

Index

Note: Page numbers followed by “n” indicate notes.

- Aboriginal Being, 54–55
- Aboriginal Knowledge Systems, 27
- Aboriginal methodological framework, 210
- Aboriginal Peoples, 55, 60–61
- Aboriginal Protection Act, 56, 59
- Aboriginal spirituality, 48
- Aboriginal students in visual arts, 210
 - collaboration, 219
 - contemporary historical influence, 220–221
 - curriculum inclusivity, 217–218
 - findings, 215–217
 - interculturality, 219–220
 - literature review, 210–213
 - methodological framework, 214–215
 - protocols of understanding, 218
 - standpoint, 213–214
 - study, 214
 - welcome or acknowledgement to country, 218–219
- Academic literacy, 135
 - perspectives of self in higher education, 137–138
- Academic socialization approach, 137–138
- Academic teaching and research, 140–141
- Access to COVID-19 Tools (ACT), 264*n*2
- Action, 100
- Action-theoretical approaches, 101
- A-cultural becoming process, 285
- Addiction management, 54
- Affective attributes, 264
- African diaspora, 225–226
- Agency, 100, 103
- Agentive role in higher education, 262–263
- Aggiornamento*, 98
- Ahimsa*, 241
- Analects*, 112–113
- Anathema*, 178
- Andragogy, 231
- Anglosphere, 100, 103, 105
- Anthropocene, 97
- Anthropology, 69, 74, 205
- Association, 102, 174
- Australia
 - Chinese Gen Z Studying in, 110
 - Chinese international students, 115–119
 - Confucian legacy in current Chinese education system, 113–114
 - human habitus and interculturality, 109–111
 - idea of self-cultivation, 111–113
- Australian Institute of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies (AIATSIS), 34
- Authorial self-reflexivity, 262
- Authoring process, 142
- Authority, 58, 85, 113–114, 117–118
- Autoethnographic analysis, 138
- Autoethnographical methodological framework, 262
- Autoethnography, 68, 136, 263
- Autonomy, 187

- Awareness, Authenticity and Autonomy principle (AAA principle), 142
- Axiological needs, 103
- Bantu Philosophy*, 99
- Becoming, 67, 70–72, 97, 271, 175
- Behaviour, 102
- Being, 2–3, 12–13, 47, 67–68, 97, 103, 251, 271
agentive role, 35–36
to be learning, 28–29
in cultures, 26
educationally mobile teacher, 69–70 human, 7
in indigenous knowledge systems, 26
in intercultural spaces, 134
and interculturality, 13–16
interculturality new knowledge systems and, 16–18
introduction and contextualisation, 26 learned knowledge, 30–35
learning progressing, 29–30
in pain, 147
positioning and methodological standpoint, 26–27
study, 27–28
and wholistic education, 61 world in our classrooms, 68–69
- Belonging, 67, 72
belongingness as lived experience, 161–163
global health citizenships, 73–74
in higher education, 159
interculturality, 160–161
interculturality as explanatory lens, 163–165
modes, 200–201
mutual learning and medical pluralism, 74–75
student narratives of
belongingness, 166–169
teaching spaces, 72–73
UNSDG, 159–160
- Belongingness, 161
in higher education context, 161–162
inclusive curricula, educator competences and student
agency, 162–163
as lived experience, 161
student narratives of, 166–169
- Bildung*, 70
- Black Africans, 226*n*2
- Black Lives Matter movement,
251–252
- Borderlands Cooperative, 96
- Borders, 68
- Boston Consulting Group, 271
- Boundaries, 68
- Britzman's concept of difficult
knowledge, 82
- Buddha, 178
- Burgher, 128*n*5
- Cultura Catcherry*, 127
- Cartesian duality, 5
- Catholic Workers Movement, 98
- Chinese Gen Z Studying in
Australia
Chinese international students, 115–119
confucian Legacy in current
Chinese education system,
113–114
human habitus and interculturality, 109–111
idea of self-cultivation, 111–113
- Chinese international students,
115–119
- Chinese learner, 115
- Chineseness, 115
- Chorus bailsa*, 128
- Chronotope, 136
- Citizen, 86
- Civil society, Portuguese impact on,
126–127
- Civilisatory impact of colonisation,
99
- Cogito*, 176

