

Index

- Abdou Mostafa, 112
- Adey Carpet, 91–92, 97–98
- Africa
 - business actors in, 57
 - business management practices, 2
 - business practice, 235–236
 - business structures in, 241–244
 - as continent of commerce, 3
 - economic problems in, 190
 - entrepreneurial and enterprise practices, 3
 - indigenous businesses practices in, 5, 8, 247, 250
 - indigenous knowledge systems (IKS), 168, 240–241, 244
 - natural resources in, 91
 - weaving, 123–124
 - Western influences on, 239–240
- African bamboo utilisation, 91
- African entertainment industry, 251–254
- Afro-centrism, 189–190
- Agbo, 5, 212
- Agbo Iba, 214
- Agbo jedi-jedi, 214
- Agbo Opa eyin, 214
- Agro-industrialisation, 249–250
- Agro-medicine, 250
- Aklill Company, 91–93
- Akwa Oche*, 74
- Alagbo, 245
- Alajapas, 8
- Alternative funding, 250
- Apprenticeship/business succession models, 18–19
 - Ewes, 27–33
 - Guns, 33–36
 - Igbos, 19
 - methodology, 19
- Apprenticeship system, 46, 63
 - Igba boi*, 22–25
 - informal, 29–30
- Apprentice training, 46
- Ariaria International market, 72
- Ashante, 122–124
 - Kente weaving, 124
- Atlantic Slave Trade, 28
- Automobile spare parts, 55
- Bamboo uses, 91–92
- Bangladesh, 122
- Beitbridge, 171
- Benin Republic, 6, 33
- Bijar, 112
- Bimmanglwe, 144
- Bingbaa, 146
 - growing demand for, 150
- Boko Haram terrorist group, 249
- Business actors, 38–40
 - African entertainment industry, 251–254
 - business ethics/values, 79
 - herbal medicine, in Southwestern Nigeria, 218
 - Igbo entrepreneurs, in Nigeria, 57
 - market revival/sustainability, 116–117
- Business ethics/values, 61, 63, 74
 - business actors, 79
 - business thrived based on, 70–71
 - formal business structure, 71
 - future considerations, 78–79
 - growth and survival, 75–76
 - Igbo business culture, 66–67
 - impact, 74–75
 - indigenous enterprise, 63–65
 - informal education, 77
 - integrity, 69

- Ladipo Market, 65–66
 legacy, 76–77
 methodology, 63–65
 open family discussions, 77
 peaceful relationship, 68
 punctuality, 68
 study context, 72–74 support and understanding, 78
 trust, 69–70
 unity, 68–69
 women empowerment in, 72
 Business literacy, 248
 Buy-Sell Agreement, 25
- China of Africa, 21
 Christianity, 27
 Christian missionaries, 189
 Clan system, 232–233
 Cloth weaving, 6
 Coffee ceremony, 89–90
 Communication skills, 48
 Content duplication, 128
 Corporate social responsibility (CSR), 39
 Cosmetics, 51–55
 Cotton, 123–124
 COVID-19, 5, 172
 Southwest Nigeria, 212–213
 Western Nigeria, 213
 Cross-case analysis, 36–38
 Cross-posting, 128
 Cultural and Creative Industries (CCIs), 85–91 case selection and analysis, 91–99 employment and growth in, 86
 Ethiopia. See Ethiopia
 Cultural and socio-economic benefits, 147–148
 Cultural diversity, 90
- Dagomba smock (Bingbaa), 144
 Dansichwe, 146
 Dorsorsror, 28–29
- East Africa, 7
 Eastleigh, 234–235
- Egypt, 7, 106
 handicraft/furniture industry, 109
 Kiliim, 106–107
 market opportunity, 109–110
 textile and apparel exports, 122
 tourism, 109
 Electronics, 56
 Entrepreneurship incubation, 127
 Environmental, social and governance (ESG), 39
 Ethiopia, 7, 99, 101
 Adey Carpet, 97–98
 Aklill Company, 92–93
 bamboo thread in, 88
 coffee ceremony in, 89–90 creativity and challenges, 95–96 cultural creative industries in, 88 cultural heritages, 86, 88–89 early inspirations, 93 exploring ideas, 93–95
 handicrafts of, 86–87 natural resources, 86 socks to lifestyle products, 96–97 sourcing challenges, 98–99 traditional craft in, 90–91
 Ethiopian Orthodox Church, 88
 European Somali immigrants, 230
 Europe-based medical practice, 188
- Ewes
 apprenticeship and succession, 27–33
 background, 27–28
 business context of, 28
 customary governance, 33 dominantly patrilineal, 32–33 entrepreneurs, 32
 family model, 30
 gender and unique categorisations, 33 informal apprenticeship systems, 29–30 model of succession, 31–32
 paternalistic system, 30–31
 referral systems, 30

