

INDEX

- Activity, 53
- ‘Advanced liberalism’, 5
- ‘Aestheticization of life’, 50–51, 87–88
- Affirmation of agency, 14
- Agency, 14
- Animal Laborans*, 53
- Anxiety, 1, 4, 57, 61–63
- ‘Apparent voluntarism’, 74
- Artistic activity, 55
- Artists, 54
- Arts and Crafts movement, 54
- ‘Assujetissement’, 32
- Authenticity, 48
- Autoethnography, 37
- Bandcamp, 24–25
- Basic capability, 29–30
- ‘Basic trust’, 27
- Bildung*, 21–22
- ‘Blasé attitude’, 44, 84–85
- ‘Bohème’, 86
- ‘Bohemian ethos’, 50–51
- Bohemianism, 85, 94
 - and social class, 89–90
- Bureaucratisation, 44
- Calvinism, 68–69
- Capability approach, 29–30
- Capitalism, 5–6, 13–14, 44, 47, 63
 - ethics of, 68–69
- Capitalistic organisation, 23–24
- Careerism, 47
- CCIs, 17–19
 - access to, 18
 - music work, individualisation and precariousness in, 20–26
 - neoliberalism in, 16
 - precariousness in, 23
 - at public policy level, 17
 - social inequalities in, 36–37
 - working features in, 17
- ‘Central capabilities’, 29–30
- Chain referral method, 36–37
- Class, 50
 - inequalities in cultural work, 17–20
- Classic double bind, 43–44
- ‘Classical liberalism’, 5
- Cognitive dissonance, 74–75
- Competitive individualism, 21–22
- ‘Connexionist world’, 63
- Consciousness, 80–81
- Contemporary bohemianism, 51
- Convergence, 94
- ‘Coping skills’, 67
- Coping strategies, 1, 3, 23, 39, 67, 75, 90
 - to bear daily life under neoliberalism, 95–98
 - delusion of grandeur, fantasy, feelings of omnipotence and hope, 81
 - mandatory networking, culture of hedonism and, 79–81
 - personal fantasies about relationships, 75–78
 - rationalisation, intellectualisation and displacement, 81–83
 - texts as proxies of self, burden of work and, 68–71
- ‘Cosmopolitization’, 37

- Craft work, 54
- Craftsmen, 54
- Creative economies, 102
- Creative work, 2
- Critical approach, 64–65
- Critical social science, 64
- Crowd psychology, 27
- Cruel Optimism* (Berlant), 85
- ‘Cruel optimism’, 81, 83–84, 95–97
- Cultural industries, 23–24
- Cultural intermediaries, 24–25
- Cultural labour, 2
- Cultural production, 25–26
- Cultural studies, 4
- Cultural theory, 1, 4, 101
- Cultural work, 1–2, 10–11
 - class and gender inequalities in, 17–20
 - and gender inequalities, 19–20
 - hope of finding reward in future, 69–71
 - hope to challenge traditional lifestyles and gender norms, 71–74
 - hopes and projection into cultural working lives, 68–74
 - social class inequalities, 18–19
 - texts as proxies of self, burden of work and coping strategies, 68–71
- Culture of hedonism, 79–81
- Culture of Narcissism, The* (Lasch), 60
- ‘Culturisation of economy’, 1–2
- Cynical detachment, 84–85
- Dasein*, 62
- DCMS, 18
- Defence mechanisms, 1, 3, 39, 67, 75, 90
 - Bohemianism and social class, 89–90
 - coping strategies and defence mechanisms to bear daily life under neoliberalism, 95–98
- cynical detachment and blasé attitudes, 84–85
- delusion of grandeur, fantasy, feelings of omnipotence and hope, 81
- misrecognition and denial strategy, 83–84
- personal fantasies about relationships, 75–78
- rationalisation, intellectualisation and displacement, 81–83
- seeing yourself, 85–90
- Delusion of grandeur, 81
- Denial strategy, 83–84, 91
- Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders, Third Edition (DSM III), 60
- Digital economies, 102
- Digitalisation, 25–26, 94
- Displacement, 81–83
- Divided self, 26
- ‘Double bind’ concept, 1, 43–45
- Economic reforms, 4–5
- ‘Economisation of culture’, 1–2
- ‘Egalitarian and social democratic principles’, 12–13
- Ego psychology, 27
- Emotion, 32
 - people beings with emotions influenced by structures, 98–99
- Emotional disorders, 3
- Enlightenment, 57
- Entrepreneurial actors, 7
- Entrepreneurial subjectivity, 12
- Entrepreneurialism, 2, 94
- Entrepreneurship, 2
- Ethics of capitalism, 68–69
- Ethnicity, 3

