

Index

- Accel Share Company (ASC), 124–125
- Acceptability, affordability,
  - accessibility, and awareness approach (4A approach), 59–60
- Acquisition, 58–59
- Active/engaged participation, 135
- Activities, 12–13, 106
- Actors, 12–13, 106
- Adaptation, 107
- Adaptive orientation, 50
- Alliance(s). See also Strategic alliances, 4–5
  - in fast-adapting countries, 13–15
  - in medium-adapting countries, 15–17
  - on networks, 84–85
  - portfolios, 108–109
  - in slow-adapting countries, 17–18
- Ansoff's matrix, 51–52
- Baltic states, 151–152
- Brazil, Russia, India, ina, and South Africa (BRICS), 145–146
- Business
  - B2B firms, 106
  - environment, 61–62
  - networks, 106
- Case study, 127
- Central and Eastern Europe (CEE), 145
- Chinese government, 74
- Cognitive pillars, 70, 107–108
- Collaboration, 102–103, 115
- Collectivism, 148
- Common motives, 19–20
- Competitive strategies in international market, 50
- Complementary resources, 82
- Construct validity, 9–10, 136
- Corporate strategy, 48–49
- Corruption, 76
  - index, 76
- Cost focus strategy, 53
- Cultural factors, 77–78
- Culture, 108
- Dagens Industri*, 9
- Degree of internationalization, 91
- Degree of standardization in marketing programs and processes, 53–54
- Demographics, 59–60
- Developing countries, 34
- Differentiation focus strategy, 53
- Differentiation strategy, 53
- Diversity, 59–60
- Dominant/transformational participation, 135
- Dynamics, 59–60
- Eastern and Central Europe (ECE), 3, 6, 48–49, 81–82, 116–118
  - countries, 5
  - liberalization of ECE region, 4
  - marketing strategy alternatives for, 54–57
  - markets, 4–5
  - selection of countries, 6–7
- Emerging economies (EEs), 47–50
- Emerging markets (EMs). See also International markets, 31–34, 48–49
  - aims and research questions, 42
  - characteristics, 32
  - contributions, 42–43
  - development process in, 34–37

- disposition, 44
- EU Membership, 39–42
- European transition economies, 37–42
- limitations, 43–44
- linking emerging markets
  - characteristics, 60–61
- strategies, 53–57
- Enterprises-international marketing
  - alliances (E-IMAs), 25, 86
- Environment(al), 11, 49–50, 107–108
  - factors, 21
  - uncertainty in transition economics, 71
- Espionage, 74
- Estonia, economy in, 154
- Estonian enterprises, 35–36
- EU Membership, 39–42
- European transition economies, 34, 37–42, 145
  - case countries, 152–155
  - classification, 149–152
  - cultural factors, 147–148
  - economic situation, 148–149
  - social and political situation, 146–147
- Exchanges
  - relationships, 90
  - of resources, 20–21
- Experience, 12, 103–104
- Experiential learning model, 61–62
- “Exploring Corporate Strategy”, 48–49
- External validity, 9–10, 136
- Fast-adapting countries, alliance in, 13–15
- Financial institutions, 73
- Firms, 102–103
- Flexibility, 127
- Foreign firms, 34–35
- Foreign partners, 20–21
- Formal institutions, 75
- German investment, 149–150
- Getinge in Hungary, 14, 124–125
- Government institutions, 73–74
- Grafting, 12, 103–104
- Greenfield, 58–59
- Gross national product (GNP), 49
- Growth, 107
- Hard infrastructure, 75
- Hard institutions, 75
- Hungary, economy in, 153–154
- Imitation, 12, 103–104
- Income variation, 75–76
- Individual firms, 91
- Individual motives, 19–20
- Industrial network approach, 12–13, 90
- Inflation rate, 37
- Informal institutions, 75
- Infrastructure, 75–76
  - variation, 75–76
- Institution(al), 70, 71, 107–108
  - complexity, 69, 107–108
  - cultural factors, 77–78
  - environment, 69
  - ethical issues, 76–77
  - factors in emerging markets, 69
  - financial, 73
  - government, 73–74
  - infrastructure, 75–76
  - law and regulations, 74–75
  - networks, 106
  - pillars, 70
  - political factors, 71
  - theories, 69
  - voids, 57
  - weakness, 53
- Inter-firm relationship-based networks, 93
- Interdependent relationships, 90
- Internal validity, 9–10, 136
- International business (IB), 49–50

