

Index

Note: Page numbers followed by “n” indicate notes.

- Abuse
    - perpetrators framed, 140–146
    - types, 139–140
  - Acquisition, activation, application
    - model (3AM model), 20
  - Actual bodily harm (ABH), 154, 169
  - Actual consent, 122
    - implied consent as, 123–125
  - Admitted violence, 160
  - Affirmative consent, 121, 128–129
  - Aggression, 193
  - Aggression and violence during sex (AVS), 11, 13
    - attitudes to, 15–17
    - conceptualizing, 13–15
    - contexts for, and dynamics and nature of, 17–19
    - effects of, and responses to, 21–22
    - explaining origins, 19–20
    - extent and nature of alleged, 22–24
    - frequency of, 17
    - nature and users of AVS-related pornography, 20–21
    - policy and practice response to, 24–25
  - Aggressive consensual sex, 13
  - Aggressor behaviors, 13
  - Alcohol, 19–20
  - Alleged AVS, 11
    - extent and nature of alleged, 22–24
  - Anxiety, 10
  - Asphyxiation, 92, 159–160
  - Australian law, rough sex and implied consent in, 119–123
  - Australian rape law, 6, 119
  - Bondage, discipline, dominance, submission, and
    - sadomasochism (BDSM), 4–5, 10, 32–33, 53, 55n1, 70–71, 80–81, 87, 171n2
  - against, 78–80
  - cases, 74–77
  - researching consent cases, 72–73
  - sex game gone wrong, 71–72
  - troubled woman, 77–78
- Boundary talk, 144
  - ‘Broad brush’ approach, 11
  - Brown* to rescue, 171–172
  - ‘Choking’, 54
  - Claims, 54
  - Coercion
    - ‘non-violent’ sexual coercion
      - within current legal framework, 103–107
      - options for reform, 107–112
      - in sexual offences law, 101–103
  - Coercive control, 35–36
    - consent, 31–32
    - domestic abuse, 34–37
    - offences, 5
    - and rough sex, 32–34, 37–47
  - Consensual aggression and violence during sex (CAVS), 11
  - Consensual violence, 134
  - Consent, 6, 18, 31–33, 54, 57, 71–72, 119, 137
    - to serious harm for sexual gratification, 152
    - for violent, 140
  - Consent Defences*, 171
  - Cosmopolitan, 55
  - COVID-19 pandemic, 1
  - Criminal Justice Abstracts with Full Text, 12

- Criminal Justice Act, 87
 Criminal justice system (CJS), 4, 153
 Criminalization, 7
Crown Court Compendium, 108–109
 Crown Prosecution Service (CPS), 152 Cultures of presentation, rough sex and, 45–47
- Data sourcing, 153
 Death, 193
 Degree of permissible harm, 179–180
Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders, 33
 Domestic abuse, 34, 100
     coercive control, 35–36
     intersection with, 140
 Domestic Abuse Act, 5, 6–7, 73, 93, 152, 168
     challenges in courtroom, 177–178 competence of court, 179 dangers of false equivalence, 176–177
     degree of harm, 178–179
     degree of permissible harm, 179–180
     liberal legal framework, 172–173 radical feminist framework, 173
     rough sex defence, 169–172
     Toll of Section 71, 174–176
 Domestic Abuse Bill, 92, 168, 134 152
 ‘Dominant behaviors’, 13
- Economic abuse, 35
 Eighteenth Century Sadism, 187–192
 Emerald Insight, 12
 Emotional abuse, 35
 England, sexual offences law in,
     101–103
 English Law Commission, 154
 English Sexual Offences Act, 110–111
 Europe PMC, 12
 Extremeness, 138
- Fatal cases, 23–24
 Feminists, 1–2
     on sadism, 194–195
- Fifty 50 Shades of Grey (film), 33,
     54–55, 56, 170, 191
 Free love movement, 192–193
- Gaping, 63*n*4
 Gaslighting, 43
 Grievous bodily harm (GBH), 170
- Harm, 174–175
 Heterosexual pornography, 56
 Heterosexual pornography, rough sex in mainstream, 60–64
 Hierarchy, 192
 Homicides, 153–154
 Homophobia, 174–175
 Homosexuality, 195
- Implied consent, 121–122
     as ‘actual’ consent to ‘rough sex’, 123–125
     in Australian law, 119–123
     mistaken belief in, 125–127
 Individual pathology, 77
 Injuries, 33
 Interview transcripts, 136
 Intimate partner sexual violence
     (IPSV), 100
     as domestic abuse, 112
 Ireland, sexual offences law in,
     101–103
 Irish Domestic Violence Act, 100*n*2
- Joanna Briggs Institute (JBI), 11
- ‘Kinky sex’, 71
- Legal harm identification, 175–176
 Legality of love-bites creating clear boundaries, 88–93 high-profile cases, 85–86
     new legislation, 93–95 rough sex ‘defence’ and current law on consent to violence, 87–88
     rough sex defence controversy, 86–87

