

Index

- Action research, food processing, 126–129
- Ad hoc roadside markets, 43
- Adverse health outcomes, 1
- Agricultural development, 121, 129–130
- Agricultural extension, 137–138, 145
- Agricultural livelihoods, agency and resources, 42–49
- Agriculturally oriented economies, 4
- Agriculture Sector Plan (ASP), 75
- Agrobiodiversity, 107
- Agroecology and Sustainable Rural Livelihoods Framework (ASRLF), 107–108
  - conceptual framework, 108
  - context-specific gender livelihoods analysis, 108
  - gender livelihoods analysis, 108
    - activities, priorities and incentives, 114–115
    - influencing structures and processes, 113
    - resources, access and control, 113–114
    - risks and vulnerability, 110–112
    - rural farming women, engagement, 115–117
  - methods, 109–110
  - populations of Vanuatu by province, 109
    - project site, 108–109
    - role, 108
- Aid, 27–28
- Alliance of Small Island States (AOSIS), 19
- Allotments, 46
- Anti-CEDAW public protests, 40–41
- Anti-Christian, CEDAW, 40–41
- Aquaculture sector in Samoa data collection process, 77–78
  - gender conceptual framework, 77
  - gender institutionalization, 74–75
  - methods, 78–80
    - carers, women, 80–81
    - focus group discussions (FGDs), 79–80
    - key informant interviews, 79
    - producers, women as, 81–84
    - sisters, 86–87
    - time use surveys (TUS), 79
    - weavers, women as, 84–85
    - women's role, 87
  - traditional systems, customary norms and gender, 75–77
- 'Arc of instability', 18–19
- ASRLF. See Agroecology and Sustainable Rural Livelihoods Framework (ASRLF)
- Asset-based community development, 137

- Aualuma*, 81–82
 Auntie, 92
 Australian Centre for International Agricultural Research (ACIAR), 105
- ‘Banking education’, 138
 Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action (BPfA), 35–36
 Bilateral donors, 39–40
 Bisnis Blong Buluk (BBB) women’s group, 116–117, 169
 ‘Blue Continent’, 29
 ‘Blue economy’, 29
The Blue Pacific, 29
Bose-va-koro, community meetings, 64
 British colonial heritage, 18–19
 Bula Coffee, 60
   case study sites, 61
   Community Engagement Study (CES), 63 decision-making for income earned, 67 field work process, 63–65 in-depth interviews and FGDs, 62
   mataqali, 69–70
   methodology, 61–63
   monetary contributions, 68 in organic certification, 66 post-harvest and organic training, registration, 67 representatives, 62, 63
   savings, 68
   supplier participation by gender, 65 volume and type, 63 women role, 70
   women’s access, supply trends in, 65–67
   women’s agency, 67–68
   women’s influence, social norms through collective action, 69
- Capital deregulation, 24
 CARE Conceptual Framework, 77
 Care International Gender Network (2012) framework, 83–84
 Cash-earning activities, 43, 154
 Cattle donation for custom, 112
 Cattle farming, 113
Chitrilada, 74
 Christianity, 76
 Civil society actors, 39–40
 Climate change impacts, 1
 Climate change resilience, 107
 CLIP. See Community Livelihood Improvement Program (CLIP)
 Coastal fisheries, 75
 ‘Coastal squeeze’, 16, 28
 Coffee harvesting, 67
 Colonialism and late independence, 18–19
 Commcare, 109–110
 Community and strength, 42–43
 Community-based responsibilities, 157
 Community-based rural development project, 93–94
 Community development and project initiation, 94–97
 Community Engagement Study (CES), 63
 Community learning plan development, 138

