

INDEX

- AAA-rated bonds, 133
- Accredited investors, 157–158
- Acquisition
  - ease and cost of, 160–161
  - property, 177
- Active investing, 48–49
- Active management, 59, 89
- Active portfolio
  - management, 48–49, 133–134
- Actively managed mutual funds, 15–16, 48, 59, 122–123
- Activist investors, 112
- Adjusted funds from operations (AFFO), 167
- Aftermarket (see Secondary market)
- Agency bonds, 101
- All-Star Growth (ASG), 105
- Allianz NFJ Dividend Interest & Premium Strategy Fund, 94
- Alpha, 34–35
- Alternative asset(s)
  - classes, 71
  - and strategies, 95–96
- Alternative funds, 14–15
- Alternative investments, 71–72
- Amana Income fund, 18
- American Balanced Fund, 24
- American Realty Trust, 149
- American Stock Exchange (AMEX), 51, 94
- American Tower, 154–155
- Annaly Capital Management, 155
- Annual account
  - maintenance fee, 25
- Annual expenses, 129–130
- Annual fund operating expenses, 25
- Arbitrage, 55
- Ask price, 67–68, 108
- Asset(s)
  - class, 31, 52, 63
  - types and quality of, 170–171

- Assets under management (AUM), 2, 51, 79, 84, 118
- Attractive investment, 60–61
- Authorized participant (AP), 53–54, 90
- Automatic dividend reinvestment, 97
- Awareness, 61
- Back-end load (see Deferred sales charge)
- Balanced funds, 13, 22
- Bank loan funds, 14–15
- Barron's, 114, 137
- Behavioral biases, 113
- Benchmark, 31, 33–36, 42, 48–49, 56, 80, 89–90
- Beta, 32, 35
  - smart beta ETF, 52
- Bid price, 67
- Billboards, 159
- BlackRock, Inc., 103
- Blue-chip stocks, 9
- Bogle, John C. “Jack”, 47
- Bond(s), 13
  - AAA-rated, 133
  - agency, 101
  - convertible, 101
  - corporate, 101
  - domestic municipal, 99
  - domestic taxable, 101–102
  - funds, 12–13
  - global/international bond CEFs, 102
  - international bond UITs, 131
  - investment-grade
    - corporate, 101
    - municipal, 99
  - PIMCO concentration on, 103
  - yield on, 134
- Boston Personal Property Trust, 84
- Breakpoints, 136
- British investment trusts, 84
- Broad-based index ETFs, 78
- Business development companies (BDCs), 120
- Businesses, 166
  - model of REITs, 152
- Buy-and-hold strategy, 28, 64, 119–120
- Buying on margin, 58–59
- Call option, 95
- Call premium, 95
- Cap rate (see Capitalization rate)
- Capital appreciation distribution, 41
- Capital gains, 5
- Capitalization, 50
  - equity market, 177
  - market, 21–22, 50, 107
  - mid-size, 22
  - rate, 168
  - small-size, 22

- Cash, 13
  - distribution, 141
  - flow generation, 97
  - liquidation, 141
- Cell tower companies, 159
- Certificates of deposit (CDs), 12
- Charles Schwab, 21, 50, 55, 68
- Chicago Mercantile Exchange (CME), 51
- Closed-End Fund Association, 104, 114
- Closed-end funds (CEFs)
  - (see also Exchange-traded funds (ETFs)), 3, 49, 64, 83–84, 105, 118, 123–126, 159
  - benefits, 85
  - common shares, 86
  - comparing market prices of CEFs to stocks, 110–112
  - demand, 92–94
  - disadvantages or drawbacks, 97–98
  - vs.* exchange-traded funds (ETFs), 90–92
  - fee structure, 106
  - investments, 92–94
  - investors, 94–97
  - largest, 102, 103
  - managers, 88
  - management, 102–103
  - vs.* mutual fund, 87–90
  - owners of, 93
  - performance evaluation, 106–108
  - prices, 91
  - regulation, 113
  - resources for gaining additional information about, 114–115
  - risks associated with investing in, 103–105
  - security types, 113–114
  - selection criteria, 108–110
  - trade at different value from their NAVs, 112–113
  - types, 98–102
  - working, 85–86
  - year-end total assets and total number of, 93
- Closed-end REIT, 151
- Closet index fund, 42
- Cohen and Steers on real estate, 103
- Collateral arrangement, 56
- Commodity ETFs, 72
- Commodity Exchange Act, 37
- Competitive long-term performance, 162–163
- Complexity risk, 73–74
- Compound annual growth rate (CAGR), 7
- Concentration risk, 28
- Consistent asset base, 96
- Consumer Price Index (CPI), 163
- Contingent deferred sales charge, 24
- Convenience, 94
- Conventional wisdom, 175
- Convertible bonds, 101

