INDEX

Active learning, 22
Administrative co-workers, 5–6
Aesthetic(s), 93–94
  experiences, 93–94
American selves, 213–214
Anxiety, 172
Arts, 9–10, 92–93, 98–99
At-risk students aesthetic experiences, 93–94 and arts, 92–93
  indirect approach, 94–95
  learning through emotional and perceptual experiences, 99–100
  stories, 95–99

Bad schools, 143–144
Barometer of Completion, 34
Blackpool
  contextual analysis, 139–141 method, 141–142
  solution from voices of youth, 142–147
Bullying, 10, 106–107

Change, 182
Civilizing Process, The, 10, 116–117, 120–121 through education, 124–125 high expectations and pressure of education, 120–121 influence of earlier experiences in primary school, 122–124 lack of support and understanding, 117–119 Norbert Elias and, 116–117 voices of three students, 117
Classroom management, 81–82
Co-creating/co-creation, 20, 22, 199–200, 202 learning, 22–23

Co-learning in research, 209–210
Co-participatory analysis, 182
Co-researchers, 19–21, 24
Combatting marginalisation by co-creating education, 207
Communication, 160–162
Community, 20–21
  matters, 148
  of practice, 23–24
Context, 104, 142–143
Converse dialogue, 160–161
Crafts, 70
Critical theoretical lens, 38–41
Cultural capital, 108–109

Danish Folkeskole, 105–107
Dehumanisation, 107
Denmark, policy messages, 35–38
Depression, 110–111, 172
Dialogue, 160–162
Disadvantage, 48, 141, 145
Distinction, 124
Dropout, 30, 38–39, 66–67, 129

Early school leaver (ESL), 30
  critical theoretical lens, 38–41
  critiques, 40–41
  policy messages, 31–38
Early school leaving, 18–19, 30, 38–39, 48
Ecological model, 141
Education(al). See also Inclusive education, 124–125, 141, 168, 196–197 justice, 219–221 policies, 49 system, 17
Engagement, 92, 158, 160
Equalities Literacy Framework, 4, 8–9, 48, 50, 142, 157, 214 in higher education, 202
  momentary trajectory, 55–57
  oppression or liberation technologies, 53–54 positioning by others, 52–53 positioning of self, 54–55 pre-existing context and lived experience, 50–52
Equalities Literacy Model, The, 6–7
Equalities Literacy Theory, 104
Equality, 49, 196–197
Equity, 154–155, 197
Ethnographic/ethnography, 63–64
  DNA, 63
  project, 65

Family, 168
matters, 147–148
First-generation students, 17
Formal education, 154, 156–158
Friendships, 168, 171
Funding, 148–149

Global Hope, 216
Gymnasium, 123, 125

Happenstance, 67–68
Higher education. See also Inclusive education, 17, 196–197 co-constructed and socio-cultural learning, 198–199 equality literate in, 202 indirect approach in, 201 minding context, 199–200
WELD model and implication for, 202–205
Home, 105
Homework, 83–86
Hyphenated selves, 213–214

Inclusion, 127–129
Inclusive education, 127–129 complex picture, 129–130
lacking inclusion in education, 134–136 narratives of lacking inclusion, 130–133 works, 133–134
Indirect Approach, The, 5–7, 9, 62, 64, 94–95, 154–155, 157, 161 balancing act, 65 basics, 62–64
crafts, 70
direction of interview, 70–71
happenstance, 67–68
in higher education, 201
methodology, 182–183
mutual understandings, 66–67
power relations, 72
questioning technique, 169
storyteller, 68–69
Inequality, 49
Inequity, 49
Informal education, 154, 156–158
International studies, 92
Invert dialogue, 160–161

Knowledge, 64

Labour markets, 4
Ladder of participation, 158–159
Learner as teacher dynamic, 64 paradigm, 69

Learning through emotional and perceptual experiences, 99–100
Legitimate peripheral participation, 23
Liberation technologies, 53–54, 144–145
Literacy, 48, 196–197
Lived experiences, 142–143
Low self-efficacy, 110–111