- Community Livelihood Improvement Program (CLIP), 124–125, 126, 167
- Connectivity and gender roles, 159–160
- Constitution Amendment Act (2013), 41
- Context-specific gender livelihoods analysis, 108
- Context-specific gender relations, 106
- Convention on the Elimination of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), 5, 35–36, 38–39, 74–75, 92, 158–159
- ‘Copy-and-paste’ people, 145–146
- Crown land, 46
- Cultural diversity, 17–18
- Cultural values, 158
- ‘Culture of migration’, 26
- Custom, 158, 159
  - and human rights, 8
  - and intersectionality, 7–8
- Customary land systems, 48
- Customary ownership of land, 106
- Customary stratification and practices, 157–159
- Customary structure, 154
- Customary values, 8, 158, 171
- Cyclone Gita in Tonga (2018), 17
- Cyclone Pam in Vanuatu (2015), 17
- Cyclone Winston in Fiji (2016), 17
- Declaration of the International Forum for Agroecology 2015*, 107
- Declaration of the International Forum for Agroecology, Nyeleni, Mali, 2007*, 116
- Deep sea mining, 23
- Deforestation, 16–17
- De-radicalisation, 38
- Economic development, 19–20
- Economic displacement, 123
- Ecosystem services, 107
- Eco-tourism project and aualuma, 81–82
- EEZs. See Exclusive economic zones (EEZs)
- El Niño Southern Oscillation (ENSO), 16
- Emigration, 25
- Emotional violence, 4
- Employment, 3
- Empowerment, 42–49, 93
  - approach to learning, 137–138
  - approach to research, 136–137
  - methodology, 137
  - into practice, 138–144
    - ‘one step removed’ approach, 139–140
    - peer-to-peer learning process, 140–144
- Enhancing Women’s Participation in Economic Development*, 6
- Entitlement imbalances, 6
- Environmental change, 28–29
- Environments and hazards, 16–17
- Exclusive economic zones (EEZs), 22–23
- Experiential learning, 138–139
- External invention, 18–19
- Family Farm Teams Program (FFTP), 138–139, 141, 142, 169–170

- Family food security, 43
- Family-owned production units, 43
- Family peer education, 141
- Family pie chart, 140
- Feafaiga* (sister), 86
- Female parliamentary representation, 41
- Female self-reported literacy rates, 137–138
- Feminist development scholars, 35
- Feminist scholars, women’s empowerment, 38
- FGDs. See Focus Group Discussion (FGD)
- Fiji
  - cash crop, 59
  - communities for business purposes, 63
  - community meetings, 64
  - economy, 59
  - rural iTaukei communities in, 69
  - talanoa*, 64
  - See also* Bula Coffee
- Fijian talanoa, 64
- Fisheries. See Aquaculture sector in Samoa
- Fisheries Division of the Ministry of Agriculture, 75
- Fish Reserve, women participation, 86
- Focus Group Discussion (FGD), 61, 79–80
- Food processing
  - cassava-based flour, 127
  - farming family, 127
  - group training and demonstration activities, 126–127
  - Human Development Index, 127
  - human nutrition and hygiene, 128
  - hygiene health-related cases, 128
  - positive social outcomes, 128–129
  - products, 126
  - UNDP Development Report (2018), 127
  - women leaders as future trainers, 127–128
- Food security, 112
- Forestry and fishery activities, 5
- Free-trade agreements, 1
- Freirean principles of liberatory learning, 138
- Gender, 73, 130, 158
  - analysis process, 77
  - and birth order, 168
  - and cultural issues, 139
  - discrimination, 1
  - family issues, 137
  - hierarchies, 167–168
  - indicators, 37
  - inequalities, 140
  - institutionalization, 74–75
  - knowledges, 138
  - learning activities, 136
  - norms, 37–38
  - policy, 38
  - in Samoa, 75–77
  - stocktake, 75
  - transformation, 145–146
  - violence, 3–4
    - rate, 4
- Gender and Development (GAD) approach, 34–35
- Gender-based violence, 123
- Gender conceptual framework, 77
- Gender differences in Vanuatu, 107

