

Index

- Administrative Theory, 22–24
- Ambivalent sexism. See Benevolent sexism
- Androgyny, 30, 34–35, 39–40
- ANTI-History approach, 16–17
- Ardern, Jacinda, 36–38
- Autoethnographic approach, 128

- Baby Boomers, 133
- Bem Sex-Role Inventory (BSRI), 30
- Benevolent sexism, 160–161
 - contemporary and historical examples, 162, 165
 - damned, 167
 - in organizational context, 161
 - Pantsuit Nation*, 164
 - political environments, 163–164
 - vice president nomination, 163
- Black Lives Matter, 30
- Bouncing back, 131–132
- Boycott, 64

- Care ethics, 110–113
 - central attributes, 113–115
 - kindness and, 117–122
 - phases of care, 116
 - women, men, care and organizational life, 111–112
- Care impeding kindness, 121–122
- Care-receiving, kindness in, 121
- Clinton, Hillary, 161
- Co-creating knowledge, 128–129
- Code Lavender, 52–53
- Collective restorying process, 76
- Colonel, 20
- Commoditization/exploitation and elevation, 67
- Communication, 45–46
- Communicatively Constituted Organization (CCO), 45–46
 - CSM, 49–50
 - framework, 48
 - synergies between CSM and, 50–51
- Compassion, 46–47, 79–81
- Compassion Legitimacy and Worthiness Model, 68–69
- Compassionate leadership. See also Leadership, 79–81
 - findings, 84–89
 - literature review, 77–81
 - methodology, 81–84
 - narrating experience, 90–91
 - script, 89–90
 - workshop evolution, 81–84
- Comprehensive ethical framework, 115
- Cooperation, 21
- Cost-benefit analysis, 113
- COVID-19 pandemic, 29–30
- Critical sensemaking (CSM), 48–50
 - synergies between CCO and, 50–51
- Culture, 11
 - of kindness, 55–56
- Cystic Fibrosis (CF), 135

- Discourse analysis, 84
- Discretionary kindness, 16, 18, 20–21
- Discrimination, 76–78
- Diversity, 19, 76

- Empathy, 29–30
- Employee Assistance Program (EAP), 52–53
- Equity, 23, 61, 76
- Ethic of care, 112
 - central attributes of, 113–115
- Expanded Workshop Design, 85–88

- Fayol, Henri, 22–24
- Feelings, 80
- Feminine leadership styles
- Ardern, Jacinda, 36–38
 - COVID-19 pandemic, 29–30
 - kindness in leadership, 39–40
 - Merkel, Angela, 38–39
 - reproduction of gender stereotypes, 31–36
- Feminine orientation, 34
- Feminism, 164
- First attempt in learning (FAIL), 131–132
- Frame analysis, 63
- Framing
- architecture in organizations, 69
 - boycott, 64
 - commoditization/exploitation and elevation, 67
 - legality and morality, 66–67
 - normalizing kindness, 62–63
 - scheme and strategy, 65–66
 - self-determination, 67–68
 - servitude, 67–68
 - in society, 68–69
 - vulnerable and privileged, 64–65
- Frances Perkins, 165, 167
- Gender, 31
- gender/leader stereotype, 32–34
- Gender stereotypes
- evolution of social role theory, 31–32
 - reproduction of, 31–36
 - role congruity theory, 32–34
 - ‘think manager, think male’ phenomenon, 34–36
- Generation Z, 2
- Generativity, 129, 138–139
- Great-Grammy, 147
- Halloween trick or treat, 130–131
- Hawthorne Studies, 22
- Hepworth, Jessica, 135–136
- Hostile sexism, 161, 164, 167
- Human Relations, 20–22
- Human Relations and Administrative Theory, 14
- Inclusion, 76
- Intergenerational kindness, 138–139
- Intergenerational stories of kindness
- bouncing back, 131–132
 - Halloween trick or treat, 130–131
 - sense of kindness, 128–129
- Interpersonal procedural justice, 78–79
- Kamala Harris, 161, 163
- Kindness, 1–2, 13, 15–16, 60–61, 128
- and care, 117–122
 - and care as congruent, 119–120
 - in care-receiving, 121
 - as component/stage of care, 118–119
 - as consideration, 8
 - cultures of, 55–56
 - enacting through leadership, 52–54
 - enactment as form of resistance, 54–55
 - as event, 4
 - feeling good, 10
 - framing normalizing, 62–63
 - impeding care, 121–122
 - intentionality and purpose, 51–52
 - intergenerational perspectives of, 139
 - as intervention, 6
 - in leadership, 39–40
 - in MOS, 14–15
 - narratives, 3–11
 - Nextgen, 132–138
 - in organizational communication, 46–47
 - to participants, 3–9
 - by participants, 4–9
 - as pathway to care, 117–118
 - quality of care, 120–121
 - sense of, 48–49, 128–129
 - as small act, 3
 - understanding of, 11
- Kisu’lk, 149–151

