Index

Accessibility of preserved knowledge assets, 55
Accountants, 98, 100
Acme Environment Services, 176
Active preservation, 50
Activities and tasks, 161–165
Aggregation, 92, 165
Archeological curation, 77–78
Archeologists, 77–78
Archeology, 77
Architecture, 124
Archival curation, 76–77
Art History Bibliographers, 78
Artifact, 85
Artificial intelligence (AI), 20
Attitudes and behaviors, 106–107, 110
Availability, 9, 51, 53

Backcasting, 30, 41, 74
Bibliographer, 78–79
Brainstorming, 41
Bright Designs, 132
Broadcast channels, 63–64
Brownstone, 90–91
Business Bibliographers, 78
Business capabilities, 160–161
  activities and tasks, 164–165
  curation tasks, 165–166 knowledge curation as new, 163–167 roles, 166
Business decisions with historical and current knowledge, 129–130
Business environment, 146
Business interlocutor and translator, 177–178
Business knowledge, 55
  analysts, 171–173
Business managers, 100
Business roles, 163
Business use, 51

Capabilities
  and methods, 159
  modeling knowledge preservation as expanded enabling, 161–163 Capital, 98
  assets, 4–5, 98–99
CDB, 87–88
Channel-agnostic, 61
Channels, 59–60
  common communication channels, 62–64
  communication channels, 60–62
  in communication exchange and interactions, 61 living with channels in knowledge economy, 67–68 planning to preserve knowledge in complex channels, 68 representation of knowledge in channels, 66
  scope and scale of complexity, 64–66
Communication channels, 60–62
Competence, 170–171
Competency, 170–171
Conservation, 13–14
  capabilities, 85
Consumability, 56
Content curation, 81
Content distributors, 62
Critical safety engineer, preserving knowledge of, 117–118
Cultural capital, 113

Cultural knowledge, 90–91, 113–114
Culture, 113–114
Curation, 74
  with application architecture layer, 132–133
  architecture, 123
  capabilities with layer cake, 133–136
  case studies, 116
  definitions and characterizations, 74–76
  domains and practices over time, 76–81
  in enterprise architecture, 124–125
  framework for, 144–155
  general observations, 182–184
  guidelines and laws, 75–76
  for individual business units, 136
  in landscape of knowledge capital, 106
  of new knowledge, 93 no curation, 86
  for persistent availability, 88 process, 81–86
  roles, responsibilities, and competencies, 169–170
  for simple accessibility, 89 for simple use without alteration, 90 spectrum, 86–94
  strategies, 141–144
  tasks, 165–166
Curators, 33, 76–78, 132
Curators of Arabic Collections, 78

Data, information, knowledge, and wisdom (DIKW), 3
Data curation, 79
Data preservation, 79
Destruction, 14
Deterministic model, 27
Deterministic thinking, 21–22
Digital access, 55
Digital asset management (DAM), 12, 14
Digital curation, 80–81
Digital files, 47
Digital transformation, 12
Digital twins knowledge preservation, 90
Dissemination, 92, 165
Distillation, 92, 165
Distribution channel, 60
Documentary development on often-overlooked urban designer, 92 Dynamic assessment and refresh component, 153 operationalizing knowledge preservation and curation strategy, 153–154 refreshing knowledge preservation and curation strategy, 154–155

Economists, 100
Elevation, 92, 165
Emerging curatorial process of creation and sense making, 86
Emulation, 11, 84–85
End-of-life cycle model, 12
Enterprise architecture, 124 anchoring knowledge preservation and curation in, 124–125 horizontal view, 126–127 layer cake, 125–126
  vertical view, 125–126
Enterprise knowledge preservation architecture, 127–128
Enterprise-wide curation architecture, 128–133
eResearch curation, 79–80
  common data and, 84–85

Face-to-face channels, 62–63
FB Services, Inc., 28–29
File audit, 85
Financial capital, 98

Financial security surveillance in predictable futures, 28–29
Flexibility, 142
Food preservation, 4
Four-futures strategy, 145 to knowledge preservation and curation, 146–152
Future availability, 9
Future business trends, 25
Future preservation strategy, 15
Future strategies, 141 Future-proofing, 45–46, 61
  business purpose, 49
  challenges of designing future-proofed knowledge preservation strategy, 46–48 cost-effective for business, 51 current and future use, 50 fundamentals of future-proofed knowledge preservation, 48–51 knowledge assets, 49–50
  mechanics of future-proofing knowledge preservation, 51–56
  preservation, 46
  preserved knowledge assets, 53–55
  technology-aware, 50–51
  whole landscape of knowledge assets, 50
Futurists, 100

Google Books, 62

Healthy Plant, 54–55
Horizon paradox, 40
Human capital, 10, 106
  preserving, 106–107
Human resource professionals, 100

Ideal marketing stack, 12
Imagineering, 33, 36
In-person channels, 62–63
Industrial economy, 46–47
  strategic thinking in, 21–22
Information assets, 11
Information management life cycle models, 13
Institutional knowledge capacity, 159
Intangible knowledge, 9
Intellectual capital, 99
Interlocutor, 177
International non-governmental organization (INGO), 87

