

Index

- Accreditation requirement change, 101–104
- Achievements, 38
- Action lines, 3, 24, 29
- Actors, 23–24
- Ambiguity, 20

- Berlin conference, 55–56
- Bologna Conference [1999], 28–29
- Bologna consultative members, 33
- Bologna Diploma Supplement, 97–98
- Bologna Follow-up Group (BFUG), 64–67
- Bologna grades, 96
- Bologna in Ukraine, 42–45, 110, 113–114
- Bologna instruments in Ukraine, 80, 81–82
 - diploma supplement, 93–98
 - quality assurance, 98–107
 - study cycles, 88–93
 - system of credits, 80–87
- Bologna international stakeholders, 33
- Bologna on International Scale, 28–37
 - convergence and regionalisation in EHEA, 33–37
 - EHEA, 28–32
 - ‘soft’ power in EHEA, 32–33
- Bologna Process, 1–2, 3, 7, 24, 27–28, 48, 128–129, 132
 - further research in, 130–131
 - in Ukraine, 131
- Bologna reforms, 3, 28, 37–45, 110
 - achievements, 38–39
 - challenges, 39–40
 - change, 115–117
 - implementation implications, 37–40
 - layering in, 117–122
 - ‘old’ and ‘new’ in, 110–117
 - policy continuity, 111–115
 - process, 129
- Bologna Secretariat, 32–33
- Bricoleurs, 18
- Bridges, 23–24
- Brokers, 23–24

- Cabinet of Ministers, 6
- Central governing bodies, 52–59
 - Ministry of Education and Science, 53–59
 - and roles in Bologna process, 54–55
- Central-Eastern European region, 35
- Centralisation, 110–111
- Challenges, 39–40
- Change, 16
- Citizenship, 31
- Civil sector, 67–73
 - National Bologna Centre, 67–70
 - National TEMPUS/ERASMUS Plus Office, 70–73
- Coercion, 20–21
- Collective learning, messiness and productive nature of, 18–21
- Confidentiality, 7
- Consultancy mechanisms, 121–122
- Consultative actors, 59–67
 - BFUG, 64–67
 - Scientific Advisory Centre of Higher Education, 60–64
- Context, 4
- Contributes, 128
- Convergence
 - in certain regions in EHEA, 35–37
 - in discourse only, 34
 - in EHEA, 33–37
 - in practice, 34–35
- Creativity in layering, 119–120
- Credit system, 30, 119–120

- Credit-module system, 83–85
- Cross-programme access, 91–92
- Diploma supplement, 30, 38, 93–98
 - Bologna Diploma Supplement, 97–98
 - National Diploma Supplement, 94 types, 94–97
- Distributed governing or governance, 18
- Documents, 6, 93
- ‘Domestic pull’, 13
- Draft Laws, 59

- Education for All, 24, 80
- ERASMUS Plus Programme, 77
- ERASMUS Programme, 29, 43, 72
- ‘EU push’, 13
- Euromaidan revolution, 5
- Europe, 31
- European Association for Quality Assurance in Higher Education, 100
- European citizenship, 11
- European Commission, 33
- European Council in Copenhagen, 11
- European credit transfer system (ECTS), 39, 80, 83, 85–87
- European Cultural Convention, 56
- European Higher Education Area (EHEA), 1–3, 6, 28–32, 53
 - convergence and regionalisation in, 33–37
 - convergence in certain regions in, 35–37
- European Neighbourhood Policy, 11–12, 45
- European Union (EU), 2, 6–7, 10, 29, 48, 49, 56, 122
 - Europeanisation in, 10–14
- Europeanisation, 2, 9–10, 130
 - discourse, 57
 - in EU and post-Soviet space, 10–14
 - policy learning, 14–24
 - in Post-Soviet Space, 125–126
 - process, 110
 - in Ukraine, 122–124
- Europeanise Ukrainian higher education, 53
- Executive branch, 48
- External checks of institutions, 99–101

- Five cycles in three-cycle system, 92–93

- Governance, 18–19, 120–121
- Government, 6, 52

- Hard approach, 18
- Higher Attestation Commission, 59–60
- Higher education, 129–130
- Higher education institutions (HEI), 73–77, 128
- Higher Education Reform Experts (HEREs), 71–72
- Horizontal governing or governance, 18

- Implementation, 6
- Institute of Innovative Technologies and Content of Education, 64
- Institute of Leadership, Innovation and Development, 71
- Institutional
 - autonomy, 104–107
 - self-governing, 104
- Instruments, 24, 80
- Interdepartmental Commission for Support of Bologna Process, 65, 66
- International Bologna Follow-up Group, 32
- Internationalisation, 114–115
- Interviews, 6, 45

