

Index

- Abuse, 162
- Advertising, 91
- African National Congress (ANC), 39
- Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA), 163
- All England Lawn Tennis Club (AELTC), 24
- All-American Girls Professional Baseball League (AAGPBL), 5
- All-American Red Heads, 55
- Amateur Athletic Union (AAU), 54–55
- American Basketball Association (ABA), 76
- American Basketball League (ABL), 56, 75–76
- Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIWA), 55
- Association of Tennis Professionals (ATP), 20–22
- Athlete-mother
- in conflict, 150–152
  - as superhuman, 145–146
  - themes of, 149–152
  - as transgressor, 146
- Athletes, 158
- Australian Football League Women (AFLW), 194
- Basketball, 54, 89–90
- gender pay gap in American professional basketball, 58–62
  - history, 54–55
  - pay differences within women's basketball, 62–65
  - women's professional basketball in United States, 55–58
- Big Bash League (BBL), 211–212
- Billie Jean King, 26–29
- Blackness, 30–31
- Boardroom blows, 46–48
- Brakpan Falconettes, 40
- Bruising battles, 46–48
- Canadian Women's Hockey League (CWHL), 77
- Central Business District (CBD), 215
- Chief marketing officer (CMO), 92
- City Press*, 42–43
- Club selection, 200–201
- Collective bargaining agreement (CBA), 59
- Commercialisation, 153–154
- Coronavirus, 230
- COVID-19, 230, 236–239
- Cricket, 235–237
- in Australia, 213–214
  - importance of fan experience, 213–214
  - measures, 216
  - methodology, 215–216
  - participant observation, 215
  - results, 216–221
  - survey findings, 218–221
  - survey participants, 215–216
- Cycling, 176, 184
- Cycling Independent Reform Commission (CIRC), 177–178
- Cyclists' Alliance, 177
- Digital media. See also Social media, 7, 124–127

- Digital technologies, 158
 Director sportif (DS), 178
- Economic theory, 64
 Effeminacy, 25
 English Cricket Board (ECB), 235–236
 European Union (EU), 163
 Exploratory Sequential Design, 215
- Facebook, 130, 158
 Failure, 74–75, 81–82
 Fan engagement, 214
 Fashionable femininity, 153
 Fédération Internationale de Football Association (FIFA), 230–231
 Female athletes, 164–165, 195–196
 Feminist commentators on sport, 4
 Football, 230–233
 Football Association (FA), 231
 Football Federation of Australia (FFA), 232–233
 Forgetting, 76
 Fulltime cyclist, work of, 179–181
- Game broadcasts, 130–131
 Gender, 246 change in South Africa, 39–40 difference and inequality, 4 equity, 124
   ideology, 211–212
   pay gap in American professional basketball, 58–62
 Gender-based violence, 163
   complexity of researching gender-based violence in virtual spaces, 166–168
 Gender-bland sexism, 214
 Gendered struggle for better pay and conditions, 184–188
 Global tour, 108, 110, 117–118
 Golf, 106
   ambivalence to women's game, 115–116 downplaying of remarks, 114–115
   global tour, 108, 110, 117–118
   history of women in professional golf, 107–108
   Jeongeun Lee6, Hank Haney, and 2019 US Women's Open, 110–113
   methodology, 113–114
   privileging of men, 116–117
 Golf, 237–238
 Goodwood Gazelles, 40
 Grassroots to Springboks, 40–44
- Hurstville Oval, 215
- Imbokodo, 46–48
 Inequality and momentum in women's cycling, 177–179
 Instagram, 158
 International Cricket Council (ICC), 236–237
 International Lawn Tennis Federation (ILTF), 26
 International Tennis Federation (ITF), 26
 Intersectionality, 158–159, 165
- Korean LPGA (KLPGA), 112
- Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA). See also Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA), 4–5, 106, 237 positioning, 108
   Tour, 106
 Legitimacy, 178
 Long-term participant development plan (LTPDP), 45–46
 Low theory, 74
- Mainstream media framing of Williams' motherhood, 148–149
 Major League Soccer (MLS), 58
 Marketing, 90, 217–218
 Masculinity, 42–43

- Media, 6–7, 106, 125–127, 129
 coverage, 124–125
- Mediated visibilities, 124–125
- Memorable match-day, 216–218
- Men's professional sports stars, 2
- Mixed Martial Arts (MMA), 20
- Monetary exchange, 4–5
- Motherhood, 143–146
- Multiplicity, 159
- National Basketball Association (NBA), 54, 90
- National Basketball League, 54–55
- National Football League (NFL), 91
- National governing body (NGB), 231
- National Hockey League (NHL), 76
- National Rugby League Women's Premiership (NRLW), 194 anticipation, decision making and laying foundations for new competition, 196–197 journey, 197–198
 player expectations, 205–206 player experiences, 200–201, 205–206 players, 198–200
 semi-professional competition for women in Rugby league, 195–196
- National Women's Coalition (NWC), 39–40
- National Women's Football League (NWFL), 128
- National Women's Hockey League (NWHL), 6, 71–72, 74 development, 75–78
- New media, 6–7, 125–126
- News stories about women in football, 132–133
- North America, 71–72
- Online blogs, 7
- Online communication, 163
- Online violence, 165
- Open Tennis, 26
- Photography project, 75
- Port Elizabeth event, 43
- Pregnancy, 143–146
- Professional athletes, 2, 7, 10, 245
- Professional footballer, 9
- Professional golf, 237
- Professional Golf Association (PGA), 107
- Professional road cycling, 176–177
- Professional sport, 75
 women in, 4–6
- Professional Women's Hockey Players Association (PWHPA), 82
- Professionalisation of women's sport, 1–4, 246 issues and debates, 10–12
 media, and new media, 6–7 women at work, 7–10
 women in professional sport, 4–6
- Professionalism, 178
 in women's sport, 7–10
- Progress narratives, 73–74
- Racism, 106, 111
- Rise of Women's Sports, The, 124
- Rose Ladies Series, 238
- Rugby, 38, 233, 235
 bruising battles, boardroom blows and 'Imbokodo', 46–48 and gender change in South Africa, 39–40
 grassroots to Springboks, 40–44
 racial and sexist game, 38–39 reputation, 44–46
 semi-professional competition for rugby league, 195–196
- Rugby Football League (RFL), 233–234
- Rugby Football Union (RFU), 234–235
- Salaries, 56, 59
- Self-representation in virtual environments, 159–161