Marginalisation, 104, 182–183 comparative helicopter view on findings, 183–185
  WELD, 188, 190, 192
Marginalisation and Co-created Education (MaCE), 4, 8, 12, 16, 20, 23–24, 52, 62, 210
  community, 220
  cornerstones, 198
  experiences, 154–155
  project, 139–140
  researchers in, 62 team, 57
Modern ethnography, 63–64
Momentary trajectory, 55–57
  implications for practitioners and researchers, 56–57
Motivation, 92, 97–98
Music, 98–99
Muslim' selves, 213–214
Mutual understandings, 66–67

Narratives, 62, 82–83, 110, 128, 185, 196–197
Neglect, 173–174
Neoliberal meritocracy, 149
Norbert Elias, 116–117
Norway, policy messages, 33–35
Norwegian educational system, 128
Not in Education, Employment or Training (NEET), 30–32, 140–142

Oppression technologies, 53–54, 144–145
Opting out, 40

Participation, 158–160 in research, 209–210
Policy messages, 31–38
  Denmark, 35–38
  Norway, 33–35
  United Kingdom, 31–33
Policymakers, 49
Portal, 215–219
Positioning by others, 52–53, 143–144 of self, 54–55
Post-secondary education, 16
Power relations, 72
Practical teaching, 135

Practice communities, 105
Pressure of education, 120–121 Primary school, 82–83 influence of earlier experiences in, 122–124 Privilege, 48
Production school, 11
Pulling out, 40
Pushout, 39

Reflecting 'in' action, 162
Reflecting 'on' action, 162
Reflective practice, 162–163
Relations, 168
Relationship, 209–210
Repercussions of school transfer, 107–110
Research, 66–67

Safety, 156
Scholars, 5–6
School(s), 105, 130
  failure, 66–67, 92 leaving, 38–39 matter, 148–149 society, 16, 108–109
  teachers, 81–82
Secondary school, 82–83
Self-efficacy, 111
Self-positioning, 145–146
Social determinants of health model, 141
Social exclusion process, 104–107
  repercussions of school transfer, 107–110
  in schools, 10
  trajectories and low self-efficacy, 110–111
Social inclusion, 16–17, 154–155
Social reproduction, 10–11, 141–142
Socio-cultural learning, 8, 198–199
  co-researchers, 21–24
  methodology, 17–18
  social inclusion and higher education, 17 students, 18–21
Solutions, 183
Sports Club College, 146–147
Stine-interrupting-machine, 107
Stories, 219–221
Storyteller, 68–69
Student–teacher relationship, 9, 81
  homework, 83–86
  vulnerable children and young people in school, 81–82 young people's narratives, 82–83 Support, 169–173
Supportive communities, 169
Symbolic violence, 149–150

Teacher as learner paradigm, 69
Technologies of oppression or liberation, 53–54

Towns matter, 149
Trajectories, 110–111, 146–147
Traumas, 122–123
Turnaround teachers, 81–82

UngSA study, 94–95
United Kingdom, policy messages, 31–33
University College of Southeast Norway, The, 6–7
University of Cumbria in United Kingdom, 6–7

Vent diagrams, 217–218
VIA University College in Denmark, 6–7
Vulnerability, 104
Vulnerable children in school, 81–82
Vulnerable positions, 104 Vulnerable young people, 80 in school, 81–82

Well-being, 100, 141
Well-being, education, learning and development (WELD), 188, 190, 192, 197 model and implication for higher education, 202–205

Young people, 8, 16, 128, 154 dialogue and communication, 160–162 engagement and participation, 158–160 lenses, 155
  narratives, 82–83
  reflective practice, 162–163
  stories, 82
  understanding and accessing, 155–157
Young students, 116–117, 120–121
'Your future deserves preparation' campaign, 36–37
Youth Voices in Education: Methods, Theory, Practice, 6–7
Youth work, 155–156, 159–160