- Gender discourse, 38–42
- Gendered institutions, 100–101
 gender equality, 92–93
 gender-sensitive stakeholder analysis, 93–94, 96, 98
 organisations and local empowerment, 100–101
 phase 1: community development and project initiation, 94–97
 phase 2: intensive horticulture – orchard maintenance, 97–100
- Gender equality, 2–3, 40–41,
 91–92, 106, 107, 108,
 152 and empowering women, 106 and empowerment, 33
 gendered institutions, 92–93
 social justice and, 107 status of, 36–38
 and women's empowerment,
 33–36
See also Gender inequality
- Gender Equality as Smart
 Economics: A World
 Bank Group Gender
 Action Plan – Fiscal
 Years 2007–2010*, 6
- Gender equity, 2–3, 141, 142, 143, 145, 152
 and empowerment objectives, 6 engagement methodologies and methods employed,
 170–171
 gender mainstreaming case study contributions to,
 166–167
 and women's empowerment,
 165–166
- Gender inequality, 128
See also Gender equality
- Gender Inequality Index (GII), 3
- Gender integration, 2
- Gender livelihoods
 analysis, 108
 activities, priorities and incentives, 114–115 influencing structures and processes, 113
 resources, access and control, 113–114
 risks and vulnerability,
 110–112
 rural farming women,
 engagement,
 115–117
- Gender mainstreaming, 35–36,
 92–93, 100–101, 151,
 160, 165–166
 agricultural development initiatives, 5–7
 case study contributions to,
 166–167
 definition, 2
 gender statistics in South
 Pacific, 3–4
- Gender roles, 80, 159–160
- Gender-sensitive stakeholder
 analysis, 93–94
- Gender variability, 106
- Global human rights discourses,
 38–39
- Globalised markets and international trade agreements, 1
- Global Monitoring Report 2007:
 Confronting the Challenge of Gender
 Equality and Fragile
 States*, 6
- 'Green gold', 22
- Guadalcanal plains, 22
- Gun ownership, 159

- Health and education, 3
- Hereditary estates, 46
- Hides Alliance Group, 131
- Home-based small-scale businesses, 43
- Home making decisions, 84
- Horticulture – orchard maintenance, 97–100
- Huli women, 130–131
- Human Development Index, 127
- Human Rights Defenders, 141
- Incorporated land group (ILG), 47–48
- Inequalities, 3
- Inequality and privilege, 160
- Informal economy, 113
- ‘Instance of theoretical imperialism’, 155
- Intensive horticulture – orchard maintenance, 97–100
- Intercultural learning environments, 138
- International Centre for Research on Women (ICRW), 60
- ‘International development project’, 33
- International donors, 39–40
- International Labour Office, 2–3
- Intersecting inequalities situated and relational understandings of, 167–170
- Intersectionality, 8
  - concept, 152–155
  - connectivity and gender roles, 159–160
  - customary stratification and practices, 157–159
  - masculinities in transition, 155–157
  - person’s social position, 153
  - social constructivism, 152
- Intra-household and community dynamics shape decision-making, 84
- Intra-household power, 6
- ‘Inverse sovereignty effect’, 27
- Invisible barrier, 137–138
- iTaukei traditional culture, 60
- Kabeer’s Social Relations Approach, 35
- ‘Kava-biscuit war’, 24
- Key informant interviews, 79
- Land ownership types, 46
- Land Reform Act, 49
- Land tenure and access, 45, 46, 48
- Land tenure arrangements, 48
- ‘Lease-lease-back’ scheme, 47–48
- Liberalisation, 24
- Liberatory learning approach, 138
- Liquid Natural Gas (LNG) project, 121–122
  - impact, 123
  - project sites, 122–123
- Livelihood diversification, 112
- Livelihood Restoration (LR) program, 124–125
- Livelihoods, 124–125, 126, 129, 131
- LNG project. See Liquid Natural Gas (LNG) project
- Marital discord and violence, 6–7
- Market Development Facility (MDF), 59
- Markets Work for the Poor (M4P), 60
- Masculinities, 156–157
  - in transition, 155–157
- Matai*, 76, 84, 86

