INDEX

Note: Page numbers followed by "n" indicate notes.

Achievement, 58
  of career excellence, 220
Action-orientated learning, 72–79, 154–155
Adaptability, 21
Affective empathy, 82–83
Agile learning, 20
Ambition, 55–58
Analytical skills, 115
Ancillary roles, 19
Anticipation, 114
Archetypes, 174, 177–178
Artificial intelligence, 15–16
Autonomy of thinking, 73

Baby Boomers, 13
Boundaryless knowledge, 18–19
Brainstorming, 145–148
Brand value, 20
Bundy clocks, 24
Business, 28, 215
  corporate career citizenship and, 218–219
  CSR and, 36, 215–216
  entrepreneur, 200
  family, 185
  management, 186

Capability continuum in career disruption period, 30 Career choices, 108
  transition and design, 102–107
Career design, 219
  brainstorming, 145–148
  process phases, 145
  smart choices, 148–149
  system, 218
Career designers, 133, 182
Career development, 131–132
  applying design thinking to learning, 136 collaborative career design, 140–141 conventional career planning, 134
  design learning in practice, 136–138

design thinking for, 134, 141–145 educational institutions, 134–135
human-centric learning, 135–136
new career horizons, 138–139
people-centred career design, 139–140
Career mindset, 149
action-orientated learning, 154–155
double-loop learning, 156–157
flexible thinking, 150–151
guided reflection, 151–154
Career opus framework, 183–184, 199
career vision, 184–186
collaborative and individual career co-designing, 188–189
personal career values, 186–187
value propositions for career people and designers, 187–188 Career prototyping, 172, 176, 191–192
archetypes, 177–178
career coaching exercise, 181–182
career opus framework, 183–189
developing career clinic for, 182
divergent and convergent thinking, 179–180
envisioning ideal career through prototyping, 173–176
identifying career gaps in market, 178 innovating, 178
learning theory and collaborative career building, 180–181 narrative, 176–177
occupational analysis, 190–202
post-prototype career design, 202–203
progressing, 176
translating ideas into outcomes, 179 Career thinking, 132, 171–172, 212, 218
frames, 68
perspectives, 66–72
Career-focussed enterprise, 218
career strategy, 219–221
career thinking, 218–219
career value chain management, 219
Career-focussed organisational culture, 223–224
Careerism, 217

Careers, 3–4, 32, 171–172, 211–212, 216
ambition, 55–58
attributes, 21–26
career-focussed enterprise, 218–221
career-focussed organisational culture, 223–224
career-mindedness, 11 change, 83–85, 171–172
choices, 9
coaching exercise, 181–182
corporate career citizenship, 217–218
counsellors, 37*n*1
CSR, 215–217
culture, 224
cycle assessment analysis, 219
decision making, 53, 102–103, 108–109
defining CSR in corporate disruption era, 213–215 design thinking development, 221–223 discovery, 175–176
education, 29–32
equity, 216
experience, 132–133, 172
failure, 59–66
fulfilment, 10
HRM, 219–220
innovation and, 20–21
journey, 47, 185
making, 105
mindfulness, 48–50
motivations, 14
organisational culture, 223–224
organisational learning, 221–223
ownership, 186 paths, 8
people searching for, 4
perspectives, context and structures, 7–10 portfolio, 107
problem solving, 107–109
purpose, 53–55
recruiting, 220
selection, 175–176
shape preferences, 105
shift, 83
sociology, 17–19
solutionism, 27–28
specialists shape careers, 196–197
stakeholders, 5–6
stewardship, 218
strategising, 158–159
strategy, 219–221
strengths, 190–194
success, 58–59
themes in career thinking, 10–11
thinking, 26
transformations, 47
tree, 185
value chain, 160–161

and work, 6–7, 14–17
workforce, 12–14
working, 14–17
workplaces, 14–17
Certainty, 34–35
Chatbots, 15
Choice making, 120
control in choice making about careers, 78
creating or designing, 103
Co-designing, 188
Co-learning, 84–85
Co-opting employees, 220
Cognition, 105, 223
Cognitive dissonance, 77
Cognitive empathy, 82
Cognitive responses, 64
Collaboration, 80–81
Collaborative career building, 180–181
co-designing, 187–188
design, 140–141
Communication, 114, 197
Competence in career thinking, 45 action-orientated and guided learning, 72–79 career ambition, 55–58
career failure, 59–66
career mindfulness, 48–50
career purpose, 53–55
career success, 58–59
career thinking perspectives, 66–72
cultural intelligence, 50–53
EI, 50–53
interpersonal aspects of careers, 79–83
turning points, 46–48
well-being and career change, 83–85
Comprehension, 66
Comprehensive contradiction, 76–77
Connectedness at work, 25
Constructive learning, 63
Constructivism, 180–181
Constructivist learning theory, 180
Conventional career planning approach, 133 with design thinking, 134
Convergent approach, 195
Convergent thinking, 179–180
Coordination capacity, 74
Coping strategies, 73–74
Corporate career citizenship, 217–218
Corporate design thinking, 218
Corporate social responsibility (CSR), 36, 212, 215–217 defining in era of corporate disruption, 213–215

