

INDEX

Note: Page numbers followed by “n” with numbers indicate notes.

- Bildungsbegriff*, 8
- Boundary objects, 51, 90–91
- Brokerage, 54–57, 96
 - providing ‘how to’ support, 47–48, 68–69
 - school-level brokerage, 28
 - time for, 75
 - to whole school, 26–29
 - within-school
 - Professional Learning Communities, 48–50
- Case study approach, 15
- ‘Cause and effect’ relationship, 53
- Coding structure/
 - frame, 18
 - of interviews, 18–20
 - from second set of interviews, 34–36
- Collective responsibility
 - for student learning, 92
- Continuing Professional Development (CPD), 29ⁿ³
- Deprivatisation of practice, 92–93
- “Developing, through consultation, common purpose” concept, 96
- Distributed pedagogic leadership, 67
- Education(al), 8
 - leadership programmes, 97
 - systems, 1
- Enquiry-related practices, 24–25
- Experience and external knowledge/theory, 93–94

- Flybjerg, 94
- Formal meetings, 42, 75, 84
- Formalisation, 79, 81–90, 95
 - PLN activity as priority, 23–24
 - RLN activity, 34, 36–40, 72, 74
- How to support* approach, 68–69
- IN-Service Training day (INSET day), 29n1
- Individual schools, actions undertaken by, 53, 55–65
 - examining problems of practice and learning, 72–74
 - formalising participant's engagement in RLN, 67–69
 - participant's performance and time commitment, 70–72
 - RLN process, 53–54, 66–67
 - strong on formalising RLN, 74–75
 - used whole process, 69–70
- Informal catch-up sessions, 42
- Informal professional discourse, 75
- Informing non-RLN staff, 34, 44–47
- Instructional leadership, 18
- Interactive communication, 90–91
- Interpretation process, 18
- Interviews, 31
 - coding structure, 18–20
 - coding structure from second set of interviews, 34–36
 - findings from first set of interviews, 21
- Keeping participating staff on track, 34, 40–42
- Knowledge
 - creation, 12, 93
 - mobilisation, 89, 91–95
 - networks, 96
- Knowledge brokerage, 47, 66
 - codes, 50–51
 - to support 'how to'/bespoke support approaches, 90–91
- Leadership, 5
 - activity, 17
 - approach, 67
 - characteristics, 17–18
 - distributed pedagogic, 67
 - effective, 17
 - instructional, 18
 - pedagogic, 18
 - role in PLNs, 5–7
 - transformational aspects of, 18
- Learning
 - conversations, 93

- networks, 2–3, 5
 - and practice
 - development, 79
- Macrolevel codes, 34, 36
- Meta-analysis, 8
- Mobilisation, 79, 81–91,
 - 95, 98*n*1
 - knowledge, 91–95
 - of PLN, 7
 - RLN activity, 11–12
- Mutual learning, 12
- Networks, 77
- New Forest Research
 - Learning Network,
 - 9, 13–14
 - brokerage to whole
 - school, 26–29
 - case study approach, 15
 - characteristics of
 - effective leadership,
 - 17–18
 - coding structure, 18–20
 - findings from first set of
 - interviews, 21
 - interviews, 16–17
 - maintaining focus on
 - PLN activity once
 - back in school,
 - 21–24
 - providing resource
 - to support
 - engagement, 24–26
- Non-RLN staff, 66–67
- Opinion Former, 10, 13,
 - 16, 28–29, 48
- Participants
 - behaviour, 77
 - collaborate, 92
 - participant-level
 - improvements, 68
- Pedagogic leadership, 18
- Performance management,
 - 66
- Preparation and
 - assessment time
 - (PPA time), 44
- Principles level, 90
- Prioritisation, 79, 81–90
- Professional development
 - day (see IN-Service
 - Training day
 - (INSET day))
- Professional Development
 - Meetings (PDM),
 - 29*n*2
- Professional learning
 - communities
 - (PLCs), 12, 21, 44,
 - 48–49, 71, 77–79,
 - 91–95
 - Professional learning
 - networks (PLNs),
 - 2–5, 14, 79
 - activity, 84
 - leadership role in, 5–7
 - maintaining focus on
 - PLN activity, 21–24
 - mobilising RLN activity,
 - 11–12
 - research questions,
 - 12–13
 - school leaders, 1–2
 - terminology, 14

- Reflection process, 18
- Reflective dialogue, 92–93
- Reflective professional inquiry, 92–93
- Research Learning Networks (RLN), 7–11, 14, 21
 - inclusion of RLN activity, 38
 - mobilising RLN activity, 11–12
 - process, 32, 53–54, 69, 74, 78
- Research-informed practices, 9, 10, 11
- Research-informed teaching practice (RITP), 7–8, 31, 33, 43, 53
- RLN Schools
 - brokers, 50–51
 - coding structure from second set of interviews, 34–36
 - formalising RLN activity as priority, 36–40
 - informing non-RLN staff, 44–47
 - keeping participating staff on track, 40–42
 - providing ‘how to’ support, 47–48
 - research question, 31
 - time, 43–44
 - ToA to both developing interventions and ascertain impact, 32–34
 - whole staff engagement, 48–50
- School Improvement Plan (SIP), 36, 42, 54, 67, 69, 70, 72
- School leaders, 9, 14, 24, 26, 79
- School-level brokerage, 28
- Schools, participation, 95
- ‘Self-improving’ approaches, 79
- Senior leaders, 6, 7, 14, 16, 26
- Start small approach, 27, 44–45, 66, 73, 75
- Sustainability, 78
- Teacher development day (see IN-Service Training day (INSET day))
- Teacher education programs, 1
- Teaching strategy, 72
- Theory of action approach (ToA approach), 31, 53, 71
 - to both developing interventions and ascertain impact, 32–34
- Time, 25–26, 34, 43–44

- Top-down model, 54
- Transformational aspects of leadership, 18
- Trial and error, 90–91
- Trust-laden approach, 41
- Twilight sessions, 29*n*3,
48–49, 70

- Whole school approach, 68 to knowledge
mobilisation, 91–95

- Whole school brokerage
for PLN, 27
- Whole staff engagement,
28, 34, 48–50
- Whole-school collaborative approach, 70, 89
- Within-school Professional
Learning
Communities, 48,
50, 70