

Index

- Abuja FCT, 172, 177
 - data analysis, 180–188
 - data collection, 179–180
 - literature review, 171
 - literature synthesis and hypotheses development, 176–178
 - measuring hotel business performance, 173–174
 - methodological consideration, 179
- Nigeria hotels business
 - performance innovation, 171
 - research limitations and future study suggestions, 192
 - results, 188–190
 - study context, 172–173
 - study theoretical framework, 174–176
 - tourism regulations, 171–172
- Abuja International Hotel, 172
- Abuja's geography, 172
- Access to finance, 14, 17, 32
- Activity-Based Costing (ABC), 174
- Africa, 81, 85
 - contextualising entrepreneurship in, 207–208
- African context, 46, 171–172
- African countries, 171
- African Development Bank (ADB), 130
- African phenomena, 6
- African Research
 - behavioural perspective, 201
 - cognitive perspective, 203
 - contextualising entrepreneurship in Africa, 207–208
 - economic perspective, 201
 - entrepreneurship as new venture creation, 205–206
 - entrepreneurship as process, 204–205
 - great person perspective, 199
 - historical perspective, 198–199
 - intrapreneurship perspective, 202–203
 - leadership perspective, 203–204
 - management perspective, 202
 - as opportunity recognition and exploitation, 206–207
 - psychological perspective, 201
 - research and theory, 198
 - sociological perspective, 201–202
 - state of entrepreneurship research and theory, 199
- African studies
 - methodological heterogeneity, 6–8
 - outlook for future, 8–9
 - taking stock of African studies, 4–6
- African systems
 - impact of indigenous social and economic structures on formation of Nigerian Markets, 158–160
 - influence of geography and history on Nigeria's marketplaces, 155–156
 - market authorities, 161–165
 - Nigeria's marketplaces before colonial era, 157–158
 - traditional markets and market authority in, 155
 - trans-Saharan Caravan market routes 156–157
- Agency relations, 44

- Agency theory, 38, 41–42
- Agricultural development and
 - agricultural externalities in Nigeria, 143–147
- Agricultural policy transmission, 140
- Agricultural policy-making process, 133
- Agricultural sector, 136
 - regulatory framework for transformation of, 136–140
- Agricultural-based economy, 132
- Agriculture, 130, 136, 159
 - agricultural development and agricultural externalities in Nigeria, 143–147
 - background of study, 130–131
 - developmental strategy for agriculture in Nigeria, 130
 - framework for global policy adoption, 135–140
 - geography of Nigeria, 131–132
 - lessons from Malaysia agricultural policies transmission mechanism, 140–143
 - regulatory framework for National Economic Policy, 132–135
- Alcoholism, 60
- Alienative involvement, 46
- Anglo-Saxon, 38–39, 43, 48
- Anglo-Saxon countries, 38–39
- Assumptions, 22–23, 38, 41, 43, 163, 188
- Balanced Score Card, The, 174–175, 191
- Bartlett sphericity test, 180
- Behavioural perspective, 201
- Belief systems, 38, 160
- Beneficiary communities, 65
- Black letter law, 134
- Broad-brush policy, 138
- Business Development Fund for Women (BUDFOW), 17
- Business entities, 57
- Business ethics, 40
- Business finance, 14
- Business growth and development, 15
- Business landscape, 44
- Business performance, 174, 176
 - of hotels, 170, 174
- Calculative cooperation, 47
- Capital market, 41–42, 44, 46–47
- Case study approach, 7
- Coase theorem, 145, 147
- Cognitive perspective, 203
- Cognitive process of entrepreneurs, 203
- Commercial banks, lack of support by, 25–26
- Commitment, 43, 45, 114
- Communitarian stakeholder perspective, 43–44
- Community, 2, 25, 43, 58, 65, 81, 88, 91, 93
- Community funds, 23–25
- Company and Allied Matters Act (CAMA), 134
- Compensation analysis, 145
- Contemporary phenomena, 7
- Context-specific socio-political entities, 82
- Continental Europe, 44
- Corporate assets, 41
- Corporate governance, 2, 38
 - corporate governance theories and institutional logics, 41
 - debate, 40–41
 - enlightened shareholder perspective, 44
 - limitations, 48–49
 - research, 42
 - shareholder-centric perspective, 41–43
 - stakeholder-centric perspective, 43–44
 - theoretical background, 40
- Corporate objective, 55–56

