INDEX

Note: Page numbers followed by "n" indicate notes.

Abductive approach, 170
Acts of reconstruction, 165, 181
Ad hoc creation, 121–122
Advertising agency, 212
Agency, 120
Agent of change, 188
Agglomerative nesting technique, 49
Agreement, 273
Ambiguity, 190–191
  changing context, 214–215 of creative assessments, 211, 214 creative identity and threats, 216 different judges, 215
Ambiguous zones, 190–191
Amphibious artists, 95
Amplification, 23
Analytic approach, 98–99
  for understanding occupation of innovation experts, 191–192
Annency Animation Festival, 68
Anxiety, 141, 147–148
Art, 20, 25 history, 26
  modern, 21, 25, 33
Artifacts, 43
Artistic representation, principles of, 20
Artists, 144
Arts and sciences, 94–95, 121
Arts festivals, 66 analytic approach and data, 69–71
  findings, 71–84
  temporally configuring creative fields, 67–69
Asset for creativity, 119
Atlas.ti, 98
Audiences, 43, 92–93
  engaging external reviewers with selective opacity, 104–106 evaluations of quality in arts and sciences, 94–95
  findings, 99–106
  literature review, 93–95
  methods, 95–99
  music production and cancer research, 96–97 navigating competing perceptions of quality in creative process, 93–94 negotiating quality and expertise with internal peers, 100–102 reflecting audiences in creative process, 108–110 strategic presentation of work in progress to extended community, 102–103 technically perfect, processed and ideal vs. empirically grounded, unprocessed and real, 108 tension between ideal vs. real, 99–106
Authenticity, 272
Average silhouette method, 49

Becoming lens, 191–192, 197–199
Berlin arts festivals, 80
Berlin Film Festival, 70, 74
Berlin International Film Festival, 80
Berlin Jazz Festival (1964), 70
Berlin Jazz Festival, 83
Berlin Musikfest (1951), 70
Berlin Theatre Competition, 75
Berlin Wall, 83

Berlinale (see Berlin Film Festival)
Berliner Theatertreffen (1964), 70–71
"Best fit" in cancer research, 98, 100
Big corporations, 121
Black Square, 30–31
"Blue mood" paintings, 28
Brainstorming, 120
Bridging positions, 190
British Industrial Revolution, 21
Burning Man, 67

Cancer research, 96–97
CancerStop, 127
Career-level consecration, 43
Careers spanning categories, 42, 57
Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), 75
Chief strategy officers, 188
Chief technology officers, 188
Circumventing regulatory uncertainty, 145–147
Cluster analysis, 46
Coaches, 188
Code-mixing, 176–177
Coding practices and emotions according to professional groups, 149–151
Cognitive approaches, 139
Collaborations, 123 in projects, 254–255 Communication, 10, 251 as contextual process, 273–274 as coordination of action, 272
  coupling of knowledge utilization and communication, 261–262
  evaluations, 277–279 internal and outward communication, 258–261
  narratives, 257
  as performative speech acts, 271–272
  storytelling, 257–258
  themes, 256–257
  use of, 255–261
Communicative action, 268, 270, 272, 275
Communicative feedback processes, 268
Communicative spheres for creativity, 279–282
Comparative designs, 11
Comparative ethnography, 93
Configurational approach, 236–237
Congress for Cultural Freedom (CCF), 75
Consecration, 40
  empirical setting, data and method, 45–50
  results, 50–55
  theory and hypothesis, 41–44
Contextual coding, 148
Coordination, 282 communication as coordination of action, 272 Core, 20, 23 actors, 139
  borrows, 23
  core-periphery network structure, 21 of social structure, 22 theory, 21–25
Creative action, 268, 274–275
Creative agency, 164, 167–169, 173–181
Creative assessment ambiguity, 214–221
Creative breakthroughs, 117
Creative chaos, 5
Creative collaboration, 116–117, 120 processes of, 118
  push-and pull-regimes of creative collaboration, 121 utilizing uncertainty in organizing, 124–132
Creative deviance, 5
Creative ideas, 243–244, 268
  communicative perspective on feedback on, 270–275 feedback on, 275–282 Creative identity, 44, 208 ambiguity of creative assessments, 211
  defending, 217–218
  differentiating, 219–221