- Lame duck, 38–39
- Leadership, 80. See also Feminine leadership styles
- education, 76
- enacting kindness through, 52–54
- kindness in, 39–40
- Legality and morality, 66–67
- Lenses of Gender, 30
- Management and organization studies (MOS), 13
- ANTI-History approach, 16–17
- Elton Mayo and Human Relations, 20–22
- Frederick Taylor and Scientific Management, 17–19
- Henri Fayol and Administrative Theory, 22–24
- implications to, 24
- kindness in, 14–15
- Management and organizational studies (MOS), 110–112
- Management education, 76
- Masculine leadership, 31
- Masculine/male, 32–33
- Mayo, Elton, 20–22
- Merkel, Angela, 38–39
- Merkel diamond, 38–39
- Mi'kmaq, 143–144
- Montreal School approach, 48, 51
- Narrative/interpretive approach, 2
- National culture, 69
- Netukulimk, 154–156
- Nextgen, 132–138
- generations in workplace, 132–135
- Normalize kindness, 62–63
- Open-heartedness, 119
- Organizational communication, kindness in, 46–47
- Organizational culture, 55, 69
- Organizational kindness, 69
- Organizational life, 111–112
- Organizational rules, 110
- Organizational-level rules, 50
- Organizations, kindness architecture in, 69
- Pantsuit Nation*, 164
- Pay It Forward*, 13
- Performative kindness, 167
- Personal service, 114
- Phases of care, 116
- Polemical feminist, 161
- Practical rationality, 114
- Procedural justice, 78–79
- Procedural trauma, 78–79
- Prosocial organizational behaviour, 119–120
- Public service, 165
- Relational kindness, 16, 18, 23
- Reproduction of gender stereotypes, 31–36
- Resource-Based View of the Firm*, 67
- Responsiveness, 121
- Role congruity theory, 32–34
- Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP), 134
- Sanctified kindness, 146–149
- Schemata of interpretation, 62
- Scientific Management, 17–19
- Self-compassion, 79–81
- Self-determination, 67–68
- Sense of kindness, 128–129
- Sensebreaking, 128–129
- Sensegiving, 128–129
- Sensemaking, 47, 49–50, 128–129
- Servitude, 67–68
- Seven sacred teachings, 151–153
- Sexual harassment, 76–78
- Silence Nova Scotia Certificate program, 83
- Smoke-free approach, 54–55
- Smudge ceremony, 154
- Smudging, 148
- Social construct theory, 63
- Social role theory, 30–31
- Societal kindness, 60, 68–69
- Stories, 2, 31, 39, 149, 156, 166

- Story-net of kindness, 143
 - Covid baby, 144–146
 - grandmother’s stories, 144
 - Kisu’lk, 149–151
 - Netukulimk, 154–156
 - sanctified kindness, 146–149
 - seven sacred teachings, 151–153
- Taylor, Frederick, 17–19
- Theory and practice, 11
- ‘Think manager, think male’
 - phenomenon, 34–36
- Trust, 78–79
- Unama’ki Institute of Natural Resources (UINR), 154
- Unbiased compassion, 76–77, 81
- Unforgiven* video, 63–64
- Virtuous circle of kindness, 69–71
- Weick’s sensemaking properties, 49
- Weigand, Erica, 136–138
- Workshop
 - co-design approach, 84
 - delivery in business education
 - context, 83
 - evolution, 81–84
 - recommendations, 88–89
 - redesign for early career manager audience, 83–84
- Xerox Corporation, 132