

INDEX

- Accountability, 31, 55–56, 76
- Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs), 8
- American context, 51
- American Psychiatric Association, 9, 96
- American Psychology Association (APA), 13, 125
- American workforce, 35
- Antipsychiatry perspectives, 14
- Assessment
  - instruments, 128
  - readiness, 166
  - trauma screening and, 4–5
  - in trauma specific services, 115–118
- Bio-medical model, 10
- Biomedical aetiology, 13
- Biomedical mental health treatments, 14
- Black Caribbean community, 94
- Brief trauma questionnaire (BTQ), 111
- Burn out in health and social care, 51–53
- Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, 8
- Centre for Mental Health Services, 94
- Childhood trauma, 8
  - questionnaire, 112
- Choice, 153
  - in trauma therapy, 127–128
- Co-production, 148
  - comparative appraisal of principles, 154–155
  - elements of, 152
  - in mental health, 150–152
  - servant leadership, 152–153
  - in trauma-informed care, 153
  - in trauma-responsive organizations, 5–6
- Cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT), 125
- Collaboration in trauma therapy, 127–128
- Collaborative process, 152
- Colour-blind attitudes, 98
- Community, 95, 101, 166
  - building, 32, 77–78
- Compassion fatigue, 52, 53
- Competency measures, 169
- Complex post-traumatic stress disorder (C-PTSD), 9, 10
- Complex trauma, 9
- Contextual approach, 114
- Continuum of practice, 152
- Cooper-Norcross Inventory of Preferences, 129, 132
  - initial assessment, 132
  - TCCS, 133–134
  - therapy for clients, 134–135
  - TOS, 132–133
- Cultural comfort, 131
- Cultural competence, 92
- Cultural competency, 93
- Cultural humility, 130–131
- Cultural identity, 92, 98

- Cultural opportunities, 131
- Cultural trauma, 117
- 'Cultural wounding', 117
- Culture, 58, 92, 92, 95, 118, 162
  - blindness, 98
  - of feedback, 128
  - organisational, 71, 99
  - test, 162
  - Western, 113
- Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM-5), 9
- Diagnostic system, 97
- Diversity alongside race and ethnicity, 96
- Emotional healing, 32–33, 56–58, 76–77
- Empowerment, 11, 30, 54–55, 73–74, 153, 154
- Ethnicity, 93–95
- Evidence-based practices, 161
- Evidence-based trauma-focussed therapies, 125
- Evidence-based trauma-informed approaches, 124
- Exploration stage
  - readiness assessment, 166
  - strategic planning, 166
  - TEM-FM role in, 166–167
- Eye movement and desensitisation reprocessing treatment (EMDR treatment), 125
- Feedback-informed care, 127
- Foresight, 74–75
- Gender, 96, 98
  - issues, 11
  - sensitivity, 16
- Health and social care, 33, 50
  - burn out in, 51–53
  - professions, 56
  - servant leadership outcomes, 54
  - services, 110
  - supervision in, 50–51
- Healthcare systems, 8
- Hearing Voices Movement, 14
- Hispanic Americans, 95
- Hispanic individuals, 94
- Holistic approach, 152
- Implementation
  - measure, 165–166
  - plan, 13
  - process, 160
  - science, 161, 162, 164
- Infusing Servant Leadership, 50
- Initial Implementation Team (IIT), 167
- Intergenerational trauma, 9
- International Classification of Disorders Ψ11th revision of Ψ (ICD-11), 9, 96
- Interpersonal trauma, 16
- Intersectionality, 96–97
- KSA, 93
- Leadership, 2
- Life Event Checklist, 111
- Listening, 72–73
  - to employees, 29
- Lived experience, 68, 73, 78
- Marginalisation issues, 94
- Mental Health, 13, 73
  - co-production in, 150–152
  - counselling, 99
  - issue, 77–78
  - programme, 78
  - reform, 95
  - services, 148
- Mental Health Act, 14
- Meta-analysis, 70, 126
- Microaggression, 97–99
- Middle-class Americans, 8
- Minoritised communities, 94, 95

- Moral injury, 37
- Morbidity, 124
- Multicultural approaches, 94
- Multicultural competency theory, 92, 96
- Multicultural considerations
  - cultural competency, 93
  - diversity alongside race and ethnicity, 96
  - microaggression, 97–99
  - organisational considerations, 101
  - organisational training, 99–102
  - race and ethnicity, 93–95
  - trauma and intersecting identities, 96–97
  - in trauma therapy, 129–131
  - in trauma-responsive organisations, 95–96
- Multicultural lens, 5, 58
- Multicultural orientation (MCO), 58, 99–100, 118, 130–131
- Multicultural Orientation–Supervision (MCO-S), 58
- Multicultural principle, 71
- Multicultural supervision, 58–59

- National Framework for Recovery in Mental Health, 150–151
- National Institute for Health and Care Excellence, 125
- New Economics Foundation, 150
- Non-trauma specific services, screening in, 110–115

- One-on-one communication, 27
- Organisational and clinical considerations in trauma organisations, 12
- Organisational change, 1, 150
- Organisational development, 167
- Organisational implementation, 162–164
- Organisational training, 99–102

- Pathological trauma, 10
- Peer services, 70
- Peer support, 68
  - outcomes, 69–71
  - servant leadership, 71–78
  - training peers, 78–81
- Peer support work (PSW), 68, 153
- Peer training, 78–81
- Person-based model, 93
- Personal development, 30–31
- Post-Traumatic Growth, 10
- Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), 35, 52, 124
- Potential stressful events interview (PSEI), 111
- Power sharing, 30, 152
- Practice compliance measures, 169
- Preference accommodation, 128–129
- Present Centred Therapy, 125
- Professional development, 30–31, 55
- Psychiatric model, 78
- Psychological Safety, 29, 36–37, 54
- Psychological treatments, 124
- Psychotherapy
  - process, 115
  - supervisors, 99