emotional distancing, 218–219
identity work and, 208–209
methods, 212–214
within organization, 210–211 strategies, 216
and threats, 216
Creative industries, 210
Creative journeys, 43
Creative practices, 7–8
Creative process, 232–233
Creative session, 231
Creative work, 12
Creativity, 2–3, 93, 116–117, 138, 164–165, 208, 232, 250 appreciation, 250 biographies, 122
coupling of knowledge utilization and communication, 261–262
effects of creativization on innovation, 262–264 and feedback, 268–270 management, 120 model, 251 in music, 142 in organizations, 4 rhythm, 7
use of communication, 255–261 utilization of knowledge, 252–255 Creativization, 251
by communication, 256
effects of creativization on innovation, 262–264
Crowdfunding process, 244
Cubism, 25
Cultural marginality, 32
Cultural producers, 40
Cultural resources, 71–76
Cycle, 68
Cyclicality, 85

Dance of entrainment, 44
De Stijl movement, 33
Defending, 217–218
Deliberate ignorance, 176
Die Zeit, 75
Differentiating, 219–221
Differentiation, 23
Digital practices, 142
Digital technology, 93, 96, 105
Dimensions of uncertainty, 122–123
Direct emotional wording, 148
Discogs, 46
Distinct state sequence (DSS), 48
Doing lens, 192, 199–201
Duration, 68

East Berlin Youth festival, 80
East German Youth Festival, 79
'Eclecticism on artists' consecration, 47
Economic theory, 118
Edinburgh Art, 69
Edinburgh arts festivals, 69
Edinburgh Book, 69
Edinburgh Evening News, 70–71
Edinburgh Festivals, 78, 83
Edinburgh International, 69
Edinburgh International Festival, 67, 73
Edinburgh International Festival of Music and Drama (EIF), 70, 76
Edinburgh International Film Festival, 69–70, 73
Edinburgh International Fringe Festival, 70
Electronic music, 45
Embracing uncertainty, 117, 124–126
Emotional distancing, 218–219
Emotional-cognitive experiencing, 147–148 of uncertainty, 142 Emotions, 138, 140, 148
Engaging with regulatory uncertainty, 145–147
Entrainment, 68
Entrepreneurship, 233
Enunciation, 238
Equifinality, 236
European Group of Organizations Studies (EGOS), 264*n*1

Experts, 188
Expressionism, 35*n*3

Fashion companies, 256
Fashion items, 255
Feasibility, 233–234, 238
Feedback, 268
  communicative perspective on feedback on creative ideas, 270–275 on creative ideas, 275–282 creativity and, 268–270 Feelings, 138 rules, 139, 141 Festivals, 69–70 experiences and meanings, 68–69 marketing and economic impact, 68–69
  temporal strategies, 76–80
First Russian revolution, 31
Fixing uncertainty, 117, 126–128
Focal uncertainty, 129, 131
Freelancers, 254–255
Fringe, 73
Fundamental uncertainty, 118
Fuzzy Set Qualitative Comparative Analysis (fsQCA), 232

Garbage can decision-making, 119
Global coronavirus pandemic, 2
Google N-grams, 82

Hans Joas' theory of creative action, 268, 275
HeartComp, 129
High-status creators, 42–43
Hope, 141–142, 146–148
"Hot" fixing, 127
Hybrid languages, 176
Hybridization, 165, 173, 175–178

