Index

Able bodied/s, 6, 17
  minds, 17
Ableism, 16–17
  disablism, 17
Ableist, 1, 17
  tourism world, 1
Access, 1–2
  tourist, 1
Accessibility, 6
  and inclusion, 2
Accessible
  destination experiences, 51
  information, 52
  tourism, 6
Accommodation, 60
Activity limitations, 3
Adjective-first language, 14
Ageing, 2, 38
  population, 2
Agency, 6, 8
Air travel experience, 27
Ambient intelligence (AmI), 56
Assistive technologies, 27, 29, 56
Assumptions, 16, 18, 29
Augmentative or alternative communication measures (AAC), 20
Authentic
  lived experience/s, 39
  voice/s, 39
Autonomy, 40

Barriers, 2, 5
  attitudinal, 28
  communicative, 29
  and constraints, 5, 8
  environmental, 2
  informational, 5 physical, 5
  to tourism participation, 26–30
Binary/ies, 1, 16, 18, 64
Blind, 60
Braille, 5, 29

Capability, opportunity, and motivation, 55–56
Care, carer/s, caring, 37, 43
  activity, 63
  dynamic, 45
  ethics of care, 63
  formal, 44, 63
  informal, 44, 63
  personal experiences of care, 40–43
  as practice and an ethic in tourist experience, 38–39
  relational experiences of care, 43–46
  relationship, 44
  Shelby's story, 40
  significance and meaning of care in tourist experience, 39–40
  social experiences of care, 46–48
  support worker/s, 44
Chronic pain, 63
Civil rights, 10
Cognitive
  capacities, 41
  disability, 41
  and social functioning, 37
Communicative barriers, 5
Community-led disability rights movement, 10
Coping strategies, 45 Critical disability studies, 15–16
  lens, 16
  management studies, 13 moral tourism turn, 7 perspective/s, 16, 18
  studies, 17

studies scholarship, 62
tourism, 18
tourism scholar/s, 18
tourism turn, 17–18
Cultural representation, 10

Deaf
community, 15
culture, 15
Dependence/y, 28, 37
independence/t, 37
Destination Competitiveness and Sustainability, 54–55
Destination management organisations (DMOs), 54 Destination/s management, 51
managers, 54
Dignity, 62
Dimensions of disability, 7, 56
cognitive, 6
hearing, 6
intellectual, 19
invisible, 17
mobility, 25
Dis/abled tourist, 1–5 barriers and constraints to tourism participation, 26–30
Chloe's story, 33
Chris's story, 34
delving into margins, 32
Elsie's story, 32
enabling access for, 6–7 experience, 9, 26
inaccessible and exclusionary tourism industry, 5–6 Jenny's story, 33–34
key characteristics of global tourism market, 4 motivations, meaning, and benefits of tourism participation, 30–32
Disability, 2–3, 9
community, 59
critical and moral turns in tourism research, 17–18
disablism and ableism, 16–17
discourses, 11–15
discrimination legislation, 52
historical context, 10–11
researcher positionality and reflexivity, 18–22 rights movement, 9
Disability Equality Training Movement, 11
Disability studies, 15
critical disability studies, 15–16
Disability-related, 10, 13
tourism issues, 7
tourism market, 51
tourism research, 62
Disabled Persons Organisations, 11
Disabling
discourses, 15
society, 16
tourism world, 17
Disablism, 16–17
Discourses of disability, 11–15
Discrimination, 17
Diversity, 26

Embodied embodiment, 13–14
embodiment theory, 13
ontology/ies, 12
tourist, 14
Emotion
emotional, 13
work, 43
Empowerment, 14, 19–20
Entrepreneur, 53
activity, 51
entrepreneurship, 64
Environmental constraints, 27
Equality, 52
inequality, 1
Equity, 4, 6
equitable, 7
Ethic of justice, 39
Ethics of care, 38–39
Exclusion/ary, 12, 19

Formal carers, 43
Frameworks
  Ambient Intelligence (AmI), 56
  destination competitiveness and sustainability, 54–55
  implementation science, 55
Fundamental Principles of Disability (1976), 10

