hellfest metal festival (France), 103, 104, 125
- Household costs, 44
- Human service organisations, 159
- Identity formations
- collective identities, 65, 75–76
 - reframing outsider status, 71
 - structuring of school-based identities, 54–58
 - individualisation of, 22, 43, 44, 76, 169
 - chosen identities, 23, 49, 53, 58, 60, 63–64, 66–68, 142, 158, 166, 168
 - unchosen identities, 23, 49, 53, 61, 65, 66–68, 166
- Individualism, 94
- and women, 43–45
 - black metallers espousing, 93
 - embedded in metal lyrics, 44
 - globalised metal use, 168
 - masculine, 43
 - metal narratives of broken self, 36, 37
 - metal work ethic and, 41–43
- Insider research, 5, 19–21
- Intangible family support, 120, 122
- Kerrang!* magazine, 35
- Key learnings in practical frame, 158
- key messages for families, 161–162
 - key messages for practitioners, 162–164
 - principles of subculturally competent child and youth practice, 164
- Lamb of God* (Blythe), 76
- Listening to metal, 31
- checking in with the broken self, 32–37
 - galvanising the dominant self, 37–43
 - 'metal is my drug', 45–48
 - power of music, power of words, 31–32
 - stress release (mind/body), 32
- Maryland Dethfest (United States), 103
- Mental health and wellbeing (see also Psychosocial wellbeing), 67, 96, 118, 133–134, 138, 158, 167, 171
- Metal, 45–48, 112, 155, 165
- lyrics, 8–9, 17, 31–32, 35–39, 41, 44, 62, 65, 165
 - mentors, 157
 - music, 46
 - musicians, 102, 112
 - preferences, 15
 - scholars, 18
 - as strategy for political transformation, 66–68
 - subculture, 63, 67, 165–167
 - work ethic, 41–43
- Metal community
- achieving metal community membership, 75
 - establishing proof of eligibility, 76–77
 - face-to-face communities, 80, 122
 - global, 71, 167
 - imagined community, 71
- Metal community life, 77–80, 119, 138, 142

- meaningful participation in, 122, 122, 134, 138
- Metal identity
 - early embodiment of, 26, 29, 59, 71, 75, 167–168
 - going to public with, 59–65
 - formations, 22, 24, 26, 38, 66, 68, 69, 80–82, 95, 145, 166, 169, 171
- Metal media
 - online media, 76, 83, 84
 - patterns of consumption, 87–93
 - watching music videos, 11
- Metal subgenres, 23
 - affiliations with, 81
 - constructing authenticity and choice, 93–95
 - constructing the ‘Other’, 84–87
 - patterns of access, consumption, and participation in, 87–93
- Metal youth, 7, 158–159, 166
 - constructions, 71
 - parents of, 144–145
 - previous studies, 12–14
 - research ‘problem’, 18–19
 - social disapproval of metal, 8–12
 - transitions and aspirations, 14–18
- Metal-inspired aspirations, 144
- Metal-related travel, 103
 - Alex case study, 104–107
 - differences in ability to achieve travel plans, 110–113
 - international events, 103–104
 - Stevo case study, 107–110
- Metal: A Headbanger’s Journey* (documentary), 76
- Metalheads* (Arnett), 13, 99
- Moral panics, 11
- Moral superiority, 38–41
- Music Metal and Politics* conference, 18
- Music-related careers, 102
- Musical preferences, 17
 - Non-adaptive parenting, 147–151
 - Non-adaptive siblings, 155–156
 - Non-metal genres of music, 84
 - Non-metal youth, 159–160
- Online participation, 78
- Open-air music festivals, 103
- Outsiders/outsider status, 11, 29, 40, 58, 60, 63, 67, 71, 139
 - as researchers, 20, 26
 - biographic reauthoring of, 166
 - celebration of, 67
 - in school environments, 16, 37, 50–51, 53, 66
 - Rob Zombie on, 37
- Parenting analysis applied to siblings, 154
 - adaptive siblings, 156–157
 - family contexts, 157–158
 - non-adaptive siblings, 155–156
 - reactive siblings, 156
- Parenting typology, 146
 - adaptive parenting, 153
 - dominant parenting responses, 147
 - no parenting, 154
 - non-adaptive parenting, 147–151
 - reactive parenting, 151–153
- Parents, 143
 - of metal youth, 144–145
 - parental attitudes to metal in present study, 145–146
 - and tangible support, 134–138
 - and intangible support, 143–146
- Parents Music Resource Center (PMRC), 8
- Peers
 - metal, 112, 122, 128, 135, 140, 167, 171
 - non-metal, 39, 59, 74, 96, 139, 171
- Power relations at school, 50
 - action, 52–53
 - experience, 50–51
 - feeling, 51–52
- Psychosocial wellbeing, 22