Corporate sustainability principles, 224
Cost-benefit analysis, 200
Craft skills, 20
Creative career design, 185
Creative imagination, 175
Creative self, 75
Creativity, 75
Critical questioning, 18–19
Cultural collaborations, 80
Cultural intelligence, 50–53
Cultural logic of late capitalism, 29
Culturally responsive curriculum, 30

Decision making, 103–107
evidence collection for, 77
Decisions, 119
Deductive thinking, 122
Design learning approach, 135
in practice, 136–138
Design thinking, 131–132
career, 141–145
career designers, 133
for career development, 134–145
career experience, 132–133
career mindset, 149–157
development, 221–223
mapping career journey for person, 157–162
phases of career design process, 145–149 teams, 220–221
training, 220
Designing careers, 133
Didactic pedagogy, 135
Digital
revolution, 27
spaces, 79–80
workplaces, 23
Disciplinary knowledge, 18
Disproof, 28
Disruptive development, 102
Disruptive innovation, 27
Distance, 24, 26
Divergent approach, 195
Divergent thinking, 179–180
Diverse metaphor models, 114
Double-loop learning, 151–152, 156–157

Economic welfare of organisation, 212
Education, 29–32
Educational entrepreneur, 200
Effective learning, 74 Emotion(al), 50, 105
facilitating thinking, 52
management, 53

response, 74
roles, 19
stamina, 51–53, 75
temperament of others, 51
Emotional intelligence (EI), 50–53
Emotive responses, 64
Empathy, 81–83
Employee, 216
engagement, 162
involvement, 220
Employers, 211, 216, 219
Employing metaphors, 113
Employment, 6–7, 36, 216
in Australia, 23
career thinking and, 68–69
growth, 13
security, 7
Enterprise, 224
Entrepreneurship, 132
Envisioning ideal career through prototyping, 173
career discovery, 175–176
careers, 173–175
Errors, 62
Ever-present environment, 72
Exercise, 141–143
for career specialist, 143–145
Experiential
careers, 198
learning, 111–112
Expertise, 84
Exploration, 53–55
Explorative scenario-method, 120
External stakeholders, 213
Externalisation of ideas, 108

Facebook, 176
Failure, 58, 62
motivation to learn through experienced, 63–66 types, 62–63
Failure attributions, 66
Fit-for purpose metaphor, 185
5-point Likert scale, 160
Fixed mindset, 149
Flexibility, 79
Flexible and remote working (FRW), 23
Flexible thinking, 150–151
Former work experiences, 53
Functional roles, 19

Gen X, 13
Generation Y millennials, 216
Generational differences, 14
Globalisation, 16, 27, 214
Guided learning, 72–79
Guided reflection, 151–154

Halo-effect, 7
Hoteling, 24

Human resource management (HRM), 186, 212, 219
Human-centric learning, 135–136
Hyper-specialisation shaped careers, 7

Idea generation, 107, 158
Idea-combining, 108
Idiosyncratic career, 106
Imagination, 28, 31, 116–119, 172
Incentives, 220
Incubation, 107
Individual career co-designing, 188–189
Individual learning, 199
Inductive reasoning, 151
Inductive thinking, 122
Inference, 28
  skills, 80
Information, 85, 113, 154, 197, 219
  information-gathering, 107 processing, 74, 114
Ingenuity, 115
Innovation, 189
  and careers, 20–21
Instagram, 176
Integrative thinking, 131
Intention-oriented approach, 53
Internet of things, 15–16
Interpersonal aspects of careers, 79
  empathy, 81–83
  producing outcomes, 83
  social skills, 80
  trust, 80–81
Interpersonal skills, 51–52
Interpretation, 223
Intrapersonal conflict, 77
Intrapsychic skills, 51–52
Investment, 172
  in career, 7
  strategic, 218
Iteration process, 119

Job descriptions, 220
  mobility, 21
  security, 75

Knowledge, 19, 34, 84, 115, 118–119
  acquisition, 107
  management channels, 20

Learning, 29, 84, 149, 154
  action-orientated, 154–155
  applying design thinking to, 136 constructive, 63
  double-loop, 156–157
  human-centric, 135–136
  theory, 180–181
'Living career' concept, 46–47
Loss orientation, 73–74

Mapping career journey for person, 157
career strategising, 158–159 career value chain, 160–161 driving forces and inhibitors of change, 159
employee engagement, 162 phases, 157–158
properties of persistent interests, 160
Media, 181
Metaphorical framing, 114
Metaphors, 111
employing, 113
information processing, 114
understanding and knowledge, 115
in use, 115
Millennials, 13
Mindfulness, 48–50
Mindsets, 114, 150
Modem career development, 213
Monetary incentives, 220
Multi-criteria decision analysis, 120
Multiple metaphors, 185

Narratives, 71, 176–177
Naturalist tradition, 72
Negative emotions, 63
Negative mindset, 149
Network(ing), 80
careers, 186
design, 219
relationships for building careers, 197
New career horizons, 138–139
Non-monetary incentives, 220
Nonlinear approach, 196–197
Normative preference of career shape, 105
Normative scenario-method, 120