- Collective endeavour, 230–231
- Colonial encounters, 1, 14
- Colonial rule, 126
- Colonial Western education, 228
- Colonialism, 1
- Coloniality, 176
 - of Being, 173
- Colonisation, 55, 59
- Coloniser, 284
- Coming to know process, 179
- Commercialisation of higher education, 173
- Communicating/communication, 69, 149
- Communion, 102
- Community Based Delivery Model, 212
- Community/communities, 200–201
 - community-based literary texts, 80
 - in Congo, 98
 - development, 54, 99–100
 - learning, 60
 - of practice, 198
- Complexity thinking, 135
- Comprehensive internationalisation, 276
- Conflict, 124
- Conflicted affinities, 276–277
- Confronting values, 74
- Confucian classics place, 112
- Confucian teaching, 112, 114
- Confucian tradition believes, 117–118
- Confucian-heritage cultures, 115–116
- Confucianism, 114, 116
- Connection, 54, 55–56
 - connecting disconnected, 59
- Consciousness raising, 100
- Constructive alignment, 72
- Constructivist framework, 277
- Contemporary theories, 153
- Contested teaching practices, 83–84
- Contextualised assessments, 160
- Council of Europe (CoE), 161
- COVAX, 264*n*2
- Co-vid (see COVID-19)
- COVID-19, 2, 262
 - backstory to COVID-19 pandemic, 263–265
 - flipping of normality, 270–271
 - impact in higher education, 262
 - pandemic, 66
 - theoretical and methodological framework, 262
- Creative nonfiction, 186
- Critical approach, 138, 174
- Critical literacy, 137
- Critical ontological framework, 80
- Critical ontology, 89
- Critical pedagogy, 88
- Critical social analysis, 70
- Critical thinking, 187
- Cross-cultural
 - communication, 173
 - dialogue, 173
 - learning, 4
 - translation, 102
- Crossing of borders, 265–269
- Cultural/culture, 5, 97, 105, 110, 135, 173, 187, 202–204, 276
 - awareness, 213–214
 - of borderlessness, 283
 - and community, 30, 32–33
 - competency, 173
 - difference, 3, 6, 174
 - dimensions, 111
 - diversity, 109
 - and interculturality, 173–175
 - relativist, 99
 - scripts, 277
 - tradition, 110
 - traits on domestic life, 127
 - values, 70
- Culturality, 1
 - of other, 5–6
- Curriculum
 - design in plurilingual context, 141–142
 - formal, 166–167
 - hidden, 168–169
 - inclusivity, 217–218
 - informal, 167–168