- Eyi Alo, 35
- Family model, 30
- Family-owned businesses, 25
- Fashion, 55–56
- Fiscal policy, in Ghana, 123
- Formalisation, 71
- Fourth industrial revolution (4IR), 37–38
- German apprenticeship model, 18–19
- Ghana, 6
 - business incubators in, 127–128
 - economic growth in, 123
 - Ewe ethnic group of. See also Ewes, 27–28
 - fiscal policy in, 123
 - GDP, 123, 146–147
 - Kante weaving, 122–123
 - microfinance and small loans centre (MASLOC), 127–128
 - small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs), 122–123
 - smock dealership, 6
 - smocking, 144
 - textile sector in, 129
- Giyani, 191–192
- Global economic hub, 228
- Global value chain (GVC), 122
- Gulf African Bank, 234–235
- Guns
 - apprenticeship and succession, 33–36
 - background, 33–34
 - business context of, 34–35
 - succession, 36
- Hadith (report), 229–230
- Halal, 234–235
- Handicrafts, 86–87
- Hand-woven textiles, 90
- Haram, 234–235
- Hawala money transfer system, 234–235
- Healthcare, 245
- Herbal concoction, 214
- Herbal medicine, in Southwestern Nigeria, 5, 210–211
 - business actors, 218
 - COVID-19, 212–213
 - customer's attraction, 216
 - customers trust, 216
 - data analysis, 212–213
 - duration of learning, trade, 214
 - ethical consideration, 213
 - fieldwork, 2022, 212
 - government, regulated by, 216–217
 - interviews, 211–212
 - market sales, 215
 - nature of, 214–215
 - participants, 211–212
 - study site, 211–212
 - trade of, 214
 - trade partnership, 216
 - women in, 212
 - years of trade, 214
- Igba boi*, 38, 45–46, 48, 74
- Igbo business culture, 66–67
- Igbo business practice, 62
- Igbo entrepreneurs, in Nigeria, 45–46
 - apprenticeship programme, 48
 - automobile spare parts, 55
 - business actors, 57
 - cars, 56–57
 - challenges, 48
 - computers, 57
 - cosmetics, 51–55
 - electronics, 56
 - fashion, 55–56
 - literature review, 46–49
 - managerial skills, 49
 - master, 48–49
 - methodology, 49–50
 - start-up entrepreneurs, 49
 - trade settlement, 49

- Igbos, 2, 18, 74
 apprenticeship and succession, 19, 46
 background of, 20 business model of, 20–21 succession model, 25–26 traditional business practice, 5
- Ijesa merchants, 8
- Ijmā, 229–230
- Ijtihād, 229–230
- Ikotun market, 65
- Immigrants, 229
 overseas Somali, 230
- Imu ahia*, 46, 48
- Indigenous businesses practices, 5–8
 Agbo, 5
 apprenticeship models and practices, 6, 244–245
 craft, 245–246
 cultural and creative industries, 7 ethnic groups, 18 future studies, 7–8
 healthcare, 245
 Igbo, 5
 indigenous craft, 7
 Kente weaving, 6
 smock dealership, 6
 sustainability and, 244–246 traditional healthcare practice, 6–7
- Indigenous business incubators, 122–123, 126, 128
 challenges, 129
 Ghana, 123
 Kente weaving, 124
 opportunities, 128–129
- Indigenous business structures, 252–253
- Indigenous craft, 7
- Indigenous enterprises, 2–3 business ethics and values, 63–65
- Indigenous knowledge, 167–168, 239–241, 244
 agro-industrialisation, 249–250
 agro-medicine, 250
 alternative funding, 250
 business literacy, 248
 certification, 250
 craft, 245–246
 government and private support, 249
 healthcare, 245
 market research, 248 in medicine, 245
 standardisation, 249
- Indigenous practices, 106
- Indigenous smock business, 154–155
- Industrialisation, 45–46, 122
- Informal apprenticeship systems, 29–30
- Informal education, 77
- Informal entrepreneurship models, 178–180
- ‘Inochi anya’ succession model, 25
- Interlinking, 128
- Islam, 229–230
- Jebena buna*, 89–90
- Jihad, 229
- Kente weaving, 6, 122–123
 Asante, 124
 business, starting up, 135
 challenges, 136
 contemporary business practices, 129 data collection and participant selection, 130–131, 134 design, 130 history of, 123–125
 incubation, 135 knowledge about, 135 in Kumasi, 125
 methodology, 129–130
 opportunities, 136
 policy recommendation, 137 socio-economic benefits, 135–136
 tourism, 125–126
- Kenyan Somali community, 228–231, 236

