

INDEX

- Abuse in line of duty, 72
 - Access to food, 201
 - Accredited Social Health Activists (ASHAs), 62
 - abuse and attacks in line of duty, 72
 - evaluation, 66
 - findings, 66–72
 - hours grow longer, 70
 - income level of, 69
 - lives at risk with inadequate safety gear, 71–72
 - low literacy, 70–71
 - methodology, 64–65
 - problems of, 63–64
 - roadblocks, exclusion, and discrimination, 67
 - role of, 62–63
 - services delivered by, 68–69
 - under-paid job and loss of earnings, 67–70
 - workers in India, 62
 - Activist-scholars, 233–234
 - Advanced communications technology, 212
 - African Americans group, 4
 - Age of Sustainable Development, The* (Sachs), 179
 - Age-related stereotypes, 53
 - Aggrieved women, 112
 - Aging, 50
 - society, 50
 - Agriculture, 230–231
 - sustainable, 229, 231
 - Alabama statewide mask mandate
 - analysis after expiration of, 41–45
 - analysis prior to, 38–41
 - Amma Canteen, 151
 - Android phones, 167
 - Angan Wadi Childcare workers (AWWs), 62
 - Anomie concept, 213
 - Anonymity, 161
 - Anthropocene
 - biocolonization and consumerism
 - as factors in loss of birdsong, 260–261
 - climate change as causal factor of COVID-19 outbreak, 255
 - eco-poetics, birdsong, and ataraxis, 257–258
 - issues raised through both memoirs, 265–266
 - Mormon Women and Mormon Faith, 264–265
 - referential fallacy, 258–259
 - splicing of loss of birdsong and Williams’s personal loss, 259–260
 - terminal illnesses, loss of birdsong and, 255–257
 - The Clan of One-Breasted Women*, 261–263
 - Tropes of Mythical Goddess as Representational of Situation of Women*, 263–264
- Association of Women for Action and Research (AWARE), 95
- Ataraxis, 257–258
- Atmospheric aerosol loading, 179
- Attacks in line of duty, 72
- Attentiveness, 136–137
- Attracting investments, 78
- Auburn-Opelika metro, 36–37
- “Auditing”, 158–159
- Augmented workload, 62–63
- Auxiliary Nurse Midwives (ANMs), 62

- #Babaeko, 110
 “Backwardness”, 242
 #BalanceTonPorc, 110
 Behaviors, 54
 Below Poverty Level (BPL), 82 Biocolonization factors in loss of birdsong, 260–261
 Biodiversity, 178–180
 in African, 179
 cases of biodiversity degradation and impact on environment, 180–181
 combatting negatives of deforestation, 182
 combatting negatives of Tragedy of the Commons, 181
 COVID-19 pandemic implications
 on biodiversity policies, 182–183
 loss, 178, 254
 Bird refuge, 256
 Birdsong, 257–258
 biocolonization and consumerism
 as factors in loss of, 260–261
 loss of, 255–257
 splicing of loss of birdsong and Williams’s personal loss,
 259–260
 Black Belt communities, 6
 data and methods, 7–9 geographic information system and population health data,
 7–9
 healthy foods vs. COVID-19, 24
 ownership of private vehicles vs.
 COVID-19, 18–21
 poverty vs. COVID-19, 18
 pre-existing health conditions vs.
 COVID-19, 21–24
 results, 9–24
 SDH and COVID-19 in Alabama, 14–18
 socioeconomic status of Alabama’s
 Black Belt region,
 9–14
 Black Belt region, 4
 socioeconomic status of, 9–14
 Business Development Services
 (BDS), 85
 Carceral settings, 186–187
 Cardiovascular diseases, 54–55
 Care ethics, 128–129
 competence, 142–148
 digital food activism of Food for Chennai, 131–132
 feminist theory of care ethics or ethics of care as applied to work of FFC, 132–134
 food ethics and hunger, 129–130
 Food for Chennai, 135–149
 Hunger Watch, 151
 mobilizing Food for Chennai during pandemic, 130–131
 plurality, communication, solidarity, 149
 responsiveness, 148–149
 Care-giving, 142, 147
 “Care”, 134
 Caring, 130
 Case law, 91
 Causal conditions for online chatting
 by Muslim married women,
 159–160
 Center for Disease Control (CDC),
 34–35, 197–198
 Center on Poverty and Social Policy
 (CPSP), 14–15
 Chat
 in husband’s absence, 163
 as remedy for loneliness, 159
 sex, 164
 Chemical pollution, 179
 Chennai, 135–136
 digital food activism of Food for Chennai, 131–132
 Food for Chennai, 135–149
 mobilizing Food for Chennai
 during pandemic,
 130–131
 Chennai Live on Instagram, 136–137