- Daisaku Ikeda, 239
 Deborah Padfield (DP), 15, 150–152
 DeCentred experience, 186
 breaking through to new old world, 189–191 competing narratives of research, 187–188 competing worlds, 191–193
 small culture formation on go, 193–194
 travelling to ‘A Western University’, 186–187
 Decision-making process, 9
 Decolonial love, 173
 Decoloniality, 255
 Decolonisation, 1, 59, 67
 Democracy, 86
 Department of Education and Training (DET), 213
 Desirous pedagogy, 88–89
 Developing countries, 99
 Development, 100
 Dhamma, 178
Dharma, 239
 Dialogic agentive positioning, 30
 Dialogic approach, 141
 Dialogical Self Theory (DST), 136
 Dialogism, 137
 Dialogue
 theory, 135
 trans-positioning through, 142–143
 Difference, disparity, disadvantage, dysfunction and deprivation (5D Data), 60
 Differential meanings, 105
 Directness, 203
 Disciplines, 68, 113–114
 Disconnection, 54
 connecting disconnected, 59
 Diverging pedagogical culture, 286
 Diversity, 173
 cultural, 109–110
 in Sri Lankan society, 128
 Doctor of Philosophy (PhD), 42
 Dreaming, 60
 Dream–time, 60
 EBSCOhost, 226
 Education, 70, 134
 pedagogy, 82
 Education for Sustainable Development (ESD), 70, 243
 Educator(s), 67
 competences, 162–163
 Emotions, 74
 Engagement modes, 204–205
 English, 80, 97, 201
English Medium Instruction, 198
 Epistemic injustice, 255
 Epistemic reciprocity, 249, 255
 Epistemic shift culture and interculturality, 173–175 idea of interculturality, 173
 non–self concept, 178–179
 philosophy of other, 178
 polarised self and other, 175–178
 self–other distinction embedded in interculturality, 172
 Epistemicide, 255
 Epistemological racism, 255–256
 Epistemology, 253
 Equality, 173
 Equity as standards for behaviour, 165
 Ergonagy, 231
Estado da India, 127
 Ethical essentialisms, 48
 Ethics, 44
 Excluding, 97
 Exclusivity, 1
 Existential needs, 103
 Experience, 96
 Experiential knowledge, 49
 Explanatory models, 153
 Falsehood, 100
 Feeling of trepidation, 267
 Feelings matter, 263, 266
Feitorias (trading posts), 125
 Feminist, 46
 knowledge of systematic racism, 43
 Fictionalisation, 199

- Filiality, 112, 113–114
- Financial sustainability, 270
- Fine Art teaching, 155
- Flipping of normality, 270–271
- Formal curriculum, 166–167
- Fortalezas* (fortresses), 125
- Foucauldian perspectives, 46
- Fragmentation, 101
- Frankfurt School, 101
- Functional interculturality, 281–282
- Functionalist approach, 174
- Fuzzy context, 276

- Gademerian fusion of horizons, 174
- Gandhi, Mohandas Karamchand, 238
 - challenging epistemic assumptions and suggestions for practice, 245–246
 - and moral leader, 238–240
 - pedagogical approach to learning for global citizenship based on study of Gandhi, 243–245
 - political creativity and bold collective action, 240–243
- Ganma* theory, 50
- Gao kao*, 113–114, 119
- Garawa People, 55
- Garma refers*, 48
- Gauthama Buddha*, 178
- GCE (see Global Citizenship Education (GCED))
- Generic meanings, 105
- Global Alliance for Vaccines and Immunisation (Gavi), 264*n*2
- Global citizenship, 173
- Global Citizenship Education (GCED), 238
- Global health citizenships, 73–74
- Global learning skills, 279
- Global literacies in plurilingual context, 141–142
- Globalisation, 4, 180, 276
- Google Scholar, 226
- Graduate School of Education, 253
- Habitus, 262, 263–264, 268
- Happiness, 243–244
- Health, 66
- Heutagogy, 231
- Hidden curriculum, 168–169
- Hierarchical meanings, 105
- Higher degree research (HDR), 44
- Higher education (HE), 198 (see also University education)
 - academic literacy perspectives and (trans)positioning of ‘self’ in, 137–138
 - belongingness in higher education context, 161–162
 - commercialisation of, 173
 - images and participatory methods within, 154–155
 - interculturality in, 3
 - internationalisation of, 173
 - practitioner, 249
 - skill culture in, 173
 - teachers, 278
- Higher education institutions (HEIs), 109, 160
- Historical narratives, 129
- Historicity of other, 231
- Historio-political concept, 30–31
- Homogenisation, 45–46
- Host national cultures, 278
- Human becoming, 178
- Human habitus concept, 109–111
- Human Scale approach, 103
- Humanism, 239
- Humility, 71
- Hybridity, 192