- Kiliim, 106
 Abdou Mostafa, 112
 Bijar, 112
 collaboration with craftsmen, 111 competition, 111–113
 competitive advantage, 112–113 crafted products of, 106 digital and traditional marketing, 116 foreign customers, 108–109
 Fowa, 107
 luxurious product, 108–109
 market dilemma and current realities, 113–116
 market opportunities, 106
 Oriental Weavers, 112
 physical store, 114
 price reduction, 115
 product innovation, invest in, 115–116 research unit, 115 safety and quality, 110–111 segment and target audience, 116
 social enterprise, 106
 strategy for, 114–115
 supply chain, 110
- Ladipo Market, 65–66
 Lagos State, 65
 Laribasi, 147
 Leather, 65
 Lifestyle brand, 107–108
 Logistics, 50
- Macco, 64
 Managerial skills, 49
 Mangomes, 188–190, 193
 Market revival/sustainability, 105–107
 adopt innovative marketing practice, 116–117
 business actors, 116–117
 competition, 111–113
 craftsmen, artisans or traders, collaborate with, 117 industry overview, 109–110
 Kiliim, 107–108
 know your market, 116
 market dilemma and current realities, 113–116
 market opportunity, 109–110
 methodology, 106–107
 product innovation, invest in, 117
- Mastership, 46
 Medicinal plant (mpesu), Zimbabwe and South Africa, 167–169 belief systems, 178–180 dignity and value of, 176–178 harvesting, 173–174 marketing, 174, 176
 material and data, 171–172
 planting, 172–173
 sexual and reproductive health care in, 169–171
- Microfinance and small loans centre (MASLOC), 127–128
 Modern Kente production, 125–126
 MoMo, 153–154
 Māori theory of value, 246
 Mozambique, 6–7
 Mushin business environment, 72
- National Agency for Food & Drug Administration & Control (NAFDAC), 217, 250
 National Bureau of Statistics (2019), 46–47
 Nigeria, 6, 62, 240
 Agbo, 5
 apprenticeship, 45–46
 Benin, 27
 Igbo, 5
 Igbo ethnic group of, 20 socio-economic issues in, 76
 Nkem's Main Shop, 72–73
 Nke-Ora Merchandise Company, 72–73
- Non-governmental organisations (NGOs), 248