- Legislative guidance on consent, 107–108
- Liberal legal framework, 168–169, 172–173
- Life-threatening nature of NCVS, 138–139
- Love-bites, 89
- Loving relationship, 186

- Marital home, 187
- Marquis de Sade*, 187–192
- Men with substantial DA history
  - using rough sex, 161–162
- Men's Health, 55
- Men's violence, 2, 4, 89
- Mendeley, 12
- MindGeek network, 60
- Mistake of fact, 121
- Murder, 193

- Naming, 136
- National Criminal Justice Reference Service (NCJRS), 12
- New South Wales (NSW), 120
- Nineteenth centuries sadism, 192–193
- Non consensual rough sex, 37–41
- Non-consensual aggression, 10
- Non-consensual violence, 6
- Non-consensual violence in sex (NCVS), 134–135
  - findings, 137
  - intersection with domestic abuse, 140
  - life-threatening nature of, 138–139
  - methods, 135–137
  - perpetrators framed abuse, 140–146
  - types of abuse, 139–140
  - women experience, 137–138
- Non-fatal cases, 24
- Non-fatal violence cases, 154–157
- Non-legislative guidance on consent
  - expanding legislative and non-legislative guidance on consent, 107–108
  - expanding non-legislative guidance on consent to include sexual coercion, 108–110
- Non-violent sexual coercion, 100
  - within current legal framework, 103–107
- 'Normative' sexual practice, 119

- Offences Against Person Act, 87, 93, 169–170
- Organized civilization, 192
- Otherness, 194
- 'Over-inclusive' approach, 172

- Paternalism, 192
- Patriarchal social inequality, 36–37
- Patriarchy, 2, 36–37
- Perpetrators framed abuse, 140–146
- Personal violence, 190–191
- Physical abuse, 35
- Physical harm, 88
- Physical violence, 100
- 'Playful force during sex', 13
- Policy to AVS, 24–25
- Population/participants, concept and context (PCC), 12
- Pornhub*, 54
- Pornhub, 56, 60–62
- Pornography, 4, 20, 56, 191
  - claims of consensual rough sex, 54–55
  - nature and influence of mainstream, 58–60
  - nature and users of AVS-related pornography, 20–21
  - rough sex experiencing, 53–54
  - rough sex in mainstream heterosexual pornography, 60–64
  - 'rough sex' to date, 56–58
- Pornosphere, 54, 57
- Practice response to AVS, 24–25
- Presumed consent, rough sex and, 41–42
- ProQuest, 12
- PsycArticles, 12

- Psychological abuse, 35
Psychopathia Sexualis, 192
 PsycINFO, 12
 Public Affairs Information Service
   Index (PAIS Index), 12
 PubMed, 12
 PubMed Central, 12
- Qualitative survey, 136
- Radical feminists, 2, 194 framework, 173
 'Rape culture', 1–2
 Rape myth acceptance (RMA), 3
 Rape myths, 119, 121
 'Real rape' stereotype, 100
 Redtube, 56, 60, 62–63
 Reforms, 100 creating specific offence of sexual coercion, 110–112
   expanding legislative and non-legislative guidance on consent, 107–108
   expanding non-legislative guidance on consent to include sexual coercion, 108–110
   options for, 107
   prosecuting and punishing intimate partner sexual violence as domestic abuse, 112
- Rough sex, 2–3, 10–11, 32, 33–34, 54, 86, 135
   in Australian law, 119–123
   BDSM, 32–33
   coercive control and, 37
   conceptual and legal debates, 3–6
   and cultures of presentation, 45–47
   to date, 56–58
   findings, 12–25
   future research, 25–26
   in general population, 10 homicides involving claim of consensual rough sex, 153–154
   implied consent as, 123–125
   in mainstream heterosexual
   pornography, 60–64
   men with substantial DA history
   using, 161–162
   methodological issues, 25
   methodology, 11
   mistaken belief in, 125–127
   non consensual rough sex, 37–41
   preliminary work, 11 and presumed consent, 41–42
   scoping review proper, 11–12
   scoping reviews, 11 and sexual expectations, 42–45
   women's experience of, 6–7
- Rough sex claims, origins of, 161
 Rough sex defence, 2, 86, 118–119,
 168, 169
   Brown to rescue, 171–172
   case study analysis, 123 controversy, 86–87
   and current law on consent to violence, 87–88
   implied consent as 'actual' consent to 'rough sex', 123–125
   mistaken belief in 'implied consent'
   to 'rough sex', 125–127
   problems with current law, 128–129 rough sex and implied consent in Australian law, 119–123
   SM and social media, 170–171
   in UK, 152–163
   uncovering root cause, 169–170 yoking domestic abuse victim and SM sex practitioner, 172
- 'Rough sex gone wrong', 54, 73, 93, 118
- S/M relationships, 33
 Sadism, 187
   Eighteenth Century Sadism, 187–192
   feminist-sympathizing liberal press, 186–187
   feminists on, 194–195
   Nineteenth and Twentieth centuries sadism, 192–193