Idea evaluation, 232 within creative process, 233 Idea selection, 234 creative idea, 243–244 general criteria for, 233–234 generalization of results, 244 presentation criteria for, 234–235
  QCA-based research design, 235–240
  results, 240–242
  theoretical framework, 232–235 Idea(s), 255 fields, 5 journey, 3, 5, 273
Ideator, 232
Identity, 165 (see also Creative identity) processes, 190–191
  scholars, 167 struggles of creative agents in organizations, 9 threats, 164, 173–175, 210 Identity work, 164–165, 167–169 and creative identity, 208–209
  processes, 191, 196
  strategies, 173–181
  strategies, 208, 214–221
Idiosyncrasy credits theory, 43, 180
Ignoring uncertainty, 117, 128–129
Illocution, 271–272
Impressionism, 25
In-house consultants, 188
Indeterminate positions, 22
Indifference, 141, 147–148
Indifferent creators, 151–153
Innovation, 138, 250 architects, 188
  conceptualization, 21 effects of creativization on, 262–264 envoys, 188
  examples, 20 managers, 188 officers, 188
  in organization, 190 process, 21
  providers, 188 research, 3
  researchers, 188

Innovation experts, 187, 189 ambiguous zones and identity processes, 190–191 analytical model for understanding occupation of innovation experts, 191–192 data-gathering tools, 193
findings, 195–202
interview analyses, 194–195 interviews, 193–194
as new occupation, 189 observations, 194
sample and research process, 192–193 Innovation management, 187–188 complexities of innovation management in organizations, 189–190 Inspirations, 255
Institutional field, 68
Intellectual property (IP), 142 comparing IP in pharma and music and regulatory uncertainty, 142–144
IP-related practices, 145–147
IP-related uncertainty, 143
Intellectual property regulations (IPR), 12, 138 ambiguities, 143
Intensity, 68
Internal communication, 256, 258–261
International Film Festival, 79
Interorganizational networks, 4
Intertwined processes, 5
Israel Innovation Institute, 204*n*4

'Jürgen Habermas' theory of communicative action, 268, 275

Kazimir Malevitch, 30–31
Knowledge acquisition, 254–255
coupling of knowledge utilization and communication, 261–262
materialized, 253–254 repertoire, 252–253 utilization of, 252–255

Language, 251
Laws, 138
Leaders, 269
Legitimation, 23
Lifeworld, 273–274
as context of communicative interactions, 274–275
Linearity, 85
Locution, 271–272
Longitudinal research design, 69

MaerzMusik Festival (1966), 67, 71, 83
"Magic take" in music production, 98, 100
Mainstreams, 22
Managers and legal professionals cultivating emotions, 153–155
Marginal actors, 22–23
Marginality, 22
Material resources, 71–76
Materialized knowledge, 253–254
Mavericks, 22
Media and audience attention to Edinburgh and Berlin festivals, 80–84
Meta-language, 176
Military Tattoo, 78
Misfits, 22, 164, 173–175 (see also Organizational misfits)
Mobility, 24–25, 35*n*5
Modern art, 21, 25, 33
Multivariate hypothesis testing analysis, 41
Munch, Edvard, 28
Music business, 142 industry, 121
production, 96–97
Musikfest festival, 67

Narratives, 257
Nashville music production, 96, 99
NatureComp, 126, 130
Networking managers, 188
New methodologies, 11
New York Times, 70–71, 75
Normative claim to rightness, 277
Normative conformity, 23
Novelty, 94–95, 116, 238

Objectivity in science, 95
Occupations, 189, 192
Open coding approach, 98
Open innovation, 204*n*2 teams, 188
Optimal matching algorithm, 49
Optimal strategy, 22
Organizational creativity, 4
Organizational misfits, 165 concepts and framework, 165–169
  data analysis, 170–173
  data collection and sample, 170 empirical study, 169–173
Organizing creativity for innovation importance, 2–3 from organizational to organizing creativity, 4–6 research directions on, 6–12 theoretical implications for research on, 12–14
Outward communication, 258–261