- Chile
 COVID-19 in, 214–215 inequality in, 216–218
 social revolution, COVID-19, and political reform in, 218–219
- CityTree, 182
- Climate change, 180
 as causal factor of COVID-19 outbreak, 255
- Clinical sociological interventions, 190
- Code of Criminal Procedure Act, 101
- Collective action through connective engagement, 131–132
- Collective violence, 97
- Communicating with elderly patient, 53
- Communication, 53–54, 149
- Community of individuals, 130
 of sexual harassment, 110
 supervision, 187
 violence, 97
- Community health workers (CHW), 63
- Competence, 142–148
- Complacency, 198
- Confidentiality, lack of, 121
- 1980 Constitution, 218–219
- Consumerism as factors in loss of birdsong, 260–261
- Contemporary tendencies, 52
- Convention on Preventing and Combating Trafficking in Women and Children for Prostitution Act, 99–100
- Convicted women, 186–187
- Correctional system, 194–195
- “Cottage industry of care”, 147
- Counter-insurgency, 229
- COVID Prison Project, 188
- COVID-19, 90, 186–187
 in Chile, 214–215
 climate change as causal factor of COVID-19 outbreak, 255
 crisis, 128
 effects on African American communities, 4–5 global pandemic, 4
 harassments during, 123 healthy foods vs., 24
 impact on employment in India and Himachal Pradesh, 78–79 impacts on data collection, 194 impacts on historically marginalized communities, 5 increase domestic violence during, 94–96 of indigenous people’s health and life, 231–233
 limited access to health care and COVID-19 protection, 197–199 minority communities impacted by, 6
 ownership of private vehicles vs., 18–21
 pandemic, 9, 11, 55, 212, 254, 266 pandemic implications on biodiversity policies, 182–183 pandemic in United States, 34 poverty vs., 18
 pre-existing health conditions vs., 21–24
 reasons for domestic violence against women during, 96
 SDH and COVID-19 in Alabama, 14–18
 social revolution, COVID-19, and political reform in Chile, 218–219 spread in Latin America, 215
- Creativity, 243, 249
- Crimes under Penal Code of Sri Lanka, 99
- Crimes under special penal legislations, 99
- Criminal justice systems, 92
- Criminal justice-involved women, 189

- Crisis
 experience of, 238
 fragile stabilization and hard crisis, 245–249
 pandemic-related communication, 156–157
- Critical thinking, 229
- Crowdsourced volunteering, 151
- Cultural rights, 230
- Cultural services, 179–180
- Cybersex, 164
 addiction, 165
- Cyberspace, 161, 167
- Death in Venice* (Mann), 214
- Decision-making, 113
- Deforestation, 178, 180–181
 combatting negatives of, 182
- Delhi gang-rape case, 112
- Demand-side mechanisms, 85
- Demographic dividend, 76–77
- Demographic variables, 36
- Department of Corrections (DOC), 198
- Descriptive analysis, 91
- Detailed analysis, 91
- Development, 231
 aggression, 230–231
- Diabetes, 21
- Digital activism, 131–132, 135, 149
- Digital food activism of food for Chennai, 131–132
- Digital infrastructure, 129, 132
- Digital social media platforms, 131–132, 134
- Dignity, 51–52
- Discrimination, 50, 63–64, 67
 characteristics of old age, 50–51
 against elderly people, 50
 problem of, 51–56
 trying to solve problem, 56–58
- Discriminatory behavior, 50
- Diseased Gaia, 264
- District Information System of Education (DISE), 76
- Divide-and-rule strategy, 230
- Domestic prevention law with special focus on COVID-19 pandemic, 105
- Domestic Violence (DV), 90, 97–98
 as form of gender-based violence, 96–98
 increase domestic violence during pandemic, 94–96
 reasons for domestic violence against women during COVID-19 pandemic, 96 regulatory framework for domestic violence prevention in Sri Lanka, 101–104 in Sri Lanka, 91
 vulnerability of women for, 91
- Dubay, Latha (FFC's founder), 129
- Earnings, loss of, 67–70
- Eating Behind Bars*, 200
- Eco-poetics, 257–258
- Economic abuse, 102
- Economic costs, 4
- Economic hardship, 23–24
- Economic impact of COVID-19 in Latin America, 215–216
- Economic migration, 52–53
- Ecosystem, 179–180
 integrity, 255
 services, 178–180
- Educational garden programming, 186–187
- Educational qualification of surveyed respondents, 80–82
- Elderly patients, 53
- Elderly people, discrimination against characteristics of old age, 50–51
 problem of, 51–56
 trying to solve problem, 56–58
- “Emergency menus”, 200
- Emotional abuse, 105–106
- Emotions, 133–134
- Employment
 COVID-19 impact on employment in India and Himachal Pradesh, 78–79

