

Index

- Accountability, 159, 162
- Acumen Fund, 118
- Adaptability, 94, 96–97
- Agreements, 4–5, 70, 93, 109
 - commercial, 104
 - free trade, 2, 63
 - international, 102
 - political monetary, 19
 - trade, 47–48, 62, 64, 102
- Air transport infrastructure, 116
- American Acumen Fund, 119
- Ancient Peruvians, 92
- Andean Community, 47, 49
- Andean culture, 89
 - philosophical principles, 93–94
- ANOVA analysis, 79–80
- Asia-Pacific region (AP region), 14, 49
- Association of Agroforestry Producers of the Center of Bolivar (ASPROACEB), 146–147
- Association of Christian Regulators, 158
- Association of Latin American Entrepreneurs (ASELA), 114
- Automotive industry, 29
 - automotive supply chain, 32
 - competitive advantages, 35
 - congruence matrix of research, 31
 - global competitiveness models, 34–37
 - global production of
 - automotive vehicles, 33
 - identification of competitiveness pillars of Mexico within PA region, 38–40
 - literature review, 30–34
 - mega industrial trends in, 34
 - methodology, 41
 - pillars with indicators, 39
 - profile of countries of PA, 37–38
 - testing work hypothesis, 40
 - total sales by region, 32
- Avina, 118–119
- Baby Boomers, 74–75, 77–78
 - Gen Xers vs., 81
 - Millennials vs., 79–80
- Balance of trade, 62
 - of Mexico, 63–67
 - Pacific Alliance, 67–69
- Bankruptcy, 156
- Bavaria Foundation, 119
- Behavior(s), 74, 95
 - differentiated, 49
 - of entrepreneur, 168
 - of external markets, 103
 - of indicators, 102
 - of individuals, 94
 - institutional, 25
 - of international markets, 100
 - leader, 76
 - organizational citizenship, 94–95
 - results of organizational, 96
 - of SMEs, 100

- Bilateral interactions, 141
 - resource exchange for nontraditional, 144
 - resource exchange for traditional, 143
- Bogotá Chamber of Commerce, 119
- Born Global theory, 100
- Bridging social capital, 136–138, 142–144, 148–149
- Business
 - in Development Facility Hub, 119
 - initiatives, 124
 - in Peru, 92–93
- Business Council of Pacific Alliance (CEAP), 6
- Business ecosystems, 129, 134, 138–140, 144
 - case description and analysis, 141
 - Colombian case study, 146–150
 - methodology, 140
 - Mexican agricultural firm case study, 141–146
 - procedure, 141
 - sample, 140
 - taxonomy, 151
 - type of resource exchange within, 146
- Caribbean region, 47
- Catholicism, 91
- Center for Latin American Studies (CELSA), 21
- Center for Social Innovation (CIS), 118
- Chile
 - adoption of CSR by SMEs in, 159–160
 - commercial opportunities between Mexico and, 68–69
 - corporate social responsibility, 157–159
 - economic recession, 156
 - entrepreneurship in, 170–171, 174–175
 - implications for PA, 162–163
 - SMEs in, 156–157
 - sustainability in SMEs from, 160–162
 - trade agreements in, 47–48
- Ciudad innovadora*, 124
- Civic virtue, 95–96
- Classical theory of international trade, 101
- Cluster(s)
 - automotive, 30, 36
 - generation, 10
- Colombia(n), 128
 - bridging social capital, 148–149
 - business ecosystem, 149–150
 - case study, 146
 - case to PA, 128–129
 - commercial opportunities between Mexico and, 68
 - context, 115
 - current situation in, 115–117
 - economy, 115–116
 - resources, 146–148
 - trade agreements in, 47–48
- Colombian Bavaria Foundation, 119
- Community, 144
 - community-based SE model, 127
 - community-based SI, 123
 - organization, 123
- Compartamos con Colombia* initiative, 117–118
- Competition, 14, 17, 170
 - forces, 37
 - global competition model, 38
 - hyper-global, 14
 - international, 16

