

Index

- AACSB, 135
- Abilities, motivation, and
 - opportunities framework (AMO framework), 96–98
- Academia, 45
- Academic bubble, 55
- Academic researchers, 50
- Academy of Management (AOM), 46
- Accelerated promotion rates, 71
- Accessibility in communication
 - style, 46
- Ambidexterity, 148–149, 159–164
 - agenda for future research, 166–169
 - framework for explaining TM in ambidextrous contexts, 153–159
 - literature review, 150–153
 - practical implications, 169–170
- Ambidextrous mindset, 169
- Ambidextrous organizations
 - challenges in work and organization ecosystem, 150–151
 - managing HR and talent in, 151
 - outcomes of TM in, 166
 - talent and TM in, 154–159
- Ambidextrous TM, 166
- Analytical skills, 71–72
- Asgari's approach, 89
- “Aspire” program, 31
- Assessment
 - of performance, 70
 - of potential, 67, 69, 135
- Autonomy for performance, 139

- BESIX Potential Academy, 29
- Best practices in TM, 149

- Boston Consulting Group (BCG), 49
- Business schools, 128
 - benefits and rewards, 138–139
 - context for talent management, 129–131
 - exclusive talent management, 131–134
 - performance management, 135–137
 - talent development, 137–138
 - talent identification, recruitment, and selection, 134–135
 - tenure, promotion, and retention, 139–140
- “Business writing” style, 54

- Careers, 71, 86, 93
- Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD), 46
- “Classic” tenure track system, 132
- Co-creation workshops, 47–48
- Coevolutionary reasoning, 169
- Communities of practices (CoPs), 158
- Competencies, 71
- Conceptual equivalence, 76
- Connectors, 88
- Contextual ambidexterity, 150, 165–166
- Coopetition, 158
- Corporate HR
 - function, 5
 - roles, 110
- COVID-19
 - crisis, 45
 - pandemic, 12, 66, 116, 118–119
- Crisis management, 110–112
- Culture and assessments of potential, 75–77

- Cumulative advantage, 94–95, 100
- Cyclical ambidexterity (see Sequential ambidexterity)

- Deglobalization, 113
- Digital channels, 46
- Direct value creation, 95
- Disengagement career phase, 95–96
- Drive, 72
- Duality, 163
- Dynamic TM capabilities, 151–153, 159–166

- Emergent leadership, 72
- EQUIS, 135
- Essential workers, 112
- Establishment career phase, 95
- European Association for Advanced Studies in Management (EIASM), 1
 - workshops, 1, 6, 10
- European Union (EU), 9
- Excellence, 23
- Exceptional value, 88
 - creation, 90
- “Exclusion–inclusion” paradox, 6, 11
- Exclusive talent management, 34, 131–134
- Exclusive/developed talent philosophy, 28–29
- Exclusive/innate talent philosophy, 26–28
- Exploitation, 150
- Exploration, 150
- External environment, 108

- Faculty
 - members, 128
 - on tenure track, 132–133
- Firms, 114, 157–158
- Fluid workforce, emergence and strengthening of, 118–120
- Formal talent development, 157
- Formalization of selection process, 134
- Foundational dimension, 71

- Freedom, 131
- Full-time equivalents (FTEs), 32
- Functional equivalence, 76

- Gender and assessments of potential, 74–75
- General Electric (GE), 3
- General talent pool, 71
- Giftedness, 23, 26, 28
- Gig workers, 12
- Global talent management (GTM), 4, 73, 108
 - challenges, 5
 - practices, 167
- Globalization “on pause”, 113
- Growth, 71
- Growth/exploration career phase, 94–95
- Guardians of culture, 113, 117

- High-potential (HiPo), 66, 89
 - employees, 79
 - program, 66–67, 69
- Holy grail of organizational aspirations, 150
- Human resource (HR), 3, 21, 42, 96, 148
 - architecture, 108
 - departments, 131
 - ecosystem, 149
 - effectiveness, 109
 - management theory, 75
 - practitioners and managers, 45–46
 - professionals, 109
 - TM challenges and HR responses, 110–122
- Human resource management (HRM), 2, 40, 109, 148, 159, 163
- Hybrid TM, 164
- Hybridity, 163

