

INDEX

- Acceptance, 271
Adaptability, 146–147
Adaptive survivor, 117–118
Addiction treatment practices, 321
Advance Internal Advisory Board, 44–45
African-American woman, 135–136
Age of Emergent Change, The, 189–190
Air Education, 235–236
Air Force, 290
Air Force Staff Officer, learning to, 234–236
Alignment, strengthening, 185–186
Ambiguity in change using emotional intelligence, 138–144
Ambition gap, 331–332
American in Uganda, 18–21 collective courage, 29–30
 expatriate transformation process, 24–26
 invisible leadership, 21–22 from outside looking in, 13–15 physical punishment, 15
 power-with, 23–24
 preschool, 16
 reflective questions, 30–31
 self-inflicted pressures, 17–18 story, 12–21
 theoretical discussion, 21–30
 whiteness and white supremacy, 26–28
Amplification, 88–90
Amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), 166
Anger, 138, 271
Antiracist leadership, 40
Anxiety, 138
Appreciative inquiry techniques, 182 defining best possible solution through, 183–185
Asserting power, 116
Astronaut evaluation board (AEB), 137–138
Authentic humility, 33–34, 40, 42
Authenticity, 341–342 choosing leadership, 337–338 claiming superpower, 342–346 confronting reality and choosing courage, 340–342
 facedown, 339–340
 facedown redux and choosing authenticity daily, 347–349 lessons on leading with, 349–350
 pandemic, 346–347
Bargaining, 271
Behavioral courage, 3
“Being second”, 159
Belief, 170
Bevelander, Dianne, 79–81, 83, 86, 92 build tribe, 93–94
 choosing to control own destiny, 83–86 courage to keep leading, 87–91
 passion, resilience, sisterhood, and amplification, 88–90
 reflection activity, 94–95

- wisdom from Dianne's
 - experience and intellect, 91–94
 - women do not need fixing, 91–92
- Bias, 93
- Bicultural identity, 51
 - bond with native land, and collective trauma, 55
 - of woman leader, 55–57
- Bicultural women leaders, 55
 - courage to, 58–59
- Biculturalism, 55–58
- Black feminist, 38–39
- Black Sea, 61
- Board conflict, 224–226
- Board decision-making process, 224
- Bond with native land, 60–61
 - bicultural identity, 55
- Books, 273
 - organization, 3–7
- Botto, Karen L., 353
- Boundarylessness of courage, 5
- Business school of Erasmus
 - University Rotterdam, 80
- Call to adventure, 113–114, 120, 129–130
- Cancer, 81
- Candidate, 97
- Cardwell, Jan, 354–355
- Career change, 307–308
- Career-oriented black women, 58
- Change, 138
 - managing, 188–190
 - process, 189
- Charter of Engagement, 182–183
- Cheetab*, 12
- Chief Executive Officer (CEO), 218, 337–338
- Choice of courage, 6–7
- City of Toronto Act, 177
- Claiming leadership, 38
- Coercive power, 23–24
- Coetzer, Diane, 355
- Cognitive flexibility, 146–147
- Collaborative relationship, 239
- Collective courage, 29–30
- Collective trauma, 62–66
 - bicultural identity, bond with native land, and collective trauma, 55
 - bicultural identity of woman leader, 55–57
 - bond with native land, 60–61
 - “Communication and Place”, 50
 - connection with biculturalism, 57–58
 - courage to bicultural woman leader, 58–59
 - experience relevant, 66–67
 - leaders and collective trauma of people, 64–66
 - story, 51–59
 - women courageous, 51
- Colluding perpetrator archetype, 116–117
- Color of courage, 4
- “Common sense” policy, 24–25
- “Communication and Place”
 - course, 50–51, 60
- Compassionate leadership, 328–330
- Complementary addiction
 - treatment practices, 321
- Confronting reality, 340–342
- Congruity theory, 332
- Courage, 2–3, 97, 107–108, 198, 200, 227, 341–342
 - to blow whistle, 202–204
 - boundarylessness of, 5
 - choice of, 6–7
 - choosing, 340–342
 - color of, 4
 - courageous leadership, 200–202
 - courageous women claiming courage, 207–208
 - for crucial conversations, 208–210
 - depths of, 4–5
 - mandate of, 5–6