- International Journal of Emerging Markets*, 32
- International marketing strategy (IMS), 47–48, 50
- International markets. See also Emerging markets (EMs) competitive strategies in, 50 market entry strategies in, 50
 methods of entry to, 51–53
- Internationalization process of firm, 61
- Interorganizational collaborations, 114
- Joint participation, 107
- Joint ventures (JVs), 9–12, 51, 58–59
- Knowledge, 4, 36–37
- Law and regulations, 74–75
- Learning, 11–12, 21, 61–62, 92–93, 103–104
- Legitimacy, 108
- Liberalization of ECE region, 4
- Licensing, 12
- Lithuania, economy in, 154–155
- Local partners, 20–21
- Longitudinal research design, 121
- Longitudinal Research on Aging Drivers (LongROAD), 121–122
- Longitudinal study, 129
- Low-cost production factors, 22–23
- Market(ing). See also International markets, 43, 49–50
 development, 38–39
 economy approach, 15
 entry strategies in international market, 50
 knowledge, 61–62
 market-supporting institutions, 58–59 orientation constructs, 109
 strategy, 51
 strategy alternatives for Eastern and Central Europe, 54–57
- Medium-adapting countries, alliances in, 15–17
- Metaethnography, 126
- Motives, 11–12, 101–103, 109–110
- Multinational business enterprises (MBEs), 61–62
- Multinational corporations (MNCs), 24, 49–50, 58, 60–61
- Multinational enterprises (MNEs), 58–59
- Multinational enterprises from developed economies (DMNEs), 86
- Multinational enterprises from emerging economies (EMNEs), 25, 86
- National cultures, 147–148
- Network(ing), 11, 105–106, 109–110 approach, 90
 capability, 103
 development, 21
 in industrial markets, 85–86
 theory, 90
- Normative pillars, 70, 107–108
- OECD, 147
- Organization(al)
 cultures, 108, 147–148
 effectiveness, 106–107 research, 119–120
 theory, 102–103
- Partners
 interest, 106–107
 time orientation, 92
- Performance, 11–12, 21, 106–107
- Poland, economy in, 152–153
- Political factors, 71

- Porter's competitive strategies, 51–53
- Post-strategic alliance phase, 87, 93
- Pre-strategic alliance phase, 87
- Pro-learning culture, 82
- Profit, 107
- Pure strategies, 59–60

- Qualitative data analysis software (QDAS), 127–128
- Qualitative research, 119–120
- Quantitative research, 119–120

- Reciprocal causality, 121–122
- Regional integration, 38–39
- Regulative pillars, 70, 107–108
- Reliability
  - of data, 9–10
  - in theoretical perspectives, 136–137
- Republic of Lithuania, 154–155
- Research and development (R&D), 13–14
- Research methods, 113–114
  - case study as research method, 126–129
  - cases presentation and analysis, 138–139
  - cases selection, 128–129
  - data collection, 129–136
  - execution of interviews, 130–135
  - factors, 137–138
  - literature review, 123–124
  - method critique, 139–140
  - preparation and modification of questionnaire, 129–130
  - presentation of results, 139
  - recommendation for future research, 140
  - recorded interview and transcribed information, 135–136
  - revising and restructuring research issues, problems, and purpose, 124
  - selection of respondents, 130
  - theoretical framework development, 124–126
  - validity and reliability of research findings, 136–138
- Research strategy, 114–123
  - Eastern and Central Europe, 116–118
  - research designs, 121–123
  - selection of countries, 118–119
- Resistant/passive participation, 135
- Resource(s), 11–13, 103, 106
  - complementarity, 102
  - dependence theory, 102–103
- Russian government, 74

- Shared risk, 19
- Slow-adapting countries, alliances in, 17–18
- Small-and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs), 90
- Social networks, 12–13, 106
- Social relationships, 82
- Socio-economic system, 59–60
- Soft infrastructure, 75
- Soft institutions, 75
- Strategic alliances, 7, 13–18, 81–82, 128
  - applied method, 6–10
  - case presentation and analysis, 10
  - case selection, 8–9
  - case study as research method, 7–8
  - conceptual framework, 87–93
  - data collection, 9
  - implications, 21–24
  - journey of, 82–83
  - and JVs, 85
  - literature review, 24–25
  - literature review, 84–87
  - managerial implications, 95–96
  - and networks, 84–85
  - phase, 87, 89
  - research approach, 7

- research findings and literature, 19–21
- research implications, 23–24
- research issues, 5–6
- theoretical foundation of study, 11–13
- theoretical framework, 7, 23
- Strategic Alliances in Eastern and Central Europe*, 3
- Strategy, 47–50
  - competitive strategies in international market, 50
  - emerging markets strategies, 53–57
  - linking emerging markets characteristics, 60–61
  - market entry strategies in international market, 50
  - methods of entry to international markets, 51–53
  - pure strategies, 59–60
  - reinventing strategies for emerging markets, 57–59
  - strategic behavior approach, 102–103
  - Uppsala model of internationalization, 61–62
- Survival, 107
- Swedish Export Trade Council (SETC), 8–9
- Swedish firms, 43, 75, 128
- Synergism, 12, 103–104
- Technical knowledge, 61–62
- Technology, 43
- Telia, 77
- Theory triangularization, 9–10, 137
- Time, 108–109
- Transaction cost theory, 102–103
- Transformation of Strategic Alliances*, 24–26
- Transition economies, 34
- UK firms, 56
- Uncertainty, 71
- Uppsala model of internationalization, 61–62
- Validity
  - of data, 9–10
  - in theoretical perspectives, 136–137
- Value creation, 25, 86
- Western firms, 39
  - motives for entering alliances, 102