- data analysis, 80–86
- educational qualification of surveyed respondents, 80–82
- employment situations among families of respondents, 83
- expected sectors as revealed by respondents, 84
- findings, 84–85
- initiatives of SSDM
 - post-COVID-19, 78
- investments in state, 77–78
- poverty, rural-urban profile of respondents, 82
- pre-COVID-19 job situations and present strategy, 83
- pre-COVID-19 sector wise employment status, 82–83
- recommendations, 85–86
- research design, 79–80
- respondents registered in skill portal, 80
- significance and objective of study, 79
- situations among families of respondents, 83
- sources of livelihoods of respondents' households, 82
- vocational skills among surveyed respondents, 83
- Enemy Within, The* (Gould), 262
- Engagement with private agencies, 86
- Environmental degradation, 254
- Environmental rights, 227–228
- Environmental sustainability, 178–179
- Environmental Systems Research Institute (ESRI), 29
- Environmentalists, 178
- Epidemics, 212
- Equality, 51
- “Ereamezoic era”, 260–261
- “Essential business”, 34
- “Essential workers”, 130
- Ethical theory, 129
- Ethics of care
 - as applied to work of FFC, 132–134
 - theory, 128
- Ethnicity in self-reported mask wearing, 35
- Everyday life
 - character and meaning of, 240
 - realm of, 240
 - on ruins of old world, 241–243
 - women role in, 240
- Exclusion, 67
- Expected sectors as revealed by respondents, 84
- Facebook, 128–129, 131–132, 167
 - mobilizing food for Chennai during pandemic by using, 130–131
- Facility management, 192
- Fairness, 130
- Family violence, 90
- Feeling sense of betrayal, 165
- Feminism, 63–64
- Feminist theory of care ethics as applied to work of FFC, 132–134
- Food
 - activism, 129
 - deterioration in incarcerated settings, 199–201
 - insecurity, 201
 - security, 186–187, 191, 201, 204–205, 231
- Food ethics, 129
 - and hunger, 129–130
- Food for Chennai (FFC), 128–129, 135, 149
 - attentiveness, 136–137
 - digital food activism of, 131–132
 - feminist theory of care ethics or ethics of care as applied to work of, 132–134
 - mobilizing during pandemic, 130–131
 - responsibility, 137–142

- Fragile stabilization and hard crisis, 245–249
- Frontline Health Workers (FLWs), 72
- Garden(s) in incarcerated settings, 190
 in penal settings, 190
 programming, 194–195
- Gender, 97
 in self-reported mask wearing, 35
 sensitized authorities, 120–121
- Gender-based violence (GBV), 90, 98 assessing adequacy of existing domestic prevention law on COVID-19 pandemic, 105 domestic violence as form of, 96–98
 increase domestic violence during pandemic, 94–96
 laws for gender-based violence against women in Sri Lanka, 99–100
 methodology, 91
 objectives, 91
 reasons for domestic violence against women during COVID-19 pandemic, 96
 regulatory framework for prevention of domestic violence in Sri Lanka, 101–104 Sri Lankan response toward specific international standards of violence and women, 100–101 vulnerability of Sri Lankan women for domestic violence as form of, 92–94
- Genealogy of sustainable development, 239
- Genetic diversity, 179
- Geographic Information System (GIS), 7, 9, 29 measurement, 9–14
- Geotracking of smart phones, 35
- Geriatric syndromes, 50–51
- Gini Index, 216
- Glide App, 135
- Global freshwater use, 179
- “Globalized Islam”, 166
- Google Spreadsheet, 80
- Government offices with IC implementation, 121–122
- Green City Solutions, 182
- Green ideologies, 189–190
- Green Linnet, The*, 257
- Green prison programs, 189
- Green Studies Reader, The* (McKibben), 258–259
- “Green-washing” of prison design and programming, 189–190
- Gross Enrollment Rate (GER), 76
- Gross State Domestic Product (GSDP), 77
- Habermas’ concept of public sphere, 156
- Harassments during COVID-19, 123
- Health care inequality, 5–6
 limited access to health care and COVID-19 protection, 197–199
- Health data maps, 8
- Health disparity, 5
- Health mapping supports, 7
- Healthcare system efficiency, 55–56
 in Poland, 55
 seniors, 50
- Healthy foods vs. COVID-19, 24
- Hermeneutical phenomenology, 157
- Himachal Pradesh, 76
 COVID-19 impact on employment in India and, 78–79
- Hippi* movement, 244–245
- Home confinement, 212
- “Honor killings”, 163
- Human dignity, 51–52
- Human over-exploitation of forests, 181

