INDEX

African American Policy Forum (AAPF), 157
American women's suffrage mobilization, study of, 118
Anarchists Against the Wall (AAtW), 92, 105
Anti-apartheid student movement, Columbia University, 88 Anti-corruption education, 177 Anti-corruption social movement as entrenched phenomenon, 174–180 opposition and civil society institutions, role of, 183–187 potential and control for dissent, 180–183 role of Internet, 179–180
  in Russia, 180–187
Anti-PX Movement in Xiamen, study of, 10
  data and methods, 15
  impacts of institutional activists on, 17–19
    ENGO, 23–24, 30–31
    local EPB, 21–23
    SEPA, 19–21, 30
    social elites, 24–26
  mobilization period, 16–17 movement outcomes, 27 outcome period, 17
  petition period, 16
  protest period, 17
  relationship between disruptive actions and elite allies, 27–32 violence or police crackdown during protests, 27, 30
Biographical availability, concept of, 226–227
Black Alliance for Just Immigration, 159
Black and transnational feminism, 149
Black Lives Matter (BLM), 145–147 commitment to Black queer feminist human rights movement, 151 cycles of protest, 147–148 decentralized leadership model, 151 framing messages, study of
    data and methods, 154–156
  framing strategies, 148–149, 163 intersectional framing, 148, 150, 152–154 language and, 154
  inclusion of women and LGBTQIA + members, 159 issue of justice, 157
  SisterSong and, 158
  solidarity and commitment, 160 use of traditional protest tactics, 152 use of Twitter, 151, 157–158
Black Power movement, 161–162
Boycott, Divestment, and Sanctions (BDS) movement, 146 Bribery, 174

Chile, protest events in (2000–2012), 63 collective protests, 68 endogeneity and, 80–81

estimated number of protests, 67–68 extent and characteristics of, 66–67 governmental ideology, 71–73 impact on public goods, 73–75 presence of formal organizations, 71 study and findings of attributes of protest events, 77–80
data and methods, 75–78
descriptive statistics, 78 lack of radicalism, 82 regression models, 79–80 relations between institutional and non-institutional politics, 81 rightist parties, absence in collective protests, 82 in terms of demands and tactics, 69 visibility of, 70–71
China's environmental campaign, 13–14
ENGOs, role of, 18–19
history of national environmental protection, 18
impacts of institutional activists on, 17–19
NIMBY protests, 14
provincial and municipal EPBs, role of, 17–18 SEPA and MEP, role of, 17–18 social elites, role of, 19
Civic development theory, 223, 237
Civic volunteerism model of political behavior, 228
Civil Rights Movement (CRM), 147, 161 organizational structure and political agenda of, 148 Collective identity and injustice, 118
Collective memory construction, 182
Collective Russian identity, 174 Combatants for Peace (CFP), 89–90, 92–94 approach and principle, 93, 99 participants in, 93
See also Israeli–Palestinian peace movement; Solidarity in social movement
Commitment to shared goals, 99–103
Communism, 175
Communist Party, 185
Conflict movements against infrastructure, 43 Consensus movements, 41 characteristics of, 43
criteria for, 50–54
crowdfunding as, 43–44
defined, 42
in delivery of PBL network case narrative, 45–49
method, 44–45
disappearance of, 57
implications, 54–57
legitimacy trade-off, 54–55
loss of authenticity, 55 non-contentious tactics, 42–43 supporting infrastructure projects, 41 tactics, 42
Corruption
bureaucratic, 178
endemic, 184–185
as failure of state institutions, 175 forms of, 174–175
household, 175
Medvedev's anti-corruption efforts, 176
Navalny's allegations of, 179 pervasive, 185
political participation in addressing, 177 of power elites, 175–176 Putin's anti-corruption initiatives, 176 role of formal education in challenging, 177 Russian political elites and, 176 utilization for everyday consumption, 175

See also Anti-corruption social movement Critical feminism, 149
Crowdfunding
civic platforms for, 44 community nature of, 44
defined, 43
traditional campaigns, 56
Cullors, Patrisse, 146, 153, 155, 160–161, 163

Denver's protected bike lane (PBL) project, 45–47 challenges, 58
consensus movement criteria, 50, 53–54 construction of 2nd street, 48–49 construction of 1st street, 47–48 crowdfunding campaign, 49, 56
disappearance of, 57
initial assessment of, 47 legitimacy trade-off between social movement organization and local government, 54–55 loss of authenticity, 55–56 partnership between state and social movement, 51–53 resource mobilization, 52–53 support from social movement organization, 52–53
Domestic Workers' Alliance, 159

Elite allies challenges to, 12
defined, 11
in grassroots movements, 13 ideological sympathy for environmentalism, 12 involvement in practice, 12
in social movements, 10–11 state and non-state actors, 11–12 Emotions, role in social movements, 118
Endogeneity, 80–81
Environmental NGOs (ENGOs), 10, 14
Environmental Protection Bureau (EPB), 15
European green parties, 64

Facebook, 178
Free and Open Source Software (FOSS) communities, 214
Friends of Nature, 18