- Corporate
  - bonds, 101
  - governance, 163
  - unit UITs, 131
- Cost(s), 10, 21
  - associated with owning
    - mutual funds, 23–26, 142–144
  - effectiveness, 8
  - REIT, 164
- Counterparty risk, 56
- Country risk, 14, 23
- Coverage ratio, 168–169
- Covered call strategy, 95
- Credit rating, 135
- Credit risk, 13, 27, 130
- Currency ETF, 72
- Currency risk, 131

- Data centers, 159
- Debenture, 88–89
- Debt ratio, 168
- Deferred sales charge, 24, 142–143
- Deferred tax, 154
- Defined contribution (DC), 6–7
- Demand
  - for CEFs, 92–94
  - for ETFs, 60
  - for mutual funds, 6–7
- Depositors, 120
- Discounts, 94, 112–113
  - opportunity to buy shares at, 94
  - volume, 136
- Distributions, 105
  - capital appreciation, 41
  - cash, 141
  - dividend, 153
  - in-kind, 129
  - income potential and,
    - 122–123
  - rate, 108
    - (12b-1) fees, 25–26
- Diversifiable risk (see Unsystematic risk)
- Diversification, 9, 20, 62–63, 71, 95, 122, 126–127
  - lack of, 165
  - level of, 171–172
- Dividend
  - capture strategy, 96
  - distributions, 153
  - payments, 41
  - REIT, 173
  - sales charge (load) on
    - reinvested, 24
  - yield, 169
- Dividend reinvestment program (DRIP), 60, 97
- Dividends.com, 179–180
- Dollar cost averaging, 28
- Domestic equity, 99–100
- Domestic municipal bond, 99
- Domestic taxable bond, 101–102
- Double taxation, 152
- Dow Jones Industrial Average (DJIA), 78

- E*Trade, 50
- Earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation, and amortization (EBITDA), 169
- Earnings per share (EPS), 165–166
- Environmental, social, and governance (ESG), 17
- Environmental behavior, 17
- Equity, 71
  - CEFs, 101
  - funds, 13
  - income, 120, 122
  - trusts, 131
  - unit UITs, 132
- Equity REITs (eREITs), 154–155, 160, 170–173, 176
- Equity Residential (EQR), 155
- Euro Currency Trust, 72
- Evaluator, 121
- Ex-dividend date, 96
- Excessive cash holdings, 11
- Exchange, 55
  - fee, 25
  - rate risk, 14
- Exchange-traded funds (ETFs) (see also Closed-end Funds (CEFs); Mutual funds), 1, 48–50, 69–70, 83, 90, 120, 123–126, 149
  - advantages/benefits offered to investors, 62–65
  - average performance, 65–66
  - creation/redemption process, 53–55
  - demand for, 60
  - development, 50–53
  - disadvantages/drawbacks of owning, 67–69
  - evolving, 51–53
  - factors contribution to ETF industry growth, 60–61
  - financial investors, 77–78
  - growth, 83–84
  - indexing outmaneuver, 66–67
  - individual investors, 76–77
  - institutional investors, 77
  - major ETF asset classes and categories, 70–73
  - online resources for, 81
  - vs. open-end mutual funds, 57–60
  - risks associated with investing in, 73–76
  - selection criteria of investors used before buying, 78–81
  - sponsor, 53
  - strategies for ETF sponsors, 55–56
  - VFINX, 47–48
- Exchange-traded managed funds (ETMFs), 61
- Expense ratio, 62, 80, 132
- Expenses, 80, 88, 91, 110