- Corporate social responsibility (CSR), 58
 - pyramid, 70–71
 - strategies, 59
- Covid-19, 170–171
- Cronbach's α coefficient test, The, 179
- Cultural hegemony of chieftaincy, 167
- Culture, 116–117

- Data Envelope Analysis and Balanced Scorecard, 174
- Data Protection Act (1998), 21
- Decision-making process, 54
- Democratic, 43
- Demsetz theory, 145
- Distribution of wealth, 43
- Dumb trade, 156
- Dynamism, 1

- Economic actors, 38, 40
- Economic development, 132
 - in region, 154
- Economic Financial Crime Commission Act (2002) (EFCC Act), 134
- Economic model of man, 41, 46
- Economic perspective, 201
- Economic relationships, 42, 162
- Economic sustenance of host communities, 59–60
- Economists, 154
- Egbos, 158
- Emerging countries, 55, 71
- Employment opportunities for gold mining host communities, limited, 66
- Empretec, 85
- Encroachment by illegal miners and trespassing of restricted areas, 66–68
- Enlightened shareholder perspective, 44
- Entrepreneur, 202
- Entrepreneurial leadership, 204
- Entrepreneurial opportunity, 206
- Entrepreneurial process, 19, 29, 204–205
- Entrepreneurs, 200, 204
 - cognitive processes of, 203
 - importance of, 201
 - in Nigeria, 16
 - process, 32
- Entrepreneurship, 3, 80, 83, 197–198, 202
 - behavioural perspective, 201
 - cognitive perspective, 203
 - contextualising entrepreneurship in Africa, 207–208
 - economic perspective, 201
 - great person perspective, 199
 - historical perspective, 198–199
 - intrapreneurship perspective, 202–203
 - leadership perspective, 203–204
 - management perspective, 202
 - as new venture creation, 205–206
 - in Nigeria, 15–16
 - as opportunity recognition and exploitation, 206–207
 - as process, 204–205
 - psychological perspective, 201
 - research and theory, 198
 - sociological perspective, 201–202
 - state of entrepreneurship research and theory, 199
- Environmental Protection Agency Ghana (EPA Ghana), 67
- Environmental sustainability, 61
- Ethics, 45
- European Commission Package Travel Regulations (EC Package Travel Regulations), 171
- Evidence Act (2011), 134
- Executives, 38, 42, 171
- External environments, 38
- External stakeholders, 65

- Externalities, 144
 - theory, 145
- Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative (EITI), 58
- Familiarisation, 87
- Family funds, 23–25
- Family responsibilities, 30–31
- Federal Capital Territory Tourism Board, 179
- Federal Government, 172
- Female entrepreneurs, 31
 - in Nigeria, 17
- Female entrepreneurship, 14–15
- Feminisms, 18
- Finance, access to, 89
- Financial inclusion
 - in Nigeria, 16–18
 - policy interventions, 18
- Food and Agriculture Organisation (FAO), 135
- Formal institutions, 80
- Funds, structural sources of, 22
- Gambling, 60
- Gautrain Management Agency (GMA), 104
- Gautrain Management Agency, 3
- Gender
 - in Nigeria, 16–18
 - social construction of, 18–20
 - socio-cultural experiences of, 26–31
- Gender Entrepreneurship Markets (GEM), 17
- Ghademes-Air route, 156
- Ghana, challenges to sustainability
 - practices of mining company's subsidiary operating in, 69–70
- Ghana Mining Company (GMC), 55, 62
- Ghana's gold mining industry and sustainable practices, 58–59
- Global entrepreneurship monitoring (GEM), 206
- Global policy adoption
 - framework for, 135
 - regulatory framework for transformation of agricultural sector, 136–140
- Gold mining, 61
 - enterprises' sustainability, 59
 - of host communities, 59–60
 - limited employment opportunities for gold mining host communities, 66
 - social crises of, 60–61
 - stakeholder theory and sustainability practices of, 56–58
- Governance complexities, 49
- Government support, 23
- Great person perspective, 199
- Green Revolution (GR), 133
- Gross domestic product (GDPs), 207
- Healthcare organizations, 38
- Host communities, gold mining and economic sustenance of, 59–60
- Hotels, 170, 173–174
 - in Abuja, 172
 - measuring hotel business performance, 173–174
- Human capital scholars, 103
- Hybrid governance, 38
- Hypothesis testing, 180
- Illegal gold mining operators, 58
- Illegal miners and trespassing of restricted areas, encroachment by, 66–68
- Immigration Act 3 (2007), 177
- Incentives, 42–44, 115
- Inclusive belief, 47
- Indaba*, 81, 91
 - Indaba*-informed sub-Saharan African culture, 91
 - Indabalubuntu*-based sub-Saharan socio-culture, 81

