

INDEX

- Academic(s)
 - emotions, 66–67
 - institutions, 21–22
 - life, 26–37
- Anger, 8, 9, 33, 35
- Annoyance, 9
- Antecedent-based regulation, 3–4
- Antecedent-focused emotion
 - regulation strategies, 63–64, 66
- Anticipated or felt emotions, 57
- Attentional deployment, 14–15, 48–49
- Business-like ideologies, 20
- Calliope’s strategy, 57
- Centralised educational system, 33
- Cognitive reappraisal, 49–50
- Cognitive-appraisal component, 9–10
- Deep acting, 14–16, 36–37, 57, 62
- Emotion management, 10, 11–13, 16, 35
 - in academia, 61–64
- Emotion regulation, 45
- Emotion self-management, 65
 - in academia, 1
 - nature in academia, 66–68
- Emotion work, 10, 11–13
- Emotional boundaries, 3–4, 11–13, 45, 57–64
 - manipulation, 65
 - strategy, 15
- Emotional demands, 20
 - in academia, 17–22
- Emotional exchanges
 - academic life, 26–37
 - composite job description, 41
 - key terms relating to, 11–13
 - rewarding and meaningful exchanges, 37–41
 - situating, 25–26
- Emotional intelligence (EI), 11–13, 16
- Emotional/emotions. See also
 - Feeling(s), 8–10
 - display rules, 37–38
 - distancing, 59–61
 - emotionally charged work experiences, 57–58
 - involvement, 40
 - labour, 3–5, 10–16, 21, 31, 45, 55–57
 - managing emotions at work, 10–23
 - managing or manipulating, 22–23
 - performances, 11–13, 45
 - regulation, 10–15
 - self-management, 10–13
 - self-regulation, 47–55
 - socialisation, 16–17
 - support, 51
- Empathic emotional labour, 40
- Evolutionary-expressive approach, 8
- Faking unfeelt emotions, 14–15
- Fear, 9

- Feeling(s), 26–28
 - component, 9–10
 - rules, 3, 36, 56
- Genuine emotional labour, 14
- Good-natured humour, 52
- Happiness, 9
- Helping professions, 37–38
- Higher education (HE), 2–3, 18, 25
- Human emotions at work, 8–10
- Humour, 52
- ‘Interactional’ model, 8
- Irritation, 9
- Joy, 9
- Libidinal discharges, 8–9
- Managed Heart, The, 3
- Management theory, 17
- Managerialism, 20
- Marketisation of degree programmes, 20
- Massification, 20
- Motivational component, 9–10
- Motor component, 9–10
- Negative emotions, 53
- Neo-Marxist approach, 66
- New public management philosophy (NPM), 34
 - consequences of, 53
 - philosophy, 17–22
- Organisational policies, 66–67
- ‘Organismic’ model, 8
- Paradox of academic practice, 62
- Pathological emotions, 8–9
- Personal identity, 56
- Psychological processes, 13–14
- Reappraisal, 14–15, 49, 53, 63
- Redirecting attention, 64
- Response-based regulation, 3–4
- Response-focused emotion regulation strategies, 55
- Sadness, 9
- Self-management strategies, 25
- Self-managing academia’s emotional exchanges, 45–46
 - emotion self-regulation, 47–55
 - emotional boundaries, 57–64
 - emotional labour, 55–57
- Self-managing emotions, 2–5
- Seminal process model (Gross), 14–15
- Situation modification, 14–15, 48, 64
- Situation selection, 14–15, 47–48, 64
- Social sharing of emotion, 50–51
- Social world, 36
- Socialised trance, 16–17
- Socially inappropriate emotions, 7
- Somatic component, 9–10
- ‘Storytelling’ method, elements of, 26
- Suppression, 55, 63
 - of felt emotions, 14–15
 - Surface acting, 14–16, 55–56, 62
- Tactic, 57
- Teaching, 67
- Western HE, 62
- Women’s emotional abilities, 31
- Workplace emotions, 9
- Workplace-desired emotional expectations, 2–3