- Competitiveness, 6, 9, 30, 35, 161–162, 170 economic and commercial analysis, 17 indicators, 16–17, 22–25
 of PA countries, 13–25
 pillars of Mexico, 38–40
- Complementary Agreements
 Economic and Partial Scope Agreements (CAEPSAs), 63
- Consolidation/maturity, 124, 126
- Consortium, 127
- Convergence
 estimation, 49
 of European Monetary Union, 48–49 hypothesis, 46
 test, 48
See also Economic convergence
- Convergence index (CI), 47, 51–52
 by periods and criteria, 53
 results, 52–57
See also Economic convergence index (ECI)
- Cooperation, 2, 4, 14, 21, 137, 145 customs, 15
 economic cooperation schemes, 47 in education, 8 fostered traditional partnerships, 150 productive business, 92
- Corporación Mujeres Autónomas Unidas* (Cormaun), 127
- Corporate citizenship, 159
- Corporate social responsibility (CSR), 135, 157–159
 adoption of CSR by SMEs in Chile, 159–160
 indicators, 159
 policy, 129
 practices, 160–161, 163
 and sustainability practices, 163
- Correlation(s), 47
 analysis, 51–52
 of growth indicators, 54
 of inflation and exchange rate index, 55 of internal variables, 56
- Corruption, 26, 93, 117, 162
- Cost-effective business models, 113–114
- Costa Rica, 2, 114–115
- Creative Bazaar Model, 139
- Cultural/culture
 cultural–educational implications, 6–9
 culture E program, 123
 development, 122
 of Peru, 91–92
- Cyclical variables. See Real variables
- Davienda Company, 119
- Departamento Administrativo Nacional de Estadísticas (DANE), 115
- Departamento Nacional de Planeación (DNP), 115–116
- Department for Social Prosperity, 119
- Developing countries, 48, 62, 75, 100, 102, 136, 150, 157–158, 168
- Displacement of people, 4
- Dutch Ministry of Foreign Affairs, 119
- EAFIT Social Program, 122, 127
- Economic convergence
 G7 countries, 50
 in North American region, 49
 process, 46, 48

- Economic convergence index (ECI), 49
 - criteria for ECI interpretation, 52
 - methodology, 50–52
 - sample and variables, 51–52
 - weights used in ECI variants, 51

See also Convergence index (CI)
- Economic integration, 46
 - in AP region, 49
- Economic/economy, 2, 19, 30
 - commission for Latin America, 102
 - development phases, 122, 170
 - engine, 155
 - forum, 22
 - growth, 169
 - Mexican, 63, 70
 - model, 156
 - perspective, internationalization from, 101
 - reforms, 170
 - sustainability, 134–135
 - symbiosis, 142
 - theory, 46
 - and trade implications, 5–6
 - value, 139
- Ecosystems, 114–115
 - See also* Business ecosystems
- Education(al), 74, 79, 92, 122–123, 159, 170
 - cooperation in, 8
 - coverage, 9
 - development, 122
 - implications, 6–9
 - level of entrepreneurs, 174
 - public educational expenses, 20
 - sectors, 26
 - system, 117
 - system in Colombia, 117
- Eleos Foundation, 119
- “Entrepreneurial economy” model, 169
- Entrepreneurs, 123, 142, 171–172
 - in early stages of education, 173
 - in economic development, 169
- Entrepreneurship, 114, 168
 - comparison between Chile and Mexico, 173
 - degrees of participation in early entrepreneurial activity, 172–174
 - and economic development, 169
 - ecosystem in Medellín, 124–126
 - in Latin America, 169–175
 - in Mexico and Chile, 170–171
 - processes, 123
 - theoretical framework, 168–169
 - as trigger for social and economic impact in Mexico and Chile, 174–175
 - undertakings at services sector, 171
 - undertakings in initial stages, 171–172

See also Global entrepreneurship monitor (GEM); Social entrepreneurship (SE)
- Environment and Green Growth, technical group on, 162–163
- European Union (EU), 48–49, 66
- Export(s)
 - diversification, 61–62, 70
 - export-led growth, 62
 - from metalworking sector, 103–104