- Independent Corrupt Practices Commission Act (ICPC Act), 134
- Indigenous social and economic structures on formation of Nigerian Markets, impact of, 158–160
- Industry-related KST obstacle, 120
- Informal entrepreneurship, 84
- Informal institutions, 80
 - access to external markets, 88–89
 - access to finance, 89
 - access to training, 88
 - implications for policy and practice, 93
 - implications for theory and research, 93
 - informal economy and institutions, 80–81
 - mitigating institutional voids, 87
 - postcolonialism and ‘third’ way, 82–87
 - potential for institutional development, 90–91
 - research outcomes, 87
 - effect of socio-economic environment, 89–90
 - sub-Saharan context, 81–82
- Informal self-employment perspective, 82
- Informal storytelling, 119
- Innovation, 170
- Institutional development, potential for, 90–91
- Institutional environments, 39, 42, 84
- Institutional logics, 4–6, 38, 41
 - enlightened shareholder perspective, 44
 - shareholder-centric perspective, 41–43
 - stakeholder-centric perspective, 43–44
- Institutional support system, 161
- Institutional theory, 80
- Institutional voids, mitigating, 87
- Institutions, 80–81, 102
- Inter-departmental competition for scarce resources, 63–64
- Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC), 171
- Internal business process, 178
- International Accounting Standard Board (IASB), 135
- International Development Research Centre (IDRC), 17
- International Finance Corporation (IFC), 17
- International policy, 92
- Intrapreneurship, 203
- Intrapreneurship perspective, 202–203
- Intrinsic satisfaction, 42
- Investment decisions, 40
- Islamic bank, 26
- Kaiser–Meyen–Olkin sample test (KMO sample test), 180
- Key Performance Indicators (KPIs), 174
- Knowledge, 102, 108
- Knowledge management (KM), 105
- Knowledge resources, 102
- Knowledge sharing (KS), 105
- Knowledge Sharing and Transfer (KST), 3, 102, 122
 - complementary people enabling factors, 114
 - data collection and data analysis, 108–110
 - data display structure, 110
 - data validation, 110–111
 - effective public management concept, 105–107
 - essential originating antecedent factors, 111
 - literature review, 104
 - methodological consideration, 108
 - outcome implementing strategies, 119–120

- presenting study findings, 111
- process organisational enabling factors, 116–119
- public sector and transport management, 107–108
- setting scene, 102–104
- study context, 104
- synthesis of KST in public sector literature, 108
- theories and frameworks, 104–105
- Knowledge transfer (KT), 105
- Knowledge transfer partnerships (KTPs), 103
- Kolanuts, 147
- Kwashi's testimony, 90

- Leadership perspective, 203–204
- Linear regression technique, 8
- Logics multiplicity, 38

- Makarume's testimony, 91
- Malaysia agricultural policies
 - transmission mechanism
 - case of palm oil production in Malaysia vs. Nigeria, 141–143
 - lessons from, 140
- Malaysian oil palm sector, The, 141
- Management perspective, 202
- Market authorities, 161
 - markets and guilds, 161–163
 - and violation of market conventions, 163–165
- Market values, 40
- Marriott and Hilton hotel franchise, 175
- Material practices, 38
- Material subsistence, 38
- Means-end rationality approach, 107
- Micro, small, and medium-sized enterprises (MSMEs), 16
- Micro-finance institutions (MFIs), 17–18
- Microfinance Banks, 16