- Human Rights approach, 254–255
- Human social networks, 134
- Hunger, food ethics and, 129–130
- Hunger Watch* study, 135
- Hyper-incarceration, 194–195
of women and girls, 188–189
- Hysterectomies, 261
- Immigration, 212
- Incarcerated women, 186–187, 201
- Incarceration, 194–195
- Incentive-based remuneration for ASHA workers, 67
- India
COVID-19 impact on employment
in, 78–79
second wave of COVID-19
infections in, 128
- Indigenous communities, 226–227
- Indigenous defense system, 230
- Indigenous lands, 226
- Indigenous people
COVID-19 pandemic and precarity of indigenous people's health and life, 231–233
implications, 233–234
rights for, 224
- Ineffectiveness of IC, 118–119
- Inequality in Chile, 216–218
- Institute for Research on Poverty (IRP), 14–15
- Institutional corrections, 187
- Interfaith marriages, 156
- Internal committee (IC), 111–112 awareness of employees and IC members, 122–123
background of study, 112–113 dynamics of IC and constitution in study offices, 114–116
gaps in, 118
gender sensitized authorities, 120–121
harassments during COVID-19, 123 implementation of, 116–117
ineffectiveness of, 118–119
methodology, 113–114
objectives, 113
opinion of chairperson in, 117–118 perspectives of Government offices and private office with IC implementation, 121–122 privacy concerns and lack of confidentiality, 121
rooting of patriarchy, 120
- International Criminal Court, 233–234
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), 215, 230–231
- International pressure, 233–234
- Interpersonal violence, 97
- Intersectionality, 63–64
- Interview method, 113
- Inventiveness, 249
- “Investment defense forces”, 224–225
- Investments in state, 77–78
- Investors Summit (2019), 78
- Invisibility of ASHA workers, 64
- Iranian dating sites
causal conditions for online
chatting by Muslim married women, 159–160
consequences of chatting by Muslim married women, 165 contextual conditions of online
chatting by Muslim married women, 160–161
data gathering, 157–158
findings, 159
intervening conditions behind
chatting of Muslim married women, 161–162
participants, 157
research method, 157
strategies used for chatting by
Muslim married women, 163–165
trustworthiness, 158–159
- Islam in online environment, 166

