

INDEX

- Absent manager, 105
- Acceptance testing, 13
- Access, 79, 83
- Accessibility, 120
- Accidental manager, 106
- Accuracy, 35, 120
- Africa, CSD problem in, 1–4
- African management matrix (AMM), 5, 105
- Analytical progressive filtering, 52–55
- Attribute level reports, 58, 60, 75, 78
 - banking sector report, 78–80
 - insurance sector report, 60–62
 - see also* Item level reports
- Attribute(s), 21–23, 38
 - building survey instrument and, 69–70, 90–91
 - and definitions, 34–36
 - ratings, 51
 - of service quality, 10
 - service quality attributes in Namibian study, 71
- Bank sector summary report, 84, 85
- Banking sector report, 78–80
- Banking service, complexity in, 39
- Benchmark measure, 44
- ratings, 51
- Billing system, 27
- Bucket toilet system, 10
- Building society (BS), 86
- Business alignment, 35, 120
- environment, 7–8
- Co-creation process, 97
- Communication, 54
- Competence, 35, 45, 62, 120
 - of staff, 21
- Complexity, 35, 38–39, 120
- Construing process, 37
- Consumer-driven concerns, 68
- Continual interpretation process, 37

- Control, 35
 - operational, 121
 - process, 121
- Conventional research in
 - customer service, 95–96
- Correlation analysis, 33
- Correlation coefficient (Corr column), 54
- Courtesy, 62
- Credibility, 45, 62
- Customer service, 102
 - experience, 97
 - gap, 3
 - ‘West’, 1–2
- Customer service delivery (CSD), 1, 2, 95
 - CSD problem in Africa, 1–4
 - customer service
 - delivery planned, 100–102
 - enterprise-thinking managers, 106–107
 - management challenge, 102–106
 - planning, 100–102
 - SEM, 95–100
 - VMSQ, 4–5
- Customer Service Management (CSM), 3–4
- Customer Service Management Africa (CSMA), 3
- Customer(s), 110–111
 - attitude and behaviour, 96–97
 - customer-driven
 - concerns, 68
 - expectations of service, 10
 - experience, 2
 - knowledge, 79, 83
 - retention, 2
 - satisfaction, 2
- Cut-off point for KSAs, 62
- Data analysis, 74–75, 92
 - analytical progressive filtering, 52–55
 - data coding, 51
- Data collection, 70, 72–74, 91–92
 - benchmark rating scale, 48–50
 - performance rating scale, 47
 - progressive filtering, 43–45
 - rating scale for responsiveness, 46
 - sampling, 50
 - stage, 51
 - VMSQ process stages, 41–42
- Deliverable* dimension, 101
- Design, 12
 - operationalisation of, 12
 - service management intervention, 14
 - technical design, 13
- Direction, 35, 120
- Documentation, 35, 121

- Effectiveness, 33, 34, 35, 121
- Elicitation procedure, 27–30
- Emerging managers, 106
- Employment creation, 3
- Enterprise-thinking managers, 106–107
- European Journal of Marketing*, 4
- Extractive industries, 7
- Factor analysis, 18
- Finance, 104
- Fixed-length questionnaire, 43
- Flexibility, 121
- FNB Bank, reporting at item level for, 81–82
- Frequency, 33
 - of responses by industry, 59, 76
- Friendliness, 35, 121
- Front office, 35, 121
- Gap Model, 8–9
- Government of Republic of Namibia, 67–68
- Heterogeneity, 16, 34, 43
- Higher Education Institution (HEI), 21, 22
- Home affairs services, 86
 - sector summary report, 89
- Implementation quality, 30, 31
- Industry
 - frequency of responses by, 59, 76
 - sector, 58, 75
- Information, 101
- Information Systems Manager, 94
- Information systems service
 - management, 25
 - questionnaire, 120–128
- Insurance sector
 - report, 59, 60–62
 - service items–recovery, 63
- Integration, 36, 121
 - testing, 13–14
- Internal information systems service in international BS, 86, 90
 - building survey instrument and attributes, 90–91
 - data analysis, 92
 - data collection process, 91–92
 - execution of study, 90
 - reporting of results, 92–94
- International Bank Information Systems Service, 93
- International competitiveness, 3
- Involvement, 122
- Item, 21–23