- Minerals Commission, 58
- Mining company's subsidiary
 - operating in, challenges to sustainability practices of Ghana, 69–70
- Moral involvement, 43, 47
- Multinational enterprises (MNEs), 54

- National Agriculture Information Management System (NAIMS), 140
- National Bank of Commerce and Industry, 16
- National Bureau of Statistics, 16
- National Directorate of Employment (NDE), 16
- National Economic Empowerment and Development Scheme (NEEDS), 16
- National Economic Policy, 135
 - regulatory framework for, 132–135
- National Economic Reconstruction Fund (NERFUND), 16
- National Environmental Management Biodiversity Act 2004 (NEMBA), 171, 177
- New Public Management (NPM), 105–106
- New venture creation,
 - entrepreneurship as, 205–206
- New World Encyclopaedia, 172
- Nigeria, 135
 - agricultural development and agricultural externalities in, 143–147
 - agricultural sector, 140
 - areas for future research/limitations, 32
 - case of palm oil production in Malaysia vs., 141–143
 - context, 171–172
 - contextualising debate, 14–15

- contribution to research and practice, 32
- data analysis and presentation, 22
- entrepreneurship in, 15–16
- gender and financial inclusion in Nigeria, 16–18
- geography of, 131–132
- influence of geography and history on, 155–156
- marketplaces before colonial era, 157–158
- research methodology, 20
- research sample, 20–21
- social feminist theory and social construction of gender, 18–20
- socio-cultural experiences of gender, 26–31
- structural sources of funds, 22–26
- Nigerian context, 5
- Nigerian economy, The, 130
- Nigerian entrepreneurs, 22
- Nigerian government, The, 134, 137–138, 141
- Nigerian Incentive-Based Risk Sharing System for Agricultural Lending (NIRSAL), 23
- Nigerian markets, 162
 - impact of indigenous social and economic structures on formation of, 158–160
 - systems, 160
- Non-financial Performance Measurement (NFPM), 174
- Non-governmental organisations (NGO), 85
- Normative, 38, 44–45
- Objectivist management approaches, 104
- ‘One size fits all’ approach, 2
- Opportunistic, 41–42
- Organisational actors, 38, 41–42
- Organisational motivation, 115
- Organisational trust
 - corporate governance theories and institutional logics, 41
 - debate, 40–41
 - enlightened shareholder perspective, 44
 - limitations, 48–49
 - shareholder-centric perspective, 41–43
 - stakeholder-centric perspective, 43–44
 - theoretical background, 40
- Organisational uncertainty, 42, 47
- Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), 16, 171
- Palm oil, 159
 - case of palm oil production in Malaysia vs. Nigeria, 141–143
- Passenger Rail Agency of South Africa Ltd (PRASA), 102
- Pearson moment correlation, 186
- Peoples Bank of Nigeria (PBN), 16
- Performance innovation (PI), 121
 - actors, 102
 - enablers, 104, 108, 120
- Performance measurement
 - concepts, 171
 - tool, 174
- Performance Prism, 174
- Person-centric approach, 200
- Perspectives on entrepreneurship, 198
- Pigovian theory, 144
- Policy-making process, 133
- Positivist objectivist approach, 109
- Postcolonial theory, 80, 82
- Postcolonialism, 82
 - methodology, 85–87
 - research agenda, 84
 - Zimbabwe as research context, 84–85

