INDEX

Academia de Humanismo Cristianoi, 100
Action research, 189, 218
  emancipatory action research, 190 tradition, 217
  See also Community-based research (CBR); Engaged research
Action-based theories development with predictive power, 202
Active process-derived phenomenon, 65
Activist criminal justice professionals, 222
Activist professionals cross-pressures, 221–222
  engaged academics as, 216–221
Activists, 44, 46–47, 194, 222–223
All India Democratic Women's Association (AIDWA), 169–170, 171, 172, 173–174, 175
All India Women's Conference (AIWC), 169–170
All That's Left, 45–46
Alliance, 4
  advantaged allies, 219–221
  formation across political divides, implications for, 126–127
Amalgamation, 113
American Sociological Society (ASS), 187
Anarchist movement, 128
Anarchists Against the Wall (AAtW), 50
Anarchists Against Wall, One Struggle, Black Laundry, and Gush Shalom, 45
Anti-capitalist Muslims, 110, 119, 122–123, 124–125
Anti-Communist Argentine Alliance, 98
Anti-communist propaganda, 117
Anti-Muslim scapegoating in the United States, 236
Armed actors, 139, 145–146
  civilians and armed actors, relationships between, 135–136 decision in Samaniego, 141 economic considerations, 152–153
  normative considerations, 151–152 political considerations, 150 security considerations, 150–151
  See also Political violence
Armed rebellion, 20–21
Asef Bayat partitions, 128
Atheism, 93
"Attribution of similarities", 113
Attributional divides, 5
"Authority and credibility", 114
Autodefensas Unidas de Colombia (AUC), 136, 139–140
Autonomous women's groups, 167

Barrier complex, 59
Battered Women's Movement, 163
"Boomerang" strategy, 44
Boundary(ies), 111–115, 235, 236
  blurring, 34, 111–114
    as collective identity formation, 119–125
    in social movements, 114–115
  bridging, 34
  clashing boundary frames, 117–118

collective identity and, 111–115 crossing, 115
exclusionary boundary work of left-wing Islamists, 118–119
framing, 111–112, 115
historical background, 117
inclusionary boundary work, 6, 125–126 between the left and Islam(ism), 117–118
social boundaries, 111, 112, 115, 126
blurring, 120–122
strong identity boundaries, 20–21
symbolic boundaries, 111, 112, 126
blurring, 122–125
transforming, 243
See also "Us versus them" distinction
Boycott Divestment and Sanctions movement, 53–54, 56–57
Bride-burning, 165

Catholic Relief Services, 101
Center for Jewish Nonviolence (CJNV), 45–46, 52
Centre for Women and Development Studies (CWDS), 169–170
Challenging consensus collusion, 201
Chile's Struggle against General Pinochet, 99–101
Church–State Relations, 93
Civil resistance, 94, 135–136
actions, 139–140
literature, 92
Civilians, 139
and armed actors, 135–136, 150
assertion of autonomy, responses to, 140–142
mass mobilizations, responses to, 142–144
Coalition(s), 6, 240–241
formation, theories on, 161–163
Mas'ha coalition, 40, 41, 43–44, 46–51, 54–57
Sumud coalition, 40, 41, 43–44, 45–47, 51–57, 59
transnational coalitions, 40–41, 42–43, 45–54
Collaboration, 161, 186, 187, 206
Collaborative inquiry, 190
Collective identity and boundaries, 111–115
boundary blurring, 112–115
formation, 111–112
implications for research, 125–126
processes of left-wing Islamists, 111
Colonialism and partition, 20–21
Combatants for Peace (CFP), 45–46, 53–54
Comité de Cooperación para la Paz en Chile (COPACHI), 100
Committee on the Status of Women in India (CSWI), 169
Communist Party, 93
Community, defining, 200
Community-based research (CBR), 187, 190–191 advantages and challenges, 195–198 community-based participatory action research (CBPAR), 190 community-based participatory research (CBPR), 190, 196–197 criteria for evaluating methodology, 200–201 criteria for evaluating theoretical contributions, 201–202 criteria for presenting findings, 202–203 defending public space, 192–194 defining community, 200 defining participation, 200
fair lending, 191–192
guidelines for peer review, 198–203