- Ideal-typical modes of relating, 102
- Identification, 1
- Identity politics, 105
- Ideological becoming, 135
- Ideologies, 135, 239
- Images within higher education, 154–155
- Inclusion, 4–5, 173
- Inclusive curricula, 162–163
- Inclusive internationalisation, 276

- Inclusive learning environments, 160
- Inclusivity, 1, 249
- Incommensurability, 48–49
- Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), 269
- Indigenous epistemology, 49
- Indigenous knowledge, 9, 45, 82
- Indigenous Knowledge Systems, 2–3, 29, 210, 214
 - agentive role, 35–36
 - to be learning, 28–29
 - being in, 26
 - introduction and contextualisation, 26
 - learned knowledge, 30–35
 - learning progressing, 29–30
 - positioning and methodological standpoint, 26–27
 - study, 27–28
- Indigenous Languages and Arts
 - programs (ILA programs), 212
- Indigenous literary texts, 80
- Indigenous peoples, 8–9, 46
- Indigenous philosophies, 228–229
- Indigenous research, 42
 - appropriation, 47–48
 - homogenisation, 45–46
 - incommensurability and metaphorisation, 48–49
 - knowledge, 49–50
 - positioning, 42–44
 - story telling, 46–47
- Indigenous sovereignty, 44
- Indigenous standpoint theory, 43
- Indigenous Visual Arts Industry Support (IVAIS), 212
- Indirect social work, 104
- Individual professional academics, 199
- Individualism, 187
- Individualist criticality, 187–188
- Informal curriculum, 167–168
- Information technology, 276
- Innovative visual methods, 153
- Insiders, 200
- Institutional cultures, 278
- Institutional strategic frameworks, 173
- Institutionalised values, 66
- Integrated English curriculum in Kenya, 81
- Intellectual–professional environment, 103–104
- Intercultural, 4
 - being, 136–137, 139–140
 - challenging epistemic assumptions and suggestions for practice, 245–246
 - competency, 173
 - education, 174–175, 238
 - and moral leader, 238–240
 - paradigm, 277, 279
 - pedagogical approach to learning for global citizenship based on study of Gandhi, 243–245
 - perspectives on education for citizenship, 238
 - political creativity and bold collective action, 240–243
 - scaffolding, 101
 - teamwork, 168–169
 - translation, 102
 - understanding, 136
- Interculturality, 3–5, 6–7, 96, 106, 109–111, 160–161, 163–164, 219–220, 251
 - being, new knowledge systems and, 16–18
 - being and, 13–16
 - culture and, 173–175
 - equity and respect as standards for behaviour, 165
 - as explanatory lens, 163
 - of other, 5–6
 - outcomesm, 164
 - as process, 165
 - self–other distinction embedded in, 172
 - in Sri Lankan society, 128
- Interculturality, conceptualising, 15, 174