- Family offices, 172
- Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), 10
  - FDIC-insured, 38
- Federal government agency, 101
- Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, 101
- Federal National Mortgage Association, 101
- Federal Reserve Board, 111
- Federal Reserve Regulation T, 111
- Fee
  - annual account maintenance, 25
  - associated with owning mutual funds, 23–26
  - for CEFs, 106
  - exchange, 25
  - management/investment advisory, 25
  - redemption, 24, 143
  - REIT, 164
  - shareholder, 23–24
  - structure, 5, 126
  - transaction, 135
  - 12b-1, 25–26, 88
  - of unitholder, 142
- Fidelity Investments, 16, 50
- Fidelity Real Estate Investment (FRESX), 161
- Financial advisors, 77–78
- Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA), 37, 142, 179
- Financial market, 2, 44, 54
- Financial Times-Stock Exchange 100 index (FTSE 100 index), 56
- Fixed deposit, 9
- Fixed income, 120, 122
  - securities, 71, 130
  - trusts, 131
- Flaherty & Crumrine on preferred stocks, 103
- Flexible reinvestment options, 123
- Foreign exchange, 131
- Foreign markets, 102
- FTSE NAREIT All Equity REITs, 163, 169
- FTSE NAREIT All REITs Index, 174–175
- FTSE NAREIT US Real Estate Index Series, 173
- Full replication, 55–56, 69
- Full-blown international banking crisis (see Global financial crisis)
- Fund-O-Matic Fund Screener, 43
- Fund(s), 2
  - choosing between different types of, 20–21
  - exchange, 42
  - management, 20
  - manager experience, 133–134

- public projects, 131
- shareholder services, 26
- shareholders, 4
- sponsor, 4
- type, 109
- Funds from operations (FFO), 166
- Gains by closing gap, 85
- Global bond CEFs, 102
- Global equity CEFs, 102
- Global financial crisis, 175
- Global/international funds, 13–14, 23
- Governance, structure and, 123, 126
- Government agency, 101
- Government securities, 101
- Government-sponsored enterprise (GSE), 101
- Great Depression, 84
- Growth-based funds, 100
- Growth funds, 22
- Growth strategy, 132
- Hebner, Mark (founder of Index Fund Advisors, Inc.), 65
- Hedge (investments), 71
- Higher potential volatility, 104
- Higher sales and management expenses, 98
- Households owning CEFs, 93
- Hybrid REITs (hREITs), 155, 171, 173
- In-kind distribution, 129
- Income
  - equity, 120, 122
  - fixed, 120, 122
  - funds, 12–13
  - funds, 22
  - investors high yields, 105
  - net, 166
- Income potential
  - attractive, 96
  - and distribution, 122–123
- Indxfund, 16, 47–48, 73
- Indexing outmaneuver, 66–67
- Index trusts, 132
- Individual investors, 76–77
- Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs), 6–7, 77, 119, 139–140, 173
- Individual securities for trust, 138
- Inflation, 136
  - protection from, 134, 163
- Information ratio, 33–34
- Initial public offering (IPO), 86, 90, 126, 138, 151
- Initial sales charge, 142
- Institutional funds, 1
- Institutional investors, 77, 157–158
- Interest rate risk, 13, 27, 130, 171, 175
- Internal fund expenses, 30–31

- Internal Revenue Service (IRS), 140, 158
- International bond
  - CEFs, 102
  - UITs, 131
- International equity CEFs, 102
- International funds, 13–14
- International Index Fund, 16
- Intraday pricing, 64
- Intraday trading, 88
  - liquidity, 64
- Intrinsic value, 167
- Inverse exchange-traded fund (IETF), 72–73
- Invesco Developing Markets A fund, 33
- Investment Company Act (1940), 24, 37, 49, 84, 113, 126, 139, 141–142
- Investment Company Fact Book, 60
- Investment Company Institute, 6–7, 114
- Investment(s), 7
  - advisory fees, 25
  - companies market, 118
  - decision-making process, 17
  - horizon, 133, 136–137
  - investment-grade
    - corporate bonds, 101
  - in mutual funds, 28–30
  - objective, 127, 132
  - risk, 164
  - in socially responsible mutual funds, 18–19
  - strategies, 96, 133
  - in UITs, 136–137
- Investor(s), 1, 30–32
  - buy/sell/switch units of trust, 137–138
  - buying and selling REIT, 159–160
  - choosing between different types of funds, 20–21
  - considering ETFs as part of investment portfolios, 62–65
  - evaluating UIT's performance, 134–136
  - individual, 76–77
  - making money from investing in mutual funds, 41
  - mutual funds availability to, 12–15
  - options available when trust matures, 140–141
  - owning CEFs, 94–97
  - owning mutual funds, 7–10
  - protection, 10
  - selection criteria, 78–81, 132–134
  - sentiment, 94, 112, 113
  - services, 109
  - unit investment trusts (UITs) and, 126–128
- Islamic principles, 18
- Issued shares, 92