- Farmers' cooperative, 151
- Financial
 capital, 141, 150
 convergence, 55, 57
 support programs, 128
- Foreign direct investment (FDI), 47
- Free trade agreements (FTAs), 47–48
- Freedom of religion, 91
- Fuerzas Armadas Revolucionarias de Colombia-Ejército del Pueblo* (FARC-EP), 115
- G7 countries, economic growth convergence for, 50
- Gen Y Millennials, 74, 77–78, 81
- Gender-based violence (GBV), 127
- General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), 2, 64
- General Assembly of the World Tourism Organization (UNWTO), 122
- Generation X (Gen Xers), 74, 77–78
 Baby Boomers vs., 81
 Millennials vs., 80–81
- Generation(al), 77
 diversity, 74
- Global Compact principles, 158
- Global Competitiveness Index, 16, 22–24, 30
- Global competitiveness models, 34–37, 38
 See also Competitiveness
- Global entrepreneurship monitor (GEM), 170–171
 methodology, 170
 in Mexico, 174
- Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), 159–160
- Globalization, 74, 100–101, 102 labor market, 9
 of markets, 100
 process, 62
 See also Internationalization
- Gross domestic product (GDP), 2, 14, 17, 47, 116 government spending to, 49
 growth, 18, 115
 projections, 115
- Help (behavior variable), 95–96
- Horizontal multilateralism, 4
- Human capital, 20, 74, 135–136
- Incubation, 114, 124–125
- Industry effect. See Sector effect
- Inflation, 14, 17–19, 49–50, 53
 and consumer prices, 19 correlation, 55
 rates, 54
- Information technology and communications (ITCs), 104, 108, 124
- Inhabitants, educational quality of, 9
- Initiative (behavior variable), 95–96
- Innovation(s), 135
 exchange, 149
 See also Social innovation (SI)
- Instiglio, 118
- Integrated System for Entrepreneurship Promotion (SIPE), 157
- Inter-American Development Bank (IDB), 114, 117, 118
- Inter-parliamentary Commission, 5
- International community, 117
 markets, 14–15

- Internationalization, 100, 103
 - from economic perspective, 101
 - models, 100–103
 - from process perspective, 101
 - See also* Globalization
- Intra-alliance trade, 114
- Investment(s)
 - attraction for, 20–22
 - capital, 135–136
 - rate, 49
- Jam Central Model, 139
- Knowledge, 8, 16, 103, 135–136, 141, 150, 174
 - creation, 170
 - dissemination, 170
 - knowledge-based businesses, 169
 - market, 102
- LAB 4 Innovation and Entrepreneurship Forum of Alliance, 114
- “Labor Mobility in the Pacific Alliance” program, 5
- Latin America, 2, 14, 47, 54, 156, 167
 - economic and financial blocs in, 5
 - entrepreneurship in, 169–175
 - exports from metalworking sector, 103–106
 - ineffectiveness of social policy in, 168
 - integration in, 5
 - internationalization, 101–103
 - SME internationalization in, 99
- Latin American context, leadership in, 76–77
- Latin American Integrated Stock Market (MILA), 6
- Latin American Integration Association (ALADI), 63
- Leadership, 30, 32, 34, 74
 - authentic, 76
 - Baby Boomers, Gen Xers, and Gen Y Millennials, 77–78
 - Baby Boomers vs. Gen Xers, 81
 - Baby Boomers vs. Millennials, 79–80
 - behaviors in Latin America, 76
 - competitive, 37
 - evolution, 75–76
 - findings, 79
 - independent samples t-test, 82
 - Latin American and Mexican context, 76–77
 - Millennials vs. Gen Xers, 80–81
 - Millennials’ perception of, 75
 - research method, 78–79
 - transformational, 76
- Levene’s test, 79
- Library of National Congress of Chile (2010), 157
- Loyalty (behavior variable), 95–96
- Maastricht Treaty, 49
- Map of Business Competitiveness, 16
- Medellín, 113, 118, 122–128
- Mercosur, 48–49
- Metalworking sector
 - exports from, 103–104
 - in Mexico, 106–108
 - in Peru, 104–109
- Mexican agricultural firm case study, 141
 - bridging social capital, 142–144
 - business ecosystem, 144–146
 - resources, 141–142
- Mexican context, leadership in, 76–77

