

INDEX

- ABC, 25–26
- Advocacy, 92
 - for reparations, 20–21
- African Diaspora social movements, 20–21
- Alternatives for Community and Environment (ACE), 46–48
- American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), 67
 - in combatting police violence, 67–70
 - of Missouri, 79
- American Civil Liberties Union of Eastern Missouri (ACLU/EM), 67, 69–70, 72, 74
- American Descendants of Slavery Advocacy Foundation (ADOS Advocacy Foundation), 24
- American Friends Service Committee (AFSC), 126–127
- Animal rights, 16
- Anti-capitalist politics, 19–20
- Anti-imperialist politics, 19–20
- Anti-prison movement, 88
- Anti-racist politics, 19–20
- Anti-war efforts, 16
- Armed conflict, 142
- Authoritarian regime, 174–175, 177
- Average marginal effects (AMEs), 153–155

- Backlash effect, 178, 186
- Bakersfield, 123–125
- Black anti-colonial struggle, 18–19
- Black Feminist tradition, 16–17
- Black freedom struggle, 18–19
- Black Lives Matter (BLM), 1
 - Global Network organization, 27–28
 - historical and theoretical correctives, 2–6
 - protests, 2
 - racialized issues, 3–5
 - space as identity, 5–6
- Black Panther Party, 20
- Black Power, 2–3
 - demobilization, 20
 - movements, 11–12
- Black Radical Tradition, 14–15
- Black social movements, 13–17
- Black Studies, 3, 12–13
- “Border Protection, Antiterrorism, and Illegal Immigration Control Act” of 2005, 110
- Boston Workers Alliance (BWA), 47–48
- Building Healthy Communities (BHC), 122–123

- Campaign endurance, 113–114
- Carceral state, 16
- Central Valley. See San Joaquin Valley of California
- Chile, 174, 180, 183
- Chinese Progressive Association (CPA), 46–48
- Christian Democrats Party (CDP), 181–182, 190
- Churches, 113
- Citizenship, 4–5
- City Life Vida Urbana (CLVU), 46–48
- Civil rights, 17–20
- Civil Rights Movement (CRM), 2–3, 11–13, 17–18, 20
- Class, 2
 - positioning, 6
- Classical studies, 143
- Climate change, 142

- definitions, data, and preliminary evidence, 146–152
 - evidence, 152–165
 - literature review and motivation, 143–146
- CNN, 25–26
- Coalitions, 114–115
 - lack of, 122–123
- Coercive repression, 19–20
- Collective action, 113
- Combahee River Collective, 16–17
- Communist Party of Chile (CPCh), 181–182
- Communities for a New California (CNC), 122–123
- Community based organizations (CBOs), 123
- Community organizing, 114, 121
- Computer-assisted data analysis, 5
- Conflict, 146
- Congregations Building Communities (CBC), 124
- Congressional H.R.40 Cosponsor
 - Signatures, 26–27
- Congruence Model, 38–39
 - analysis, 44
- Consumer Price Index (CPI), 186
- Criminal justice system, 3–4
- Critical race theory, 3, 38
- Critical Race Theory/Intersectionality
 - framework (CRT/I framework), 38–39
 - data collection, 39
- Cronbach's alpha test, 45
- “Crowding out” hypothesis, 90
- Culture, 11–12
- Cycles of mobilization, 178

- Demand for more favorable
 - conditions, 143
- Democratic Alliance (DA), 181–182
- Dependency, 90–91
- Deservingness of police violence, 80
- Development, 149
 - Development, Relief, and Education for Alien Minors Act (DREAM ACT), 117
- Devolution, 88
- Dirty Wars, 181
- Disability rights, 16
- Dispossession, 14–15
- Durbin–Watson statistic, 151–152
- Dynamics of Contention (DAC), 183–184

- Econometrics, 142
 - analysis, 5–6
- Economic grievance, 143
- Emancipatory social movements, 12–13
- Environmental issues, 16
- Ethnic dominancy, 143
- Ethnic fragmentation, 148
- Ethnic heterogeneity, 148
- Ethnicity, 2, 4–5
 - operation, 2
- Executive Director (ED), 44