- International Association of Building Companions (IBO), 98
- International Federation of Social Workers (IFSW), 228
- International Institute for Higher Education in Latin America and Caribbean (IESALC), 270
- International Labour Organisation (ILO), 9
- International students, revenue and, 268–269
- Internationalisation, 1, 4–5, 276
 - analytical process, 198–199
 - belonging modes, 200–201
 - cooperative cultures, 205–206
 - culture, 202–204
 - of curriculum, 160
 - engagement modes, 204–205
 - in higher education, 70, 173, 276
 - language, 201–202
 - process, 199–200
 - questions for participants, 208
- Interpolation, 42, 46–47
- Interprofessional interactions, 67
- Intersensoriality, 179
- Intra-cultural understandings, 102
- Kaffrinha*, 128
- Kenya Institute of Curriculum Development (KICD)
 - (see Kenya Institute of Education (KIE))
- Kenya Institute of Education (KIE), 82–83
- Kenyan higher education, 80
- Knowledge, 135, 249
 - systems, 129, 270
- Language, 28, 96, 135, 201–202
 - Portuguese impact on, 127–128
- Languaging, 96
- Learning, 1, 111, 230–231, 265–268
 - to be, 238
 - to do, 238
 - and everyday life, 229–230
 - for global citizenship, 243–245
 - to know, 238
 - progressing, 29–30
 - space, 54
- Liminality, 282
- Lingua franca*, 96–97
- Linguistic border, 98
- Linguistic pluralism, 98
- Listening, 69
- Lived experience, 161
 - belongingness as, 161–163
- Macrolevel framework, 263–265
- Management Systems, 268
- Manikay*, 48
- Manufactured difference, 6
 - effective engagement with alterity, 7–8
 - interculturality, 6–7
- Margins, 191–192
- Marrung Plan, 213
- Marxism, 102
- Mary Wickenden (MW), 150
- Master's degree in Public Health (MPH), 69
- Matrix, 103
- Medical pluralism, 74–75
- Mesolevel framework, 265–269
- Metaphor, 50
- Metaphorisation, 48–49
- Methodological approach, 54–55
- Microlevel framework, 270–271
- Midiru People, 55
- Ministry of Education Science and Technology (MEST), 82
- More Knowledgeable Other (MKO), 142
- Multicultural higher education, 134
- Multicultural learning spaces, 67
- Multicultural paradigm, 277, 279
- Multicultural pedagogic paradigm, 280
- Multiculturalism, 4
- Multilingual higher education, 134
- Multilingual learning spaces, 67
- Multilingualism, 96–98
- Mutual learning, 74–75

- Nādagama*, 128
- Naming, 30, 31–32
- Narrative approach, 277
 - within participatory orientation, 278
- National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), 160
- National Ethics Application Form (NEAF), 35
- National Health and Medical Research Council (NHMRC), 35
- Neo-liberal agenda, 279, 283
- Neo-liberal rationality, 276
- New knowledge systems, 8–12, 251
 - being, interculturality and, 16–18
- New millennium (Gen Z), 110
- Non-self concept, 178–179
- Non-indigenous researchers, 42
- Non-violence (see Ahimsa)
- Non-Western modes, 46
- Normality, flipping of, 270–271

- One size fits all approach, 166–167
- Ontology, 253
- Oral tradition, 30, 33, 42
- Other, 172, 175
 - polarised, 175–178
- Otherness, 136
- Outsideness, 136
- Outsiders, 200

- Pain, 146–147
 - alternative routes to knowledge creation, 153–154
 - being in, 147
 - images and participatory methods within higher education, 154–155
 - participatory methods and reflexive turn, 147–148
 - visualising pain project in Delhi, India, 148–153
- Participatory creative workshop, 150
- Participatory methods, 147–148, 153
 - within higher education, 154–155

- Pedagogical approach to learning, 243–245
- Pedagogical paradigms
 - changing pedagogical relationships, 284–285
 - intercultural pedagogic paradigm, 281–282
 - multicultural pedagogic paradigm, 280
 - post-cultural paradigm, 282–284
 - in relation to culture, 279–280
- Pedagogical positioning
 - academic literacy perspectives and (trans)positioning of ‘self’, 137–138
 - academic teaching and research, 140–141
 - autoethnographic analysis and discussion, 138
 - education, 134
 - global literacies and curriculum design in plurilingual context, 141–142
- PhD journey as springboard, 138–140
 - theoretical and methodological frameworks, 135–137
 - trans-positioning through dialogue, 142–143
- Pedagogical volatility, 285
- Pedagogy, 160, 231, 270–271
 - desirous, 88–89
 - education, 82
- Perpendicular pronoun, 96*n*1
- Personal transformations, 70–72
- Personcentred types of conversations, 148
- PhD journey as springboard, 138–140
- Phenomenology, 102
- Photo elicitation techniques, 147
- Photograph, 154
- Plurilingual higher education, 134 (see also Higher education (HE))
 - global literacies and curriculum design in plurilingual context, 141–142