- Mexican exports, 47
- Mexican foreign policy, 2, 4
- Mexican Stock Exchange, 6
- Mexico
 - balance trade of Mexico, 63–67
 - challenges in commercial integration with PA countries, 62
 - competitive advantages of automotive industry in, 35
 - entrepreneurship as trigger for social and economic impact in, 174–175
 - entrepreneurship in, 170–171
 - exports from metalworking sector in, 106–108
 - GEM in, 174
 - identification of competitiveness pillars within PA region, 38–40
 - Pacific Alliance agreement, 62–63
 - Pacific Alliance balance of trade, 67–69
 - trade agreements in, 47–48
- Millennials, 78
 - Baby Boomers vs., 79–80
 - Gen Xers vs., 80–81
- Mod Station Model, 139
- Montes de María community, 146, 148
- Multinational corporations (MNCs), 119, 137
- National Development Plan, 118
- National Institute of Statistics and Information (INEI), 90
- National Liberation Army, 116
- National Network for Entrepreneurship, 118
- National Program for Development of Small and Medium Enterprises, 156
- Neo-classical theory, 46, 48
- Network theory, 101
- Nongovernment organizations (NGOs), 118, 129, 144, 150
- Nonprofit organizations, 150–151
 - international, 119
 - traditional, 134
- Nontraditional actors, 150
 - partnerships, 134, 138, 145, 150
 - resource exchange for nontraditional bilateral interactions, 144
- North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), 2, 47, 62, 64, 109
- Open regionalism, 2, 46
- Organization for Competitiveness and Economic Development (OECD), 16, 115, 168
- Organizational citizenship behaviors in Peru, 94–95
 - culture in Peru, 94
 - diversity, 77
- Pacific Alliance (PA), 2, 8, 14, 30, 46, 113–114, 162–163
 - agreement, 57, 62–63
 - attraction for investments, 20–22
 - automotive industrial profile of countries of, 37–38
 - balance of trade, 67
 - capitalization of stock exchanges, 8
 - challenges, 9–10
 - Colombian case to, 128–129
 - cultural–educational implications, 6–9

- economic and commercial
 - analysis of competitiveness, 17
- economic and trade
 - implications, 5–6
- economic indicators, 3, 15
- founding countries, 47
- GDP, 17–18
- government organizations, 7
- identification of competitiveness
 - pillars of Mexico, 38–40
- indicators of competitiveness, 22–25
- inflation, 18–19
- Mexico and Chile, commercial opportunities between, 68–69
- Mexico and Colombia, commercial opportunities between, 68
- Mexico and Peru, commercial opportunities between, 67–68
- political–diplomatic implications, 2–5
- primary economic and commercial historical findings, 14–15
- public educational and health expenses, 20
- relevant indicators for
 - automotive cluster in, 36
- theoretical framework, 15–17, 48–50
- unemployment rate, 19–20
- Participation, 70, 94, 96, 118, 124, 127
 - degrees of, 172–174
 - in external markets, 103
 - of MNCs, 119, 129
 - of SMEs in international trade, 101, 102
 - social, 129
- Penta-dimensional Corporate Sustainability Model (MOPSE), 161
- Peru
 - analysis of results, 95–97
 - Andean culture principles, 93–94
 - business in, 92–93
 - commercial opportunities
 - between Mexico and, 67–68
 - culture, 91–92
 - decision-making, agreements, and contracts, 93
 - economic evolution in, 90–91
 - exports from metalworking sector in, 104–106
 - methodology, 95
 - organizational citizenship behaviors, 94–95
 - organizational culture, 94
 - trade agreements in, 47–48
- Peruvian cuisine, 91–92
- Philanthropy, 119, 128, 158
- Political CSR, 159
- Political–diplomatic implications, 2–5
- Pre-Hispanic Peruvian art, 92
- Private sector, 93, 114, 117, 129, 138, 156
- Process perspective, internationalization from, 99, 101, 103
- Productivity, 9, 16, 22, 35, 49, 74, 145, 168
- Public sector, 117, 128
- Public–private initiatives, 114
- Public–private partnerships, 128
- Regional integration, 4, 14, 46–48, 114
 - process in Latin America, 2
 - schemes, 46
 - See also* Economic integration
- Relationship dimension, 161–162
- Reputation, 129, 141–142, 144, 149, 162