- Pena's buckets of courage, 202
 - shaping of, 7
 - whistleblower 1, 203
 - whistleblower 2, 203–204
 - whistleblower 3, 204
 - whistleblowing workplace
 - courage, 204–207
- Courage of NASA
 - advice for future leaders, 149–151
 - background, 137–138
 - dealing with ambiguity in
 - change using emotional intelligence, 138–144
 - Epps and Crew, 136
 - flight crew, 137
 - International Space Station, 153
 - new beginning for Epps, 151–152
 - strategies for moving through
 - neutral zone, 144–149
- Courage to bicultural woman leader, 58–59
- Courage to navigate man's world
 - adventure into unknown, 284–288
 - playing with boys, 280–281
 - questions, 293–294
 - reality, 281–284
 - scholarly commentary, 288–293
- Courage to survive
 - courage requirement, 259–260
 - emotional abuse, 254–255
 - happening, 255–259
 - labyrinth of courage, 260–263
 - own story, 252–253
 - questions for reflection, 263
- Courageous humility, 40–42
- Courageous intentional action, 205
- Courageous keys
 - building values-based team, 181–183
 - city within park, 177–178
 - courage mandate, 178
 - courageous leadership
 - opportunities, 176–178
 - dedication, 175–176
 - defining best possible solution
 - through appreciative inquiry, 183–185
 - governmental amalgamation, 177
 - leadership style, 180–181
 - looking after yourself, 190–192
 - managing change, 188–190
 - to navigating labyrinth, 178–179
 - recognizing everyone at every level, 186–188
 - seven courageous leadership approaches, 179–192
 - strengthening pride and alignment, 185–186
- Courageous leadership, 200, 202, 210–211
 - emotional intelligence, 238–239
 - journey, 234–243
 - learning to Air Force Staff Officer, 234–236
 - opportunities, 176–178
 - self-assessment, 237–238
 - Shenandoah University, 242–243
 - speaking truth to power and inviting speaking of truth, 240–242
 - theoretical discussion, 243–245
- Courageous woman
 - courage to keep leading, 87–91
 - extreme outlier, 81–83
 - passion, resilience, sisterhood, and amplification, 88–90
 - passion and resilience in pandemic times, 90–91
 - reflection activity, 94–95
 - wisdom from Dianne's experience and intellect, 91–94
- Courageous women, 42
 - claiming courage, 207–208
- COVID-19, 66, 188, 191, 346
 - pandemic, 79–81, 90–91, 233–234, 325–326

- Crucial conversations, courage for, 208–210
- CST-100 Starliner spacecraft, 152
- Cultural adaptation, 54–55
- Cultural certainty, 24–25
- Cultural dynamics, 313
- Cultural learning curve, 26
- Dagger stage, 115–116
- Dedication, 175–176
- Default leaders, 332
- Deficiency model, 172
- Deliberation, 2–3
- Denial, 138, 271
- Depression, 138, 271
- Depths of courage, 4–5
- Disappointment, 141–142
- Disorientation, 138
- Dispositional flexibility, 147
- Diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI), 342
- Double Helix Leadership Model, 114–115
- Duty of loyalty, 216–217
- Duty of obedience, 216–217
- Duty to care, 216–217
- Dynamic leadership, 300
- Economic liberalization, 52–53
- Education, 13–14
- Education Amendments Act (1972), 288–289
- Effective leaders, 304–305
- Ego, 228
- Elixir stage, 116, 125–126
- Emotional abuse, 254–255
- Emotional flexibility, 147
- Emotional intelligence, 138, 144, 238–239, 242–244
- Emotional labor, 141
- Emotional literacy, 17
- Emotions, 138
- Empathy, 38–39, 65–66, 239, 244
- Empowering leadership, 18–19
- Empowering transformer, 118, 129
- Empowerment of women, 83
- England, Catherine, 356
- Epps, Jeanette, 135–136, 138–139
 advice for future leaders, 149–151
 background, 137–138
 dealing with ambiguity in change using emotional intelligence, 138–144
 Epps and Crew, 136, 141
 flight crew, 137
 new beginning for Epps, 151–152
 strategies for moving through neutral zone, 144–149
- Epps, Luberta, 139
- Erasmus Centre for Women and Organisations (ECWO), 80, 85
- Erasmus University Rotterdam (EUR), 80
- “Examining Whiteness”, 40–42
- Expatriate transformation process, 24–26
- Extreme outlier, 81–83
- Facedown
 moment, 339–340
 redux and choosing authenticity daily, 347–349
- Family, 266
- Family Care Plan, 284–285
- Far Off Place*, A, 12
- Female leader identity. See also Bicultural identity, 304–306
 developing, 310–312
 making sense of, 306–312
 personal tale of, 300–306
 reflective exercise, 313–315
- Fiorini, Carly (CEO of Hewlett-Packard), 290
- Fire and emergency medical services (Fire & EMS), 158, 172
- Firefighter, 162–163
- Flow-based decision-making, 158
- Flow-based leadership, 158
 background on, 158–159