- Item level reports, 58, 63, 75, 80–84
 - recovery attribute and items, 63–66
 - see also* Attribute level reports
- Kelly's triadic method, 27
- Key service attributes (KSAs), 52–53, 58, 77, 92
- Knowledge manager, 105
- Legacies of apartheid era, 67
- Management challenge, 102
 - management competencies, 103–104
 - management practices, 104–106
- Management
 - competencies, 103
- Marketing, 36, 121
- Multi-sector study in Namibia, 67–69
 - attribute level reports, 78–80
 - building survey instrument and attributes, 69–70, 71
 - data analysis, 74–75
 - data collection process, 70, 72–74
 - execution, 69
 - internal information systems service in international BS, 86, 90–94
 - item level reports, 80–84
 - report summaries, 84–86, 87, 88, 89
 - reporting of results, 75–76
 - service level reports, 76–78
- Municipal services, 86–87
- Namibian Statistics Agency (NSA), 70, 72
- Necessity, 36, 121
- Needs analysis, 13
- Online survey process, 91–92
- Operational control, 121
- Operationalisation, 23–26
 - of design, 12
 - stage, 18
- Overall performance by service or industry, 60, 76–78
- Parasuraman, Berry and Zeithaml SERVQUAL model (PBZ SERVQUAL model), 23
 - attributes, 41
 - model, 25
- Past experience, 38
- Pearson's correlation analysis, 52, 74
- Personal construct theory (PCT), 23, 26, 37–38
- Poor management competencies, 103

- Poor management practice, 103
- Principal component analysis (PCA), 33, 34
- Process control, 121
- Product or service, 103
- Progressive businesses, 2
- Progressive filtering, 11, 16, 17, 43–45, 57
- Project initiation stage, 13
- Public sampling unit (PSU), 70, 72
- Public services or customers, 68
- Quality process, 111
- Recovery, 45, 62, 70
 - attribute and items, 63–66
- Reduction, 34
- Reliability, 36, 45, 62, 122
- Repertory grid technique (RepGrid technique), 22, 26, 27, 31, 37–38, 91
- Reporting, 36, 122
 - attribute level reports, 60–62
 - item level reports, 63–66
 - levels, 57
 - service level reports, 59–60
- Responsiveness, 36, 45, 62, 122
 - rating scale for, 46
- Road map for busy managers, 109–112
- Sampling, 50
- Self-service environment, 96
- Service, 1, 21
 - deliverable, 97
 - delivery, 102
 - encounter drives quality, 95–96
 - encounters, 38
 - engagement, 97
 - exchange, 100
 - items, 21–23
 - managers, 84
 - organisation, 97
 - providers, 2
- Service attributes, 44
 - attributes and definitions, 34–36
 - complexity, 38–39
 - elicitation procedure, 27–30
 - and items, 21–23, 111
 - nature of intervention, 23–26
 - PCT, 37–38
 - reduction and synthesis, 31–34
 - RepGrid in interviews, 26
 - statistical analysis, 30–31
 - validation, 37
- Service exchange model (SEM), 4, 95–100
- Service level reports, 58, 59–60, 75, 76
 - frequency of responses by industry, 76
 - overall performance by service or industry, 76–78

- Service management, 39
 - intervention design, 14
- Service quality, 95
 - attributes, 43, 71
 - model, 8
- Service quality
 - measurement, 11, 111
 - approaches, 15
 - tool, 21, 22
- 'Servitude', 2
- SERVQUAL model, 4, 8, 11, 15, 18
- Seven-point Likert scale, 43–44, 45
- Social change, 3
- Software development
 - waterfall model, 12
- Southern African
 - Development
 - Community (SADC), 3
- Specification, 36, 122
- SPSS software tool, 51
- Stakeholders, 57, 70
- Statistical analysis/
 - techniques, 17, 30–31
- Supermarket services, 86
 - summary report, 88
- System handover stage, 13
- Systems development,
 - V-Model of, 12–14
- Systems Service Quality Model, 25
- Technical design, 13
- 10 PBZ attributes, 70
- Theory building approach, 18, 23–26
- Time, 101
- Timeliness, 30, 31
- Training, 36, 122
- Triadic method, 38
- Understanding, 36, 122
- Upkeep, 36, 122
- User, 122
 - involvement, 36
- V-model of service quality (VMSQ), 4–5, 7, 15, 95, 109
 - academic response, 8–9
 - applied to Namibian study, 73
 - business environment, 7–8
 - deployment, 18
 - features, 16–18
 - idea, 14–16
 - levels of concern, 11–12
 - needs for new model, 10–11
 - questionnaire, 118–119
 - stages, 19
 - of systems development, 12–14
- Validation, 37
- Value attribute, 101