- Kiplinger Mutual Fund Finder, 43
- Large-cap mutual funds, 22
- Law of one price, 90
- Leverage, 89, 110, 168
  - ability to, 97
  - dangers of, 105
  - negative effects of, 98
  - personal, 111–112
  - ratio, 107–108
- Leveraged exchange-traded fund (ETF), 72–73
- Liberty All-Star Growth CEF, 107
- Lifespan, 122–123
- Limit order, 58, 111
- Limited growth, REIT, 165
- Limited liability companies (LLCs), 100
- “Lipper Leader”, 36, 43
- Lipper ratings, 36
- Liquidity of mutual funds, 39
- Liquidity, 9, 79–80, 87, 108–109, 163
  - risk, 27
- Loads, 23, 30
- “Locked in” mortgage loans, 155
- Long-term strategies, 85
- Lower expense ratios, 97, 127–128
- Management
  - advisory fees, 25
  - expertise, 95
  - professional, 8, 10, 163
  - quality, 172
  - style, 89–90
- Manager’s incentive for exceptional performance, 36
- Margin, 58
  - buying on, 58–59
  - trading, 111
- Market
  - capitalization, 21–22, 50, 107
  - exposure, 62
  - index, 32
  - order, 110–111
  - risk, 13, 26–27, 73, 128–129
  - strategy, 132
  - timing strategy, 29
- Maryland, trusts or corporations in, 151
- Massachusetts Bay Colony, 84
- Massachusetts Hospital Life Insurance Company, 84
- Massachusetts Investors Trust, 2
- Master limited partnership funds (MLP funds), 100
- MAXFund, 43
- Mean reversion, 29
- MFSA Investment Management, 2
- Micro-cap mutual funds, 22
- Mid-cap mutual funds, 22

- Mid-cap strategy, 107
- Minimum investment
  - in mutual fund, 11–12
- Money market fund, 6–7, 12
- Moody's rating, 135
- Morningstar, 43, 59, 104, 109, 114
  - Mid-Cap Growth index, 107
  - ratings, 35
- Morningstar.com, 105
- Mortgage REITs (mREITs), 155, 160, 170–173
- Mortgage-backed securities (MBS), 155
  - UITs, 131–132
- Municipal bond, 99
- Mutual Fund Observer, 44
- Mutual fund(s), 1, 69–70, 84, 115, 118, 123–126
  - actively and passively managed, 15–16
  - advantages of owning, 7–10
  - choosing between different types of, 20–21
  - classification based on portfolios, 21–23
  - closed-end funds (CEFs) vs., 87–90
  - common questions before investing in, 39–40
  - costs and fees associated with owning, 23–26
  - demand for, 6–7
  - disadvantages/drawbacks of owning, 10–11
  - factors considered by investors when evaluating, 30–32 and FDIC, 38
  - international stocks and bonds, investing in, 45
  - investing in, 41
  - investment decisions, 44
  - liquidity of, 39
  - making money from investing in, 41
  - manager's incentive for exceptional performance, 36
  - minimum investment in, 11–12
  - online resources for, 43–44
  - performance evaluation, 32–36
  - potential strategies for investing in, 28–30
  - prospectus, 2–3
  - protection, 38–39
  - regulations governing, 37
  - risk and return profile, 20–21
  - risk faced by investors of, 26–28
  - vs.* separately managed account (SMA), 4–6
  - socially responsible, 18–19