Global tourism industry, strategic approaches for, 51–53
Good intentions, 51
  frameworks for positive action, 54–56 rhetoric to reality, 53–54
  strategic approaches for global tourism industry, 51–53
  tourism value chain, 59–60
  travel chain, 57–59

Heterogeneity of disability, 7, 26
  homogenous group, 62 Historical context, 9–11
  developments, 11–12
Human right/s, 51–52

Identity/ies, 14
  cultural, 15
  marginalised, 61
  social, 17
Illness, 2
  chronic, 2
Impairment, 3, 11, 14
  effects, 12
Implementation science, 55
Inclusion, 2
  accessibility and, 2
Inclusive
  research, 19–20
  tourism, 6
Informal carers, 37
Information and communication technology (ICT), 56
Informational barriers, 5
Infrastructure, 51
Innovation, 64
Intellectual impairments, 3
Interactive constraints, 27
International Organization for Standardization (ISO), 52
International Year of Disabled Persons in 1981, 11
Intrinsic constraints, 27

Language,
  adjective-first, 14
  of disability, 14–15
  inclusive, 14
  label/s, 15
  person-first, 15
  terminology, 15
Level of support needs, 37
Lived experience/s, 26, 39

Marginalisation, 14
  marginalised/ing, 30
Medical model, 11
Models of disability, 9
  medical, 11
  social, 11
  social relational, 12

Neurodiversity civil rights movement, 12
Neurological condition/s, 25
Normality, 31
Normative
  assumptions, 16
  ideology/ies, 9
  structures, 1

'One-size-fits-all' approach, 30
Oppression, 16

Participation restrictions, 3
People with disability, 3–4, 10
People with epilepsy, 29–30
People with mobility disability, 29
People with/out disability cognitive disability, 32 hearing disability, 31

intellectual disability, 29
mobility disability, 28
vision disability, 28
Person-first language, 15
Personal experiences of care, 40
Cassie's story, 42–45
Phoebe's story, 41–42
Political participation, 10
Power dynamics, 19–20
relations, 16
Prejudice, 5, 16
Psychiatric impairments, 3
Psychological impairments, 3

Relational experiences of care, 43
Gemma's story, 45–46
Nathan's story, 44–45
Researcher
without disability, 5, 31
positionality, 18–22
reflexivity, 18–22

Self-development, 4
Sensory impairments, 3
Sign language, 5, 15
Smart tourism, 56
Social change, 15
construct, 23
discourses, 62
experiences of care, 46–48
inclusion, 4, 63
isolation, 31
justice, 38
justice-oriented research agenda, 62
oppression, 12, 15
recognition, 10
relational model of disability, 12
solution/s, 12
theories, 16 Social model, 11–13
of disability, 62
Stakeholders, 53
Stereotype/ing/s, 5, 12, 14–15, 29
Stigma, 5–6, 10, 14–15, 29
Structural constraints, 27–28
Support workers, 37–38

Technology, 53
Tourism, 51–52
business/es, 56
industry, 5–6
market, 56
operator/s, 59
scholar/s, 13, 62
stakeholders, 51
value chain, 59–60
world, 61
Tourism participation barriers to, 26–30
benefits of, 30–32
constraints to, 26–30
meaning of, 30–32
motivations, 30–32
Tourist, 1
behaviour, 16
dis/abled, 1–5
motivations, 26
role of, 26
Tourist experiences, 61 accessible and inclusive, 62
dis/abled, 1–5
significance and meaning of care in, 39–40
Transformative solutions, 56
Travel, 25, 63
agents, 29
chain, 57
companion/s, 27
dis/abled tourist experience, 26–34

UN Declaration on the Rights of Disabled Persons in 1975, 11
UN Sustainable Development Goals (UNSDG), 11
Union of the Physically Impaired Against Segregation, 10–11

United Nations, 2
United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (UNCRPD), 4
United Nations World Tourism Organization (UNWTO), 10, 53–54
Universal design, 6–7 Wellbeing, 3 life satisfaction, 30
  quality of life, 30
Wheelchair, 32, 46
  user/s, 28
World Health Organization (WHO), 2