- Juridical branch, 48

- Knowledge economy, 31

- Kyiv-Mohyla Academy, 91–92
- ‘Law about Higher Education’, 98
- Layering, 17–18, 117, 125, 127–130
 creativity in, 119–120
 layering in Bologna Reform, 117–122
 messiness of, 117–118
 shared nature of, 120–122
- Learning, 15
- ‘Learning by meeting’, 116
- Legislative branch, 48
- Lifelong learning, 30, 44
- Lisbon Strategy, 30–31
- Loose coupling, 19
- Maastricht Treaty, 11
- Magna Charta Universitatum, 106
- Marxism-Leninism ideas, 4
- Messiness and productive nature of collective learning, 18–21
- Method, 45
- Minister and Department of Higher Education, 57
- Ministerial conferences, 3
- Ministry of Education and Science,
 53–59, 110–111
- Mobility, 30
- National Bologna Centre, 67–70
- National Diploma Supplement, 94
- National Higher Education Quality Assurance Agency, 100–101
- National internal puzzlement, 20
- National Quality Assurance Agency,
 100, 103–104
- National TEMPUS/ERASMUS Plus
 Office, 67, 70–73
- Old education-qualification cycles,
 88–89
- Old module system, 83
- Open method of coordination, 18–19
- Organisation, 23
- Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD),
 24, 30
- Path-dependence, 16
- Path-dependency, 16
- ‘Piecing together’, 121
- Pilot project, 1–2, 56
- Policy
 bridges, 115
 brokering of civil sector, 115
 brokers, 23–24, 115, 128–129
 continuity, 110, 111–117 instrument, 24 transfer, 21, 22
 window, 123–124
- Policy learning, 14–21, 116–118
 layering, 17–18
 messiness and productive nature of
 collective learning, 18–21
 path-dependence and change, 16 studying, 21–24
 theory, 110, 127–128
- Positivist approach, 22
- Post-Soviet countries, 4–6, 36
- Post-Soviet Europeanisation, 2, 110, 122–126, 129–130, 132
 in Post-Soviet Space, 125–126
 in Ukraine, 122–124
- Post-Soviet space, 10
 Europeanisation in, 10–14
- Post-Soviet Ukraine, 5
- Process, 40–42
- Programme for International Student
 Assessment (PISA), 24
- Qualification framework, 30
- Quality assurance, 30, 98–107
 external review, 99–107
 internal review, 104–107
- Rational-purposive model, 19
- Reform process in Ukraine, 129

- Regionalisation in EHEA, 33–37
- Research, 36
- Salzburg principles, 89–90
- Scientific Advisory Centre of Higher Education, 60–64, 94–95
- Scientific cycles, 88–89
- ‘Security complex’ for EU, 12
- Shared governing or governance, 18
- Shared nature of layering, 120–122
- Shared policy-making, 122
- Single market in Europe, 11
- Soft power, 18–19
 - in EHEA, 32–33
- ‘Solemn Declaration on European Union’, 11
- Sorbonne declaration, 28–29, 41
- Soviet Union, 4
- State Inspectorate of Institutions, 99–100
- Student-centred learning, 30
- Study, 99
- Study credits, 80
- Study cycles, 88–93
 - five cycles in three-cycle system, 92–93
 - old education-qualification cycles and scientific cycles, 88–89
 - system of, 30
 - three-cycle system, 89–92
 - two-cycle study system, 89
- System of credits, 80–87
 - credit-module system, 83–85
 - ECTS, 85–87
 - old module system, 83
- TEMPUS* Programme, 29, 41, 43
- ‘The new’, 110–117
- ‘The old’, 110–117
- Three-cycle system, 89–92
- Top-down policy-making, 115
- Trade Union of Education and Science Workers, 66
- Transition, 2–3
- Treaty on European Union, 11
- Two-cycle study system, 89
- Ukraine
 - Bologna in, 42–45, 110, 113–114
 - Bologna Reform in, 48
 - central governing bodies, 52–59
 - civil sector, 67–73
 - consultative actors, 59–67
 - Europeanisation in, 122–124
 - higher education institutions, 73–77
 - political context, 48–52
- Ukrainian context, 4
- Ukrainian national implementation reports, 44
- Ukrainian National TEMPUS Office, 71, 72
- Ukrainian society, 49
- ‘Unintended effects’ of Bologna, 40
- Veto players, 13, 124
- Viable states, 13
- Voluntary learning, 20–21
- Western Balkans, 36
- Western European countries, 35
- Window dressing, 19–20