

Index

- Ability grouping, 39
- Abolitionist pedagogy, 102, 104–105
- Abolitionist teaching, 41–42
- Abolitionist Teaching Network, 135
- Achievement gap, 46–48
- Activism, 132–133
- Adequate yearly progress (AYP), 11
- Administrators, 131
- Advanced Placement (AP), 23, 39–40
- Aesthetic care, 78
- Affirmative action laws, 17–19
- African American curriculum and courses, erasure of, 22–23
- African American Studies, 23, 63
- Aggressive militarism, 49
- All Handicapped Children’s Act, 9
- American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), 17–18
- Anti transgender (trans) legislation, 26–27
- Antiwar movement, 41
- Aspirational capital, 77, 104, 106
- Asset-based educational practices, 76
- Asset-based practices, 76–77
- Authentic care/caring, 77–78
 - at MHS, 84–85
- Authoritarianism, 58

- Baby boom to equity strides in 1970, 7–10
 - democracy in education From 1950s to 1970s, 8
- “Back-to-basics” movement, 7
- Becoming leaders of social justice, 129–131
- Binary narrative, 37–38
- Black, Indigenous, and/or People of Color (BIPoC), 9, 129–130

- Black American curriculum and courses, erasure of, 22–23
- Black freedom, 41
- Black Lives Matter movement, 25–26, 50
- “Blame-the teacher” movement, 11
- Brave learning communities (BLCs), 135
- Butler’s theory of performativity, 32

- Change movements, 50–51
- “Chilling out” effect, 7
- “Choice” concept in education, 38
- Civil Rights Act, The (1964), 9
- Civil Rights Movement, The, 7–9
- Co-teaching, 40
- Coalition of Essential Schools (CES), 43–44
- Coalition-building, 40
- Collaboration as norm, 117–118
- Committee of Ten, 3–5
- Common Core State Standards (CCSS), 12–13
- Common schools movement, 1
- Communication, 114–116
- Community, 113
 - nights for health and wellness, 117
 - school as, 112–113
- Community cultural wealth (CCW), 74, 103, 105
 - of DHS students, 105, 112
 - students’ aspirational capital, 106
 - students’ familial capital, 107
 - students’ linguistic capital, 106–107
 - students’ migration capital, 111–112
 - students’ navigational capital, 107–108
 - students’ resistant capital, 108–111
 - students’ social capital, 107

- Community-organizing approach, 132–133
- Conservative modernization, 13–27
 affirmative action laws, 17–19 attacks on critical race theory, 21–22 contemporary challenges to advancement of transformative democracy in education, 14–15, 17 of education, 14
 erasure of Black and African American curriculum and courses, 22–23 fundamental rights for women, 23–24
 Mexican American/Raza Studies in Tucson Unified School District, 20–21 post-Katrina and transformation of New Orleans Public Schools, 19–20 recent opposition, 18–19
 theory applied to practice, 27
- Contemporary interpretations of hegemony, 31–33
- Converging pandemics, 24–26
- Counter-hegemonic foundation, 60
- COVID-19
 impact of, 25 pandemic, 25
- Critical action, 66
- Critical care, 78
- Critical consciousness, 64–66, 68
 praxis, 66–68
 praxis, education, and Freire, 67–68
 theory applied to practice, 69
 transformative practices in K-12 schools, 68–69
- Critical curriculum leadership, 134–135
- Critical Friends Group, 80–81
- Critical hope, 78–79
- Critical inclusivity, 118–120
- Critical inquiry groups, 131–132
- Critical race theory (CRT), 21–22, 42, 57, 133 attacks on, 21–22
- Critical reading and reflection circles, 62–63
- Critical reflection, 65
- Critical teaching and leadership practices, 131–132
- Critically-just democracy, 58–62
 countering political and social movements as transformative action, 63–64 and education, 59–60
 mis/interpretation of democracy and education, 61–62 to transformative action, 62–64
 we teams implementation, 60
- Critically-just educators, 60–61
- Cultural capital, 103–104
- Cultural hegemony, 36
 in education, 33–34
- Culture of community, building and sustaining, 116–117
- Curriculum leaders, 134–135
- Curriculum leadership, 133
- #CurriculumSoWhite movement, 137
- Curriculum theory, 133
- Decolonizing curriculum, 133
- Decolonizing education, 133–136
- Deficit thinking, 76
- Democracy, 1–2, 44–45, 55, 58
 aligning critically-just democracy to transformative action, 62–64
 critically-just democracy, 58–62
 in education, 3, 5–6, 13, 56, 58
 education evolutions, 4–5, 7, 10–11, 13 expanding educational opportunities, 64–68
 mis/interpretation of, 61–62
 new dogma of, 13–27 theories, 5–7
 veneration of democracy at DHS, 102–103
- Democratic education, 1–2