Garza, Alicia, 146, 155, 160, 163
Gay propaganda, 181
Grassroot activism, 11

Household corruption, 175

Indigenous Mapuche protests, 81
Indigenous parties, 64–65
Infrastructure delivery, 40
Infrastructure projects, 40
In-groups, 64
Institutional activism, 11
Institutional actors, 10 in authoritarian regimes, 12 in closed system, 12
in democratization process, 12 in non-democratic societies, 12 oppositional movements or challenges and, 12 primary opponents in China, 13
in social movements, 11–15
Internet users in Russia, 177–178
Interpersonal trust, 175
Israeli–Palestinian peace movement, 88, 92 commitment to shared goals, 99–103
impact of asymmetrical risks, 97–98 mutual solidarity and trust, 101–103 respecting boundaries, importance of, 103–105

risks to Israelis, 100
risks to Palestinians, 100
Issue-based social movements, 43

Japan's environmental campaign, 12–13
Just Russia, 185

Karama Movement, 129
Kenya's Green Belt Movement, 42

Latin American indigenous parties, 64
Liberal Democratic Party of Russia (LDPR), 185
Lifelong openness hypothesis, 223–224

Micro-level civil societies, 184
Mid-life stability hypothesis, 224
Model Soviet citizen, 182
Mothers Against Drunk Driving movement, 42–43

National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), 151
National Development and Reform Commission (NDRC), 13
National Urban League, 151
Navalny, Alexei, 178, 184–187
NIMBY (not-in-my-backyard) Movements, 40–41
NIMBY protests, 14
Non-corrupt behavior, 175
Non-insider opposition, 186
Non-state institutional actors, 11–12

Occupy Wall Street, 239
Online volunteer organizations, 200
Out-groups, 64

Party protest, notion of, 64–65
Political participation attitudes of political protestors compared to non-protestors, 223 factors affecting protest behavior
biographical availability, concept of, 226–227, 230, 238 demographic characteristics and political ideology, 228, 230–231, 238 person's connection to social networks, 225–226, 238
resource mobilization, 227–228, 230, 238 higher-risk forms of, 223 Late Bloomers, 224–225
lifelong openness hypothesis, 223–224
mid-life stability hypothesis, 224
"novices" (first-time protesters), 224 over the life course, 222–225 patterns of, study of
data and methods, 228–231
descriptive statistics, 231–232 discussion, 237–239
multinomial logistic regression model, 234–236 in Soviet Russia, 180
Project-based conflict movements against infrastructure, 40
Project-based social movements, 43, 57, 59
Protected bicycle lane (PBL) network, 41
Protest generation, 222

Resource mobilization theory (RMT), 116–117
RosPil, 178
Russian collective identity, 182
Russian Criminal Code, 181
Russian middle class, 186
Russian opposition movements, 174, 185
See also Anti-corruption social movement; Corruption

Russian school history books, 183
Russia's post-Communist transition, Yeltsin and Putin's reign, 183

Sanctioned civil society, 186
San Francisco parklet program, 42
Social movement society, 64 Solidarity in social movement analysis asymmetrical risks in context of Israeli occupation, 94–96 Combatants for Peace (CFP) (study group), 92–94 commitment to shared goals, 99–103
  impact of asymmetrical risks, 97–98
  methodology, 92–94
  respecting boundaries, importance of, 103–105 trust, importance of, 98–105 measures for, 91
risk-sharing in fostering, 89–91
State-movement allies, 11–12

Ta'ayush, 92
Tactical division of labor, 64
Tea Party Movements, 239
Tometi, Opal, 146, 155, 157–158, 160, 163
Transformational leadership, 185
Transnational women, 149
Trust-building process, 90
Tunisian uprising
  2011 Arab Spring, 179
  background, 119–120
  frame resonance and innovative tactics in conditions for, 118 diagnostic framing processes, 117 evoking collective memory, 127–128 formation of spontaneous riot movements (SRMs), 134–135 forms of defiance, 117
    by General Union of the Tunisian Workers (UGTT), 116, 133–134 motivational framing processes, 117, 125–131 prioritizing institutional demands, 125–127 prognostic framing processes, 117 relationship between resources and mobilization, 116–118 social movement framing processes, 117 social movement organizations (SMOs), importance of, 117, 134 strategy, 116
    by Tunisian Bar Association (TBA), 116 locating protests in coastal regions, 131–133 poverty and poor people, role of, 120–121, 133–135 protests in Sidi Bouzid, 132 resource problem in, 121–123 self-immolation of Bouazizi, 128–129 socio-economic, institutional, and incitement slogans, 124–125, 130

Ukraine's 2014 Euromaidan revolution, 179
US peace movement (1980s), 118

Value commitments, 150
VKontakte, 178
Volunteer organization burnout/dropout, 200–203 factors leading to, 203, 212 phases of, 202

significance of interpersonal conflict, 211–212 Volunteer retention, study of factors influencing, 202–203 interpersonal conflict and, 203, 211, 213–214
method, 207–208
result, 209–211

Well-organized communities, 150
White feminism, 149
Wikimedia Foundation, 200, 204–206, 211–212, 215–216
Wikipedia, 200–201
culture and organization, 201 importance of conflict for, 206–207 leadership in, 206
rate of growth of, 204
retention rate vs active editors (2004–2015), 204 Wikipedia editors, 200–201, 208 actual edits and talk page activities, 209–210 burnout and dropout, 203–207 basic and common reasons for, 208 issues causing conflict and stress, 210 dispute resolution model, 215 edit activity, 207
real life reasons for reducing activity, 210