- Ethnomethodology, 27
- 'Etho-politics', 15
- Experimental lifestyle, 94
- Facebook, 24–25
- 'Failed relationships', 76–77
- Fall of Public Man, The* (Sennett), 60
- Fantasy, 32–33, 81, 97
- Fear, 4, 61–62
- 'Fear of psychologisation', 33
- Feelings of omnipotence, 81
- 'Flexploitation', 13–14
- Flourishing, 43, 99–100
 - precariousness preventing and, 93–94
 - theoretical framework for, 26–31
- Forced hedonism, 97–98
- Forced workaholism, 70
- Fordism, 55
- Foucauldian governmentality, 15, 65
- 'Fragmentation', 13–14
- 'Free subjectivity', 85
- Freedom
 - consciousness of, 62
 - Fromm's nature of, 62–63
 - individual, 65
 - precarious, 47
- Friends* (American TV show), 75–76, 97
- Garfinkel's stratification model, 27
- Gender
 - cultural work and Gender inequalities, 19–20
 - equality, 47
 - hope to challenge traditional lifestyles and gender norms, 71–74
- Gentrification, 89
- Governmentality, 15, 34, 63
- Great British Class Survey, 18–19
- Health hazards, 3
- Hedonism, culture of, 79–81
- Hegelianism, 44
- Homo economicus*, 7, 11–12, 98–99
- Homo Faber*, 53
- Homophily of workers, 90–91
- Hope, 74, 81, 95
 - to challenge traditional lifestyles and gender norms, 71–74
 - of finding reward in future, 69–71
- 'Hope labour', 69–71, 95
- Human capital, 2
- Human Condition* (Arendt), 53
- Human Development Approach, 29–30
- Identity, 68–69
- 'Imaginary contract', 56
- Immaterial labour, 8
- 'Imposed self realisation', 47
- Independent music, 3–4
- Individual recognition, 58–59
- Individualisation, 5–6, 8–9, 21–22, 43–44, 71–72
 - anxiety, 61–63
 - in CCIs, 20–26
 - narcissism, 59–61
 - from origins to current understandings, 44–49
 - pathologies as consequences of individualisation, 57–63
 - problems associated with process of, 99–100
 - recognition, 58–59
 - self-realisation through (creative) work, 52–56
 - theories and social class, 50–52
 - use of normative and critical approach, 64–65
 - wide range of literature with common ground, 63
- Individualism, 46

- Individualization, precariousness
 - preventing and, 93–94
- Informal interviews, 39, 78
- Inquiry and method, 36–40
- Institutional normativity, 65
- Intellectualisation, 81–83, 96
- Intermittent Workers' movement, 11
- Intermittents du spectacle*, 11
- 'Iron cage' concept, 44
- Keynesian public policy, 4–5
- Kleinian 'Object Relations', 31–32
- Labour, 53
- Lacanian psychoanalytical
 - concepts, 31–32
- Laissez-faire* economic liberalism, 4–5
- Lasch's theory, 61
- Liberalism, 65
- Life
 - aspects of, 1
 - precariousness affects all aspects of, 94–95
 - stylization and aestheticization of, 50–51
- Longitudinal inspired research, 37
- Macro-social recognition, 58–59
- Madame Bovary*, 76
- 'Magical voluntarism', 81
- Mandatory networking, 79, 81, 97–98
- Marxist-influenced critical social science, 65
- 'Masculinist creation', 19–20
- Meadian social psychology, 58
- 'Meaningless relationships', 76–77
- Mental disorders, 3
- Meritocracy, 47
- Micro-social recognition, 58–59
- Middle-class workers, 52
- Misrecognition, 58–59, 83–84
- Modernity, 27–28, 44, 49, 57
- Mont Pelerin Society*, 4–5
- Moral economy, 4
- Moral philosophy, 1, 4
- Multi-sited fieldwork, 37
- Music, 68
- Music work in CCIs, 20–26
- Myspace, 24–25
- Narcissism, 1, 4, 57, 59–61, 67
- Narcissistic personality disorders, 60
- National Statistics Socio-economic Classification (NS-SEC), 18
- 'Neoliberal culture', 58
- Neoliberal entrepreneurial
 - approach, 25
- Neoliberal entrepreneurialism, 52
- Neoliberal hegemony, 12
- Neoliberal policies, 1–2
- Neoliberal rationality, 6–7
- Neoliberalism, 1, 4, 7, 37
 - coping strategies and defence mechanisms to bear daily life under, 95–98
 - political goal of, 6–7
 - precariousness, neoliberalism and lack of political mobilization, 7–16
 - understanding of interplay between subjectivity, neoliberalism and precariousness, 13–16
- 'Network sociality', 10–11
- Normative approach, 64–65
- NVivo 11 software, 38–39
- Objective well-being, 99
- 'Obsessive activity', 70
- Omnipotence, feelings of, 81
- Ontological security, 26–29, 93–94
- 'Organized self realisation', 21–22
- Pathologies of individualisation, 43–44
 - as consequences of individualisation, 57–63

