

INDEX

- Ableism
 being able, 78–80
 human condition, 80
- Academic readiness,
 77–78
- Academics, 1–2
- Activism, 87–89
- Addiction
 alcohol, 65
 bifurcated consciousness,
 62–63
 culture, 77–78
 and dependency,
 61–62
 digital, 91–92
 primary caregivers,
 63–64
 sociology, 63–64
 steroids, 65
- Alexa, 91–92
- Algorithmic system,
 97–98
- Amazon, 107–109
- Austerity
 consequences, 84–87
- Disability Living
 Allowance (DLA),
 82–83
- Personal Independence
 Payment (PIP),
 82–83
 social policies, 81–82
- Being able, 78–80
- Belonging, 45–49
- Bifurcated consciousness,
 62–63
- Biosocial humans, 35
- Brexit, 22–23, 115–117
- British schooling, 75–77
- Capitalist desires, 45
- Clicktivism, 100–101
- Commodification,
 43–45
- Community activism, 10
- Commuting, 27–34
- Coproduction, 117–118
- COVID-19, 126
- Cyber humanitarianism,
 104–105
- Desire. See Human desire
- Digital activists
 clicktivism, 100–101
 cyber humanitarianism,
 104–105

- disability campaigning, 102
- JusticeforLB, 103
- social media, 99–100
- Twitter, 100–101
- Digital real, 95–96
- Digital subjects
 - algorithms, 95–96
 - digital platforms, 93–95
 - digital real, 95–96
 - Facebook, 96–97
 - mediality, 95–96
 - privacy, 98
- Digital victims
 - e-waste, 107–109
 - gig economy, 107–109
 - online hate crime, 105–106
 - throwaways, 105–106
- Disability, 118–119
 - absence of ability, 75–77
 - curiosity, 16–17
 - and dependency, 66
 - and family, 2
 - non-disabled people, 8
 - psychology, 8–14
 - restorying, 12
 - social class, 25
 - social model, 12
 - social relationships, 4–5
- Disability Discrimination Act, 1995, 30–31
- Disability Living Allowance (DLA), 82–83
- Disabled People Against Cuts (DPAC), 83, 87–88
- Emotionalisation, 43–45
- Employment and Support Allowance (ESA), 83
- Enslavement, 24–25
- Facebook, 5–7, 62–63, 96–97
- Feminism, 10
- Fetishisation, 43–45
- Human dependency, 61–62, 69–70
- Human desire, 117–120
 - belonging, 45–49
 - lacking, 42–45
 - social impact, 41–42
- Human futures, 35–36
- Human independence, 63–64
- Humanism, 26–27, 31–32
- Humanity, 22–23
 - addiction, 61–62
 - dependency, 69–70
 - under duress, 24–26
- iHuman, 36
- Independent Living Skills, 29
- Intellectual disabilities, 26–27, 30–31, 34, 38
- JusticeforLB, 103
- Marginalised humans, 36
- Marxism, 10, 14
- Mental Asylum, 32–33
- Meritocracy, 25–26
- My better half (MBH), 47–48, 59

- Organic intellectuals, 5–7
- Personal Independence
 - Payment (PIP), 82–83
- Political populism, 24–25
- Politics, 14–18
- Posthuman politics, 34, 35–39
- Psychoanalysis, 10
- Psychology, 8–14, 120–122
- Racism, 17–18, 24–25
- Radical pedagogy, 10
- School readiness, 77–78
- Siri, 91–92
- Skype, 58–59
- Social class, 25
- Socialist Workers Party, 14
- Social media, 91–92, 99–100
- Special Educational Needs (SEN), 84
- Temporarily Able-Bodied (TAB), 88–89
- Twitter, 100–101, 124–127
- Uber, 107–109
- Western Capitalism, 14–16