- Resource-based economies, 170
- Root Capital, 118–120
- Sabor & Delicias*, 127
- Science Park for Social Innovation, 119
- Secretariat of Women. See Secretaría de las Mujeres (SM)
- Sector effect, 16
- Self-development (behavior variable), 95–96
- Sistema B, 118, 121, 175
- Small Size Enterprise Division (DEMT), 157
- Small-and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs), 100, 155, 162–163
- adoption of CSR by SMEs in Chile, 159–160
- exports from metalworking sector, 103–106
- internationalization models, 99–103
- sustainability in SMEs from Chile, 160–162
- Socas' methodology, 50–51
- Social
- development, 122
 - enterprises, 114
 - entrepreneurs, 135, 141
 - firms, 135
 - impact investment, 128
 - organization, 123
 - security, 159
 - term, 134
 - value creation, 134, 144, 150
 - vulnerability, 122
- Social capital, 134
- bonding, 137
 - bridging, 136–138
- Social entrepreneurship (SE), 114, 134–135
- current situation, 117–122
 - model, 127
- Social innovation (SI), 114, 118, 135–136
- contributions of Colombian case to Pacific Alliance, 128–129
 - current situation, 117–122
 - Medellín, 122–128
- Social Innovation Policy, 118
- Social Progress Index, 115
- Social Responsibility and Sustainability, 162–163
- Social Responsibility Council for Sustainable Development, 159
- Sociallab, 118, 121
- Socially innovative firms, 134, 136, 139, 145, 151
- Colombian firm, 146
 - Mexican firm, 141
- Specialized intermediaries, 115, 118–119, 128
- Sports diplomacy program (PDD), 9
- Sportsmanship (behavior variable), 95–96
- Stakeholder theory, 158
- Student and Academic Mobility Platform of Pacific Alliance, 8
- Student Scholarship Program, 8
- Sustainability, 134, 136
- equilibrium, 135
 - management models, 161
 - production processes, 156
 - in SMEs from Chile, 160–162
 - social ventures, 144
 - socially innovative firms, 137

- Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), 158, 162–163, 174
- Swedish Development Agency, 119
- Systemic competitiveness, 16
 - model of ECLAC, 16
- Systemic planning model, 101

- Telecommunication infrastructure, 9
- Territory effect. See Country effect
- Theory of industrial organization, 101
- Theory of internationalization, 101
- Trade agreements, 64
 - in Mexico, Peru, Colombia, and Chile, 47–48
- Traditional
 - actors, 150
 - entrepreneurship ecosystem, 129
 - nonprofit organizations, 134–135
 - partnership, 134, 138, 143, 145, 150
 - resource exchange for traditional bilateral interactions, 143
 - trade theory, 46
- Transformational leadership (TL), 74–76
- Transparency
 - and communication, 161
 - dimension, 162

- Unemployment rate, 14, 17, 19–20, 55
- Unidades de Fomento (UF), 157
- UNIMINUTO initiative, 119
- United Nations World Urban Forum (2013), 122
- Universities, 10, 14, 114, 119, 134, 137, 143, 151
- Uppsala model (U model), 100, 101, 103
- Urban Ambient Air Pollution Global Database, 156
- USA and Swiss Fund Impact Finance, 119

- Ventures, 4, 119, 129, 136, 151, 171
 - conventional, 124
 - internationalization, 114
 - social, 128, 139
 - socially innovative, 151
 - sustainable social, 138
- Vernon's innovation and product lifecycle model, 101

- World Economic Forum (WEF), 16, 22, 116
- World Economic Fund (WEF), 30, 35