- Polarised self and other, 175–178
- Political determinants of health, 66
- Politics, 230–231
- Portuguese
 - impact on civil society, 126–127
 - impact on language and literature, 127–128
 - impact on religion, 126
 - recognising Portuguese legacy, 128–129
 - impact of trade on Sri Lankan economy and culture, 125–126
- Positioning, 42–44, 139
- Positivism, 97, 102
- Postcolonial Kenyan education, 80
- Postcolonialism, 1, 59
- Post-cultural paradigm, 277, 279, 282–284
- Post-cultural pedagogical paradigm
 - changing pedagogical relationships, 284–285
 - conflicted affinities, 276–277
 - intercultural pedagogic paradigm, 281–282
 - multicultural pedagogic paradigm, 280
 - pedagogical paradigms
 - comparison, 286
 - pedagogical paradigms in relation to culture, 279–280
 - post-cultural paradigm, 282–284
 - studies and key findings, 277
 - Western cognitive hegemony, 275–276
- Post-cultural spaces, 285
- Practical systematicity, 268
- Praxis, 96
- Primo Search, 226
- Professions, 68
- Programmed disconnection, 54, 56–59
- Protocols, 30, 34
 - of understanding, 218
- Proximity, 165
- Public education, 86
- Quality of Education, 70, 159–160
- Quamptie* methodology, 61
- Rationally developed institutions, 239
- Reciprocal exchanges of national cultures, 276
- Recognition, 186, 190
- Reflection, 148
- Reflective analysis, 34
- Reflective interculturality, 281–282
- Reflexive turn, 147–148, 155
- Reflexivity, 61, 148
- Relatedness theory, 214
- Relational knowledge, 49
- Relational objectivity, 48
- Relationality, 30, 34, 46–48, 100, 135
- Relationally saturated culture, 98–99
- Religion, Portuguese impact on, 126
- Respect, 71
 - as standards for behaviour, 165
- Responsible internationalisation, 276
- Revenue and international students, 268–269
- Salt March (see Satyagraha)
- Sanga, 178
- SARiHE project, 252
- Satyagraha*, 240–241, 244
- Scaffolding, 96
- School of Education, 253
- Self, 172, 175
 - polarised, 175–178
 - self-direction, 187
 - self-awareness, 115
 - self-cultivation, 111–113
 - self-identification, 115
 - self-knowledge, 230–231
 - self-other bifurcation, 172
 - self-other dichotomy, 177
 - self-reflexivity, 54, 59
- Selfhood, 135
 - pedagogical process, 88
- Semantic network of meanings, 153
- Semi-structured interviews, 199
- Shared knowledge, 30, 34
- Shifting identities, 282