- Fatal police shootings, 72
- Fatal-Encounters (FE), 72–73
- FBI COINTELPRO program, 20
- Fraternal Order of Police, 79–80
- Frente Indígena de Organizaciones Binacionales (FIOB), 126–127
- Fresno, 125–130

- Gay and lesbian rights, 16
- GDP growth, 149
- “General Strike” of enslaved men and women's mass desertions, 14–15
- Geographical information system (GIS), 66, 74
- Global policy agenda, 142
- Government-funded nonprofits, 90–91
- Grassroots organizers, 112–113

- Haitian Revolution of 1791, 14–15

- Homeland Security Chairman Peter King (R-NY), 110
- Hometown Associations (HTAs), 113
- House Judiciary Chairman James Sensenbrenner (R-WI), 110
- House of Representatives Bill 4437 (HR 4437), 110, 112, 119, 126
- Immigrant service organizations, 113
- Immigrant Spring of 2006, 109–110
- Immigration, 121
- Imperialist accumulation, 16
- Intercept, The*, 25–26
- Intermediate level campaign endurance, 123–125
- Internal armed conflict, 146
- Internal consistency and reliability for RC surveys, 45
- International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP), 79–80
- Interrupted Time Series analysis (ITS analysis), 185, 187, 190–191
- Intersectionality, 3, 38
- Labor super-exploitation, 16
- Labor unions, 113
- Latino Community Roundtable (LCR), 124
- Latinos in Central Valley, 117–118
- Leadership Team (LT), 44
- Legal estrangement, 70–71
- Logit model, 153–155
- Looting, 143
- Macro-historical processes, 11–12
- Macro-level theorizing of race in social movements, 12–13
- Manuel Rodríguez Patriotic Front (MRPF), 182
- Marronage, 14–15
- Marxist analysis, 13–15
- May Day protests, 128
- McAdam's approach, 17–18
- Mediating structures, 89
- Memorialization, 2
- Mexican American Political Association (MAPA), 127
- Microclimates of racial meaning, 70–71
- Mobilization, 174, 176
in authoritarian Chile, 180–183
in authoritarian regimes, 175–177 measuring impact of repression over mobilization, 183–187
- Modesto, 123–125
- Movement for Black Lives (M4BL), 27 policy platform, 16
- Music, 11–12
- National Coalition for Reparations in America (N'COBRA), 23
- National Days of Protests (NDPs), 181
- National police reform, 2
- Nationalistic grievance, 143
- Neighbors United for a Better East Boston (NUBE), 47–48
- New England United for Justice (NEU4J), 47–48
- New Social Movements (NSMs), 16, 38
New York Times, The, 25–26
“No” campaign, 182
- Nonprofit organization, 88
- Nonprofit prison reentry organization, 88–89, 91
case and methods, 91–93
findings, 93–100
- Nonviolent civil resistance in authoritarian contexts, 176–177
- OLA RAZA, 121
- Organizational ethnography, 93
- Organizational structures, 37–39
- Organizational theory, 3, 38
- Organizations, 38–39, 113
- Peace fragility, 148
- Peace Research Institute Oslo (PRIO), 146

