

Index

- Academic institutions, 199
Accommodation selection criteria,
303–304
Acquired immune deficiency syndrome
(HIV/AIDS), 90
Acute crisis, 344
Administración Portuaria Integral de
Quintana Roo (APIQROO),
449, 454
Administración Portuario Integral (API), 447
Adult-learning theory, 129
Advance tax payments, 252
Adventure tourism, 260
Advertisements, 78
Aegadian Islands, 400
Aeolian Archipelago, 400
Africa
    COVID-19 effect on hospitality industry in, 76–77
        hospitality businesses in, 74
Air Transport Action Group (ATAG),
13–14
AirBnB, 75
Airlines, COVID-19's effects on, 93
Airports business, COVID-19 effects on, 13–14
Alianza por la Responsabilidad Social
(AliaRSE), 450
Alienation, 130–131
All India Council for Technical
Education (AICTE), 51–52
Alternative tourism
    adventure tourism, 260
    caravan tourism, 260–261
    ecotourism, 260
    promotion of, 259–261
    rural tourism, 260
    wellness tourism, 260
Amazon Web Services, 49
Aras Free Zone of Iran, 141, 143–144
Artificial Intelligence (AI), 45–48
Asian cruise tourism, 228
Assessment, 130–131
Association of British Travel Agents
(ABTA), 482
Association of Southeast Asian
Nations (ASEAN), 228
Augmented reality (AR), 45–47
Australia, hospitality industry workers in findings, 290–294
    implications, 294–295
    literature review, 287–290
    research methodology, 290
Australian tourism
    autoethnographic account of (re) enchantment, 274–275
    experiencing COVID-19 crisis,
        278–279
    impacts of COVID-19, 268
    Muurrung Marai, 276–278
    Newcastle Afoot, 275–276
    re-enchanting local as 'more-than-tourism' agenda, 273–274
    rethinking tourism as more than industry, 269–271
    rethinking tourism in 'Fortress
        Australia', 271–273
Autoethnographic approach, 269 of (re) enchantment, 274–275
Automation, 45–47
Avian Influenza, 288–289
Awareness, 259
B2B marketing, 64
B2C marketing, 64
Baby boomers, 154

- Balearic Islands, 398
- Bali
  - economic downturn, 154
  - strategic marketing plans and destination imagery in, 321–322
- Bangladesh
  - COVID-19 in, 92
  - COVID-19's impact on Bangladesh's sustainable tourism economy, 92–93
- Bartlett's test of sphericity, 381
- Baumol effect, 501
- Big Data, 45–47
- Biological disasters, 250
- Bird flu, 302
- Black Lives Matter, 133
- Black swan event, 251–252
- Border control to preventing imported cases, 119–120
- Brands, 477
  - popularity, 168
- Business development and investment, 146
- Business Model Innovation (BMI), 77
- Business-class backpacking, 154

- Capitalist growth models, 271
- Caravan tourism, 260–261
- Career breaks phenomenon, 154
- Case study approach, 4
- Cautiously optimistic young tourists, 378–379
- Centro Mexicano para la Filantropía (CEMEFI), 450
- Change, 24–25
  - in career path due to pandemic, 292–293
  - and tourism and hospitality industry, 27–29
- Chatbots, 48
- Cisco Webex (online meeting platform), 506
- Cleaning, 258–259
- Climate change, 24
- Climate crisis, 133
- Climate Law, 407
- 'Clink Prison' attraction, 179
- Communication
  - approach, 348
  - strategies to support recovery, 473–475
  - in tourism industry during crises, 344–345
- Community attitude, 218
- Community based sustainable tourism during COVID-19, 15–16
- Community basis in tourism development, 213
- Community Conservation Fund Africa (CCFA), 75
- Community fieldwork, 230
- Community-based tourism (CBT), 15–16
- Congruency, 474
- Conservation for Sustainable Development Programme, 449
- Constraining travel factors, 377
- Contactless process, 79
- Contagious illnesses, 90
- Conventional teaching concepts, 201
- Coronavirus, 90, 133, 250
- Costa Maya, 447
  - government involvement with cruise tourism, 453–454
  - local perception of cruise tourism, 449–453
  - opportunities for cruise lines, 455–457
  - private sector involvement, 454–455
  - sustainability, 449
- Counter-terrorism frameworks for tourism stakeholders, 319–321
- 9/11 Terrorist Attacks, 320–321
- European Convention on the Suppression of Terrorism, 319
- Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy, 319–320
- Paris Terrorist Attacks, 320