- Situational circumstance, 267
- Situational trepidation, 267
- Skill culture in higher education, 173
- Skill-based technological and
 - academic learning, 268
- Skills-based approach, 137
- Social determinants of health, 66
- Social essentialism, 174
- Social groups, 174
- Social justice, 4–5, 238
- Social philosophy, 102
- Social support, 167–168
- Social theory, 102
- Social work
 - education for African background students, 232
 - teaching, 228
 - Ubuntu* relevance to, 224–225
- Sociocultural plurality in Sri Lanka
 - historical backdrop, 124–125
 - impact on civil society, 126–127
 - Portuguese impact of trade on Sri Lankan economy and culture, 125–126
 - Portuguese impact on language and literature, 127–128
 - Portuguese impact on religion, 126
 - recognising Portuguese legacy, 128–129
- Socio-economic dynamics, 285
- Sociology, 102
 - of absence, 3
- Soka*, 243
- Solipsism, 176
- Stark realisation, 266
- Story telling, 42, 46–47, 70
- Storytaking, 70
- ‘Strands of knowledge’ framework, 262
- Structural-functionalist approach, 102
- Students, 55
 - agency, 162–163
 - experience, 173
 - formal curriculum, 166–167
 - hidden curriculum, 168–169
 - informal curriculum, 167–168
 - narratives of belongingness, 166
- Superdiversity, 69
- Suspicion, 174
- Sustainability, 4–5
- Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), 243
 - SDG 4, 73, 243
- Swedish Foundation for International Cooperation in Research and Higher Education (STINT), 65*fn*
- Tacit Explicit, 55
- Teacher Education, 55
- Teacherly self, perception and construction of, 85–86
- Teachers, 114
- Teaching, 1, 70, 265–268
 - contested teaching practices, 83–84
 - desirous pedagogy, 88–89
 - dilemmas in, 87
 - indigenous texts in Kenya, 81–83
 - literary texts in Kenya, 80
 - perception and construction of teacherly self, 85–86
 - of selfhood, 84
 - social work, 228
 - spaces, 68, 72–73
 - theory and practice in, 84–85
- Teaching spaces
 - adopting transgressive approach, 67–68
 - becoming, 70–72
 - being, 68–70
 - belonging, 72–75
 - university teachers in global health and intercultural education, 66–67
- Technical and Further Education (TAFE), 213
- Terra nullius*, 48
- Tertiary education, 100
- Theatre of oppressed techniques, 153
- Thematic analysis, 278
- Third space pedagogy, 138

- Togetherness, 263
Tombos, 127
 Torres Strait Islander Peoples, 60–61
 Torres Strait Islander students in visual arts, 210
 collaboration, 219
 contemporary historical influence, 220–221
 curriculum inclusivity, 217–218
 findings, 215–217
 interculturality, 219–220
 literature review, 210–213
 methodological framework, 214–215
 protocols of understanding, 218
 standpoint, 213–214
 study, 214
 welcome or acknowledgement to country, 218–219
 Training Tool, 54, 55
 Trans-cultural learnings, 102
 Transdisciplinary theory, 96
 Transgressing boundaries, 70
 Transgressive approach, adopting, 67–68
 Translanguaging, rich space for, 140–141
 Transnationalism, 4
 Trans-positioning, 136
 through dialogue, 142–143
 of self in higher education, 137–138
 Tsunesaburo Makiguchi, 243
Tuppahi, 127
 Two-layered approach, 263

Ubuntu, 224, 254
 African diaspora, 225–226
 indigenous philosophies, 228–229
 learning, politics, collective endeavour and self-knowledge, 230–231 learning and everyday life, 229–230 methodology, 226–227
 relevance to social work, 224–225
 social work, 232–233
 social work education for African background students, 232 teaching social work, 228 and Ubuntu-gogy, 227–228, 231
 Ubuntu-gogy, 224, 231
 Ubuntu and, 227–228
 UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, 70
 Unhomeliness, 253
 United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), 6, 238
 United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 4 (UNSDG), 159–160
 University education, 265 (see also Wholistic education)
 revenue and international students, 268–269
 teaching and learning, 265–268

Vada bala, 128
 Value-creating global citizenship education, 243
 Verbal method, 153
 Victorian Aboriginal Education Association Incorporated (VAEAI), 213
 Victorian Curriculum Assessment Authority (VCAA), 213
 Violence, 124
 Virtual mobility, 276
 Visual arts, 210
 Visual images for communicating pain, 149
 Visualising Pain Project in Delhi, India, 148–153
 Vocational Education Training sector (VET), 54

 Ways of Being, 214, 216, 250
 Ways of Doing, 215, 217
 Ways of Knowing, 214, 215–216
Welltanschauung, 129
 Western metaphors, 50

- White complicity, 255
- Whiteness, 254–256
- Wholistic education, 54, 59–61
 - being and, 61
- World Economic Forum, 271
- World Health Organisation (WHO),
264
- Writing process, 250–251
- Yarning circle, 34
- Youth unemployment, 271
- Zone of Proximal Development, 268
- Zones of absence, 3
- Zoom (software program), 266