promise of, 194–195
See also Action research; Engaged research; Participatory action research (PAR)
Community-Campus Partnerships for Health, 189–190
"Comuneros del Sur" Front in Samaniego, 147 Conflict of interest, 222–224
political conflict, 95–96, 97, 106
tourism in Northern Ireland, 20–21
transformation, 14, 28, 32
Congregation-based community, 114
See also Community-based research (CBR)
Constitutional Court, 146
"Constriction" poem, 77–78
Contemporary events, 18
Contention, 2, 14, 20–21, 111–112, 166, 173
across Brazilian youth activist networks, 163
repertoires of, 123–124, 125
Contestation contribution to society, 237–239
Contextual factors, 16
Convergence, 4
Cooperation, 171
cooperation formation, theories on, 161–163
for demonstration campaigns, 172–173 across different women's groups, 178–179
Credentialed class, 222–223
Criminal justice, 213–214, 215 professionals, 214–215, 220, 222, 224
Criminal Law Amendment Act (1983), 173, 174
Cross-pressures of activist professionals, 221–222
Culturalism, 3–4
"Culturally appropriate" services, 223
"Death squads", 101
Dependent measures, 22
"Dirty war" in Argentina, 96–99
Divergence, 4
Divide(s), 1–3
coalitions, bystanders, and community, 240–242 contribution to society, 237–239
listening and sharing across, 224–227 study of, 235–237
studying and researching, 3–4 transforming rather than erasing, 239–240 types, 4–7
See also Alliance formation across political divides, implications for; Attributional divides; Epistemological divides; Ideology, divides; "Us versus them" distinction
Doğu Konferansları (East Conferences), 120, 121
Doğudan (From the East), 120, 121
Domestic violence, 165, 174
"Dowry-deaths", 165

"Egalitarian" messages, 76
El Salvador, 101–103
Emotional resonance, 16–17, 27
Empirical credibility, 16
Engaged academics as activist professionals, 216–221 advantaged allies and professional intersections, 219–221 amplifying marginalized voices, 226–227 conflicts of interest, 222–224 listening and sharing across divides, 224–227
Engaged methods in interdisciplinary fields, 188–190

Engaged research, 187, 188, 190, 205
See also Action research; Community-based research (CBR)
Engaged scholarship, 190
Epistemological divides, 5, 6–7
Equality, 66–67, 81–82
Ethnic stratification, 20–21
Ethnic-based competition, 20–21
Evaluation standards, 201
Evangelical left in US, 110–111
Ex post facto explanations, 202
Exclusionary boundary work of left-wing Islamists, 118–119
Experiential commensurability, 16, 25
"Experts in practice", 188–189
"Experts in theory", 188–189
External scrutiny, responses to, 145–147

Fair lending, 191–192
Fatah, 45, 50, 59
Feminist movement, 128
"Focused coding", 116–117
Folk assemblage, 16
Formidable walls. See Peacelines Frame(s)/framing activity, products of, 65
alignment shift, 75, 79–80
amplification, 63–64, 65–67, 72–75
bridging, 65–66
collective action frames, 65
extension, 65–66, 82–83
justice frames, 66
potency, 16–20
of paramilitary-themed murals, 25–28 reform frames, 66
reframing strategies, 18–19
in social movements, 64–70
strategic frame alignment, 63–64
transformation, 63–64, 65–66, 67–68, 75–81
variations, 67–68
"Freedom summer", 2, 96

Gaza Strip, 40, 41
Geographic information systems (GIS), 22
Geospatial analysis of contextual factors, 28–32 political context, 28–30
socioeconomic context, 30–32
Gezi Park, 124–125
Global North, 42–43, 44–45, 56, 190, 194–195
Global South, 42–43, 44–45, 56, 194–195
"Great chain of nonviolence" theory, 135–136
Guerrillas, 140, 144–145, 146, 152

Heretics, 127
Historicization, 16, 18
Historicized PSDs, 18
Holy Land Trust (HLT), 45–46, 53–54
Homeless bill of rights (HBOR), 193
Homogenous collectively-oriented "community", 223–224
Human resources, deprivation of, 144–145

Identity
appeal, 16–17, 26
for critique, 115
movements, 115
Ideology, 90–91
commitments, 90
congruence, 126–127
divides, 5, 6
Initiators, 49
International solidarity
activists, 43–44
campaigns, 49
movement, 45, 49
International Women's Peace Service (IWPS), 45, 49, 50
International Workers' Day of 2012 in Istanbul, 110

Islamic funeral prayer. See Salat al-janazah
Israel/Palestine, 52

Jagori, 168–169, 175, 178–179
JASS, 204
Joint Action Committee against Rape and Sexual Harassment, 172
Justice and Development Party (AKP), 117, 121–122, 124–125