- Forest Bathing, 191
 Free-spirited rebels, 59
 Friends, 266
 Frumer, Jenni, 356–357
- Gabelmann, Jodi, 357
 Gender, 34–35, 150–151
 courageous, humbled
 excellence, 35–38
 equality, 83, 93
 identity, 3
 Gendered leadership stereotypes, overcoming, 331–333
 Georgia Smoke Diver (GSD), 158 rocker, 162
 Glick-Smith, Judith L., 358
 Gott, Trisha, 358–359
 Governmental amalgamation,
 177
 Granting leadership, 38
 “Great man” leadership archetype,
 337–338
 Grief, 141–142
 Grounding stage, 114–115
- Hardship Epps, 136–137
 Hedgehog concept, 343, 345
 Heldman, Caroline, 359
 Heroine journey, 114–116
 Hickman and Sorenson’s framework, 22
 Hmong women leaders, 58
 Holy restlessness, 40
 Horizon 2020 program, 87
 Human connection, 329
 Human frailty, 228
 Humility, 33–34, 38–39
 within leadership, 34–35
- Identity, imposter syndrome and,
 307–310
 Ignatian concept, 151
 Illumination, 1
 Imposter syndrome and identity,
 307–310
 Inclusive leadership, 245
- Institute for Democratic Alternatives in Southern Africa
 (IDASA), 122–123
 Intention, 2–3
 Intentional action, courageous, 205
 Interim Director, 36–37
 International Space Station (ISS),
 135–136, 153
 Interpersonal communication, 172
 Intra-board conflict, 224
 Invisible leadership. See also
 Leadership, 21–22
 Invisible privilege condition, 290
- Jodi Gabelmann, 158, 167, 170 background on flow-based leadership, 158–159
 on becoming, 161–165
 on Being second, 159, 171 experiential training program in Fire & EMS, 158
 Jodi’s story, 159–171
 mentors and support systems, 170 struggles, 165–167
 theoretical discussion, 171–172
- Kinnear, Lisa, 360
- Labyrinth, 1–2
 arbitrary turning, 265–272 of courage, 260–263 courageous keys to navigating,
 178–179
 early years of adventure, 266–267
 final journey, 267–271 find peace. find strength. be brave, 271–272
 PTG, 272–275
 Leaders, 43–44, 299–300
 and collective trauma of people, 64–66
 Leadership, 101, 201, 261,
 299–300
 approach, 338