- strategic marketing plans and destination imagery, 321–322
- United States Counter-Terrorism Policy, 320
- COVID-19, 12, 24–28, 87–88, 125–126, 466–467
  - awareness and training, 259
  - in Bangladesh, 92
  - cleaning and sanitation, 258–259
  - community based sustainable tourism during, 15–16
  - contributing factors to dining preferences following, 165–170
  - crisis, 46, 77, 210
  - difficulties in travelling by tourists during, 13
  - disease, 1
  - disruption, 47–51
  - effect on hospitality industry in Africa, 76–77
  - effects on airports business, 13–14
  - effects on leisure and travel industry in global and Bangladeshi environments, 93–95
  - findings from secondary data, 499–503
  - general preparedness, 256–258
  - hackathons as inflexion point, 48–51
  - hospitality discourse amid, 14–15
  - impact on Bangladesh's sustainable tourism economy, 92–93
  - impact on education, 196–200
  - impact on events, 498–499
  - impact on tourism industry in Odisha, 254–255
  - impacts on tourism, 107–110
  - infection in Germany, 302
  - ownership, 168–169
  - pandemic, 74, 250, 286, 288, 376, 446, 482, 498
  - popularity, 168
  - price, 170
  - protocols, 256–259
  - psychological and physiological impacts on job-losing employees, 109
  - ratings and reviews, 165–168
  - safety and hygiene, 258
  - social distancing, 258
  - social media, 169–170
  - studies of tourism recovery, 110–112
  - substantial impacts on livelihoods, 108–109
  - tourism education and, 127–128
  - transformative impacts on way of thinking and preserving planet, 110
  - unprecedented impacts on tourism market, 108
  - virtual concerts, 502
  - virtual runs, 502–503
- Creative Accelerators for Sustainable Tourism (CAST), 51–52
- Creative cities, 357–359
- Creative tourism, 356–357, 359
- Creative tourists, 358
- Crisis
  - leadership, 117
  - in Lebanon, 181
  - management, 344–345
- Cruise tourism, 229–230
  - government involvement with, 453–454
  - local perception of, 449–453
  - programme, 228
- Cruises
  - COVID-19's effects on, 95
  - industry, 446
- Cultural and creative industries (CCI), 499–500
- Cultural tourism, 211, 437
- Cyber-Physical production system (CPPS), 45–46
- Cybersecurity, 47
- Cycling tours, 141
- Dark Camps of Genocide, 180–181, 188

- Dark Conflict Sites, 180–181, 187–188
- Dark Disaster Sites, 188–189
- Dark Dungeons, 179, 185–186
- Dark Exhibitions, 179, 184–185
- Dark Fun Factories, 182–184
- Dark Resting Places, 179
- Dark Shrines, 180, 186–187
- Dark tourism, 154–155, 178–179
  - crises in Lebanon, 181
  - findings, 182–189
  - methods, 181–182
  - potential dark tourism sites in Lebanon, 183–184
  - supply in destinations, 179–181
- Data analysis, 144
  - procedures, 380
- Data-driven strategy, 30
- Decision-making process, 376
- Deductive approach, 52
- Department of Tourism (DOT), 256
- Destination Management
  - Organisations (DMOs), 5, 457–458, 467, 469
- Destination Management Resilience Scheme, 483–484
- Destination(s), 398
  - branding, 319, 466–467, 469
  - costs, 210
  - food image of, 211
  - image, 117
  - imagery, 321–322
  - interactive model of destination and tourist factors to support destination brand marketing, 476–477
  - management, 122
  - marketing, 465, 467
  - marketing strategy of, 211
  - recovery, 179
  - selection criteria, 303–304
- Dialogues, 133–134
- Digital check-in, 48
- Digital distribution era, 75
- Digital health certificate, 119
- Digital instruments, 203–204
- Digital optimisation, 79–80
- Digital room, 48
- Digital travel history, 119
- Direct impacts of lockdowns on
  - personal well-being, 293–294
- Disney parks, 419
- Diversity management, 25
- Do-It-Yourself generation, 377
- Domestic tourism. See also Sustainable tourism, 398–399, 402
  - causes leading to predominance of domestic tourism on small islands, 403–404
  - challenges for domestic tourism, 409–410
  - crisis leadership, 117
  - data collection, 112–113
  - Hangzhou, Case City of tourism recovery, 113–114
  - key factors facilitate tourism recovery, 117–121
  - literature review, 107–112
  - negative impacts of pandemic on, 406–407
  - positive impacts of pandemic on, 405–406
  - profile of respondents, 114
  - promotion during COVID-19 pandemic, 259
  - recent trends in, 404
  - research methods, 112–114
  - role in cutting emissions, 407–409
  - well-tamed pandemic creates safe image of city, 114–117
- Ebola outbreaks, 95
- Ebola virus disease (EVD), 90
- Ecological tourism, 437
- Economic development, 356
- Economic effects, tourism and, 91–92
- Economic incentives, 483
- Economic lockdown, 74
- Ecotourism, 260
- Education, 33–34
  - COVID-19 pandemic impact on, 196–200