Kanlı Pazar (Bloody Sunday), 110
Karmika (Women's groups), 168, 171, 173–174
Kemalism, 117, 119
Kemalists, 119
Knowledge, 195
  enhancement through practice, 202 integration of multiple forms and sources of, 201 oppositional, 235–236
Kurdish liberation movement, 128

Labor & Justice Platform, 122
Land Defense Committee, 45, 47
Las Mercedes, 137, 138, 139–140
  external actors' role, 146 groups' acceptation, 141–142 importance for insurgents to win civilians, 143
  See also Armed actors; Civilians
Lavender menace, 67–68
Left-wing Islamists in Turkey, 110–111, 113–114 alliance formation across political divides, implications for, 126–127 boundary blurring as collective identity formation, 119–125 collective identity, implications for research on, 125–126 collective identity and boundaries, 111–115
  data and methods, 116–117
  exclusionary boundary work, 118–119 political polarization and heretical social movements, implications for, 127–128 sketching boundaries between left and Islam(ism), 117–118 LGBT
  LGBT-affirming religious groups, 110–111
  movements, 114, 115, 128
Liberation sociology, 217
Local community, 222–223

Mahalles, 116–117, 120–121, 122, 125
Mahila Atyachar Virodhi Jan Andolan (MAVJA), 176–177
Maney, Greg, 1, 4–7, 15, 198, 204, 207, 213–214, 235
Maraş Katliamı (Maraş Massacre), 110
MARG (Women's group sector), 169, 171, 175, 176
Marginalized voices, amplifying, 226–227
Marxist
  ideology, 90
  revolution, 94–95
Mas'ha coalition, 40, 41, 43–44, 46–51
  paths and patterns, 54–57
Mass mobilizations, 20–21, 143–144
Material resources, deprivation of, 144–145
McCarthyism, 187
Meso-level contextual factors, 19–20
Military peace movement, 110–111
Milli Görüş movement, 121–122
Miraç Kandili, the, 124–125
Mixed-method research designs, 197–198
Mono Sergio, 147
Montoneros, 97–98, 99

Moral authority, 16–17, 27
"Moral dependence" of oppressors, 136
Moviemento de Sacerdotes para el Tercer Mundo (MSTM), 98
Multiple memberships, 122–123
Murals, 13–14
  academic analyses, 15
  Loyalist paramilitary murals, 14–15, 24, 26, 27–28
  mural-making, 19
  non-paramilitary-themed Murals on Peaceline, 25 in Northern Ireland neighborhoods, 13–16, 18–19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24–26, 29–31, 34, 237 paramilitary-themed murals, frame potency of, 25–28
  Republican and Loyalist paramilitary murals, 24
  See also Public symbolic displays (PSDs)
Muslim feminists in Indonesia, 110–111
Muslim Left, the, 121

Narrative fidelity, 16, 25–26
National Assembly, 103
National Federation of Indian Women (NFIW), 172
National Liberation Army (ELN), 134–135, 136–138, 139–140, 144–145
National Organization of Women (NOW), 70
National Women's Party, 70
Nationalist cultures, 15
Negotiation, 134, 140–142
"Neo-Kemalist", 119
Neoliberal Islamism, 118–119
Non-Muslim action, 110
Nonviolent/nonviolence, 6, 15–16, 20–21
  resistance, 135, 136, 137
  revolutionaries, 91
  revolutions, religion in, 91–96
Northern Ireland, 19
  Belfast Interface Project, 23
  Belfast/Good Friday Agreement (BGFA), 15, 27 conflict tourism in, 20–21
  political violence in, 20
  PSDs in, 20–21, 22
Northern Ireland Multiple Deprivation Measure 2010 (NIMDM 2010), 23–24
Northern Ireland Mural Mapping Project (NIMMP), 15, 24, 28
Northern Ireland Peace Monitoring Report, 23
Northern Ireland Statistics and Research Agency (NISRA), 23–24

Opportunity, 40–41
Oppositional knowledge, 235–236
Oppressive Islamism, 118–119
Organization of American States (OAS), 139–140, 146 Organizational
  changes, 68
  diversity, 160
  identities, 162, 164
  niches, 162–163
  specialization, 160, 162–163
  ties, 165–166

Palestinian Agricultural Relief Committees, 45
Palestinian anti-occupation organizations, 45–46
Palestinian Environmental NGO Network, 45
Palestinian People's Party, 45
Palestinian Popular Committee of South Hebron Hills, 45–46
Palestinian-Israeli anti-occupation camp, 45–46
Palestinian-led camps, 40–41

