

Index

- Accountability, 25–26, 29
- Ações Estratégicas do Programa de Erradicação do Trabalho Infantil (AEPETI), 127
- Administration at Santa Catarina State University (UDESC), 205–206
- Administrative systems, 84
- Agência Nacional de Energia Elétrica (ANEEL), 113–114
- Agência nacional de Vigilância Sanitária (ANVISA), 113–114
- Agência para o Desenvolvimento da Atenção Primária à Saúde (ADAPS), 113–114
- Agencification, 86
- Algorithmisation of public administration in Brazil, 85–91
- digital transformation and new organisational standards, 86–89
- institutional changes in Brazil, 89–91
- All for Pernambuco Modelo, 115
- Alma Ata Declaration, 167–168
- Annual Budget Laws (LOA), 13, 61
- Article 110 of the Transitional Constitutional Provisions Act (ADCT), 58
- Artificial intelligence (AI), 86–87
- Assessments, 237
- Auditorias operacionais dos controles interno e externo, 114
- Auto-Innovating Programme, 151
- Avança Brasil (Go Brazil), 14–15
- Banco do Brasil*, 42
- Banco do Nordeste (BNB)*, 181, 185
- Basic Education Evaluation System (SAEB), 140
- Basic Income of Citizenship (RBC), 184
- Basic Operational Standards (NOB), 124
- Basic Social Protection (PSB), 127
- Best value for money (BFM), 76–77
- conception of best value for money in Brazilian public procurement, 76–77
- Biodiversity loss, 5–6, 155
- Bipartite Inter-Management Commissions (CIB), 129
- Blended Learning model, 138–139
- Blockchain, 87
- Bolsa Família* (BF), 182
- Bolsa Família Program (PBF), 124–125, 127
- Bolsonaro government, 37
- Bossa Nova, 1
- Bottom-Up perspective, 220–221
- Brasil de Todos (Brazil for All), 15
- Brazil, 23–24, 157, 163
- algorithmisation of public administration in, 85–91
- ambition to change, 161
- Civil Service in, 38–39
- constitutional framework of public finances and budget in, 60–64
- education in, 139–141
- future trends and scenarios in, 91–93
- government planning in, 2–3, 11
- industrial policies, 5
- institutional changes in, 89–91
- institutionalisation of public procurement in, 77–79

- profile of civil servants in, 3
 - public administration and public policies, 2
 - public–private partnerships in, 100, 102–103, 106
 - reality, 10
 - reforms and institutional changes in, 83–85
 - singular moment, 157–161
 - Social Assistance in, 123–130
 - transforming access to healthcare in, 167–171
- Brazil in Action, 14
- Brazilian case, 26–30
- Brazilian contemporary industrial policy, 143
 - industrial policy under Lula–Dilma governments, 146–150
 - old tradition, 143–146
- Brazilian cultural diversity, 1
- Brazilian Digital Governance Strategy, 90
- Brazilian economy, 143
- Brazilian Federative Organisation, 71–74
- Brazilian Healthcare System, 163–167
- Brazilian import-substitution policy of twentieth century, 146–148
- Brazilian Institute of Geography and Statistics (IBGE), 233–234
- Brazilian Movement for Competitiveness (MBC), 43
- Brazilian Public Administration, 38
 - leadership in, 40–43
 - performance management in, 108–115
- Brazilian reality contextualisation, 222–223
- Brazilian social security, 123
- Brazilian State, 57
- Brazilian Unified Social Assistance System (SUAS), 121
- Budget, 57
- Budget Guidelines Laws (LDO), 2–3, 13, 62
- Budget Panel, 27
- Budgetary Plans, 16
- Budgetary transparency, 25
- Budgeting, 23
- CadÚnico, 124
- Caixa Econômica Federal* (Caixa), 181
- Capabilities, 101
- Capes Portal of dissertations, 244
- Careers, 45–46
- Case, 26–30
- Categorisation, 226–227
- Ceiling of expenditures, 66
- Centres for Psychosocial Attention for Users of Alcohol and other Drugs (CPA AD), 223–224
- Citizens Budget, 27
- Civil service, 36
- Civil Society Movements, 43–44
 - training and capacity building of public servants, 44
- Classical/Weberian bureaucratic administration, 35–36
- Clientelism, 36
- Climate change, 5–6, 155
- Coercive isomorphism, 73
- Community Health Agents (ACS), 225–228
- Community Health Agents Program (PACS), 168
- Complementary Law 101/2000, 19
- Concertation pacts, 15
- Concession Law, 101
- Concessions, 101
- Constitutional Amendment 19, 37
- Constitutional Amendment Project (PEC), 17
- Continuous Cash Benefit (BPC), 127
- Controller Office, 249
- Cost-effectiveness analysis (ACE), 212
- Cost–benefit analysis (CBA), 212
- Council for Monitoring and Evaluating Public Policies (CMAPP), 233–234
- Court of Accounts, 249
- COVID-19, 5, 135, 156, 250
- Creative accounting, 64–65