Key performance indicators (KPIs), 142 Knowledge, 4–5, 48, 59, 97, 99–100
  availability, 51
  critical business knowledge, 54–55 gaps in face of global pandemics, 40–41 knowledge-based strategy, 145 lost knowledge and scientific advancement, 52–53 managers, 33 mobility, 34
  organization, 87
  portfolio applications, 107
  representation of knowledge in channels, 66
  sciences literature, 26
  sharing, 59
  variant economic properties and behaviors of, 101–102
Knowledge assets, 12, 15, 33, 49–50, 61
  developer, 181–182
  guiding questions for knowledge asset futures, 149–150
  preservation, 102–104
  preserved, 53–55
  preserving availability of, 51–53 whole landscape of, 50 Knowledge capital, 10, 99–100
  assets, 146
  challenges to extending preservation and curation strategies to, 104–106

general observations, 120
preservation, 116
preservation and curation in landscape, 106 Knowledge curation, 73–74, 94, 161
capabilities, 159
guiding questions for knowledge curation futures, 151–152 Knowledge curator, 178–181 competence and competency, 170–171
roles, responsibilities, and competencies, 170
Knowledge economy living with channels in, 67–68
strategic thinking in, 21–22
Knowledge preservation, 123, 161
capabilities with layer cake, 133–136
challenges of designing future-proofed knowledge preservation strategy, 46–48 and curation for individual business units, 136
in enterprise architecture, 124–125
framework for, 144–155
for individual business units, 136
professionals, 173
strategies, 142–144
strategy, 23–24
traditional approaches to, 5–7 Known–known future, 25, 27 case study for, 30–31
strategic thinking for, 25–29
strategizing for, 27–33
uncertainties and risks in, 26

Latin American Studies Curators, 78
Legal and regulatory requirements, 5
Library collection curation, 78–79
Lightning Manufacturing, 129–130
LMN, 64–66, 68
Lone professional curator as anchor for knowledge curation team, 180–181
Loss prevention, 6

Middle manager's corporate reputational capital, loss of, 119–120
Migration, 11, 85
Modern content curation process, 85–86
Museum curation, 77
Music Collection Curators, 78

Narration, 85
New collaboration technologies, 90–91
New knowledge assets to fill current business gaps, 93–94

Objectives and Key Results (OKRs), 109
"One size fits all" approach, 10
Optimum strategic approach, 153
Organizational design, 45
Organizations, 4

Persistence, 53
Physical access, 55
Physical assets, 11
Physical capital, 98
Physical communication channels, 63
Potential future value, 11
Preservation, 3, 13, 47, 49, 161
for curation, 7–16 decisions, 48
definitions and characterizations, 4
future availability, 9
general observations, 182–184
of knowledge on early media formats, 66–67
in landscape of knowledge capital, 106
roles, responsibilities, and competencies, 169–170
strategies, 141–142
strategies, 5
Preservationists, 33
Preserved knowledge assets, 53–55, 56
accessibility of, 55
Probabilistic thinking, 22

Procedural capital, 112–113
Procedural knowledge, 112–113
Product information system (PIM), 12
Project management system (PMS), 12 Public records, automated disappearance of, 32

Records life cycle models, 13
Recuration, 85
or curation for understanding, 92
Refreshing, 11
Relational capital, 10, 106
preserving and curating, 114
Relational of network capital, 114–115
Reputation knowledge, 115–116
Reputational capital, 114–116
Research Libraries Group
Conspectus, 79
Research life cycle models, 13
Resilience, 47–48
Right information to the right people, at the right time, in the right context, and the right language (five R's), 6–7

Scattered relational and procedural knowledge related to terrorist attack, 89
Silos of preservation and curation, 166–167
Skills and competencies, 106–109
Slavic Bibliographers, 78
Slices or segments of enterprise architecture layer cake, 126–127
Small family-owned packaging and printing company, 39
Smart Investments Inc., 166–167
Smith Foods, 118–119
Social media communication channels, 64
Specialized knowledge preservationists, 173–176
Spectrum of communication channels, 63
Stakeholders, 160
State-level education agency, 131–132
Strategic management, 102
Strategic methods, 142
Strategic thinking, 19, 142
definitions and characterizations, 20
in industrial and knowledge economies, 21–22 for known–known future, 25–29 strategizing across futures, 41–42
uncertainties in business environment and knowledge landscape, 29–30 understanding futures, 23–25 for unknown–known future, 33–41
Strategy, 141–142
Structural capital, 10, 106
preserving and curating, 111–114
System of record (SOR), 5
Systemic strategy approach, 38
Systems life cycle models, 13

Tacit knowledge, 106–108
Technologists, 100
Telephone communication channels, 63
Text messaging channels, 64
Traceability, 104
Traditional approaches to preserving knowledge, 5–7
Traditional business strategies, 145
Traditional curation process, 81–84
Traditional preservation strategies, 47
Traditional preservation support to business context, 131–132 Traditional strategies, 141 documents, 144
Transactional data, 10

Uncertainties
in business environment and knowledge landscape, 29–30, 34–35, 38 and risks in known–known future, 26

Unknown–known future, 33 disease surveillance and response in, 35–36 missing knowledge to detect known political situation, 36–37
  strategic thinking for, 37–41
  strategizing for, 35–41
  uncertainties in business environment and knowledge landscape, 34–35, 38

Video conferencing communication channels, 64
Visibility, 53–54
Vision for future, 152–153
Vista Education and Training Company, 180–181

Work, 46–47
Workforce, 46–47
Working environment, 46–47