

Index

- Agenda setting, 36–38
- Antimemorandum frames, 101, 139, 143, 182
- Australian media, 1
- Avgi, 21, 133, 138, 167, 174
 - antimemorandum frame, 104, 112, 151
 - blackmail frame, 119–120
 - colony frame, 114, 152
 - commercialism, 161
 - economic crisis, 82, 84
 - Nea Dimokratia (ND), 102
 - news frame, 2015, 149
 - opposition's advocate frames, 102
 - Pan Hellenic Socialist Movement (PASOK), 96, 98
 - political parallelism, 156–157
 - SYRIZA frame, 102, 104, 113–114
- Bankruptcy, 105–107, 109–110
- Bipartisan system, 137–138, 166
- Blackmail Frame, 119–121
- Capitalism, 45–46, 48, 56, 64, 168–169
- Case study method, 17–18
 - definition, 19
 - instrumental method, 18
 - intrinsic method, 18
- Colony frames, 114, 139, 152
- Commercialization, 61, 73, 77, 84–85, 186, 188
- Communication, 4, 16, 33–34, 55–56, 125–126, 162, 194
- Conceptualization, 1, 20–21, 39, 45, 51–52
- Data analysis methodologies
 - framing analysis, 24–25
 - generic frames, 24–25
 - issue-specific frames, 24–25
 - theme, 27
- Degrees of freedom, 19–20
- Democratic Corporatist Model, 69–70
- Digitalization, 2–3, 88–96
 - commercialization, 90
 - internet-based stories, 94
 - journalism, 89
 - online media, 93
 - political sources, 93
- Drachma Nightmare news frame, 142
- Economic crisis, 1–2, 6–7, 16, 81–88
- Equivalency frames, 24–25
- False Dichotomy Frame, 145
- Flexibility, 22–24
- Fractured paradigm, 33–34
- Frame building process, 135–136
 - altering advocate frames, 140–147
 - contribution, 185–189
 - news frames, 136–140, 147–153
- Framing, 155
 - agenda setting, 36–38
 - analysis, 24–25
 - binary origins, 35
 - conception, 37–38
 - culture, 38–44
 - debate setting limits, 162–169, 176–182
 - definition, 35
 - economy, 70–71
 - media content, 37, 39
 - priming, 36–37
 - social reality, 35–36
 - theory, 44

- Generic frames, 24–25
- Giddens' structuration theory, 65–66
- Gramsci's concept, 57
- Greek Communist Party (KKE), 7–8, 145–146
- Greek crisis, 2, 5–6
- Greek media, 6–7, 127
 - case study method, 17
 - characteristics, 11–12
 - Greek Communist Party (KKE), 7–8
 - historical characteristics, 13–14
 - instrumentalization, 13
 - intrinsic and instrumental case study, 18–19
 - Lambrakis Press Group (DOL), 15–16
 - Nea Dimokratia (ND), 7–8
 - new owners, 14
 - newspaper circulation, 12, 15
 - Pan Hellenic Socialist Movement (PASOK), 7–8
 - political parallelism, 156–162
 - Private Sector Involvement (PSI), 8–9
 - reestablish transparency, 15–16
 - Skai Group, 15–16
 - Synaspismos, 7–9
 - SYRIZA, 9–10
- Hard bargain frame, 141–142, 169–172, 175
- Information society, 62, 130
- Instrumentalization, 13, 132–133
- Interpretive packages, 42–43
- Issue-specific frames, 24–25
- Kathimerini, 21, 136, 163, 170, 177
 - colony frames, 139–140
 - news frame, 2011/2012/2015, 139–141, 147
- Pan Hellenic Socialist Movement (PASOK), 97, 138–139
- political parallelism, 156–157
- Labour intensification, 60–64, 82–83, 88–96
 - commodification, 60, 73
 - economic crisis, 95
 - elimination strategies, 87
 - Internet, 89
 - journalistic labour, 93–94
 - media organization, 90
- Lakatosian Research Program, 33–38
- Lambrakis Press Group (DOL), 15–16
- Lawrence's indexing theory, 46–47
- Liberal Model, 55
- Macro level power influences, 52–60
- Media
 - Australian media, 1
 - content, 37, 39
 - economic crisis, 2
 - global and domestic
 - Greek media, 6–11
 - market, 4
 - owners, 2
 - power, 51
 - production, 44–48
 - systems, 52–60
- Media ownership
 - commodity form, 59
 - communication, 57, 59
 - Gramsci's concept, 57
 - structures, 52–60
- Meso level power influence, 60–64
- Microconstruct conception, 35
- Micro level power influences, 64–70
- Multi-level political economy
 - approach
 - agenda setting, 36
 - frame building process, 44–48
 - framing process, 35–38, 44, 70–71
 - interpretive packages, 42–43
 - labour, 60–64

- Lakatosian Research Program,
33–38
macro level power influence, 52–60
market, 52–60
media systems, 52–60
meso level power influence, 60–64
micro level power influence, 64–70 ownership structures, 52–60 political economy, 48–52
political impact, 38–44 social forces, 44–48
theoretical framework, 70–71
- National media system, 4–5
Nea Dimokratia (ND), 7–8, 20–21, 99,
102, 110–111
- Newspapers
Avgi, 156
editorial stance, 129–130
frame building, 135–153
Kathimerini, 161
organizational structure, 126
political parallelism, 162–164
political role, 15
Southern Europe, 12
Ta Nea, 157
- Opposition's advocate frames, 100–101
- Organizational structure, journalistic practices
communication, 125–127
foreign sources, 127
information society, 130
instrumentalization, 132–133
negotiation of newsworthiness, 130
Polarized Pluralist systems, 130
self-censorship, 133
traditional political sources, 126
- Ownership concentration, 56–57
- Pan Hellenic Socialist Movement
(PASOK), 7–8, 96, 97, 99,
107, 105–106, 140
Avgi, 98
- Kathimerini, 97
Ta Nea, 98
- Pegasus Press Group, 15–16
- Polarized Pluralist Model, 54–55, 130,
161–162
- Political economy, 4, 11–16
capitalism, 48–49
communication, 77–78
contribution, 185–189
definition, 48–52
frame building process, 71–75, 78
framing, 70–71
media power, 51
Polarized Pluralist Model, 54–55
processes, 189–191
structures, 75–77, 189–191
'temporal construction of hegemony', 78
- Political frames reproduction,
114–122
- Political parallelism
Avgi, 156–157
instrumentalization, 157
Kathimerini, 156
Polarized Pluralist model, 159
press and politics, 157
SYRIZA, 156–157
traditional press-party parallelism, 157
- Political power, 5
- Polysemy, 51
- Populism frame, 141
- Power influences
macro level power influence, 52–60
meso level power influence, 60–64
micro level power influence, 64–70
- Priming, 36–37, 39
- Private Sector Involvement (PSI), 8–9
- Productivism, 51
- Qualitative interviewing, 22–24
- Scandinavian media, 69–70
- Self-censorship, 133

- Skai Group, 15–16
Social frameworks, 38–39
Social interaction process, 40
Social reality, 35–36
Soviet metaphor, 136
Structuration theory, 64–65
Synaspismos, 7–8
SYRIZA, 96, 99, 100, 102, 110,
112–113, 140, 153
- Ta Nea, 21, 132, 137, 164–165, 171
frame analysis, 139
- news frame 2011/2012/2015, 142, 148
Pan Hellenic Socialist Movement
(PASOK), 98
Thematic analysis, 28–29
Traditional party-press parallelism,
189
Triangulation, 29–31
Tsipras Memorandum, 117
- UK media, 2
- War frame, 137