- Educational systems, 126
- Eigenvector centrality, 165
- Emerging crises, 344
- Enhanced hygiene protocols, 424
- Environmental effects, tourism and, 91
- Equity Policy Center (EPOC), 210
- Ethnographic vignettes (EV), 230
- European Convention on Suppression of Terrorism, 319
- European Union (EU), 319, 401
- Events, 497
  - bridging gap, 503
  - COVID-19 impact on, 498–499
  - COVID-19's effects on, 95
  - future of events industry, 503–505
  - Indian Scenario, 505–506
  - management, 506
- Evidence-based decisions, 30
- Evidence-based practice, 30
- Expedia, 75
- Experiential learning, 128
- Exploratory factor analysis, 306

- Face-to-face learning, 197–198
- Facebook, 49, 255
- Factor analysis, 304, 306, 311
  - accommodation selection criteria results of, 308–310
  - destination selection criteria results of, 307
- Familiarity, 475
- Fani cyclone (2019), 252
- Fear to travel, 376–377
- Federal Maritime Terrestrial Zone. See Zona Federal Marítimo Terrestre (Zofemat)
- Festivals, 497
  - Indian Scenario, 505–506
- Financial management, 242–243
- Firms, 75
- 5G network, 48
- Five-point Likert scale, 304
- Flash, 154
- Flashpacker, 154–155, 157–158
  - contributing factors to dining preferences following COVID-19 pandemic, 165–170
  - future research directions, 171
  - local and international delicacies, 158–165
  - methods, 158
  - results, 158–165
  - theoretical framework, 156–158
  - tourist hypermobility, 156–157
- Flue, 24
- Food, 155
- Formal education, 33
- Fourth industrial revolution (I4. 0), 45–46
  - challenges, 64
  - COVID-19 disruption, 47–51
  - data collection and analysis, 51–53
  - goals, 53–54, 63–64
  - hackathon questions, 64
  - literature review, 46–47
  - methodology, 51–64
  - problem identification, 64–66
- Free vaccination, 120–121
- Frequency, 66

- Gastro tourism, 154–155
- Gender expectations, 242–243
- Generalized Shapiro–Wilk test, 380
- Generation Alpha, 376
- Generation Z (Gen Z), 201, 376
  - classification of young tourists, 386–388
  - during COVID-19 pandemic development, 390
  - data analysis procedures, 380
  - literature review, 378–379
  - methodology, 379–380
  - participants, 379–380
  - representatives of, 389
  - results, 380–388
  - USTurPan1, 388
  - variables and instruments, 379
- George Town Street, Penang, street cuisine in, 215
- Gephi, 158
- German travellers

- findings, 305–311
- methodology, 304–305
- PPE, 311–312
- theoretical background, 302–304
- threat of COVID-19 rate, 313
- Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy, 319–320
- Global crisis in tourism, 177–178
- Global financial crisis (GFC), 12
- Global health pandemic, 125–126
- Global leadership, 133
- Global precarious realities in shipping, 229–230
- Global Sustainable Tourism Council (GSTC), 448
- Goods and services tax (GST), 252
- Google Meet (online meeting platform), 506
- Government intervention, 79
- Government involvement with cruise tourism, 453–454
- Government of Bangladesh (GoB), 92, 97
- Gozo Business Chamber (GBC), 408–409
- Great Depression, 12
- Great Plague, 251–252
- Great Recession, 376
- Greenhouse gas (GHG), 407
- Gross Domestic Product (GDP), 196, 285–286
- Guesthouse accommodation in sharing economy, 435–436
- Guesthouse tourism, 434
- H1N1. See Swine flu virus
- Hackathons, 46
  - as inflexion point, 48–51
  - questions, 64
- Hangzhou, Case City of tourism recovery, 113–114
- Health and safety, 80
- Health factors, 377
- Heroic leader, 30
- Higher education institutions (HEIs), 125–126, 197
- Hilton Hippies, 158
- Holocaust tourism, 180–181
- Home-is-safer-than-abroad bias, 398
- Hospitality
  - businesses in Africa and Nigeria, 74
  - change and, 27–29
  - COVID-19 effect on hospitality industry in Africa, 76–77
  - discourse amid COVID-19 pandemic, 14–15
  - educators, 47
  - firms, 78
  - future in Nigeria, 79–81
  - industry, 74
  - innovation management in hospitality industry in Nigeria, 77–79
  - modern history of, 75–76
- Host community, raising awareness of, 148
- Hotel and accommodations, COVID-19's effects on, 94
- Hotel and Restaurants Association of Odisha (HRAO), 256
- Human behavioural change, 27
- Human development, 24–25
- Human intent studies, 26–27
- Human-caused disasters, 24
- Human-to-human interaction, 303–304
- Hybrid events, 503
- Hygiene, 214, 258
- Hypermobility, 154–155, 157
- Hypothesis testing, 220
- Immediate crises, 344
- In-depth interviews, 399
- Incentives, 66
- Independent flashpackers, 158
- Indian Scenario, Festivals and Events Tourism in, 505–506
- Indirect impacts of lockdowns on personal well-being, 293–294
- Influenza, 302
- Infocomm Media Development Authority (IMDA), 202