- Poverty, 80–82
 environment of, 83
- Principal-agent, 46–47
- Private–public partnerships (PPP), 103
- Probability systematic sampling technique, 179
- Process organisational enabling factors, 116–119
- Professional logics, 39
- Profitability, 43, 54–56, 58, 69, 102
- Psychological perspective, 201
- Public management concept, 105–107
- Public sector, 107–108
 administrators of Sub-Saharan African institutions, 103 organizations, 106
 synthesis of KST in public sector literature, 108
 transport management approach, 108
- Public–private partnerships, 140
- Quantitative research, 192
- Quantitative survey method, 179
- Rebuilding process, 164
- Reciprocity, 90
- Reconciliation process, 164
- Regression analysis, 180
- Regulative, 38
- Regulatory framework for transformation of agricultural sector, 136–140
- Reliability analysis, 182
- Research, 204
 agenda, 84
 context, 55
- Residents of community, 67
- Review of entrepreneurship literature, 198
- Sampling technique, 20
- Scarce resources, inter-departmental competition for, 63–64
- Security and Exchange Commission (SEC), 133
- Self-serving, 41–42
- Semi-structured interviews, 21
 approach, 62
- Service productivity, 174
- Severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2), 170
- Shareholder value, 38, 41
- Shareholder-centric, 40–41
- Shareholder-centric perspective, 41–43
- Short-term sustainability, 69
- Simple linear regression analysis, 186
- Small and Medium Enterprises Development Agency of Nigeria (SMEDAN), 16
 categorisation of MSMEs, 21
- Small business, 205
- Social anthropologists, 154
- Social construction of gender, 18–20
- Social constructionism, 19
- Social crises of gold mining, 60–61
- Social feminist theory, 18–20
- Social performance, 44
- Social phenomena, 61
- Social vices, 60
- Socio-cultural experiences of gender, 26
 family responsibilities, 30–31
 gender ‘benefit’, 26–29
- Socio-economic environment, effect of, 89–90
- Sociocultural mechanisms, 154
- Socio-culture-based institutions, 80
- Sociological perspective, 201–202
- Solar energy, 86
- Solidarity, 90
- South Africa, 103–104, 109
- Stakeholder theory, 38, 55–58
- Stakeholder-centric, 41

- Stakeholders, political influence
 - and lack of coordination among, 68–69
- Step-by-step approach, 134
- Stewardship theory, 38, 42
- Structural Adjustment Programme (SAP), 133
- Structural Equation Model (SEM), 174
- Structural sources of funds, 22
 - family and community funds, 23–25
 - government support, 23
 - lack of support by commercial banks, 25–26
- Sub-Saharan African cultures, 81
- Sub-Saharan African model, 121
- Sub-Saharan African Public Management of KST, 121
- Sub-Saharan context, 81–82
- Subsistence farming system, 130
- Sustainability practices
 - challenges to sustainability
 - practices of mining company's subsidiary operating in Ghana, 69–70
 - encroachment by illegal miners and trespassing of restricted areas, 66–68
 - Ghana's gold mining industry and sustainable practices, 58–59
 - gold mining and economic sustenance of host communities, 59–60
 - gold mining and environmental sustainability, 61
 - gold mining enterprises' sustainability and CSR Strategies, 59
 - immense pressure on physical infrastructure and poor maintenance culture, 65–66
 - implications of study, 71–72
 - inter-departmental competition for scarce resources, 63–64
 - limited employment opportunities for gold mining host communities, 66
 - literature review, 56
 - methods, 61–63
 - perceived high cost of
 - sustainability projects, 64–65
 - political influence and lack of coordination among stakeholders, 68–69
 - results, 63
 - social crises of gold mining, 60–61
 - stakeholder theory and sustainability practices of gold mining industry, 56–58
- Sustainable economic system, 132–133
- Total economic value (TEV), 145
- Tourism, 170
- Tourism regulations, 171–172
- TPCA stepwise analytical method, 109
- Traditional markets, 154
 - authority, 154
 - systems, 154
- Trans Positional Cognition Approach, 3
- Trans-Saharan Caravan market routes 156–157
- Transite system, 161
- Transport management, 107–108
- Trust, 39, 114, 161 (see also Organisational trust)
 - relations, 40, 44
- Ubuntu*, 81, 91, 121

- consistent approach, 93
- Ubuntu*-based essential social-welfare, 93
- Ubuntu*-enabled institutions, 92
- Ubuntu*-informed sub-Saharan African culture, 91
- Ubuntupreneurship, 83
- United Nation Framework
 - Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC), 135–136
- United Nations, 135
- United Nations World Tourism Organization (UNWTO), 171
- United States African Development Foundation (USADF), 17
- Value creation, 43–44
- Western capitalism, 45, 48
- World Bank Loan Scheme, 17
- World context, 171–172
- World Trade Centre construction, 145
- World Trade Organisation (WTO), 135
- Yamane formula, 179
- YOUWIN program, 29
- Zimbabwe as research context, 84–85
- Zimbabwe Women Micro Finance Bank, 85
- Zimbabwean economic adversity, 90
- Zimtrade, 85