- Mataqali*, 69–70
- MDF. See Market Development Facility (MDF)
- Mehakitanga*, 92
- Migration, 25–27, 112
- Migration, Remittances, Aid and Bureaucracy (MIRAB) states, 26–27
- Millennium Development Goals (MDGs), 17, 36
- Ministry of Women, Children and Community Development (MWCSO), 78
- Ministry of Women Community & Social Development (MWCSO), 75
- Mobile Acquired Data App, 109–110
- Mobility, 26
- Multinationalisation of production, 24
- Nangai (Canarium), 114
- National population censuses and household surveys, 3
- Native Land Trust Board (NLTB), 47–48
- Neo-classical economists, 106
- Neoliberal gender policy discourse, 38
- Neoliberalism, 38
- Neoliberal market-led development, 1
- Non-cash informal economy, 154
- Non-climate-related tectonic activity, 16
- Non-coffee suppliers, 63
- Non-communicable diseases (NCDs) crisis, 17
- Non-customary owner, 47–48
- Non-timber Forest Products (NTFPs), 113, 114
- NTFPs. See Non-timber Forest Products (NTFPs)
- Oceanic fisheries, 75
- ‘Ocean of democracy’, 18–19
- ‘One step removed’ approach, 139–140
- On-farm monitoring, 109–110
- ‘Over-urbanisation’, 25–26
- Pacific Agreement on Closer Economic Relations (PACER), 24–25
- Pacific Island Countries Trade Agreement (PICTA), 24–25
- Pacific Islands Forum Secretariat (PIFS), 19, 39
- Pacific Leaders’ Gender Equality Declaration (PLGED), 39
- Pacific Platform for Action (PPA), 39
- Pacific rural agriculture and women, 43
- Papua New Guinea (PNG), 121, 135–136, 154
- LNG Project, 121–122
- See also* Liquid Natural Gas (LNG) project
- Participatory action research, 136–137
- Parties to the Nauru Agreement (PNA), 22–23
- Peer-to-peer learning process, 140–144
- educators as role models, 143
- to improved production, 143
- through social networks, 142
- Personal wealth, 154–155

- Physical and sexual violence, 3–4, 37
- Physical displacement, 123
- PLGED. See Pacific Leaders' Gender Equality Declaration (PLGED)
- PNG Rural Development Handbook*, 122
- See also* Community Livelihood Improvement Program (CLIP)
- Political commitments, 33
- Political turbulence, 18–19
- Polygamy, 154
- Population and migration, 25–27
- 'Power within' and 'power to' approach, 82
- Public discussions and civil protests, 92
- Public life and decision-making, 3
- Quasi-periodic climatic pattern, 16
- Recognised Seasonal Employer (RSE) program, 26, 112
- Regionalism, 19
- Resilience and vulnerability, 114
- Resilience mechanism, 106–107
- Resource-poor rural communities, 20
- Resources, empowerment process, 42
- Revised National Policy on Gender and Development 2014–2018*, 95
- Royal estates, 46
- RSE. See Recognised Seasonal Employer (RSE) program
- Rural development, 107, 108, 109–110, 115
- Rural Fijian communities, 63–65
See also Bula Coffee
- Rural iTaukei communities, 69
- Samoa
- aquaculture sector in
    - data collection process, 77–78
    - gender conceptual framework, 77
    - gender institutionalization, 74–75
    - methods, 78–80
  - front-line ambassadors, 76
  - respondent sample size of
    - gender and aquaculture study in, 79
  - traditional and cultural context, 77
  - women as feagaiga, 76
- Sand mining and housing, 16–17
- Savings, 68
- Sea level rise (SLR), 16–17
- Seasonal Worker Programme (SWP), 26
- Secretariat of the Pacific Community, 19
- Sector Plan Steering Committee, 75
- Semi-commercial farming, 143
- Semi-subsistence farmers, 4
- Semi-subsistence livelihoods, 8
- Sevusevu*, 63–64
- Short-term labour migration, 26
- SIDS. See Small island developing states (SIDS)
- Sigatoka Valley, 22
- Sizeable mineral resources, 4
- SLF. See Sustainable Livelihood Framework (SLF)
- Smallholder farmer development, 135–136