- Islamic penal law, 156–157
 Isolation, 52–53
- Janus, 212
 Job performance, 113
 Johns Hopkins University (JHU), 215
 Judicial Service commission (JSC), 105
- Khalwat*, 156
- Language Goes Two Ways* (Snyder), 258
- Latin America
 COVID-19 spread in, 215
 social and economic impact of
 COVID-19 in, 215–216
- Laws for gender-based violence against women in Sri Lanka, 99–100
- Legal regulations, 55–56
- Lesbian, bi-sexual, gay, transgender, queer, intersex, and asexual relationships (LGBTQIA relationships), 156
- Livelihoods, sources of, 82
 Living Planet Report, 178
 Local Committee (LC), 112
 “Lockdown meals”, 200
 Lockdowns, 90
 Loneliness, 52–53
 chat as remedy for, 159
Loneliness of the Dying, The (Elias), 214
- Marginalization of ASHA workers, 64
 of seniors, 57
- Marital rape, 99
 Marshall Project, 198, 200
 Mask wearing behavior
 analysis after expiration of Alabama statewide mask mandate, 41–45
 analysis prior to Alabama statewide mask mandate, 38–41
 method, 36–38
 participants/study population, 36–37
 procedure for data collection, 37–38
 results, 38–45
- Mass incarceration, 187–190
 Mastectomies, 261
 Medicaid, 187
 Medium Household Income (MHI), 13–14
 “Member checking”, 158–159
 Mephram, Ken (co-founder of the academic field of food ethics), 129
- #MeToo, 110
 Micro-volunteering, 151
 Midwest Garden program, 202
 Midwest PI, 203–204
 Midwestern correctional facility, 192–193
- Militarization, 229
 Millennium Ecosystem Assessment, 179–181
 Million-TreesNYC Campaign, 182
 Ministry of Health and Family Welfare (MOHFW), 135–136
- Mixed-method longitudinal design, 191
- Mobile Internet, 167
 Mobilizing food for Chennai during pandemic, 130–131
 Morbidity, 194–195
 Mormon Faith, 264–265
 Mormon Women, 264–265
 Mortality, 194–195
 Muslim married women
 avoiding face-to-face meeting, 163–164
 causal conditions for online chatting by, 159–160
 chat as remedy for loneliness, 159 chat in husband’s absence, 163
 consequences of chatting by, 165

- contextual conditions of online
 - chatting by, 160–161
 - digital romantic chats by, 168
 - disguise fact of being married, 163
 - experience of family restrictions, 160–161
 - feeling sense of betrayal, 165
 - husband's sexual coldness, 162
 - intervening conditions behind
 - chatting of, 161–162
 - online chat addiction, 165
 - online entertainment, 164–165
 - premarital experiences in virtual
 - space, 160
 - sense of freedom, 161
 - sex chat, 164
 - social media role life world of, 156
 - strategies used for chatting by, 163–165
 - unhappy marriage, 161–162
- Narrative analysis of participants, 165
- Narrative biographical interview, 250
- National Child Protection Authority Act, 102
- National Health Mission (NHM), 62
 - ASHAs workers including in, 62
- National Rural Health Mission (NRHM), 62
- Neoliberal regimes, 224
- Nitrogen cycle, 179
- #NiUna-Menos, 110
- Non-Black Belt counties, 24–27
- Non-digital media, 137
- Non-heroic everyday life, 249
- Nondiscrimination, 51
- Nongovernmental organizations, 233–234
- Normative theory of care ethics, 133–134
- Novel coronavirus (2019-nCov), 215
- “Obscurantism”, 242
- OceanaGold, 226–228, 230–231
- Old age characteristics, 50–51
- Ombudsman for Patients' Rights, 54
- Online chat addiction, 165
- Online communications, 167
- Online complaint management
 - system, 122–123
- Online entertainment, 164–165
- Online romantic chat, 166
- Open-pit mining, 227–228
- Oppression, 63–64
- Overexploitation of resource, 178, 180
- Ownership of private vehicles vs. COVID-19, 18–21
- Pandemic, 4
 - increase domestic violence during, 94–96
 - mobilizing Food for Chennai
 - during, 130–131
 - pandemic-induced restrictions, 132
 - pandemic-related communication
 - crisis, 156–157
 - women's prison gardens in
 - pandemic times, 201–204
- Participants/study population, 36–37
- Patients' Rights Ombudsman, 54
- Penal Code Amendment Act, 99
- Penal Code of Sri Lanka, 101–102
- People's Mining Bill, 234
- Person of Color (POC), 39–40
- Personal protective equipment (PPE), 64, 71–72
- Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act (1996), 201
- Phenomenology method, 157
- Philippine Mining Act (1995), 224–225, 230–231, 234
- Philippines, 224
 - human rights violations in, 233
 - indigenous people in, 230
- Phosphorous cycle, 179
- Physical distancing, 35
- Place-based pedagogy, 229
- Plurality, 149
- Polish Constitution, 51
- Polish retiree, 56
- Political reform in Chile, 218–219

