

INDEX

- Active participation, 51–52
- Adult, child and environment (ACE), 2, 8, 14
- Adults, 113–117
  - creating degrees of flexibility, 49–50
  - flexibility, 65
  - painting activity in Forest School, 59–60
  - plan, 56, 58, 61, 63
  - play pedagogy, 50–52
  - safe environment, 52–56
  - tidying up, 65–66
  - whittling activity in Forest Kindergarten, 63–65
- Being outdoors, benefits of, 33
- Child-initiated play, 16, 56, 74, 117, 120
- Child-minders, 24
- Child/children/childhood, 27–28, 117, 120
  - best places to play, 74–79
  - choices in play, 73–74
  - Digging Tunnels*, 93–95
  - experiences of forest learning, 69
  - Fairy Girls*, 92–93
  - group play, 95–97
  - mark and transforming spaces, 83–85
  - play, 33
  - play, 70–71
  - playing out, 71–73
  - propping up play, 82–83
  - set plays, 80–82
  - social play, 88–97
  - solo, 89–95
- Child–child friendships, 87–88
- Choices in play, 73–74
- Co-operation, 72–73
- Co-operative play, 93–95
- Communal activities, 87–88
- Compound flexibility, 35–39
- Continuous provision, 56
- Conversational interviews, 3
- Creche, 24
- Curriculum, 25–28
  - Danish curriculum, 27
  - Danish Day Care Act (DDCA), 26
  - Danish Forest Kindergarten in English, 1
    - map of, 38
  - Danish Ministry of Social Affairs (DMSA), 27
  - Danish Pedagogues, 88
  - Day care, 24
  - Day Care Act, 28, 61
  - Department for Education and Science, 12
  - Desirable Learning Outcomes (DLOs), 12, 26
  - Digging Tunnels*, 93–95
  - Distraction technique, 99–100
  - Early childhood education and care (ECEC), 4–5, 7, 12–13, 27, 109
  - Early Years Framework Strategy (EYFS), 17, 26
  - English Forest School, map of, 39
  - English NEF study, 16
  - Environment, 111–113

- Exploratory play, 70
- Fairy Girls*, 92–93, 95
- Fantasy play, 70
- Fixed equipment, 42
- Flexibility, 65
- Flutterbørnehave* (children bussed daily to forest), 22
- Forest Kindergarten, 40–42, 51
  - aspects, 62
  - in Denmark, 1–2
  - idea, 109
  - pedagogues, 62–63
  - whittling activity in, 63–65
- Forest Learning, 1–2, 4, 49–50, 110
- Forest School, 1, 40–41, 51, 109
  - creation, 11–12
  - current provision, 24–25
  - curriculum, 25–28
  - early days, 13–15
  - in England, 12
  - painting activity in, 59–60
  - pedagogy, 109
  - play in early provision, 28–30
  - Scandinavia roots, 21–24
  - shared model, 17–21
  - spread of ideas, 15–16
- Formalisation, 102
- Foundation, 26
- Free play, 29, 44, 56, 72, 95
- Friendship, 72–73
  - as ways to manage risk, 97–98
- Friluftsliv*, 19–21, 34, 50
- Full-time private and state nurseries, 24
- Funds of knowledge, 72
- ‘Grass-roots’ approach, 12–13
- Group play, 95–97
- Inside play, 71–72
- Inter-age groups, 87
- Inter-relational Pedagogical Model for Forest Learning, 19–20
- Kindergarten, 34
  - history of, 23–24
- Learning, 26–27, 96–97
  - in Forest School, 13–14
- Legebus*, 78, 83, 93
- Location, 40–48
- Loose parts, 36–37, 42, 45
- Mastery play, 70
- Mosaic Approach, 3
- Mud kitchen, 91–92
- Nannies, 24
- Natural features, 40–42
- Naturebørnehaver* (nature kindergarten), 22
- New Economic Foundation (NEF), 15–16
- Observation with field notes, 3
- Office for Standards in Education (Ofsted), 26
- Outdoor play, 72
- Outside environment, 92
  - tradition of using outside environment with children, 33–35
- Outside play, 29, 71–72, 116
- Oversimplification, 18
- Painting activity in Forest School, 59–60
- Parallel play, 92
- Part-time private and state nurseries, 24
- Pedagogical model for forest learning, 7–8, 10, 110
  - adults, 113–117
  - child, 117–120
  - environment, 111–113
  - methodological considerations, 2–3
  - myths, 1
  - social interactions and relationships, 120–122
  - social pedagogy, 5–7

- Pedagogues, 27–28, 46, 49, 53, 87–88
- Pedagogy, 3, 5, 71
- Photo tours, 3
- Play, 56, 69–71
  - best places to, 74–79
  - choices in, 73–74
  - in early provision, 28–30
  - groups, 24
  - partner, 37
  - pedagogy, 50–52
  - propping up play, 82–83
  - set plays, 80–82
- Playhouse, 75–76, 79, 91–92
- Practitioners, 53
- Propping up play, 82–83
- Regular, 20
- Relationships, 87, 120, 122
  - children's social play, 88–97
  - dynamics, 97
  - friendships as ways to manage risk, 97–98
  - interactions, 103–105
  - interventions, 98–103
  - social pedagogy and, 87–88
- Resilience, 87–88
- Resourcefulness, 87–88
- Safe environment, 52–56
- Sand boys, 94–95
- Scaffolding pedagogical approach, 118
- Scandinavia, 11
  - history of kindergarten, 23–24
  - model, 13–14
  - roots, 21–24
- Self-efficacy, 72–73
- Seminal texts, 12
- Set play, 78–80, 82, 92, 118
- Shared model, 17–21
- Shared national model, 18
- Skovbørnehaver* (forest kindergarten), 22
- Skovgruppe* (forest or wood group), 22
- Social element, 87
- Social interactions, 94–95, 101, 120, 122
- Social pedagogy, 5, 7, 87–88
- Social play, 70, 87
- Social Service Act, 26–27
- Social situations, 97
- Solitary play, 91
- Space, 45–48
- Spontaneous play, 70
- Strengthened Pedagogical Curriculum, 27–28
- Trees, 35, 75
- Vandrebornehaver* (wandering kindergarten), 22
- Walking interviews, 3
- Welsh study, 16
- Whittling activity in Forest Kindergarten, 63–65
- Working theories, 72
- Zone of Proximal Development (ZPD), 53, 72