- being transparent and true to self, 223
- challenge, 217–219
- choosing, 337–338
- compassionate, 328–330
- context and leadership-as-practice, 101–102
- courage, 107–108
- courageous, 200–202
- courageous, humbled
 - excellence, 35, 38, 42
- decision to roar, 221
- empowering transformer power model, 119
- humility within leadership, 34–35
- identity, 136–137
- independent win, 102–107
- labyrinth, 136–137
- Linda Sibanyoni’s story, 99–101
- moral compass, 219–221
- organizational leadership, 42–45
- power tensions model, 116–118
- qualities, 300–301
- reflection, 109–111
- scholarly commentary, 223–228
- style, 180–181
- toxic, 226–227
- trust your instincts, 222
- values, 341–342
- Zimbabwe, 98–99
- Leadership-as-practice (L-A-P), 97
 - context and, 101–102
- Learning, 54–55
 - to Air Force Staff Officer, 234–236
 - learning-oriented approach, 342
- Liberation, 54–55
- Liberatory
 - ideology, 42
 - leadership, 43–44
 - model, 42
- Lindsey, Jill, 360–361
- Love, 265–266, 341–342
- Luning, Celeste Raver, 361
- Making sense of experience, 228
- Management, 310–312
- Managing change, 188–190
- Mandate of courage, 5–6
- Mandela Washington Fellowship program (MWF), 104–105
- Manpower and Personnel Command (MPC), 237–238
- Mantra, 277
- Martin, Suzanne Stigler, 362
- “Masculine” leadership, 332–333
- “Me Too Movement”, 149, 202
- Meditation, 274
- Mentors, 121–122
 - stage, 114–115
 - and support systems, 170
- Military
 - military for women, 284
 - service, 279
- Mindful approach, 101
- Mindfulness, 274
 - leadership through, 99
- Moral authority, 224
- Moral compass, 219–221
- Moral courage, 3, 184
- Moss Breen, Jennifer A., 354
- Motivation, 244
- “n-cultural”, 59
- National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), 135–136
- National Intelligence University (NIU), 287–288
- Natural disasters, 66
- New York Times, The*, 85
- Nobel, Donnette, 362–363
- Noble intentions, 2–3
- Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), 122–123
- Nonprofit boards, 216–217
- Nonprofit professional leader, 227

- Officer Training School (OTS), 234
- Oppression, 38–39
- Organizational barriers, 290
- Organizational culture, 305
- Organizational leadership, 42–45
- Organizational life cycle theory, 338
- Organizational success, 224
- Organizational values, 342
- Ortlepp, Karen, 363
- OTR, 54
- Overwhelming emotions, 139–140

- Page, Michael, 363–364
- Pamphlets, 273
- Pandemic, 346–347
- Passion, 88–90
 - in pandemic times, 90–91
 - Passion–Resilience Matrix, 89
- Patriarchal systems, 117–118
- Patriarchy, 116
- Peace, 271–272
- Perfectionism, 13–14
- Perpetrator, 220
- Pervasive gender balance, 79–80
- Physical courage, 3
- Physical training (PT), 162–163
- Pivoting, 287–288
- Political game playing, 128–129
- Political manipulation, 224
- Political transformation, 52–53
- Post-pandemic behavior, 201
- Posttraumatic growth (PTG), 272, 275, 325, 327
- Power, 217
 - power-over, 23–24
 - power-with, 23–24
 - of words, 54–55
- Pride, strengthening, 185–186
- Process, 44
- Product, 44
- Prologue, 114
- Promotional processes, 164
- Protections for courageous, 206–207
- Psychological power, 128
- Psychological trauma, 63

- Public discourse, 54–55
- Public television station, 54

- Race, 34–35
 - courageous, humbled excellence, 38–42
- Racial tensions, 66
- Raver, Sylvie, 364–365
- Reactive role management, 42–43
- Reality, 281–284
- Receiving society, 56–57
- Reception, 1
- Recreational Therapy, 160
- Reflection activity, 94–95
 - continually reflect on your career and life choices, 94
 - developing resilience, 95
 - reflect on youth, 95
- Reframing, 2–3
- Relationship-focused approach, 342
- Researching, 54–55
- Resilience, 88–90
 - developing, 95
 - leads to new beginnings, 147–149
 - in pandemic times, 90–91
- Resiliency, 273
- Resisting change, 114
- Results-driven approach, 342
- Resurrection stage, 115–116, 124–125
- Return to light stage, 115–116, 122–123
- Reversal stage, 115–116
- Risks, 2–3, 206
- Rock to Recovery, 320
 - analysis of Dr Scharff's leadership in loss, 327–333
 - compassionate leadership, 328–330
 - fallen brother, 320–321
 - joining, 321–322
 - leading through loss, 323–325
 - overcoming gendered leadership stereotypes, 331–333