- Idiosyncratic deal (i-deal), 139
- IMD, 134
- Inclusive TM, 4, 34

- Inclusive/developed talent philosophy, 30–31
- Inclusive/innate talent philosophy, 29–30
- Indirect value creation, 95
- Information systems journals (IS journals), 43
- Institutional pressures, 40
- Integrators, 88
- International accreditations and rankings, 130
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), 8
- Internationalization, 130
- Interpretive flexibility, 135
- “Joined-up” approach, 113
- Junior faculty workshops and consortiums, 138
- Knowing-doing gap, 47
- Knowledge
 - cocreation, 48
 - production problem, 43, 47
 - transfer problem, 43, 47
- Leadership
 - potential, 71
 - talent, 70–71
- Learning agility, 72
- Lehman Brothers scandal, 112
- Level based potential, 70
- Lost before translation, 43
- Lost in translation, 43
- Macro talent management (MTM), 5–6, 108
- Management Progress Study, 74
- McKinsey’s study, 41
- Meritocratic promotion, 71
- Meta-analyses, 50–51
- Metric equivalence, 76
- Middle managers, 141
- Mindset, 155
- Multinational enterprises (MNEs), 4, 76
- National Academy of Human Resources (NAHR), 54
- Network intelligence, 115, 120
- Network leadership, 115, 120
- On-the-job learning opportunities, 157
- Organizational behavior, 40
- Organizational leaders, 99
- Organizational strategy, 108–109
- Patriarchy, 75
- Performance management, 135–137
- Performance stars, 133
- Periodical ambidexterity (see Sequential ambidexterity)
- Peter Principle, 69
- Phenomenon-driven research, 34
- Potential, 23, 29, 66–68
 - culture and assessments of potential, 75–77
 - disaggregating potential from performance, 68–70
 - gender and assessments, 74–75
 - leadership and specialist talent, 70–71
 - measurement, 72–74
- Practitioners in research findings, 52–53
- Privileged knowledge, 44
- Process champions, 117, 120
- Productivity stars, 92
- “Professional” management practices, 130
- Promotion, 139–140
- Psychological contracts, 140
- Public sector, 7
 - TM in, 7–9
- “Readability problem” of academic research, 45
- Relational stars, 88
- Relevance, 40, 42, 44, 48
- Relevant talent management research, 40–42, 48

- academic research, 55–56
- delayed pace, 49–50
- dimensions, 42–43
- lacks body of evidence, 50–51
- practitioners in research findings, 52–53
- readability, 51–52
- scholars, 53–54
- Research, 40, 42, 92
- Research–practice gap, 42–43
 - from practitioners side, 46–48
 - from scholars side, 43–46
- Retention, 8, 139–140
- Retirement, 96
- Return on investment (ROI), 28, 32
- Role based potential, 70–71

- Sequential ambidexterity, 150, 164
- Small-and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs), 7
 - TM in, 9–10
- Specialist talent, 70–71
- Stars, 86, 99–100, 131–134
 - adding practical value in research on, 98–99
 - careers, 94–96
 - as employees and people, 92–93
 - exceptional task performance, 87
 - exceptional value creation, 90
 - lights and shadows, 90–92
 - managing and work environments, 96–98
 - multiple conceptualizations, 86–90
 - perceived individual qualities, 89–90
 - performers, 33
 - prioritizing refinement and accuracy in stars' contributions to value creation, 100–101
 - prospects for future research on, 94
 - scholarship, 86, 90
 - tenured faculty, 133–134
 - value creation, 87–88
- Strengths, 23, 30–31
- Stress, 21

- Structural ambidexterity, 150, 165
- Symbolic immortality, 96
- Systematic reviews, 50

- T-shaped skills, 154
- Talent, 66
 - attraction, 156–157
 - as construct, 22–26
 - deal, 133
 - development, 137–138
 - development and retention, 157–159
 - identification, recruitment, and selection, 134–135
 - journey, 133
 - mindsets, abilities, and behaviors in ambidextrous organizations, 154–155
 - as phenomenon, 26–31
 - talent-sharing, 168–170
- Talent management (TM), 1, 20, 40, 86, 107–108, 128, 131, 148
 - challenges, 110
 - contemporary issues, 12
 - context, 6–12
 - critical perspective, 10–12
 - and dynamic TM capabilities, 151–153
 - embedded nature, 109
 - emergence and strengthening of fluid workforce, 118–120
 - framework, 3
 - framework for explaining TM in ambidextrous contexts, 153–159
 - during globalization pause, 113–115
 - inclusive, 4
 - intellectual boundaries, 2
 - international, 4–6
 - key features of traditional and ambidextrous, 159–166
 - phenomenon vs., 20–31
 - for remote and hybrid workers, 116–118
 - times of crisis, 111–113
 - translating TM strategies, 120–121

- Talent philosophies, 20–21
 - contributions to theory, 33–34
 - implications for research and practice, 32–33
 - “talent management” construct vs. phenomenon, 20–31
- Targeted talent pools, 71
- Task performance, 87
- Temporal ambidexterity (see Sequential ambidexterity)
- Tenure, 139–140
 - trackers, 131–134
- Text analysis, 45
- Think manager–think male phenomenon, 152
- Times of crisis, TM in, 111–113
- Top grading, 2
- Translational equivalence, 76
- Umbrella carriers, 130–131
- United Nations (UN), 8
- Unity, 163
- Universities, 128–132, 134
- US model, 130, 132
- Utrecht University, 8–9
- “War for Talent”, 40, 114
- “Winners versus losers” hierarchy, 23
- World Bank, 8
- “X factor” thinking in management, 26