- Information and communication
  - technology (ICT), 45–47, 200
- Information questionnaire, 388
- Infrastructure development and services, 147
- Innovations, 74, 77
  - in dark tourism research, 179
  - management in hospitality industry in Nigeria, 77–79
- Instagram, 345–346
- Institution, 196–200
- Integral Port Administration
  - framework, 447, 449
  - of Quintana Roo, 454
- Intelligent Highway Systems, 157
- Intentional crisis, 344
- Internal consistency type reliability, 382
- International Labour Organization (ILO), 288–289
- International tourism, 398
  - and IATA travel pass, 261
- International Tourism Bourse (ITB), 254
- Internationalisation, 199
- Inti Live*, 504–505
- Intra-destination, 156
- Investment, business development and, 146
- Investors, 210
- Islamic State of Iran and Syria (ISIS), 319
- Island tourism
  - area of study, 399–401
  - causes leading to predominance of domestic tourism on small islands, 403–404
  - challenges for domestic tourism, 409–410
  - connections lost and gained, 407
  - domestic tourism role in cutting emissions, 407–409
  - methods, 401–403
  - negative impacts of pandemic on domestic tourism, 406–407
  - positive impacts of pandemic on domestic tourism, 405–406
  - recent trends in domestic tourism, 404
  - results, 403–410
- Israeli Defense Forces (IDF), 188
- Job insecurity leads to increased workloads and job stress, 233–241
- Job stress, 233–241
- Job-losing employees, psychological and physiological impacts on, 109
- Judging criteria, 65
- Kruskal–Wallis test, 380, 388
- Latent crisis, 344
- Latent Profile Analysis (LPA), 380, 386
- Leaders, 25–26, 30
- Leadership, 27, 32
  - programmes, 33–34
  - readiness, 33–34
  - traits, 32
- ‘Learner-centric’ structure, 126
- Learning, 129
  - experience, 131
- Lebanese Civil War, 181
- Lebanon, crises in, 181
- Lethargic young tourists, 378–379
- Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam (LTTE), 319
- Light Rail Transit (LRT), 157
- LinkedIn, 255
- Livelihoods, substantial impacts on, 108–109
- Local communities, 359
- Localised tourism, 270
- Lockdowns, 254–255
  - policies, 107–108
- Logo rebranding, 79
- London Resort Company Holdings (LRCH), 420