- posttraumatic growth, 325–327
 - reflective questions, 333–334
 - slippery slope toward relapse, 322–323
- Rotterdam School of Management (RSM), 80
- Rules of Order, 199
- Russian Communication Association, 54–55
- Russian consciousness, 51
- Sadness, 138
- Scharff, Constance, 365
- Scholarly commentary, 223, 228, 288, 293
 - board conflict, 224–226
 - courage, 227
 - making sense of experience, 228
 - moral authority, 224
 - toxic leadership, 226–227
- Selection threshold stage, 114–115
- Self-assessment, 237–238, 242–244
- Self-awareness, 243–244, 309
- Self-care, 191
- Self-defense program, 146
- Self-reflection, 309
- Self-regulation, 244
- Self-understanding, 309
- Seruyange, Alisha Damron, 366
- Shaping of courage, 7
- Shared learning, 17
- Shenandoah University, 242–243
- Sibanyoni, Linda K., 366–367
- Single mother, 292–293
- Sisterhood, 88–90
- Sisterhood–Amplification Matrix, 89
- Smoke Diver program, 164
- Social capital, 150–151
- Social courage, 3
- Social skills, 244
- South Africa, 79–80
 - women in, 125
- Speak truth/invite speaking of truth, 244–245
- Speranza, Carly, 367
- Spiritual Exercises*, 145
- Staley School of Leadership Studies (SSLS), 104–105
- Standpoint theory, 38–39
- Stereotypical male behaviors, 340
- Stoplight approach, 16–17
- Stressors, 66
- Suicide, 256
- Sukers, Marie Rex, 113–114, 124
 - elixir stage, 125–126
 - first call to adventure, 120
 - Marie’s courageous leadership journey in her words, 119–126
 - mentor, 121–122
 - new call to adventure, 129–130
 - prologue of heroine, 119–120
 - reflective questions, 130–131
 - resistance to change, 120–121
 - resurrection, 124–125
 - return to light, 122–123
 - theoretical underpinnings, 126–129
- Support systems, mentors and, 170
- Takkenberg, Hanneke, 79–80
- Tempered radicals, 44–45
- Terra Nova, 13, 17, 30
 - academy, 14
 - students in uniform, 18
- Threats, 206
- Tilghman-Havens, Jennifer, 368
- Tolar, Mary Hale, 368–369
- Tolstikov-Mast, Yulia, 369
- Top Gun* (movie), 280
- Toronto Transition Team, 177
- Toxic leadership, 226–227
- Toxicity, 228
- Traditional gender expectations, 33–34
- Tragedy, 272
- Training Command, 235–236
- Transition, 301–303
 - making sense of, 306–312
 - personal tale of, 300–306
 - reflective exercise, 313–315
- Trauma. See also Collective trauma, 62–63

- Truth, speaking truth to power and inviting speaking of, 240–242
- Tucker-Reid, Claire, 370
- Ubuntu, 22
- Under the Tuscan Sun* (movie), 266
- Underground communications, 224
- Unexpected emotional attacks, 254
- United States Whistleblower Protection Act, 202
- Values, 341–342
- Values-based team
 - building, 181–183
 - creating Charter of Engagement, 182–183
 - strengthening values, 183
- Van der Steege, Madeleine, 370–371
- Vision for leadership, 341–342
- Vulnerability, 201, 347
- Vulnerable and courageous process, 172
- Websites, 273
- Well-being, 277
- Wes Geer (Rock to Recovery’s CEO), 320
- Whistleblower, 202
 - whistleblower 1, 203
 - whistleblower 2, 203–204
 - whistleblower 3, 204
- Whistleblowing workplace
 - courage, 204–207
 - courageous intentional action, 205
 - moral goals and conflicts, 205
 - protections for courageous, 206–207
 - risks and threats, 206
- White Fragility, 26–28
- White supremacy, 26–28
- White-identifying person, 40–42
- Whiteness, 26–28
- Woman leader, bicultural identity of, 55–57
- Women, 38, 331
 - as atypical leaders, 331
 - leaders, 117–118, 291
 - in leadership, 312
 - military for, 284
 - as organizational leaders, 340
 - in South Africa, 125
- “Women Courageous”, 1–2, 42
- Women’s Career Day, 161
- Workplace courage, 204–207
- World Health Organization, 66–67
- Wynken, Claire L., 371
- Youth-centered approach, 342
- Zero-tolerance policy for physical punishment, 15
- Zimbabwe, 98–99