- Crediamigo* programme, 185–186
 Crisis, 135
- Datafication, 87–88
 Decentralisation, 164–166
 Decentralized Management Index of SUAS (IGD-SUAS), 129
 Decentralized Management Index of the Bolsa Familia Program (IGD-PBF), 129
 Decree 7133, 37
 Decree Law 200, 36–37
 Democracy, 36
 Democratic Brazil, trajectory of government planning in, 13–17
 Department of Basic Care (DAB), 169
 Department of Information Evaluation and Management (SAGI), 233–234
 Department of Public Service Administration (DASP), 36, 84
 Department of the Single Register of Social Programmes (DECAU), 233–234
 Design, 8
 Differentiated Regime of Public Contracting (DRC), 75
 Digital Citizenship Platform, 90
 Digital governance, 4, 85
 algorithmisation of public administration in Brazil, 85–91
 future trends and scenarios in Brazil, 91–93 reforms and institutional changes in Brazil, 83–85
 Digital tools, 87
 Digital transformation, 86–89
 Digitisation, 88
 Discretion, 221
 Diversity, 51–52
 DT Grant, 194–195
- E-money, 184
- Education
 in Brazil and sustainability, 139–141 and sustainable development goals, 136–137 trends in twenty-first century and sustainability, 137–139
 Emergency Aid programme, 183–184
 Emergency basic income (EBI), 183
 Emerging technologies, 86
 Environmental agenda, 157
 Environmental crises, 156
 Environmental degradation, 5–6, 155
 Environmental governance, 158–159
 Environmental policy, 155
 Estratégia Federal de Desenvolvimento (EFD), 112
 Evaluation, 233
 considerations, 246–247
 criteria, 234
 implementation at heart of public policy and programme evaluations, 237–240
 meta-evaluation as starting point for programme evaluation, 244–246 plan and process and results map, 240–244 of public programmes, 234–237
 Executive Committee of Electronic Government (CEGE), 89
 Expenditure, 59
 Expenses, 58
 Exteriorisation, 78
 External collaborative stakeholders, 24–25
 External control, 256
- Family Health Strategy, 168
 Family health team in action, 169–171
 Family Health Teams (ESF), 225
 Federal Comptroller General (CGU), 233–234
 Federal Constitution of 1988 (CF/88), 2–3, 11, 57–58, 121, 123, 222, 233–234

- Federal Court of Auditors (TCU), 233–234
- Federal Government, 57–58, 256
- Federal Planning and Budget System (SPOF), 15
- Federal Public Administration, 18
- Federal Subsidies Budget (SECAP), 27–28
- Federal Universities of Paraíba (UFPB), 198–199
- Federal University of Campina Grande (UFCG), 198–199
- Federal University of Ceará (UFC), 198–199
- Federal University of Minas Gerais (UFMG), 198–199
- Federal University of Pernambuco (UFPE), 198–199
- Federal University of Sergipe (UFS), 198–199
- Federative agreement, participation and social control, 128–129
- Fernando Henrique Cardoso administration (FHC administration), 124
- Financial inclusion, 6, 177
 - cases, 183–186
 - dimensions, 178–179
 - and forms of state action, 180–181
 - income transfer programmes, 182–183
- Financial services, 177
- FINDEX, 178
- Fiscal imbalances, 98–99
- Fiscal pedalling, 68
- Fiscal Responsibility Law (LRF), 14–15, 19, 27, 61–63
- Fund for basic education (Fundeb), 60
- Funding, 166–167
- General Data Protection Law, 91
- General Social Security System, 66
- Global and national NGOs, 256
- Global Procurement Agreement (GPA), 79
- Global Purchasing Agreement, 79
- Golden rule, 62
- Gov. br Platform, 90–91
- Governance (see also Digital governance), 23–24, 35, 256–257
 - reforms in Brazil, 85
- Government funds, lack of, 98–99
- Government planning, 2–3, 11, 13
 - in Brazil, 11, 13
 - challenge for effective government planning, 17–20
 - trajectory in democratic Brazil, 13–17
- Government plans, 11–12
- Gratifications, 49
- Gross Debt of General Government (DBGG), 65
- Gross Domestic Product (GDP), 72
- Gross national product (GNP), 166–167
- Growth Acceleration Program (PAC), 15, 75
- Headings, 49
- Health reform, 163
- Healthcare system (see also Primary healthcare (PHC)), 163–164
 - Brazilian Healthcare System, 163–167
 - gaps and challenges, 171–172
 - transforming access to healthcare in Brazil, 167–171
- Horizontal Accountability, 29
- Human resource management, 35–38
 - Civil Service in Brazil, 38–39
 - Civil Society Movements, 43–44
 - diversity, 51–52
 - headings and gratifications, 49
 - leadership in Brazilian Public Administration, 40–43
 - performance management and evaluation, 50–51
 - positions and careers, 45–46
 - remuneration and personnel expenditure, 46–49