- People Improving Communities
 through Organizing
 (PICO), 124
- People's Democratic Movement
 (PDM), 181–182
- Per Capita GDP, 149
- Perpetual militarism, 16
- Pinochet, 181–182
- Police Practice Inventory (PPI), 71
- Police violence, 4, 66
 current study, 72
 historical and current persistence, 67–70
 measuring, 71
 methods, 72–73
 results, 73–79
- Policy threats, 111–112, 119–120
- Political Coordinator (PC), 44
- Political instability, 147–148
- Political opportunities, 11–12, 17–18
 structure, 111
- Political pacification, 93–94
- Political process model, 17–18
- Population, 148–149
 size under threat, 112–113
- Postindustrial neoliberalism, 16
- Poverty, 66
- Power, 6
- Praxis, 11–12
- Preexisting organizations, 113–114,
 120
- Prison reentry, 88–89
- Prison rehabilitation nonprofits, 4
- Privatization, 88
- Protest, 6
 campaigns, 176–177
 cycle, 178
- Protest–Repression nexus, 174
 measuring impact of repression
 over mobilization, 183–187 mobilization and repression in authoritarian Chile,
 180–183
 repression and mobilization in authoritarian regimes, 175–177
 results, 187–191
 time dynamics in, 177–180
- Proto-racialization processes, 14–15
- Qualitative analysis, 43–44
- Qualitative findings, 45
- Race, 2, 4–5, 38, 72
 operation, 2
 in social conflict and social movements, 1
- Racial capitalism, 13, 17, 20
 historical sociology, 13–17
- Racial directions, 13–14
- Racial dynamics, 13
- Racial justice, 2
- Racial/ethnic minority, 67
- Racialized issues, 3–5
- Racism, 2
- Racist police humor, 70
- Radical Black internationalism, 19–20
- Regime durability, 147–148
- Relational coordination survey
 analysis, 44–45
- Relational Coordination Theory
 (RCT), 38–40
- Religious reform, 143
- Reparation movement, 20–28
- Repertoires of contention, 14–15
- Repression, 6, 174–176
 in authoritarian Chile, 180–183
 measuring impact of repression
 over mobilization, 183–187
 and mobilization in authoritarian regimes, 175–177
- Republic of New Africa, 20
- Resource mobilization, 11–12
- Reverse racism, 21–22
- Revolutionary Action Movement, 20

- Revolutionary Left Movement (MIR), 183
- Right to the City Alliance (RTCA), 38, 41, 43
 - building, 45–46
 - organizational history and structure, 45–48
 - organizational structures, 46–47
 - socio-structural patterns within, 53–54
 - work, 48–50
- Right to the City Boston (RTCB), 38, 41, 43, 46
 - coalition member groups, 47–48
 - organizational structures, 46–47
 - socio-structural patterns within, 53–54
 - work, 48–50
- Right to the City National (RTCN), 43
- Right to the City Vote (RTCv), 46–47
- Rough terrain, 143, 148
- RTC membership processes, 47–48

- Safe*, 89, 91–92, 96–97, 101–103
 - selfish program, 94–96
 - staffers' politics, 99–100
 - surrogate representation, 97–99
- Sampling bias, 142
- San Joaquin Valley of California, 110
 - comparative case studies, 117–118
 - infrastructural dimensions, 113–115
 - intermediate level campaign endurance, 123–125
 - low enduring mobilization cities, 118–123
 - methods, 115–117
 - sustained mobilization cities, 125–130
 - threats and immigrant collective action, 111–113
- Slave patrol systems, 66

- Snowball sampling technique, 117
- Social identity, 42–44
- Social justice perspective, 40–41
- Social location, 42–44
- Social Movement Organizations (SMOs), 37–39, 43, 120
 - analytic approaches, 43–45
 - data collection, 41–42
 - organizational and socio-structural frameworks, 39–40
 - organizational findings, 48–53
 - research methodology, 40–43
 - social justice perspective, 40–41
 - socio-structural findings, 53–57
 - study and accountability, 57–59
- Social movements, 37–38, 88–89, 177
 - analysis of racial justice movements, 3–4
 - campaign, 109–110
 - repression, 11–12, 17, 20
 - scholars, 2–3, 20
 - scholarship, 111
 - theory, 38
- Social position, 42–44
- Social ties and networks, 11–12
- Socio-structural patterns within RTCA/B, 53–54
- Sociological study of Black mobilization, 17–18
- Sociology of social movements, 12–13
- Space as identity, 5–6
- STATA, 45
- Stockton, 125–130
- Storytelling, 11–12
- Strategic Action for a Just Economy (SAJE), 46
- Surrogate advocacy, 89
- Sustained mobilization cities, 125–130

- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), 55
- Threats, 110

- Time dynamics in protest–repression
nexus, 177–180
- Triangulation, 72
- UC Merced Community and Labor
Center (CLC), 122–123
- United Farm Workers (UFW),
120–121
- Uppsala Conflict Data Program
(UCDP), 146
- Urban spaces, 4–5
- US Civil Rights Movement, 17–18
- US internal stability, 19–20
- Vicariate of Solidarity, 174
- VOX, 25–26
- Waves of contention, 178