Occupational analysis, 189–190
activities, 201–202
career specialists shape careers, 196–197 communication processes, 197 consequences and influences, 199 exploring personal profile, 190 limitations, 200–201
networking relationships for building careers, 197 outcomes of prototyping process, 194–196
project and substance, 198–199 resources, 199–200

Office spaces, 24
Ontological expansion, 85
Openness value organisational processes, 224
Opportunistic learning, 155
Opportunity-seeking strategies, 54–55
Opus framework, 183–189
Organisational commitment, 162
Organisational learning, 221–223
Organisations, 27
Oscillation orientation, 73–74

Pedagogy, 30
People assert, 198
People-centred career design, 139–140
People's decisions, 118
Perceptions, 52
Persistent interest properties, 160
Person's identity, 61
Personal career values, 186–187
Personal disappointment, 63
Personal disruption, 78–79
Physical preference of career shape, 105
Physical workplaces, 24
Place, 24, 26
Portfolio careers, 21
Positive learning relationships, 74
Post-hoc rationalisation, 65
Post-prototype career design, 202–203
Pre-emptive CSR strategy, 214
Problem posing, 28
Problem solving strategies, 75, 107
Problem-finding, 107
Producing outcomes, 83
Productive thinking, 107
Professionalisation, 19
Profitability, 214
Prognostic scenario-method, 120
Progressing career, 173
Protean career, 211–212
Prototyping, 172–173, 179
  envisioning ideal career through, 173–176 process, 195–196
  workshop, 183
Psychological perspective, 7–8
Psychological preference of career shape, 105

Qualities of mindsets, 150

Readiness to overcoming career adversity, 78–79
Real-time personal interaction, 80
Reality, 69–70
Reciprocity, 197

Reflection process, 151
Reflective practice for career thinking, 66–72
Reflective thinking, 49–50
Reinforcing career, 173
Resilience, 79
Responsibility, 49
Restoration orientation, 73–74
Risk, 33
Role-constrained learning, 155
Role-playing scenarios, 189

Satellite offices, 24
Scenario designing, 119–122
Selected career domain area (SCD), 115
Self-awareness, 49, 66
Self-belief, 75
Self-discovery, 75–76
Self-evaluation process, 148
Self-protecting strategies, 65
Self-reflection, 114
Self-reflective practice, 59
Sense of community, 25
Shared attitudes and beliefs, 222
Shared career knowledge development, 221–223
Shared cognitions, 222–223
Shared learning, 222–223
Sharing of practices, 80
Single-loop learning, 50, 152, 157
Situational learning, 155
Skill. See also Knowledge analytical, 115
  craft, 20
  development, 19
  gaps, 190–194
  influence, 80
  interpersonal, 51–52
  intrapsychic, 51–52
  social, 80
  synthetic, 115
Smart choices, 148–149
Smart speculations, 189
Social networks, 80
Social preference of career shape, 105
Social responsibility, 20
  of enterprises, 217–218
Social skills, 80
Sociological literature, 7–8
Sociology of careers, 17–19
Socratic Method, 27
Solutionism, 27–28
Specialisation, 19
Specialism, 20
Specific, measurable, assignable, realistic and time-related goals (SMART goals), 201
Stakeholders, 69, 194–197
  interests, 214

Stimulating career, 173
STOPPEL approach, 159
Storytelling, 106
Strategic investment domains, 218
Strategic planning process, 217
Strategising of career, 101–102, 109–110, 116 career choice, transition and design, 102–107 career problem solving, 107–109
  imagination, 116–119
  knowledge, 118–119
  metaphors, 111–115
  questioning, 111
  scenario designing, 119–122
Structuring career guidance, 144
Synthetic skills, 115

Tacit knowledge, 84–85
Tacking, 60
Task-related knowledge, 222
Task-specific knowledge, 222
TedX, 70
Temporal discounting, 71–72
Thinking in-contradiction approach, 76–78
360 degree thinking, 75–76
Time, 24, 26, 73
Trust, 80–81
Turning points, 46–48
Twitter, 176

Unbounded learning, 222
Uncertainty, 34–35, 77, 101
Understanding, 115, 221–222
  emotions, 51–52
Unemployment, 17, 29–30, 36, 69, 216
Universal archetypes, 177
Universal values model, 186–187

Value, 31 186
  personal career, 186–187
  propositions for career people and designers, 187–188
Vision of career, 184–186
Vocational approach, 7–8
Volunteering, 56

Well-being, 83–85
Work, 6–7, 10, 14–17, 212
  access to, 16–17
  design criteria, 22
Work-integrated learning, 197, 199–200
Workforce, 12–14
Working, 14–17
  towards career pre-prototype, 195

towards career-prototype, 196
conditions, 53
from home, 24
remote, 25
Workplaces, 9, 14–17, 25, 78
community sense, 25
culture, 26, 161
digital, 23
generations in, 24
physical, 24
tacit knowledge in, 84