- SRI, 16–17
  - traps, 42
  - types of, 12–15
- NASDAQ, 50, 61, 94, 137
- National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts (NAREIT), 154, 155, 163, 179
- National Association Securities Dealers (NASD), 24
- Net asset value (NAV), 3, 54, 84, 108, 138, 140, 159, 167
  - appreciation, 41
  - pricing relative to, 109
- Net assets, 144
- Net income, 166
- Net operating income (NOI), 167
- New Covenant Growth fund, 18
- New fund risk, 75
- New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), 50, 84, 156
- No-cash holdings, 122
- No-load fund, 25
- Non-traded REIT, 156–158
- Nonprofessional investors, 112–113
- Nontraditional methods, 71
- Nuclear energy, 19
- Nuveen's AMT-free Quality Municipal Bond Fund (NEA), 103
- Occupancy rates, 169
- Online brokerage, 50
- Online resources
  - for ETFs, 81
  - for mutual funds, 43–44
  - for REITs, 179–180
- Open-end funds (OEFs), 1, 3, 87
- Open-end mutual funds, 57–60
- Open-end REIT, 151
- Operating expenses, 26, 143
- Opportunity to buy shares at discount, 94
- Options contract, 77
- Outstanding shares, 90
- Over-the-counter market (OTC market), 76
- Ownership, 4–5
- Passive investing, 47
- Passive management, 90
- Passive portfolio management, 47
- Passively managed mutual funds, 15–16
- Patience, 21
- Perceptions, 112
- Performance, 20, 172
  - competitive long-term, 162–163
  - history and potential, 109–110
  - performance-weighted mutual fund strategy, 29–30

- REIT, 173–175
  - relative to objective, 107
- Personal leverage, 111
- Personalized portfolios, 61
- Philadelphia Stock Exchange (PHLX), 51
- Physical replication, 55–56
- PIMCO concentrates on bonds, 103
- Political risk, 14
- Pooled investment vehicle (PIV), 1, 49, 85–87, 118, 122–125, 134, 150
- Portfolio
  - diversification, 161
  - feature, 122–123
  - investor's, 178
  - mutual funds classified
    - based on, 21–23
  - personalized, 61
  - self-liquidating, 129
- Predictable income stream, 92
- Preferred securities, 89, 101–102
- Preferred stock (see Preferred securities)
- Premiums, 94, 112–113
- Prepayment risk, 171
- Presbyterian beliefs, 18
- Price-to-book (P/B), 165–166
- Price-to-earnings (P/E), 165–166
  - ratio, 29–30
- Pricing, 57, 89, 92, 108, 111
- Private correctional facilities, 159
- Private REITs, 157–160
- Private-placement REIT (see Private REITs)
- Professional management, 8, 10, 163
- Professional selection, 127
- Property yield, 170
- Prospectus, 2–3, 86
- Publicly traded and non-traded REITs, 156–158
- Real estate investment trusts (REITs), 100, 120, 147–150
  - advantages, 160–163
  - business model, 152
  - disadvantages or drawbacks, 164–165
  - dividends, 173
  - earnings, 177
  - economic impact, 177
  - forms of REIT
    - distribution, 153–154
  - general factors, 170–172
  - interest rates affecting
    - publicly traded REITs, 175–176
  - investors, 172–173
  - investors buying and selling, 159–160
  - major sectors, 158–159
  - making money on, 160
  - metrics used to assess, 166–170

- online resources for, 179–180
- performance, 173–175
- publicly traded and non-traded, 156–158
- qualification as, 152–153
- questions investors should ask before investing in, 178–179
- shareholders, 151
- traditional metrics, 165–166
- types, 154–155
- in United States, 149
- working of, 151–152
- Real-time pricing, 111–112
- Redemption
  - fee, 24, 143
  - process, 54–55
- Regulation, 5
  - govern mutual funds, 37
- Residual risk (see Unsystematic risk)
- Responsible investing, 17
- Retail investors, 8, 55
- Return, 106–107
  - of capital, 153
  - real return of return, 136
- Return on investment (ROI), 29
- Rights offering, 86
- Risk(s), 164–165
  - complexity, 73–74
  - concentration, 28
  - counterparty, 56
  - country, 14, 23
  - credit, 13, 27, 130
  - exchange rate, 14
  - of individual CEFs, 98
  - interest rate, 13, 27, 130, 171, 175
  - with investing in ETFs, 73–76
  - investment, 164
  - liquidity, 27
  - market, 13, 26–27, 73, 128–129
  - new fund, 75
  - political, 14
  - prepayment, 171
  - securities selection, 130
  - selection, 74
  - shutdown, 75–76
  - tracking, 75
  - trading, 75
  - unsystematic, 26–27
  - upside, 27
- Robo-advisors, 61
- Sales charge, 24
  - (load) on reinvested dividends, 24
- Savvy investor, 2
- Secondary market, 151
  - pricing, 98
  - transaction, 88
  - in trust units, 138
  - UITs trade on, 140
- Sector funds, 14
- Securities Act (1933, 1934, 1940), 5, 37, 113, 139, 141
- Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), 5, 49, 86, 115, 119, 139, 156, 179