- Democratic system, 61
- Desegregation, 7, 9
- Desert High School (DHS), 42–43, 80, 93, 97, 128–129 amplifying student voice at, 80–82 community cultural wealth, 103, 105, 112 data from, 93, 103, 105
 dispossession at, 99–102
 funds of knowledge, 103
 hegemony at, 98–99
 neoliberalism at, 93–98
 veneration of democracy at, 102–103
- Detracking, 40
- Dewey, John, 1–2
- Dispossession, 44, 51, 128
 achievement gap, 46–48
 change movements, 50–51
 contemporary interpretations of, 45–51
 at DHS, 99–102
 foundations of, 45
 perpetuation of dispossession in schools, policies, and practices, 51–53
 re/envisioning opportunities in schools, policies, and practices, 53–54 within school “culture”, 99–100 within school structures, 101–102 school-to-prison pipeline, 48–50
 theory applied to practice, 54
- Economic debt, 47
- Education, 1–2, 36, 68, 132–133
 conservative modernization, 13–27
 contemporary challenges to advancement of transformative democracy in, 14–15 critically-just democracy and, 59–60 cultural hegemony in, 33–34 democracy in, 3, 5, 13, 56, 58
 evolutions, 4–5, 7, 10
 hegemony and philosophy of, 32–33
 mis/interpretation of, 61–62
- Educational debt, 47
- Educational institutions, 33
- Educational system, 59
- Educative dimension, 74
- Educative leaders, 74
- Educative leadership, 74
- Educators, 2–3, 34–35, 50, 120–121 educator-driven communication, 115 of social justice, 128–131
- Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA), 9
- Emancipatory pedagogy, 36
- Embark Education, 137–138
- English as a Second Language (ESL), 39–40
- English as Language of Power, 98–99
 in assessment, 99
- English Language Development (ELD), 42, 80, 93, 128–129 block, 52–53
 counselor, 101
- English proficiency test (EPT), 96
- English-language learners, students labeled, 125
- Equitable school collaboration team, 132–133
- Equity audits, 122, 134–135
- Equity community collaboration audit, 132–133
- Equity strides in 1970s, baby boom to, 7–10
- Ethic of care, 77, 82
- Ethic of community, 62
- Ethical dimension, 74–75
- Ethnicity, 124
- Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), 12–13
- Familial capital, 104, 107
- Finding Voice club, The, 102
- Finding Voice project, The, 82
- Foundational theories, 4

- Freire, Paolo, 20–21, 36, 67–68
 Fundamental Rights for Women, 15, 23–24
 Funds of knowledge, 103
- Gender identity, 126
 Gifted and talented ability groups (GT ability groups), 39–40
 Gramsci, Antonio, 29–31
 Guest speakers, 117, 135
- Harvard University, cases of, 18–19
 Hegemonic mechanisms, 33
 Hegemony, 29, 37, 128
 contemporary interpretations of, 31–33
 cultural hegemony in education, 33–34
 at DHS, 98–99
 English as language of power, 98–99
 English as language of power in assessment, 99 heteronormativity and, 31–32 historical foundations, 30–31
 neoliberalism as hegemony in schools, policies, and practices, 42–44
 perpetuation of hegemony in schools, 33 and philosophy of education, 32–33
 Heteronormative hegemony, 32
 Heteronormative matrix, 31
 Heteronormativity, 31–32
 Heterosexual matrix, 31
 Heterosexuality, 31–32
 Hidden curriculum, 34–36
 countering hegemony in schools, 36–37
 re/envisioning opportunities in schools, policies, and practices, 53–54
 theory applied to practice, 54
 Hip-Hop-Based Education (HHBE), 41–42
 Historical debt, 47–48
- Ideological hegemony, 33
 Implicit bias, 48–49
 Individual praxis, 66
 Information age, 136–138
 Innovations, 86–87
 Institute of Educational Sciences (IES), 17–18
 Intellectuals, 33
 International Baccalaureate (IB), 39–40
 Interview protocol, 122
- Justice
 desire for, 103–105
 enactments of, 112–113
 falling short of, 120–121
 stagnation of and desire for, 93–103
- K-12 landscape, 84
 K-12 schools, 79
 transformative practices in, 68–69, 71, 75
 Knowledge, funds of, 103
- Ladson-Billings, Gloria, 21–22
 Leadership, 71–72
 Learning, 56
 Least restrictive environment (LRE), 9
 Linguistic capital, 77, 104, 106–107
 Linguistic hegemony, 99
 Linguistic imperialism, 98
 Love, Bettina, 41–42
- Mann, Horace, 1–2
 Marginalized youth, 58
 Meritocracy myth in action, 39–40
 #MeToo Movement, 23–24, 32, 50
 Mexican American Studies (MAS), 20, 63 program, 20
 in Tucson Unified School District, 20–21
 Migration capital, 104, 111–112
 Military complex, 49