- holistic wellbeing, 118
- mental health, 133–134
- social protection, 49, 65, 71, 80, 165, 167
- status and confidence, 139–141
- Qualitative research using narrative methods, 23
- Rage*, 2
- Rave Off! Politics and Deviance in Contemporary Youth Culture* (Redhead), 6
- Reality checking and re-authoring aspirations for success, 141–142
- Reflexivity, 22
- Relationships
 - familial, 82, 146, 169
 - school-based (see also Peers), 49, 53, 54–58, 166
 - social, 139
- Research design and methods, 23
 - data collection, 25
 - data management and analysis, 26–27
 - ethics, 25
 - field observations, field notes and general communication, 25
 - interviews, 26
 - sample and recruiting, 23–24
- Resilience, 66
- Resistance
 - as resilience, 66
 - as self-empowerment, 50, 168
- Road testing, reality checking and re-authoring aspirations for success, 141–142
- ‘Rock star’, 141
- Rockers, 2
- Satanic Bible*, 65
- Satanic Panic, 11
- Scapegoating, 11
- Schooling, 51
 - and career planning support, 153, 160
 - dominant peer groups, 50, 54
 - marginal school-based identities, 49, 166
 - schoolteachers, 157
- Self-belief, 154
- Self-esteem, 15, 17, 41, 50, 95–96, 154
- Self-worth, 154
- Siblings, 155
- ‘Signing up’ for metal, 165–167
- Social disapproval of metal, 8–12
- Social-crisis phenomena in late modernity, 42
- Socio-economic status (SES)
 - lower, 81, 82–83, 93
 - higher, 82, 83–84, 95
 - middle, 81–82, 83, 93
- Socio Economic Index for Areas (SEIFA), 82
 - (un)defining class, 81–82
- Sopranos, The* (Prime-time television drama), 11
- Soundwave festival (Australia), 91
- Status and confidence, 139–141
- Stereotyping of metalheads, 11
- Subcultural/subculture, 5n2
 - affiliations, 7, 49–50
 - and political transformation, 67–68
 - as a tool for skill development, 160–161
 - principles of subculturally competent child and youth practice, 164
 - youth, 163
- Suicide Solution* (song), 8, 9
- Surfies, 2
- Technical and Further Education (TAFE), 4n1
- Thrash metallers, 103
- Transitions/social transitions (see Youth Transitions)
- Video games/gaming, 11, 12, 38, 39, 61, 111, 131, 167
- Vocational pathway, 123

- Wacken Open Air* festival (Germany),
103, 111
- 'Wall of death' (moshing practice),
76n1
- West Memphis Three*, 10
- Youth studies
 - divisions between cultural and transitions perspectives, 6-7
- Youth transitions, 5-6, 14, 23, 97, 146,
154, 157, 169
 - and complex decision making, 6
 - default, 119-122, 127-134
 - developmental, 119-127
 - empowered, 110, 139
 - in contemporary contexts, 6, 133
 - individualisation of, 22, 169
 - post-school, 26