- Long-term strategies, 34–36
- Machine Learning, 47
- Mahahual, cruise tourism in, 446–448
- Mahahual Urban Centre Development Plan, 453–454
- Major League Hacking (MLH), 51
- Malaysia, COVID-19 effects on
  - learning behavior in assessments, 200–202
  - COVID-19 eradication strategy, 205
  - global impact of COVID-19 epidemic on educational institutions, 202–203
  - impact on education, 196–200
  - socio-demographic indicators, 203–204
  - student organizations, 204
- Malaysian Communications and Multimedia Commission (MCMC), 201–202
- Malaysian Higher Education Research, 197
- Maldives
  - guesthouses, 437–439
  - tourism growth in, 436–437
- Malta Tourism Authority (MTA), 401, 403–404
- Man-made disasters, 181
- Managerial development, 146–147
- Marine Protected Areas (MPAs), 406
- Market segmentation, 426–427
- Marketing messages, 466–467
  - key factors related to tourists and stakeholders in relation to, 468–469
- Marketing strategies, 64
- Mass Rapid Transit (MRT), 157
- Mean inter-item correlations (MIC), 382
- Meeting Professional International (MPI), 498–499
- Meetings, Incentives, Conferences and Exhibition business (MICE Tourism), 498
- Memory as opportunity to encourage tourist engagement, 475–476
- Mexico, COVID-19 pandemic
  - implications for tourism sustainability and resilience in, 447–448
- Micro, small and medium-sized enterprises (MSMEs), 111
- Microsoft Team (online meeting platform), 506
- Millennium Development Goals (MDGs), 244–245
- Ministry of Higher Education (MOHE), 198
- Mixed method approach, 322
- Modern tourism, 417
- More-than-tourism, 270
  - perspective, 269
  - re-enchanting local as ‘more-than-tourism’ agenda, 273–274
- Movement Control Order (MCO), 196
- Movie induced tourism, 154–155
- Multimodal resources, application of, 473–475
- Multimodality, 473–474
- Muurrung Marai, 276–278
- National Key Economic Areas (NKEAs), 198
- National Statistics Office (NSO), 402–403
- National Tourism Development Plan, 228
- Natural catastrophes, 24–25
- Natural disasters, 24, 181, 250, 342
- Natural Language Processing (NLP), 49–51
- Neo backpacker, 158
- Neoliberal economic theory, 213
- New product development, 74
- New South Wales (NSW), 269
- Newcastle Afoot, 275–276
- Nigeria
  - future of hospitality industry in, 79–81
  - hospitality businesses in, 74

- innovation management in
  - hospitality industry in, 77–79
- Non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 204, 402
- Non-health factors, 377
- Nonparametric Wilcoxon rank sum test, 384–385
- North-East Tourism academy (NETA), 128
- Northern Ireland, strategic marketing plans and destination imagery in, 321
- Odisha State Council-FICCI, 256
- Odisha Tour Operators association, 256
- Odisha tourism, 250
  - COVID-19 impact on, 251, 254–255
  - COVID-19 protocols, 256–259
  - global community, 255–256
  - international tourism and IATA travel pass, 261
  - methodology, 255
  - promotion of alternative tourism, 259–261
  - promotion of domestic tourism during COVID-19 pandemic, 259
  - review of literature, 251–252
  - tourism in Odisha, 252–254
- Odisha Tourism development Corporation (OTDC), 256
- Olery (Netherlands-based company), 49–51
- Olery Hotel Review, 49–51
- Omicron* variant, 287, 289–290
- One-island–one-resort concept, 433
- Online interviews, 402
- Online learning, 200
- Online tourism academy, 128
- ‘OpeNER’ toolset, 49–51
- Opportunistic young tourists, 378–379
- Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), 88
- Outfit of the Day (OOTD), 154
- Overtourism, 125–126, 481
- Ownership, 168–169
- Pacific Asia Travel Association (PATA), 92–93
- Palestine Liberation Organisation (PLO), 188
- Pandemic, 497
- Pandemic and sustainable tourism, 90–92
- Paper-based systems, 261
- Paris Terrorist Attacks, 320
- ParseHub, 158
- Partner organizations, 65
- Pedagogical techniques, 128
- Pelagian Islands, 400
- People, 79
- Perceived risk, 343
  - tourists perceptions of risk and search for information, 342–343
- Performing Arts sector, 501–502
- Personal growth, 33
- Personal protective equipment (PPE), 303–304, 306, 311–312
- Personal well-being, direct and indirect impacts of lockdowns on, 293–294
- Philippine Overseas Employment Agency (POEA), 231
- Philippines, cruise tourism industry in
  - before and onset of pandemic, 231–233
  - changed cruise tourism landscape, 243–244
  - financial management and gender expectations, 242–243
  - global precarious realities in shipping, 229–230
  - isolation and sexual harassment, 241–242
  - job insecurity leads to increased workloads and job stress, 233–241
  - literature review, 228–230