- Implementation, 9
- Income transfer programmes, 182–183
- Industrial, Technological, and Export Plan (PITCE), 148–149
- Industrial policy, 5
 - under Lula–Dilma governments, 146–150
 - main features, 148–149
 - overshooting and extractive patrimonialism, 149–150
- Industrialisation, 12
- Inequalities, 227
- Informatics Department of the Unified Health System (Datasus), 233–234
- Information and communication technology (ICT), 74, 76, 182–183
- Innovation, 6–7, 189
 - analysis of results of programmes in Brazilian Scenario of ST&I, 196–199
 - considerations, 199–202
 - innovation-promoting environments, 191
 - in procurement, 79
 - public innovation policy in Brazilian Legislation, 192–194
 - and public policies, 190–192
 - public programmes to promote ST&I activities, 194–195
- Innovation Law (LI), 192–193
- Inova-Empresa, 148
- Inovar-Auto, 148
- Institute of Applied Economic Research (IPEA), 233–234
- Institutional changes in Brazil, 89–91
- Institutionalisation of public procurement in Brazil, 77–79
- Institutions, 99–100
- Instituto República, 43
- Integrated Planning and Budget System (SIOP), 27
- Intellectual capital, 191
- Inter-councils Forum, 16
- Internalisation, 78
- International development banks, 256
- International experiences, 11–13
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), 64–65
- Internet of Things (IoT), 87
- Investment Sustained Programme (PSI), 148
- Lava Jato, 76
- Law of Diffuse Interests, 157
- Leadership in Brazilian Public Administration, 40–43
- Legal devices, 100–102
- Legislative structures, 74–76
- Lemann Foundation, 43
- Liberal democracies, 219–220
- Low-income population, 177
- Luís Inácio Lula da Silva (Lula) administration, 124–125
- Lula Administration, 15
- Lula and Dilma governments, 37
- Lula–Dilma Period, technological and industrial policy of, 148–150
 - industrial policy overshooting and extractive patrimonialism, 149–150
 - industrial-policy main features, 148–149
- Management issues, 9–10
- Management Shock in Minas Gerais, 114–115
- Managerial functions, 9–10
- Managerial Reform, 37
- Maricá Case, 184–185
- Master Plan for the Reform of the State Apparatus (PDRAE), 14
- Matland's Conflict and Ambiguity, 221
- Meta-evaluation as starting point for programme evaluation, 244–246
- Microcredit, 177
- Microfinance, 177