Pace of category spanning, 40–41
Peer-based selection systems, 92
Performative speech acts, communication as, 271–272
Peripheral actors, 164
Periphery, 20, 23
Perlocution, 271–272
Person-environment fit, 164
Pharma managers, 145 Pharmaceutical development, 121
  industry, 143
  research and development, 142–143
Physical appearance, 238–239
Pitch Anything, 234
Pitch in entrepreneurship, 233
Play, 280
Positive distinctiveness, 9, 165, 173, 178–181
Positivity of identity, 164
Pracademics, 165 experience of misfit, 173–181 as organizational misfits, 169–170 Practice of engaging, 146 of organizing, 120 perspective, 4 theories, 4
Presence, 235, 238
Procedural uncertainty, 118
Process, 23
  studies of innovation, 3
Professions, 143
Professor-LITE, 170
Projects, 254–255
Proportional Reduction in Inconsistency (PRI), 240
Psychological discomfort, 164
Public and celebratory events, 66
Pull-regimes of creative collaboration, 121
Push regimes of creative collaboration, 121

QCA-based research design, 235
  conditions and outcome calibration, 237–239
  data analysis, 239–240
  data collection, 235–236
  justification, 236–237
Quality, 92, 94
Quest for identity positivity, 166–167

Radical innovation, 20–21
Radicalization, 20, 24, 34 dynamic, 23 initial evidence for, 25–27 plausibility, 32

of political contestation, 24 trajectories, 28–30
Regulations, 138
Regulatory uncertainty, 138 (see also Uncertainty) analytical framework, 145–151 avoiding, 145–147
conceptual framework, 139–142 data, 144–145
mapping emotional-cognitive experiences of regulatory uncertainty across fields, 151–155 methodology, 142–151
Relating lens, 192, 201–202
Relegated uncertainties, 129
Relevance, 233–234, 238
Renaissance-minded creators, 42
Reputation, 43
Research and Development organizations (R&D organizations), 210
Rightness, 272
Role expectations, 188, 202
Routines, 252–253
Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo (1950), 69–70, 73

Salzburg Festival, 67
Salzburg Music, 67
Scholarship, 23–24, 93–94
Scientific audiences, 95
Scottish Film Guild, 76
Scream, The, 21
Self, 165
Self-deprecation humour, 170
Self-expression, 165
Sentiments, 140
Shared social experiences and symbolic meanings, 66
Signature style, 40–41, 43–44
Social change, 168, 177–178, 180–182
Social creativity, 168, 175–177, 179–180
Social networks, 4, 21, 119
Social-psychology theories of visual perception, 42
Social-sequence analytic approach (SSA), 41, 46
Socialization processes, 169, 195
Sociology of emotions, 138–140
SoulRock, 129
Spaces for play, 280
Spatial resources, 71–76
State space, 49
Storytelling, 257–258
Strategic action, 272
Strategic ignorance, 128
Structural perspective, 4
Stylistic Diversity, 48
Stylistic Turbulence, 48
Substantive inconsistencies, 22
Superiority of rationality, 274
Suprematist movement, 30
Systems biology cancer research, 96–97, 99
Systemsworld, 273–274

Tech House, 47
Techno, 47
Techno-tourism destinations, 45
Technology, 20, 253–254
Tempering, 24
Temporal dynamics, 66 of organizing creativity in artistic fields, 6
Temporal strategies, 66–68
Temporality, 66, 84
Text-based coding of emotions, 147
Theatretreffen festival, 67
Thematic analysis, 195
Themes, 256–257
Theoretical sampling, 121
Time, 68
delimited creative projects, 66
Trajectory-level specialism, 47
Truth, 272
Two-component hurdle regression model, 49

Uncertainty, 7, 116, 118
methods, 121–124
qualities, 116–117 shifts between embracing, fixing, and ignoring dimensions of, 129–132 theoretical background, 117–121 utilizing uncertainty in organizing creative collaboration, 124–132

Venice Biennales, 67
Venture Capitalists (VC), 244