- Small island developing states (SIDS), 15
- Social attributes, 154
- Social constructivism, 152
- Social inequality, 4, 151, 152–153, 160
- Social positioning, 154
- Social Relations Approach, 35
- Social stability, 75–76
- Social stratification, 92
- Sorcery-related violence, 3–4
- South Pacific
- agriculture, 20–22
  - aid, 27–28
  - climate change, spectre and reality of, 28
  - countries, 15
  - economic development, 19–20
  - forests and fish, 22–23
  - gender discourse and frameworks in, 38–42
  - gender equity. See Gender equity
  - gender mainstreaming, 42, 165–166
  - gender statistics in, 3–4
  - intersectionality, 151–152
  - mines, 23
  - person's social position, 153
  - population and migration, 25–27
  - resilience, innovation and future, 28–29
  - rural development and subsistence agriculture in, 4–5
  - tourism, 23–24
  - trade, 24–25
  - women roles in fisheries. See Aquaculture sector in Samoa
- See also* Intersectionality
- Stability, 18–19
- Storms, 16–17
- Strength-based approaches, 137
- Subsistence farming, 5
- 'Sunday-to-Sunday' loan group, 143
- Sustainable agricultural development, 5–7, 163, 165
- Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), 36
- Sustainable Livelihood Framework (SLF), 95, 107–108
- Sustainable livelihoods, 5, 105
- Sustainable rural development, 93–94
- Swiss Agency for Development and Co-operation, 60
- Talanoa*, 64, 65
- 'Talaona groups' in Fiji, 110
- Ten Seeds, 136–137, 170
- Tidal and wave action, 16–17
- Tilapia*, 74, 80, 84, 85
- Time use surveys (TUS), 79
- Tonga Food Road Map 2014–2064*, 91
- Tonga, gendered institutions, 100–101
- gender equality, 92–93
  - gender-sensitive stakeholder analysis, 93–94, 96, 98
  - organisations and local empowerment, 100–101
  - phase 1: community development and project initiation, 94–97
  - phase 2: intensive horticulture – orchard maintenance, 97–100

- Tonga Strategic Development Framework (TSDF) Strategies*, 91
- Trade, 24–25
- Traditional economy, 106–107, 110–112, 117–118
- Traditional gardening systems and NTFPs, 114
- Traditional knowledge systems and biodiversity, 107
- Turaga-ni-koro's*, 63–64
- 'Unbalanced' and 'balanced' family pie chart, 140
- Under- and over-nutrition, 1
- UNDP Development Report (2018), 127
- UNDP Gender Inequality Index, 127
- United Nations Development Programme's composite, 3
- Universalised gender and empowerment initiatives, 41
- Unpaid work, 36–37
- Urbanisation, 1, 29
- Vanuatu
  - context-specific gender relations in, 106
  - cultural protocols, 115–116
  - gender differences in, 107
  - land area, 108–109
  - land tenure reform in, 106
  - populations, 109
  - rural women in, 105
  - society in, 106
  - See also* Agroecology and Sustainable Rural Livelihoods Framework (ASRLF)
- Vanuatu Women Development Scheme (VANWODS), 112
- Village community educators (VCEs), 139, 140–141, 169–170
- Village Council, 80, 82
- Village Fisheries Management Advisory committee (VFMAC), 80
- Violence, 6–7, 37, 123, 131
  - emotional, 4
  - gender-based, 3–4, 123
  - sorcery-related, 3–4
- Voice for Change, 141
- Volcanic activity, 16
- Voter reluctance, 92
- 'Wayward' modern women, 155
- WEE. See Women's economic empowerment (WEE)
- Western-imposed human rights discourse, 49
- Westminster democratic model, 18–19
- WID. See Women in development (WID)
- Wife order, polygamous marriages, 154
- Women
  - access
    - to income, 43–45
    - to land, 45–49
  - in aquaculture, 87
  - as carers, 80–81
  - contributions in fisheries, 73–74
  - customary chiefs or nobles, 155
  - decision-making ability and leadership, 93
  - empowerment, 3, 38, 165–166

- agency and resources in
  - agricultural livelihoods, 42–49
  - and gender equality, 33–36
- as farmers, 84
- in farming work, 83
- grassroots support, 39–40
- leadership, 92, 93, 100
- marginalisation, 83
- as producers, 81–84
- as religious subjects, 160
- as sisters, 86–87
- tenure security for, 106
- as weavers, 84–85
- Women-focused development
  - projects, 6
- Women in development (WID), 34
- Women's economic empowerment (WEE), 38, 60
- Women smallholder farmers, 135–136
  - agricultural and gender challenges, 136
  - empowerment approach to learning, 137–138
  - empowerment approach to research, 136–137
- Women's Markets for Change project, 44–45
- Women's voice, 70
- World Cafe, 136–137, 170
- World Development Report 2012: Gender Equality and Development*, 6