- Microfinance institutions (MFIs), 177
- Military regime, 36
- Ministry of Administration and State Reform (MARE), 254–255
- Ministry of Economy fiscal evaluation reports, 27
- Ministry of Economy monitoring of non-financial initiatives, 27–28
- Ministry of Health (MoH), 164
- Ministry of Social Development and Combating Hunger (MDS), 124–125
- Mission-oriented policies, 144
- Monthly Attendance Registry (RMA), 128
- Multi-Year Plan (PPA), 2–3, 13, 15
- Multiannual Plan, 61
- Multilateral organisations, 256
- Mumbuca Community Bank, 184
- Municipal Councils of Social Assistance (CMAS), 127
- Municipalities, 58–59
- National Accounting Office (TCU), 17
- National Common Curriculum Base (BNCC), 140, 250
- National Congress website on budget, 27
- National Council of Secretaries of Administration (CONSAD), 38
- National Development Bank (BNDES), 147
- National Environment Policy, 157
- National Institute of Educational Studies and Research (INEP), 233–234
- National Institute of Space Research (INPE), 233–234
- National plans, 12
- National Policy on Care for Users of Alcohol and other Drugs (NPAUD), 223–224
- National Research Council (CNPq), 6–7, 147, 189–190
- National School of Public Administration (ENAP), 233–234
- National Social Assistance Policy, 125
- National Tax System, 59
- National Teaching Directives, 140
- Nepotism, 36
- Networks for Psychosocial Attention (NPA), 223–224
- New Bidding Law, 78
- New Fiscal Regime, 66
- New organisational standards, 86–89
- New Public Management, 14, 35, 83, 107
- O Tribunal de Contas da União (TCU), 112
- Objectification, 78
- Ombudsman, 28
- Open budget, 23–25
 - actions, 25–26
 - Brazilian case, 26–30
 - considerations, 30
- Open Contracting Partnership, 73
- Organic Law on Social Assistance (LOAS), 124
- Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), 72, 90, 191, 236
- Órgãos e entidades com pactuação e gratificações de desempenho, 113–114
- Parliamentary Inquiry Committee (CPI), 213–214
- Participation, 25–26, 28
- Participatory budgeting, 25, 28
- Participatory Legislation Committee of the Chamber of Deputies, 28
- Partners, 253
- Patents, 195
- Patrimonialism, 35–36, 83
- Performance management, 4, 107–108
 - in Brazilian Public Administration, 108–115

- and evaluation, 50–51
- maturity grid, 109–110
- Performance measurement, 107
- Personnel expenditure, 46–49
- Petrobras*, 42
- Philanthropic foundations, business
 - entities, media, and big techs (FAAMG), 256
- Plan and budget, 17–20
- Planning, 12
- Platforms, 87
- Policy analysis, 205–206
 - experimenting policy analysis to connect university and government, 208–214
 - traditions, 206–208
- Policy Analysis Exercises, 206
- Policy entrepreneurs, 257
- Policy feasibility and implementation
 - analysis (AVPI), 212
- Policy formulation, 206–208
- Policy implementation, 219
- Policy research, 206
- Política de governança, 112–113
- Pollution, 5–6, 155
- Pombaline reforms, 35
- Power of enforcement, 74
- Primary healthcare (PHC), 167–171
 - network, 6
 - reformulating and expanding, 168–169
- Privatisation, 97
- Process and Results Map (MaPR), 241
- PROCON in Brazil, 181
- Procurement in Brazil, 77–79
- Productive and Oriented Microcredit (PNMPO), 185
- Productive Development Plan (PDP), 148–149
- Productivity, 189
- Programa Criança Feliz (The Happy Child Program), 127
- Programa de Promoção do Acesso ao Mundo do Trabalho (Program to Promote Access to Work), 127
- Programme for the Dissemination of Labour Statistics (PDET), 233–234
- Proposed Amendment to the Constitution (PEC), 37–38, 67
- Provisory Contribution on Banking Accounts (CPMF), 166
- Psychosocial attention to drugs users, 223–225
- Public administration, 249
- Public budgets, 3
 - management, 24
- Public consultations, 28
- Public control bodies, 233–234
- Public education, 140
- Public finances, 57
 - analysis of Union's fiscal situation, 64–68
 - considerations, 68
 - constitutional framework of public finances and budget in Brazil, 60–64
 - distribution of tax powers and attributions among public entities, 57–60
- Public health
 - funding, 166
 - system, 163
- Public hearings, 28
- Public innovation policy in Brazilian Legislation, 192–194
- Public Leadership Council (CLP), 43
- Public management, 2, 249
- Public policy, 177, 189, 234, 249, 251–252
 - ACS, 225–228
 - Brazilian reality contextualisation, 222–223
 - councils, 28
 - experimenting policy analysis to connect university and government, 208–214
 - formulation, 7, 205
 - governance, 256–257
 - implementation, 219, 253, 256