Palestinian-led joint nonviolent movement, 40, 52–53
struggle against wall, 45
Paramilitary(ies)/paramilitarism, 14, 18, 23, 24–25, 26, 27–30, 32–33, 134–135, 136–137, 146, 152
paramilitaries and peace, 15–16
vigilantism, 20–21
See also Murals; Public symbolic displays (PSDs)
Participation, defining, 200
Participatory action research (PAR), 190
participatory inquiry, 190
participatory research, 189
Patronage, 103–104
Peace
culture, 236, 242
paramilitaries and, 15–16
peacelines, 19, 23
non-paramilitary-themed Murals on, 25
in West Belfast, 30
peace movement organizations, 6, 236 processes, 18, 21, 27, 32, 34
territories, 133–134, 135–136
civilians' assertion of autonomy, responses to, 140–142 civilians' mass mobilizations, responses to, 142–144
external scrutiny, responses to, 145–147
potential deprivation of human and material resources, responses to, 144–145 rhetorical traps, responses to, 147–148
social distance pressure, responses to, 148–149
Peasant Worker Association of the Carare River (ATCC), 133, 134–135, 137, 142–143, 145–146
and armed actors, 148
assertion of autonomy, 140
civilians and armed groups, relations between, 139
People's Liberation Army, 139–140
Personal ties, 165–166, 178–179
Philadelphia Mural Arts Program, 35
Pious LGBT activism, 110–111
Poems/poetry, 68–70
Political context
of geospatial analysis, 28–30
of PSDs, 19–20
Political environment, 160, 161–162
Political opportunity structure, 161–162
Political polarization, implications for, 127–128
Political violence, 15, 17–18, 20 collective identities and, 34
historicization, 18
indiscriminate violence, 104–105
in Northern Ireland, 20
See also Armed actors; Radical flanks
Popular Committee of the South Hebron Hills, 54, 59
Popular Revolutionary Army (ERP), 97–98
Principle of categorization, 113
Pro-choice Catholics, 110–111
Pro-life feminists, 110–111
Pro-nuclear environmentalists, 110–111
Probability probes, 97
"Process of National Reorganization", 98
Profane, 119
Professional intersections, 219–221
Protest events, 123–124
Public Science Project, 189–190
Public sociology, 190
Public space, 192–194

Public Spaces Survey, 193, 194
Public symbolic displays (PSDs), 13–14
  case selection, 20–21
  commemorative PSDs, 25–26
  findings, 24–32
  frame potency, 16–20
  Loyalist paramilitary PSDs, 27–28 measures and data sources, 22–24
  meso-level contextual factors, 19–20
  multiple PSDs, 25–26
  non-paramilitary-themed PSDs, 22, 29–30
  and output areas by multi-deprivation measure level, 31 and output areas by religious segregation level, 33 painting paramilitaries and peace, 15–16
  paramilitary PSDs, 15–16, 17–18, 27, 28–29, 30
  paramilitary-themed PSDs, 16
  reframing strategies, 18–19
  Republican PSDs, 25–26
  research design, 21–22
  social context, 19–20
  ubiquitous PSDs, 18
  See also Murals

Quran, 122–123

Radical flanks, 94–95
  negative flank effect, 94–95
  positive flank effect, 94–95
  violent flanks, 94–95
  See also Armed actors; Political violence
Radical reconstitution, 81
Relationalism, 3–4, 96
  See also Collaboration; Cooperation; Social networks; Social ties Religion, 117–118
  conscience face of, 123
  environmental factors, 93–96
  factors affecting religious elites' willingness, 104
  as ideology, 91
  opium face of, 123
  relational ties to aggrieved population, 96
  religious ideologies, 90–91
  research design, 96–97
  in social movements and nonviolent revolutions, 91–96
  structural factors, 93
Repression, 20–21
  state repression, 95–96
Resource diversity, 160
Resource exchange, 160–161
  cooperation among New Delhi's women's groups, 167–178 evolution of social ties, 167–178 method and data collection, 164–166 theories on cooperation and coalition formation, 161–163
Revolutionary Armed Forces of Colombia (FARC), 134–135, 136–138, 139–140, 141–142, 150
Rhetorical traps, responses to, 147–148
Rivalry, 4
Roman Catholic population, 97
Roman Catholicism, 91