- sexual liberalism, 195–196
  - theories in modernity, 187
- Sadomasochism, 195
- Sadomasochist behavior, 32
- Safety, 33
- Sage Journals, 12
- Schindler's List* (film), 46
- Science Direct, 12
- Scopus, 12
- Scottish Law Commission, 154
- Second Sex, The*, 194
- Secondary victimization, 87
- Serious violence recast, 157–159
- Seriousness, 138
- Sex, 45, 193
  - positivity, 141
- 'Sex defence' narrative, 6
- Sex games gone wrong (SGGW), 10–11, 25, 71–73, 92
- Sex Offences Review, 111
- Sexual abuse, 35
- Sexual activity, 94
- Sexual coercion, 108–110
  - creating specific offence of, 110–112
- Sexual expectations, rough sex and, 42–45
- Sexual history, 162
- Sexual liberalism, 195–196
- Sexual offences, 100
- Sexual offences law, 5, 100
- Sexual possessiveness, 43
- Sexual scripts, 119
  - sexual script acquisition, activation, application model, 20
- Sexual violence against women and girls, 1
- Sexuality, 3, 7, 46, 121
  - male, 6
  - as violent, 2
  - women, 64
- 'Sexually dominant behavior', 13, 60
- 'Shadow pandemic', 1
- Social abuse, 35
- Social media, 170–171
- Societal misperceptions, 103
- Specific consent, 34
- Spiritual abuse, 35
- Story of O, 9 ½ weeks, The*, 191
- Strangulation, 92–93, 159–160
- 'Submissive behaviors', 13
- Sustained violence recast, 157–159
- 'Target behaviors', 13
- Three 365 Days (Polish erotic drama), 55, 191
- TikTok, 55
- Transgender and non-binary individuals (TGNB individuals), 16
- Triggers, 19
- Troubled woman, 77–78
- Twentieth centuries sadism, 192–193
- UK, rough sex defence in
  - Crown Prosecution Service, 152
  - data sourcing, 153
  - homicides involving claim of consensual rough sex, 153–154
  - men with substantial DA history using rough sex, 161–162
  - no anonymity for victims, 162–163
  - non-fatal violence cases, 154–157
  - origins of rough sex claims, 161
  - sexual history used in court in defence to charges of violence, 162
  - under-prosecution of violence claimed to consensual, 157–160
- UK Data Archive, 12
- United States (US), 10
- Utopian feminism, 191
- Verbal abuse, 35
- Victims, 2
  - no anonymity for, 162–163
  - sexual behavior, 87
  - sexual history, 5

- victim-blaming narratives in crimes, 80
- victim-offender relationships, 23
- victim-survivor, 118, 125
- yoking domestic abuse victim, 172
- Violence, 153
  - rough sex 'defence' and current law on consent to, 87–88
  - sexual history used in court in defence to charges of, 162
- Violence against female, 54
- Violence against girls, 1
- Violence against women, 1–2
- Violent sex act, 190
- Wales, sexual offences law in, 101–103
- We Can't Consent To This campaign (WCCTT campaign), 6, 10, 94, 134–135, 152, 168, 170–171
- Women's experience
  - of NCVS, 134–146
  - of rough sex, 6–7
- World Health Organisation, 1, 34
- Xvideos*, 54
- Yoking domestic abuse victim and SM sex practitioner, 172
- Youporn, 56, 60, 62
- Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act, 94–95