- Semi-professional, 10
 competition for women in Rugby league, 195–196
 sport, 246–247
- Serena Williams, 20, 142, 146–147
 commercialisation, 153–154
 data collection, 147–148 and global marketplace for women's professional tennis, 29–32
 mainstream media framing of Williams' motherhood, 148–149 pregnancy, motherhood and sport, 145–146 pregnancy, motherhood and workplace, 143–144 self-presentation of athlete-mother identity, 152–153
 thematic analysis, 148
 themes of Athlete-motherhood, 149–152
- Sexism, 106, 111
- Short-term contracting, 200
- Social media, 7, 126–127, 142
 complexity of researching gender-based violence in virtual spaces, 166–168 harm(s) of virtual violence, 165–166 platforms, 158
 self-representation in virtual environments, 159–161
 strategies, 131–132
 third-wave feminism and intersectionality, 158–159 violence against women in virtual spaces, 163–165 violence in virtual environments, 162–163
- Social networking sites, 7
- South Africa, Rugby and gender change in, 39–40
- South African Rugby Board (SARFB), 39
- South African Rugby Employers Organisation (SAREO), 46
- South African Rugby Football Board (SARFB), 38
- South African Rugby Football Union (SARFU), 39, 42
- South African Rugby Players Association (SARPA), 46
- Space
 for empowerment, 159–161
 of oppression, 162–163
- Sponsorships, 133–134
- Sport, 3, 8, 145–146, 211–212, 230
 leagues, 126–127
- Sport Fan Motivation Scale, 216
- Sports Confederation and Olympic Committee (SASCOC), 46
- Sportswomen, 246
 future for, 238–239
- Springboks, grassroots to, 40–44
- Success, 81–82
- Suffragettes v. Mere Men, 38
- Supermum, 149–150
- Sydney Cricket Ground (SCG), 215
- Technological innovations, 158
- Tennis, 20, 23, 142
 Billie Jean King, Virginia Slims and 'Women's Lob' Movement, 26–29
 Suzanne Lenglen and incipient professionalisation of women's tennis, 23–26
 Venus and Serena Williams and global marketplace, 29–32
- Thematic analysis, 148
- Third-wave feminism, 158–159
- Tomboyism, 42–43
- Twenty20 (T20), 211–212
- Twitter, 7, 158
- Union Cycliste Internationale (UCI), 176, 185
- United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), 163
- United States Lawn Tennis Association (USLTA), 27

- US Soccer Federation (USSF), 232–233
- Violence
in virtual environments, 162–163
against women in virtual spaces, 163–165
- Virtual technologies, 162
- Virtual violence, harm(s) of, 165–166
- Visibility, 124
- Volksmoeders, 38–39
- Wages, 54, 56, 59
- William Webb Ellis Rugby World Cup Tournament, 40
- Wimbledon Programme* (2004), 31
- Women, 106
clubs, 231
cricket, 212–213
cycling, 184
leagues, 126
peloton, 181–184
professional basketball in United States, 55–58
in professional sport, 4–6 racing bikes, 176–177
rugby union, 38
team sport in Australia, 194–195
at work, 7–10
- Women's American Basketball
Association (WABA), 56,
75–76
- Women's American football, 124
game broadcasts, 130–131
and media, 127–129
media, new media and women's sport, 125–126
news stories about women in football, 132–133
social media strategies, 131–132
sponsorships, 133–134
sports leagues and digital media, 126–127
- Women's basketball, 54, 89–90
pay differences within, 62–65
- Women's Basketball League (WBL), 5–6
- Women's Big Bash League (WBBL), 211–212
- Women's Football Alliance, 124
(in) visibility of, 129–130
mediated (in) visibilities of, 134–135
- Women's ice hockey, 71–72
failure and transformation, 74–75 future, 82–83
mediating 'success' and 'failure', 81–82
progress narratives, 73–74
steadfast positioning of women's
sport, 78–81
- Women's National Basketball
Association (WNBA), 5–6, 54, 90
as legitimate sport, 97–99 and opening to activism, 99–101
as part of struggle for gender equality, 94–97
as valid commercial enterprise, 91–94
- Women's Professional Basketball League (WBL), 55, 75–76, 89–90
- Women's Professional Golf
Association (WPGA), 106
- Women's sport, 1–4, 71–72, 107–108, 125–126, 176, 230, 245
professionalisation of, 1–4 professionalism in, 7–10 steadfast positioning of, 78–81
- Women's Tennis Association (WTA),
4–6, 20, 22, 127
- Women's World Cup (WWC),
230–231
- Women's World Tour (WWT), 176
- Workplace, 143–144
- World Hockey Association (WHA), 76