- Millennium High School (MHS), 42, 79–80, 82–83, 112–113, 117,
119–120, 128–129
authentic caring at, 84–85
enactments of justice and transformation at, 112–113 falling short of justice and transformation at, 120–121 members of millennium high school
community, 83
- Mis/interpretation of democracy, 61–62
- Multicultural initiatives, 35–36
- Multilingual learners (MLs), 40
- Myth of meritocracy, 39–40
- Nation at Risk, A* (1980), 10–11, 37
democracy in education From 1980s to 1990s, 10
- National Center for Educational Statistics (NCES), 17–18
- National Education Association
(NEA), 4–5
- National School Lunch Program
(NSLP), 87
- Navigational capital, 77, 104, 107–108
- Neoliberal discourses, 42
- Neoliberal policy, 11–12
- Neoliberal principles, 13–14
- Neoliberalism, 10–11, 13–14, 36–37, 42, 45, 128
contemporary interpretations of, 39–40
countering neoliberalism in schools, 40–42
at DHS, 93–98
dispossession at DHS, 99–102
hegemony at DHS, 98–99
as hegemony in schools, policies, and practices, 42–44
historical and present foundations, 37–38
myth of meritocracy in action, 39–40
re/envisioning opportunities in schools, policies, and practices, 53–54
standardized testing, 95–97
state report card, 94–95
theory applied to practice, 54
turnaround, 97–98
vener of democracy at DHS, 102–103
- Neuroplasticity theory, 129
- New Orleans Public Schools (NOLA Public Schools), 51 transformation of, 19–20
- No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB Act), 11–13, 37–39, 61–62, 94
democracy in education from 2000s to present, 12
“No excuses” charter schools, 49
- Norm, collaboration as, 117–118
- Null curriculum, 133
- Pandemics, converging, 24–26
- Performativity, 29, 50–51, 53
- Perpetuation of hegemony in schools, 33
- Philosophers, 45
- Picower, Bree, 46, 136–137
- Pinar, William, 57
- Political democracy, 56
- Political movements as transformative action, countering, 63–64
- Politicians, 57
- Post-Katrina, 19–20
- “Post-truth” era, 136–137
- Posttraumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 101
- Praxis, 66–68
- Primarily white institutions (PWIs), 50
- Primarily working-class schools, 35
- Professional development (PD), 97
- Professional learning communities
(PLCs), 135
- Progressive educators, 58
- Public accountability, 38
- Public discourse, 39