- methods, 230–233
- staggering global impact of
  - COVID-19, 228
- transparent gender policies in
  - recovery strategies, 244–245
- Photography and tourist destinations, 345–346
- Physical evidence, 79
- Place, 79
- Place image, 343
- Policies to assist recovery, 119
- Policy Development Organization, 197
- Policymakers, 210
- Policymaking, 146–147
- Political leadership, 37
- Popularity, 168
- Post-conflict destinations, 178
- Post-COVID-19, 127
  - era, 446
  - pandemic, 65
  - tourism education in, 133–135
- Post-pandemic marketing approaches
  - implications for future academic and management research, 477
  - influence of tourist-related factors on, 472–473
  - tourist ‘knowing’ to form, 471–472
- Post-pandemic period, 96–98
- Potential crisis, 344
- Potential customers, 78
- Practice pandemic restrictions, 120
- Pre-pandemic tourism research, 5
- Price, 79, 170
  - of street cuisine, 213
- Price-sensitive customers, 78
- Priceline, 75
- PricewaterhouseCoopers (PWC), 434
- Pricing strategies, 219
- Priming as opportunity to encourage
  - tourist engagement, 475–476
- Principles of Buen Vivir, 271
- Principles of Responsible Management Education (PRME), 128
- Priorities for resuming tourism, 97–98
- Private funding, 501
- Private sector involvement, 454–455
- Problem identification, 64–66
  - frequency, 66
  - incentives, 66
  - judging criteria, 65
  - number of participants per team, 66
  - partner organizations, 65
  - time duration, 65
- Process, 79
- Product, 79
- Professional well-being, 291–292
- Programa de Conservación para el Desarrollo Sostenible (PROCODES), 449
- Promotion, 79
- Proximity tourism, 273
- Psychology, 470
- Pushkin State Museum of Fine Arts, 49
- Push–pull factors, 376–377
- Quality of life, 356
- Quality of street cuisine, 213, 219
- Quarantine, 107–108
- Questionnaire, 361–362
- Questionnaire on Information in Pandemic Conditions (UInP), 385
- Queuing, 425–426
- R package, 380
- Re-engineering tourism education, 134
  - coalescence between tourism education and TLT, 130–133
  - TLT, 128–129
  - tourism education and COVID-19, 127–128
- Real-time assessment of vulnerability
  - hospitality sector, 294–295
- Recovery marketing, 342
- Recovery phase of tourism destinations
  - aim and objectives, 318
  - counter-terrorism frameworks for tourism stakeholders, 319–321
  - data analysis and findings, 323–329

- destination branding, 319
- literature review, 318–322
- methodology, 322–323
- terrorism and tourism, 318–319
- Reed Exhibitions*, 505
- Reflexivity, 230
- Relative Exposure Index, 504
- Relaxation, 497
- Remittances, 232–233
- Reopening theme parks, 422, 425, 427
- Research-led practice, 30
- Residents' perceptions of tourism
  - impacts, 359–361
- Respondents profile, 114, 215–216
- Restaurant, COVID-19's effects on, 94
- Rethinking tourism
  - in 'Fortress Australia', 271–273
  - as more than industry, 269–271
- Revenue models, 501
- Ride-oriented theme parks, 418
- Robotics, 45–47
- Robots, 48
- RStudio Cloud, 158
- Rural tourism, 260

- Safety, 258
  - health and, 80
- Sanitation, 258–259
- Santa Claus Land, 418
- Santa's Workshop, 418
- Seafarers, 229
- Self-concept, 472–473
- Self-examination, 130
- Self-improvement programs, 33
- Semi-structured interviews, 141
- Semiotics-based approach to post-pandemic tourist destination perceptions, 469–470
- 11th September 2001 Terrorist Attacks (9/11 Terrorist Attacks), 319–321
- Severe acute respiratory syndrome (SARS), 24, 90, 251–252, 302
- SARS-CoV1, 95
- SARSCoV2 pandemic, 87–88
- Sexual harassment, isolation and, 241–242
- Shapiro–Wilk test, 380
- Shared accommodations in Maldives
  - guesthouse accommodation in
    - sharing economy, 435–436
  - Maldives' guesthouses, 437–439
  - tourism growth in Maldives, 436–437
- Sharing, 131
- Short-term strategies, 34–36
- Shutdowns, 254–255
- Skype (online meeting platform), 506
- Small and medium enterprises (SMEs), 92
- Small islands, domestic tourism on, 403–404
- Small-scale sports tourism, 149
- Snowball sampling technique, 402
- Snowballing method, 304
- Social constructionism, 470
- Social distancing, 92, 258, 286, 423
  - COVID-19 Pandemic, 422–427
  - theme park operations and logistics, 420–422
  - theme parks growth and development, 418–420
- Social fabric development, 25
- Social impacts
  - of COVID-19, 80
  - tourism and, 90–91
- Social interaction, 37
- Social media, 169–170
  - platforms, 255
- Social Network Analysis (SNA), 158
- Socio-demographic indicators, 203–204
- Socio-demographic information, 304
- Sofar Sounds, 502
- Spanish flu, 251–252
- Specialised accommodation businesses, 434
- Sports
  - COVID-19's effects on, 95
  - events, 140–141
- Sports tourism, 140–142