- Population health data, 7–9
- Post-2020 Global Biodiversity Framework, 255
- Post-war stabilization, 243–245
- Poverty, rural-urban profile of respondents, 82
- Poverty vs. COVID-19, 18
- Pre-COVID-19
 job situations and present strategy, 83 sector wise employment status, 82–83
- Pre-existing health conditions vs. COVID-19, 21–24
- Pre-Pandemic times ASHA workers, 67
- Precarity of indigenous people's health and life, 231–233
- Premarital experiences in virtual space, 160
- Preventative behaviors, 35–36
- Prevention of Domestic Violence Act (PDVA), 90–91, 101, 105
- #PrimeiroAssedio, 110
- Principal Investigator (PI), 191, 193
 Midwest PI, 203–204
- Print media, mobilizing food for Chennai during pandemic by using, 130–131
- Prison Education Devices program (PED program), 196
- Prison farms, 190
- Prison gardens, 187, 190
- Prison horticulture, 190
- Prison Industrial Complex (PIC), 187–188
- Prison Policy Initiative, 197–198
- Privacy concerns, 121
- Private domain, 100–101
- Private office with IC implementation, 121–122
- Product-oriented learning, 229
- Productivity-driven mentality of societies, 52–53
- Provisioning services, 179–180
- Psychosocial outcomes in COVID-19, 212–214
- Public distribution system (PDS), 128
- Public emergencies, 90–91
- Public policy changes effect on mask wearing behavior, 46
- Public sphere, 156
- Qualitative data, exploration of, 130–131
- Quality of human life, 227
 of prison food, 199–200
- Quantity of prison food, 199–200
- Race
 inequality in US Carceral System, 187–188
 in self-reported mask wearing, 35
- Rape, 99
- Recidivism, 201
- Reentry support, 201
- Referential fallacy, 258–259
- Refuge*, 256–258, 260
- Regulating services, 179–180
- Rehabilitation of respondents, 86
- Reproductive, maternal, neonatal, child, and adolescent health services (RMNCHA services), 62, 64
- Residential community, 187
- Residential facility for women, 192
- Residents, 187
- Respondents
 educational qualification of surveyed respondents, 80–82
 employment situations among families of, 83 expected sectors as revealed by, 84 poverty, rural-urban profile of, 82 registered in skill portal, 80
 rehabilitation of, 86

- sources of livelihoods of
 - respondents' households, 82
 - vocational skills among surveyed respondents, 83
- Responsibility, 137–142
- Responsiveness, 148–149
- Right to ancestral land, 225–227
- Right to education and cultural rights, 228–230
- Right to life, 224–225
- Right to self-determination, 230–231
- Right to sustainable development, 230–231
- Rights for indigenous people, 224
- Romantic chat, 166
- Rural-urban profile of respondents, 82

- Safe sex chat role, 166
- Salary payment, 113
- Sampling method, 157
- Sand County Almanac, The* (Leopold), 258–259
- Second wave of COVID-19 infections in India, 128
- “Secret cyber entertainment”, 167
- Self-directed violence, 97
- Self-employment, 77, 85
- Self-reported face masking behaviors, 35
- Senior patient, 50
- Sense of freedom, 161
- Severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2), 55, 212, 214, 255
- Sex chat, 164
- Sexual harassment (SH), 110
 - community of, 110
 - in Indian context, 111
 - against women at workplace, 112
- Sexual Harassment Act, 112–114
- Sexual harassment electronic–box (She-Box), 122–123
- Shariah law, 156

- Skill portal, respondents registered in, 80
- Skipping meals in incarcerated settings, 200
- Skype, 167
- Smartphones, 164–165
- Social campaigns, 57
- Social Determinants of Health (SDH), 4–5, 7–8
 - SDH and COVID-19 in Alabama, 14–18
- Social distance approach, 212
- Social distancing, 35–36, 90
- Social impact of COVID-19 in Latin America, 215–216
- Social media role life world of Muslim women, 156
- Social networks, 156, 167
- Social revolution in Chile, 218–219
- Social support, suspension of, 186–187, 195, 197
- Socialist economy, 242
- Societal costs, 4
- Socioeconomic databases, 9
- Socioeconomic status, 4–5
 - of Alabama's Black Belt region, 9–14
- Soil degradation, 182
- Solidarity, 149
- Source of livelihoods of respondents' households, 82
- South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation (SAARC), 99–100
- Southeastern Garden, 201
- Southeastern Prison, 190–192
- Species web, 180
- Sri Lanka
 - laws for gender-based violence against women in, 99–100
 - regulatory framework for prevention of domestic violence in, 101–104