- Personal fantasies about
 - relationships, 75–78
- Phobia, 61–62
- Picture of Dorian Gray, The*
 - (Wilde), 85
- Political economy
 - of communication, 1
 - of media, 4
- Political goal of neoliberalism, 6–7
- Political mobilisation, 10–13
- Precariat: The New Dangerous Class, The*, 9
- ‘Precarious freedom’, 47
- ‘Precarious’, 7–8
- Precariousness, 3, 7, 10, 93–94
 - affects all aspects of life, 94–95
 - in CCIs, 20–26
 - cope with, 67–68
 - and political mobilisation, 10–13
 - understanding of interplay
 - between subjectivity, neoliberalism and precariousness, 13–16
 - of work, 71–72
- Precarisation, 8–10, 15–16
- ‘Precarity’, 8, 52
- Professional relationships, 78
- ‘Projective city’, 63
- Psychoanalysis, 1, 4, 33–34
- Psychoanalytic subjectivity, 33–34
- ‘Psychological bulwark’, 85, 97
- Psychological narrative, 77
- Psychological theories, 4
- Psychologisation, 4
- Psychology, 4
 - psychology-based psychosocial studies, 35
- Psychosocial field, 31–35
 - subjectivity, 32–33
- Psychosocial studies, 34, 101
 - criticisms and risks related to influence of psychoanalysis in, 33–34
 - difference between ‘traditional’ psychosocial studies and approach, 35
- Psychotherapeutic culture, 34
- Psychotherapy, 33–34
- Qualitative analysis, 38–39
- Qualitative data, 36
- Race, 3
- Radical democratic politics, 10–11
- Rational Action Theory, 98
- ‘Rational anticipation’, 94–95
- Rationalisation, 74–75, 81–83, 96
- Rationality, 7
- Recognition, 1, 57–59, 67
- Reflexive modernisation, 47
- Relationships, personal fantasies
 - about, 75–78
- Research, 3–4
- Romantic love, 76
- Romantic relationship, 76–77
- Saturation, 38
- Schizophrenia, 43–44
- Self-blaming, 11–12, 15
- ‘Self-care’, 7
- Self-construction process, 3, 53–54
- Self-cultivation, 21
- Self-esteem, 1, 4, 60, 67
- Self-estrangement, 44
- Self-exploitation, 1–2
- Self-identity, 44
- Self-realisation, 20–21, 47, 55–56, 68–69
 - self-realisation through (creative) work, 52–56
- Self-regulation, 15
- Semi-directed interviews, 39, 78
- ‘Shields’, 67–68
- Singleness, 76–77
- Snowball sampling method, 36–37
- Social class, 50–52
 - Bohemianism and, 89–90

- inequalities, 18–19
- Social constructions, 43–44
- Social discrimination, 20
- Social distinction, 21–22
- Social institutions, 5, 43–46
- Social interaction, 48
- Social models, 14–15
- Social organisation, 47
- Social psychology, 74–75
- Social structures, 46
- Social variables, 3
- Socialisation, 46
- Sociological fear of
 - psychologisation, 4
- Sociology, 1, 4, 27, 101
 - founders of, 45
- SoundCloud, 24–25
- State institutions, 5
- Stress, 61–62
 - management, 67
- Stricto sensus*, 6–7
- Subjective employment insecurity, 13–14
- Subjective well-being, 99
- Subjectivity, 6–7, 11–12, 19–20, 32–33
 - understanding of interplay
 - between subjectivity, neoliberalism and precariousness, 13–16
- Texts, 21–24
 - as proxies of self, 68–71
- Traditional adulthood, 94
- Trans-disciplinary approach, 4, 33, 35
- ‘Tumbleweed society’, 14
- ‘Ultimate love’, 76–77
- Uncertainty, 12
- Vocational restlessness, 13–14
- Well-being, theoretical framework
 - for, 26–31
- White Collar*, 54
- Winnicottian object theory, 27
- Wittgensteinian philosophy, 27
- Women
 - forced to adopt entrepreneurial state, 47
 - individualization and, 47
 - subject to discrimination, 19–20
- Work, 2, 53, 56, 75
 - burden and coping strategies, 68–71
- Workers
 - archetype of, 55–56
 - homophily of, 90–91
 - rights, 94–95
- Youtube, 24–25