- business development and
  - investment, 146
- data analysis, 144
- findings, 144–148
- infrastructure development and
  - services, 147
- literature review, 141–143
- managerial development and
  - policymaking, 146–147
- method, 143–144
- raising awareness of host
  - community, 148
- research design, 143–144
- stakeholder theory, 142–143
- Stakeholders, 65, 402
  - counter-terrorism frameworks for
    - tourism, 319–321
  - theory, 142–143
- Statistical Package for Social Sciences (SPSS), 361–362
- Strategic informant sampling
  - technique, 402
- Strategic intent, 24, 26–27
  - change and tourism and hospitality
    - industry, 27–29
  - during COVID-19 epidemic, 34
  - leadership programmes, 33–34
  - literature review, 24–26
  - strategic leadership and, 30–33
- Strategic leaders, 26–27, 30–31
- Strategic leadership and strategic
  - intent, 30–33
- Strategic marketing, 318, 342
  - plans, 321–322
- Strategic planning, 24–25
- Street cuisine, 210
  - community attitude, 218
  - community-based, 213
  - factors influencing perception to,
    - 212–214
  - hygiene, 214
  - hypothesis, 215
  - hypothesis testing, 220
  - location, 212
  - perception of street cuisine location,
    - 217
  - price, 213
  - pricing strategies, 219
  - quality, 213, 219
  - research framework and method,
    - 214–215
  - respondent's demographic profile,
    - 215–216
  - results, 215–219
  - study area, 215
  - uniqueness, 212, 217
- Student organisations, 204
- Supply and demand curves, 26
- Supply-side of dark tourism, 179
- Survey analysis, 323–329
- Sustainability-focused recovery
  - approach
    - COVID-19 pandemic implications
      - for tourism sustainability
        - and resilience in Mexico,
          - 447–448
      - findings, 449–457
      - methodology, 448–449
- Sustainable destination management,
  - VERB Model of, 485–486
- Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), 90, 199, 244–245, 358–359
- Sustainable development model, 110
- Sustainable education
  - assessments, 200–202
  - COVID-19 eradication strategy, 205
  - global impact of COVID-19
    - epidemic on educational
      - institutions, 202–203
    - impact on education, 196–200
  - socio-demographic indicators,
    - 203–204
  - student organizations, 204
- Sustainable tourism, 88–89, 213
  - communication in tourism industry
    - during crises, 344–345
  - COVID-19 context, 90
  - COVID-19 in Bangladesh, 92
  - COVID-19's effects on leisure and
    - travel industry in global and

- Bangladeshi environments, 93–95
- COVID-19's impact on
  - Bangladesh's sustainable tourism economy, 92–93
- development, 89
- findings, 347–349
- future implications/policies for, 98–99
- methodology, 346–347
- new prospects for sustainable tourism industry, 96
- pandemic and, 90–92
- photography and tourist destinations, 345–346
- research aims, 346
- tourism and economic effects, 91–92
- tourism and environmental effects, 91
- tourism and social impacts, 90–91
- tourism industry recovers and resolves, 96–98
- tourism industry's global sustainability, 89
- tourists' perceptions of risk and search for information, 342–343
- Sustained crises, 344
- Swift recovery
  - COVID-19 effect on hospitality industry in Africa, 76–77
  - future of hospitality industry in Nigeria, 79–81
  - innovation management in hospitality industry in Nigeria, 77–79
  - modern history of hospitality industry, 75–76
  - reviews and recommendations, 81
- Swine flu virus, 447–448
- Symbolic interactionist approach, 472–473
- Teachers, 129, 201
  - teacher-centred teaching methods, 201
- Teaching, 201
- Technological advancements, 156
- Technology, 47, 134
  - technology-oriented teaching and learning ecosystem, 201–202
- Telegram*, 320
- Temperature checks, 423
- Terrorism, 318–319
- Terrorist attacks, 24–25, 250
- Thematic analysis, 46, 51–52
  - framework, 52
- Theme Index Museum Index, 419–420
- Theme parks, 417
  - COVID-19 Pandemic, 422–427
  - growth and development, 418–420
  - operations and logistics, 420–422
  - Theme Parks Reopen 2020, 422–425
  - Theme Parks Reopen 2021, 425–427
- Top-down approaches, 467–469
- Tourism. See also Counter-terrorism frameworks for tourism stakeholders, 12, 89, 178, 210, 250–251, 318–319, 398, 401
  - advancement and growth of, 46–47
  - business, 24
  - change and, 27–29
  - COVID-19 impacts on tourism, 107–110
  - and COVID-19 pandemic challenges, 465–466
  - disrupted due to COVID-19 pandemic health crisis, 140
  - and economic effects, 91–92
  - education and COVID-19, 127–128
  - education in post-COVID-19, 133–135
  - educators, 126, 128
  - and environmental effects, 91
  - global crisis in, 177–178
  - global sustainability, 89
  - graduates, 126
  - growth in Maldives, 436–437
  - growth in Philippines, 231
  - industry, 88, 106
  - in Mahahual, 449