- SEC-registered investment banks, 120
- Securities Exchange Act (1934), 113
- Securities Insurance Protection Corporation (SIPC), 39
- Security
  - liquidity, 67
  - prices, 26–27
  - selection risk, 130
- Selection risk, 74
- Self-liquidating portfolios, 129
- Senior loans, 102
- Separately managed account (SMA), 4–6
- “Set-it-and-forget-it” investments, 105
- Shareholders, 86, 92
  - fees, 23–24
- Sharpe ratio, 32
- Short selling, 14–15, 58
- Shutdown risk, 75–76
- Simplicity and convenience, 8
- Small-cap mutual funds, 22
- Smart beta ETF, 51
- Social behavior, 17
- Social screen, 17
- Socially responsible investing (SRI), 16–17, 19
- Socially responsible mutual funds, 17–19
- Sortino ratio, 33
- Sovereign debt, 102
- SPDR S&P 500 ETF (SPY), 51, 53
- Specialty fund, 14
- Specific risk (see Unsystematic risk)
- Sponsors, 120–121
- Spread, 67, 79
- Stability, 108
- Standard & Poor’s
  - Depository Receipts (SPDRs), 51
- Standard and Poor’s 500 index (S&P 500 index), 50, 53, 55, 69, 74, 78, 89, 91
- Standard deviation, 32
- Starwood Property Trust (STWD), 155
- Stock funds, 13
- Stock market crash (1929), 118
- Stop-loss order, 58
- Superior income generation, 85
- Supervisor, 121
- Swap, 56
- Synthetic replication, 56
- Systematic risk (see Market—risk)
- Tactical trading, 77
- Tax(es), 10–11, 135–136, 162, 165
  - efficiency, 59, 64, 128
  - liability, 5
  - payments, 41
  - purposes, 153

- rate, 134
- taxable income strategies, 101
- trap, 42
- UIT, 139–140
- Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association of America (TIAA), 11–12
- Toronto Index
  - Participation Shares (TIPs), 51
- Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX), 51
- Total Market Index Fund, 16
- Total returns, 106–107
- Track indexes, 55–56
- Tracking
  - difference, 68–69, 79
  - error, 33, 56
  - risk, 75
- Trading, 57, 90
  - activity, 51
  - risk, 75
  - strategies, 111
  - volume, 108
- Traditional metrics, 165–166
- Trail commissions, 88
- Transaction fees, 135
- Transparency, 5, 59, 63, 91, 128, 161–162
- Treasury, 101
- Treynor ratio, 32–33
- Trust, 151
  - individual securities
    - chosen for, 138
    - investors buy, sell, or switch units of, 137–138
- Trustee, 121
- 12b-1 fees, 25–26, 88
- Two Harbors Investment Corp. (TWO), 155
- Undiversifiable risk
  - (see Market risk; Market—risk)
- Uninterrupted strategy, 85
- Unit investment trusts (UITs), 3, 117–120, 123–126, 131–132, 144
  - advantages for investors, 126–128
  - costs and fees associated with owning, 142–144
  - disadvantages/drawbacks, 128–130
  - features, 122–123
  - individual securities
    - chosen for trust, 138
  - investment in, 136–137
  - investors evaluating performance of, 134–136
  - options available when trust matures, 140–141
  - organizers, 120–121
  - participants and their role, 120–121
  - registration requirements for, 139

- regulations, 141–142
- selection criteria, 132–134
- takeaways, 144–145
- taxes, 139–140
- trade on secondary market, 140
- United States (US)
  - securities UITs, 132
  - UITs originated in, 117–118
- Unitholder, 119–120
  - fees, 142
- “Unity creates strength”, 2
- Unsystematic risk, 26–27
- Upside risk, 27

- Value
  - funds, 22
  - investing strategy, 132
  - value-based funds, 99
- Vanguard 500 Index (VFINX), 47–48

- Vanguard Real Estate Index Investor (VGSIX), 161
- Vanguard STAR Fund, 11
- Vanguard Target Retirement Funds, 11–12
- Variable annuity, 6–7
- Variety in mutual funds, 9–10
- Venture capital, 114
- Volume discount, 136
- Voting, 6

- Window dressing (strategy), 11

- Yield, 32, 169
  - on bonds or stocks, 134–135
  - dividend, 169
  - income investors high, 105
  - property, 170