- innovation and, 190–192
- management, 252–253
- perspective, 2
- and policy analysis traditions, 206–208
- policy implementation and reproduction of inequalities, 227
- psychosocial attention to drugs users, 223–225
- theoretical framework, 220–221
- Public procurement, 71
 - Brazilian Federative Organisation, 71–74
 - conception of best value for money in Brazilian public procurement, 76–77
 - institutionalisation of public procurement in Brazil, 77–79
 - legislative structures and information and communication technology systems, 74–76
- Public programmes
 - evaluation of, 234–237
 - to promote ST&I activities, 194–195
- Public Prosecutors, 249
- Public resources, 123
- Public sector planning
 - plan and budget, 17–20
 - theoretical framework, 11–13
 - trajectory of government planning in democratic Brazil, 13–17
- Public servants, training and capacity building of, 44
- Publicity, 26–27
- Public–Private Partnerships (PPP), 97
 - in Brazil, 100, 102–103, 106
 - conceptual features, 98–100
- Rational Policy Analysis, 205–206
- Real Value Unit (URV), 147
- Remuneration, 46–49
- Rent-seeking, 145–146
- Research, 190
- Revenues, 60
- Reverse Auction Law, 75
- Risk allocation criteria, 99
- ‘S’ System, 59–60
- Sabatier’s Advocacy Coalition Framework, 221
- Salvador Subway System, 104
- Sanitaristas* movement, 164–165
- Santa Catarina State University (UDESC), 7
- Science, 190
- Secrecy, 23–24
- Sectoral Funds (FS), 148–149
- Serpro, 89
- Setbacks, 5–6
- Sistema Federal de planejamento, 111–112
- Social Assistance in Brazil, 123–130
- Social Assistance Network, 127–128
- Social assistance policy, 5, 121
 - and challenges, 129–130
 - fundamental concepts, 122–123
 - objectives and purposes, 126–127
- Social Assistance Reference Centers (CRAS), 127
- Social care policies, 58
- Social contributions, 60, 63
- Social media, 86
- Social movements, 256
- Social risk, 122–123
- Solidarity Community, 124
- Special Purpose Vehicles (SPV), 102
- Special Social Protection (PSE), 127
- Specialized Reference Centers for Social Assistance (CREAS), 127
- Standardisation of diverse practices, 79
- State capacity, 130
- State foundation, 37
- State government, 117–118
- State reforms, 83
- State-owned enterprises (SOEs), 100
- States, 58–59
- Stockholm Conference, 157

- Strategic and Participatory Management Secretariat (SGEP), 165–166
- Strategic Nucleus, 37
- Street-Level Bureaucracy, 220–221
- Supplementary Law (LC), 49
- Sustainability, 137, 139, 141
- Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), 13, 16–17, 135
 - education and, 136–137
 - SDG4, 136
- Sustainable fiscal policy, 3
- Sustained investment plan (PSI), 149–150
- Tax
 - expenditures, 64
 - powers and attribution distribution among public entities, 57–60
 - revenue, 60
- Taxation, 57, 59
- Teaching method, 208
- Technological policy, 148–149
- Technology, 190
- Telecommunications Law, 74–75
- Temer administration, 16–17
- Therapeutic Communities (TCs), 225
- Top-Down perspective, 220–221
- Traditional financial system, 177
- Training and capacity building of public servants, 44
- Transformation, 138
 - education and sustainable development goals, 136–137
 - education in Brazil and sustainability, 139–141
 - education trends in twenty-first century and sustainability, 137–139
- Transitional Constitutional Provisions Act (ADCT), 66
- Transparency, 25–27
- Transparency Portal of the Comptroller General of the Union, 27
- Tripartite Intermanagers Commission (CIT), 129
- Triple environmental crisis, 5–6, 155, 157
- Um comitê Interministerial de governance (CIG), 113
- Unified Health System (SUS), 75, 163
- Unified Social Assistance System, 125
- Union's fiscal situation, analysis of, 64–68
- United Nations Children's Emergency Fund (UNICEF), 167
- Universal Call, 194–195
- Universal coverage, 167
- Universalism, 1
- University of São Paulo (USP), 198–199
- University outreach, 205–206
- Value for money, 98–99
- Vertical Accountability, 29
- Vetor Brasil, 43
- Vulnerability, 122–123
- Weberian bureaucratic model, 83
- Welfare, 182
- World Health Organisation (WHO), 167
- Youth and Adult Education Programme (EJA), 241