Sabla Sangh (Women's groups), 167–168, 172, 175
Sacred vs. profane framework, 117–118
Saheli (Women's groups), 167, 167–168, 171, 172, 173–174
Salat al-janazah, 110

Samaniego, 137–138
armed actors' decision, 141
civilians and armed groups, 139
residents, 140–141, 144, 146, 148
"Sati", 165
anti-sati agitation, 177
signature campaign, 176
Anti-Sati Act of 1987, 176–177
Commission of Sati (Prevention) Act, 176
Joint Action Committee Against Sati (JACAS), 176
Rani Sati Mandir Trust of Jhunjhunu, 176–177
Sati Virodhi Sangharsh Samiti (SVSM), 176
Scholarship, 4–5, 6
Scope enlargement, 47–54
"Sectarian" murals, 19
Self-governance, 168
Separation barrier, 59
Sisters opposing abusive relationships (SOAR), 189
Sivas Katliamı (Sivas Massacre), 110
Social beliefs, 72–73
Social boundaries, blurring, 120–122
See also Boundary(ies)
Social distance pressure, responses to, 148–149
Social movements, 5, 6–7, 68–69, 94, 160, 203, 223–224, 238–240, 242 anti-occupation movement, 51–52
Battered Women's Movement, 163
boundary blurring in, 111–112, 114–115
coalitions, 6
framing in, 64–70
Hapa movement, 115
heretical social movement, 110–111
implications for, 127–128
organizations, 110–111, 115
Indian's women's movement, 166, 171–172
literature, 69–70, 125–126
messages, 69
religion in, 91–96
research, 185
scholars, 186
social movement organizations (SMOs), 63–64, 65, 66, 67–68, 76, 81
theory, 217–218
See also Women's movement
Social networks, 43
Social ties, 41–42, 43, 45–46, 54, 55, 58, 121, 160–161, 165–166, 179–180
among women's organization in New Delhi, 170
with armed actors, 152–153
and coalition formation, 163, 166
cross-cleavage alliances, 126–127 evolution of, 167–178
mapping relevant actors and, 167–171
See also Relationalism
Socialist movement, 128
Socialized heterofemininity, 80
Society for Study of Social Problems (SSSP), 187, 188, 204
"Somos ATCC", 145
Songs, 68–70
South Hebron Hills, 45–46, 54
Standing Rock, 52
Strategic specialization, 162–163
Street brokers, 222–223
Stri Sangharsh (Women's groups), 167–168, 172, 173, 174
Structuralism, 3–4
Study of social problems (SSSP), 204
Suffrage, 72, 73
Sumud coalition, 40, 41, 43–44, 45–47, 51–54, 58, 59
paths and patterns, 54–57
Superior vs. inferior framework, 117–118
Suppression, 16, 18–19
Symbolic funeral prayer, 124
Systematic alteration, 81

Ta'ayush and Rabbis for Human Rights, 45–46
Temporal emphasis, 122–123
Third World Priest Movement, 98
Threat salience, 16–18
"Towards Equality", 169
Tradition nurtured in opposition, 187–188
Translational research, 190
Transnational coalitions, 40–41
  Mas'ha coalition, 47–51
  methods and coalitions studied, 45–47
  Sumud coalition, 51–54
  theory, 42–45
"Troubles, The", 20–21
2001 Northern Ireland Census, 24

Ulster Volunteer Force murals (UVF murals), 26, 28
Unacceptable "other", 119
University-based movement researchers, 186
Urban Research Based Action network (URBAN), 186, 189–190, 198–199, 204
"Us versus them" distinction, 111–112, 113

Vishaka guidelines, 177, 177
Voter Registration Act, 94

West Bank, 40, 41, 55
West Belfast, 19
  paramilitary PSDs and peacelines in, 30
  PSDs in, 20–21, 22
  See also Murals; Public symbolic displays (PSDs)
Women's groups in New Delhi, 165 cooperation among, 167–178
  emergence and core activities, 168 first phase, (1978–1982), 171–174
  second phase (1983–1989), 174–176
  social ties among, 170
  third phase (1990s), 176–178
Women's movement, 64
  data and methods, 70–72
  framing message in, 64–70
  narratives, 72–81
  organizational goals and framing processes, 67
  songs and poems, 68–70
  See also Social movements

Yeni Siyaset Girişimi (New Politics Initiative), 121
Yeryüzü İftarları (Earth Tables), 125, 127
Yobaz (bigot), 117–118
Youth Against Settlements (YAS), 45–46, 53–54, 59