

Index

- Ageing bodies, 46–50
- Art on body, tattoos as, 27–32
- Bacon tattoo, 36
- Classed femininity, 83–88
- Embodying femininity
  - classed femininity, 83–88
  - femininity, 73
  - negotiating femininity, 73–79
  - tattoo imagery, 79–83
- Embodying pain, 67–71
- Feminine tattoos, 80–81
- Femininity, 4, 6, 73
  - classed, 83–88
  - negotiating, 73–79
- Feminist research, 93
- Gender, 6–9
- Generational differences in women's tattoos, 41–46
- Good taste, tattoos, 33–38
- Intersectionality, 6–9
- Meaning of tattooed women, 57
  - embodying pain, 67–71
  - inscribing meaning on skin, 57–62
  - personal narratives with tattoos, 62–67
- Middle-class femininity, 87
- Moral and cautionary tales, 13–14
- Non-feminine tattoos, 80–81
- Normative femininity, 83
- Performativity, 6–9
- Personal narratives with tattoos, 62–67
- Professionalism, construction of, 50–56
- Rules, tattooed women
  - construction of professionalism, 50–56
  - generational differences in women's tattoos, 41–46
  - negotiating ageing bodies, 46–50
- Skilful consumption, 33–38
- Skin, inscribing meaning on, 57–62
- Societal discourses, 9–10
- Tattoo(s), 2–3
  - gender, 6–9
  - imagery, 79–83
  - intersectionality, 6–9
  - performativity, 6–9
  - size of, 4
  - societal discourses, 9–10
  - theorising femininity, 4–6
  - visibility and size, 4
- Tattooed bodies, 90–91
- Tattooed bodies in media
  - as 'simply' trend, 14–16
  - concept of 'normal', 12
  - moral and cautionary tales, 13–14
  - print media, 11
  - as transformative, 17–20
- Tattooed feminine body
  - good taste and skilful consumption, 33–38
  - tattoos as art on body, 27–32
  - visibility of tattoos, 23–27

Tramp stamp, 49

Transformative potential of tattoos,
17–20

Visibility of tattoos, 23–27

Western constructions, 1

Women's tattoos, 41–46