- Nora, 64
 North Africa, 7–8
 Northern Frontier District (NFD), 228–229
 Northern Ghana, 144
 Nvivo 12 programme, 214
Nwa boi, 23–24, 46
- Oga*, 46, 66–67
 Ojo-Alaba market, 65
 Oriental Weavers, 109, 112
 Orthodox Tewahedo Church paintings, 89
 Osomalo, 8
 Overseas Somali immigrants, 230
- Pakistan, 122
 Partnership methods, 128
 Paternalistic system, 30–31
 Peaceful relationship, 68
 Punctuality, 68
- Qualitative in-depth case study approach, 91–92
 Quran, 229–230
- Really Simple Syndication (RSS), 128
 Referral systems, 30
 Roman Catholic, 29–30
- Safeguarding, 1–2, 247
Samaale, 228
 Self-efficacy, 200
 Self-esteem, 200
 Settlement, 5, 46
 Sexual and reproductive health care,
 169–171
 Shifta War, 229
 Silk, 123–124
 Small and medium-sized enterprises
 (SMEs), 2, 122
 Ghana, 123
 Smock dealership, Tamale, 6, 144–146 challenges of, 150–151, 155–156 compiling, 153
 cultural benefits, 147–148
 data analysis, 153 disassembling, 153 employment/job creation, 148, 150
 exportation/market development, 150 financing, 151
 foreign products, 151
 GDP growth, 149
 governmental support, 149 growing demand, for Bingbaa, 150 income/revenue, 148 infrastructure gap, 149–150 interpretation, 153 lack of access to technology, 151 legal issues, 150 market and marketing, 150–151
 methodology, 152–153
 modern day, 147 occasions, 147
 opportunities of, 148–149 participants, description of, 152–153 pictures of, 162 population growth, 149
 reassembling, 153 research design, 152 socio-economic benefits of, 148 start-up capital, 151 symbolic meaning, 147 technology and social media, 148–149, 153–154
 tourism, 148
 traditional wear, 148
- Social capital, 234
 Social enterprise, 107–108, 110–111
 Social learning theory (SLT), 48
 Social networks, 234
 Socio-economic and cultural benefits, 144
 Somali business community, 228 enterprise orientation and attributes, 232–234 financial system, 234–235 historical trends, 228–229
 Islam, 229–230

- overseas Somali immigrants, 230
- Somali pirates business practice, 230–231
 - theoretical foundation, 231–232
- Somali enterprise orientation/attributes
 - clan system, 232–233
 - pooled resources, 234
 - social capital, 234
 - social networks, 234
 - trust, 233–234
- Somali pirates business practice, 230–231
- South Africa, 6–7
 - COVID-19, 192
 - traditional healthcare practice (THP), 188
- Southeastern Nigeria, 2, 5
- Southeast geopolitical zone, 20
- Specialisation, 128–129
- Staff loyalty, 40
- Start-up entrepreneurs, 49
- Sunnah, 229–230
- Sunni Muslims, 228
- Supply chain, 110
- Suppression of Witchcraft Act in 1957, 189
- Sustainability
 - indigenous businesses practices and, 244–246
 - indigenous knowledge, 246–250
- Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), 39, 57
- Swiss model, 18–19

- Technical, vocational education and training (TVET), 37, 39
- Thohoyandou, 171
- Tibeb*, 90
- Tokpa, 35
- Trade settlement, 48–49
 - increased productivity, 49
- Traditional handicrafts, 90–91
- Traditional healing practices (THPs), 188
 - popularity of, 189
 - practice and payment procedures, 197–198
- Traditional healthcare practitioners (THPs), 4, 6–7, 169, 172
 - informal entrepreneurial models, 178
 - marketing platforms, 174–176
- Traditional Health Practitioners Act (THPA), 196–197
- Trust, 69–70, 128–129, 233–234
- Tsonga indigenous healthcare practice
 - Christian missionaries, 189
 - colonialism, 189
 - emotional dimension, 200
 - entrepreneurship, 190
 - ethical principles, 192
 - graduation process, 196–197
 - healing skills, 188–189
 - identification process, 192–194
 - initiation process, 194–196
 - mangomes, 190
 - material and data, 191–192
 - mental dimension, 199–200
 - physical aspects, 199
 - practitioners, training of, 192–197
 - social dimension, 200–201
 - spiritual dimension, 201–202
 - transcendental conceptualisation of, 198–202
- Turkey, 122

- Ubuntu, 2–4, 11
- United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR), 228
- Unity, 68–69
- US model, 18–19
- Uzor-Biz Ventures, 63–64
 - integrity, 69
 - peaceful relationship, 68
 - punctuality, 68
 - trust, 70

- VaTsonga healthcare practice, 190
- Vhavenda, 169

- sexual and reproductive health care
 - in, 169–171
- Weaving, 90
- West Africa, 6, 27
- Western-based medicine, 198–199
- Women empowerment, 72
- Word-For-the-Month, 68
- Zimbabwe, 6–7