- Public education, 1–2
- Race, 124
- Race to the Top (RTTP), 94
- Race-conscious admissions policies, 19
- Racial justice, continuing fight for, 25–26
- Radical care, 78
- Radical consciousness, 134–135
- Raza studies in Tucson Unified School District, 20–21
- Recovery School District (RSD), 20
- Red Scare, The, 7
- Reflective prompts, 54
- Reflective prompts, 69
- Resistant capital, 104, 108, 111
- Roe v. Wade, 23–24
- Rote memorization techniques, 35
- School “culture”, dispossession within, 99–100
- School community, 112–113, 121
 - building and sustaining culture of community, 116–117
 - collaboration as norm, 117–118
 - community nights for health and wellness, 117
 - critical inclusivity, 118–120
 - falling short of justice and transformation at millennium high school, 120–121
 - revisiting transparency and communication, 114–116
 - theory applied to practice, 121–122
 - transparent communication across, 87–88
- School structures, dispossession within, 101–102
- School-as-business model, 56–57
- School-to-prison pipeline, 48–50
- School-wide critical reading and reflection circles, 135
- Schools, 7, 9, 46, 51, 53
 - countering hegemony in, 36–37
 - countering neoliberalism in, 40–42
 - neoliberalism as hegemony in, 42–44
 - perpetuation of hegemony in, 33
 - re/envisioning opportunities in, 53–54
 - transformative practices in, 75–80
- Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics-focused courses (STEM-focused courses), 32
- Sexual orientation, 126
- Social and emotional learning (SEL), 131
- Social capital, 104, 107
- Social class, 123
- Social Justice Education Project (SJEP), 20–21
- Social justice in education, 13
- Social media platform in information age, 136–138
- Social movements as transformative action, countering, 63–64
- Social-emotional learning (SEL), 131
- Socio-political consciousness, 59
- Sociopolitical debt, 47–48
- Special education (SpEd), 39–40
- State standardized test (SST), 95–96
- Student council (StuCo), 51
- Student Success Team (StST), 115
- Student voice
 - at desert high school, 80–82
 - opportunities, 79–80
- Students, 52–53, 108, 115
 - labeled English-language learners, 125
 - labeled with disabilities, 124–125
- Teach For America (TFA), 50
- Teachers, 131
- Team teaching, 40
- Test scores, 95–96
- 1619 Project, 22–23
- TikTok, 137
- Tracking, 39–40

- Transformation
 - desire for, 103–105
 - enactments of, 112–113
 - falling short of, 120–121
 - stagnation of and desire for, 93–103
- Transformational dimension, 73–74
- Transformative action, 72
 - aligning critically-just democracy to, 62–64
 - countering political and social movements as, 63–64
 - plan, 138
- Transformative democracy
 - contemporary challenges to advancement of transformative democracy in education, 14–15
 - in schools, 21–22
- Transformative educators, 132–133
- Transformative leaders, 73–74, 76, 112–113, 131
- Transformative leadership, 80
 - in (in)action, 80–82
 - in action, 82–88
 - amplifying student voice at desert high school, 80–82
 - collectives, 3–4
 - critical dimension, 72–73
 - critical practices, 84–85
 - desire for justice and transformation, 103–105
 - educative dimension, 74
 - educative practices, 86–87
 - ethical dimension, 74–75
 - ethical practices, 87–88
 - framework, 71, 75
 - millennium high school, 82–83
 - neoliberalism at DHS, 93–98
 - school as community, 113–121
 - stagnation of and desire for justice and transformation, 93–103
 - stories from field, 105, 112–113
 - transformational dimension, 73–74
 - transformational practices, 85–86
- Transformative PD, 135–136
- Transformative practices, 127
 - asset-based practices, 76–77
 - authentic caring, 77–78
 - creating and sustaining, 128–138
 - critical hope, 78–79
 - educators for social justice and activism, 130
 - in K-12 Schools, 68–69, 71, 75
 - stories from field, 80, 82, 88
 - student voice opportunities, 79–80
 - theory applied to practice, 88
 - transformative leadership framework, 71–75
 - transformative practices in schools, 75–80
- Transformative practices survey, 121–122
- Transformative Professional Development (PD), 145
- Transformative school surveys, 88
- Transparency, 114–116
- Transparent communication across school community, 87–88
- Traumatic brain injuries (TBIs), 101
- True democracy, 137
- Tucson Unified School District (TUSD), 20, 60
- Turnaround, 43, 82
- U.S. Department of Education, 10
- University of North Carolina (UNC), 17–19
- Veneer of democracy, 14, 61–62
 - at DHS, 102–103
- Visioning process, 74
- Voting Rights Act (1965), 47–48
- West, Cornel, 13, 41, 49
- White savior, 129–130
- Women
 - anti-trans legislation, 26–27
 - continuing fight for racial justice, 25–26
 - converging pandemics, 24–26

- impact of COVID-19, 25
- fundamental rights for, 23–24
- Me Too Movement, 23–24
- overturning of Roe v. Wade, 24
- rights movements, 32
- Youth participatory action research
(YPAR), 20–21
- YouTube, 137
- Zero-tolerance discipline policies, 48, 61–62