- Sri Lankan woman, 93
 vulnerability of Sri Lankan women for domestic violence as form of, 92–94
- State Skill Development Mission (SSDM), 78
 initiatives of SSDM
 post-COVID-19, 78
- Stigmatization, 121
- Study rigor, 158–159
- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance
 Program (SNAP program),
 201
- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), 201
- Supporting services, 179–180
- Sustainability, 178, 189–190
- Sustainable development, 224, 232–233, 238
 everyday life on ruins of old world, 241–243
 and experience of crisis, 238
 fragile stabilization and hard crisis, 245–249
 genealogies of, 238–239
 limitations and questions, 249 materials and methods, 239–240
 post-war stabilization,
 243–245
- Tauli-Corpus, 232
- Terminal illnesses, 255–257
- Textual analysis of social media post, 128–129
- Theory of care ethics, 129
- ‘Third world feminism’, 63–64
- Toxic Discourse* (Buell), 260–261
- Trade, 212
- Trafficking, 99–100
- Tragedy of Commons, 178
- Tragedy of the Commons* (Hardin), 180 combatting negatives of, 181
- #Transforming Lives, 149–150
- Transnational mining corporations (TNCs), 226
- Travel/mobility restrictions, 90
- Tropes of Mythical Goddess as Representational of Situation of Women*, 263–264
- Trustworthiness, 158–159
- Twitter, 131–132
- U. S. Department of Health and Human Services, 4–5
- UCLA Law COVID-19 Behind Bars
 Data Project, 198
- UN 2030 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), 231
- UN Commission for Human Rights, 233
- UN Convention on Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW),
 97, 100, 111
- UN Declaration, 110
- UN Declaration on Rights of
 Indigenous People
 (UNDRIP), 224
- UN High Commission on Human Rights, 233–234
- Under-paid job, 67–70
- Uneven spatial development, 6–7
- United Nations Declaration on Elimination of Violence against Women (DEVAW), 97–98
- University Grants Commission, 113–114
- University of Philippines
 (UP), 229
- Urban gardening, 201
- US Carceral System, race inequality
 in, 187–188
- US corrections system, 187
- Vaccination, 6
- “Vegas Rule”, 202–203
- Victims, 99–100, 118
- Victims of Crime and Witnesses Act, 104

- Vienna Declaration, 97–98
- Violation of dignity, 54
- Violence, 63–64, 91, 96–97
- against healthcare workers, 72
 - Sri Lankan response toward specific international standards of, 100–101
 - against women, 97, 110
- Virtual space, premarital experiences in, 160
- Vocational skills among surveyed respondents, 83
- Vulnerability
- of Sri Lankan women for domestic violence as form of gender-based violence, 92–94
 - of women, 91
- Western consumerism, 238–239
- WhatsApp, 128–129, 167
- mobilizing food for Chennai during pandemic by using, 130–131
- When Women Were Birds* (Williams), 256, 263, 265
- Wilderness, 263
- #With you, 110
- Women
- employees, 118–119
 - hyper-incarceration of, 188–189
 - in penal system, 189
 - in period of stabilization, 245–246
 - population in Sri Lanka, 90
 - reasons for domestic violence against women during COVID-19 pandemic, 96
 - role in everyday life, 240
 - victims of domestic violence, 91
- Women in Global Health (WGH), 72
- Women were Birds*, 261
- Women's prison gardens
- COVID-19 impacts on data collection, 194
 - deterioration of food in incarcerated settings, 199–201
 - findings, 194–201
 - hyper-incarceration of women and girls, 188–189
 - limited access to health care and COVID-19 protection, 197–199
 - literature review, 187–190
 - mass incarceration and sustainability, 189–190
 - methodology, 190–194
 - Midwestern correctional facility, 192–193
 - in pandemic times, 201–204
 - race inequality in US Carceral System, 187–188
 - Southeastern Prison, 190–192
 - suspension of social support, 195–197
- Women's Well-being Survey (WWS), 93
- World Health Organization (WHO), 18, 92–93, 96–97
- World Health Organization-Pulse survey, 64
- World Hunger Index, 151
- World Report on Violence and Health (WRVH), 96–97
- World Trade Organization (WTO), 230–231
- World Wildlife Foundation (WWF), 178, 180
- Zoom (social media platform), 128–129, 142–143
- mobilizing food for Chennai during pandemic by using, 130–131
- Zoonosis, 254