- marketing, 118
- in Odisha, 252–254
- priorities for resuming, 97–98
- reset, 269
- sector, 107
- and social impacts, 90–91
- tourism-induced impacts, 362–363
- value chain, 88
- ‘Tourism for Good’ recovery plan, 483–484
- Tourism recovery
  - methods, 484–486
  - research significance, 481–484
  - results, 486–491
  - studies, 110–112
- Tourism Recovery Task Force (TRTF)*, 321
- Tourist ‘knowing’
  - to form post-pandemic marketing approaches, 471–472
  - as social construction, 470
- Tourists
  - behavior, 268–269
  - demand, 341–342
  - destinations, photography and, 345–346
  - difficulties in travelling by tourists during COVID-19, 13
  - gaze, 345–346
  - hypermobility, 156–157
  - perceptions of risk and search for information, 342–343
- Training, 33–34, 259
- Transformational leadership, 30–32
- Transformational Learning Theory (TLT), 2, 127–129
  - acquiring knowledge, 132
  - assessment and alienation, 130–131
  - building competence, 131–132
  - coalescence between tourism education and, 130–133
  - disorienting dilemma, 130
  - exploring, 131
  - plan for action, 132
  - re-integration phase, 133
  - role, 133
  - self-examination, 130
  - sharing, 131
  - tourism education in post-COVID-19, 133–135
- Transformative impacts on way of thinking and preserving planet, 110
- Transformative learning, 127
  - experience, 131
- Travel, 466
- Travel Agents Association of Odisha (TAAO), 256
- Traveling, 140
- TripAdvisor, 158, 171
- Tunisia, strategic marketing plans and destination imagery in, 321–322
- UK Department for Culture, Media and Sport (DCMS), 484–485
- UN General Assembly, 319
- UN Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy, 320
- Unintentional crisis, 344
- Uniqueness, 212, 217
- United Arab Emirates (UAE), 108
- United Nations (UN), 50
- United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation (UNESCO), 89
  - Creative Cities, 356, 362–363
  - creative tourism and creative cities, 357–359
  - literature review, 357–361
  - methodology, 361–362
  - residents’ perceptions of tourism impacts, 359–361
  - results, 362–369
  - sample profile, 362
  - tourism-induced impacts, 362–363
- United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP), 89
- United Nations World Tourism Organization (UNWTO), 111, 286–287, 482

- United Nations World Tourist Organization, 88
- United States Counter-Terrorism Policy, 320
- United States of America (USA), 319
- Universiti Malaysia Kelantan (UMK), 197
- Universiti Malaysia Perlis (UNIMAP), 197
- Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM), 197
- Universiti Tun Hussein Onn Malaysia (UTHM), 197
- Unprecedented crisis, 288–289
- Urban art (UA), 358
- User Generated Content (UGC), 158
- USTurPan1 questionnaire, 379
  - dimensionality of, 381
- Utilitarian young tourists, 378–379

- Variant of concern (VOC), 289–290
- VERB Model, 485–486, 488, 490–491
- Virtual classrooms, 126, 128
- Virtual concerts, 502
- Virtual experiences, 348
- Virtual reality (VR), 45–48
- Virtual runs, 502–503
- Virtual tourism, 118
- Virtual voice guide, 49
- Viruses, 302
- VisitBritain, 485
- Voluntourism, 154–155

- Walt Disney World, 419
- War on terror, 376
- Wars, 250
- Waves of Pandemic, 497
- Web scraping techniques, 158
- Wellness tourism, 260
- WhatsApp, 255
- Wi-Fi 6, 48
- Wilcoxon Rank Sum Test, 380, 385–386
- Wildlives, COVID-19's effects on, 95
- Working from home, 197–198
- Workloads, job insecurity leads to increased and, 233–241
- Workplaces, changing nature of, 45–46
- World Health Organisation (WHO), 90, 106–107, 125–126, 250, 286
- World Tourism and Tourism Council, 140
- World Tourism Organisation (WTO), 89, 346
- World Travel and Tourism Council (WTTC), 106, 286–287, 319
- World Wildlife Fund (WWF), 448
- Wuhan Municipal Health Commission, 251–252

- Young tourists, classification of, 386–388

- Zona Federal Marítimo Terrestre (Zofemat), 449
- Zoom (online meeting platform), 502, 506
- Zoomers. See Generation Z (Gen Z)