- Race and ethnicity, 93–95
  - diversity alongside, 96
- Racial–ethnic microaggressions, 98
- Randomised control trial (RCT), 125
- Re-traumatisation, 14–17
- Readiness assessment, 166
- Reciprocity, 68–69
- Recovery-orientated service, 151

- Screening, 113–114
  - instruments, 111–112
  - in non-trauma specific services, 110–115
  - for trauma incidences, 115
- Secondary trauma, 9, 51, 52

- Secondary traumatic stress, 51, 53
- Self-awareness, 31–32, 56, 75–76, 93, 100
- Servant leaders, 26–27, 56
- Servant leadership (SL), 3, 16, 26, 56–57, 71, 76, 148, 152–153
- accountability, 31, 76
  - building community, 32, 77–78
  - emotional healing, 32–33, 76–77
  - empowerment, 30, 73–74
  - foresight, 74–75
  - listening, 29–30, 72–73
  - meta-analysis, 28
  - model, 57
  - outcomes, 35–36, 54
  - peer support, 71, 88–90
  - personal and professional development, 30–31
  - psychological safety, 36–37
  - self-awareness, 31–32, 75–76
  - servant leadership trauma-informed peer support, 72
  - servant leadership-informed peer support, 4
  - serving others, 30, 75
  - supervision characteristics, 54
  - supervision in trauma-responsive organizations, 3
  - supervision scale, 66
  - TISLS-32, 29
  - in trauma-informed care, 153
  - trauma-informed servant leadership, 33–35
  - trust, 37–38
- Servant Leadership Supervision Scale (SLSS), 55, 57
- Serving others, 29, 30, 55, 72, 75
- Sexuality, 96
- Sharing power, 75, 79
- Single incident trauma, 9
- Social functioning, 69, 124
- Social network support, 69
- Social service provision, 14–17
- Socioeconomic status, 4, 97, 130
- ‘Soul wound’, 117
- Staff proficiency, 35
- Strategic planning, 166
- Structured approach, 113
- Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), 2, 8, 10, 71, 77, 96, 124, 149
- Substance use, 16
- Supervision, 99
- accountability, 55–56
  - emotional healing, 56–58
  - empowerment, 54–55
  - in health and social care, 50–51
  - multicultural supervision, 58–59
  - professional development, 55
  - self-awareness, 56
  - servant leader characteristics, 54
  - servant leadership supervision scale, 66
- Supervision Scale, 57
- Supervisory alliance, 59
- Supervisory approach, 57
- Sustainability, 164, 170–171
- System-wide approach, 12
- The Choice and Collaboration Scale (TCCS), 128, 133–134, 145
- 360-degree approach, 166
- Trans-theoretical methods, 124
- Transgenerational trauma (see Intergenerational trauma)
- Trauma, 8, 35, 96–97, 126, 149
- experiences, 15
  - responsiveness, 16
  - screening and assessments, 4–5
  - survivors, 97
  - trauma specific services, assessment in, 115–118
  - types of, 9

- Trauma Assessment for Adults (TAA), 111
- Trauma ecology model (TEM), 1, 2–3, 17, 114–115, 164
 exploration stage, 166–167
 full implementation, 170 initial implementation, 168–169 innovation, 170
 instillation stage, 167–168
 sustainability, 170–171
- Trauma ecology model fidelity measure (TEM-FM), 6, 165 in exploration stage, 166–167 in full implementation stage, 170 in initial implementation stage, 169
 in instillation stage, 168
- Trauma History Questionnaire (THQ), 111
- Trauma History Screen (THS), 111
- Trauma informed approaches (TIAs), 2–3, 8, 10, 30, 56–57, 71, 79, 114, 116 non-specific trauma organizations, 12–13 organisational and clinical considerations, 12 principles, 11
 re-traumatisation, 14–17
 social service provision, 14–17
 specific trauma-responsive organizations, 13–14
- Trauma Outcome Scale (TOS), 127–128, 132–133, 146
- Trauma Oversight Group (TOG), 167–168
- Trauma therapy
 choice in, 127–128
 clinical outcomes, 126–127
 collaboration in, 127–128
 Cooper-Norcross Inventory of Preferences, 132–135
 feedback-informed care, 127
 multicultural considerations in, 129–131
 preference accommodation, 128–129
 presenting concerns, 131–132
 research, 125–126
- Trauma-focussed cognitive behavioural therapy (TF-CBT), 125
- Trauma-informed care, 9, 12, 16, 148–150
 co-production in, 153
 servant leadership in, 153
- Trauma-informed field, 73
- Trauma-informed lens, 112
- Trauma-informed model, 1
- Trauma-informed servant leadership, 33–35
- Trauma-informed Servant Leadership Scale-32 (TISLS-32), 29, 46–48, 55
- Trauma-informed therapies, 13, 124
- Trauma-Responsive organizations, 4
 co-production in, 5–6
 developing, 6
- Traumatic experiences, 8
- Tripartite model, 93
- Trust, 3, 11, 35, 37–38, 54, 78, 114
 in trauma-informed approaches, 36
- U.S. Department of Health, 129, 149
- Universal approach, 113
- Vicarious trauma (see Secondary trauma)
- Victorian Transcultural Psychiatry Unit, 94
- Voluntary relationship, 152
- World Health Organization (WHO), 96