

INDEX

- Actual social identity, 11
- Addiction, in sport
 - alcohol, 113–118
 - drug rehabilitation programs, 119
 - drugs, 113–115
 - hegemonic masculinity, 115–117
 - natural recovery concept, 119
 - and recovery, 118–121
- Ageism, 12
- Aggression, 10
- Alcohol and sport, 113–118
- Allergy, 128
- Altruism, 149
- Anger, 10
- Anorexia nervosa, 100
- Anxiety, 10, 64, 81, 128
- Asthma, 128
- Attention deficit hyperactivity disorder, 128
- Autism, 128

- Badge of Honor, pain as, 29
- Behavioral features, 12
- Bipolar disorder, 128

- Canada, 81
- Childhood trauma, 64
- Chronic fatigue syndrome, 128
- Chronic pain, 128
- Clinical recovery, 163
- Coeliac disease, 128
- Cognitive features, 12
- Composure, 13
- Content/representation studies, 146
- Co-present epistemological approach, 25

- Courage, 13
- Crohn's disease, 128

- Depression, 10, 64, 81, 128
- Depression and suicide
 - athlete experiences of, 83–88
 - ideation, 83–88
 - mental health and illness, 88–91
 - prevalence of, 80–83
 - in professional sport, 81
- Diabetes, 128
- Diagnostic categories, 179
- Discredited/discrediting stigma, 11
- Discreditable stigma, 12
- Discrimination, 12
- Disordered eating, 98
 - athlete, 98–99
 - legitimized, 100–103
 - stigma, 98–105
- Dopers, 112
- Drug rehabilitation programs, 119
- Drugs and sport, 113–115

- Eating disorders, 10
 - stigma, 98–105
- Ecosocial approach, 47
- Ego identity, 18
- Enacted stigma, 12
- Epilepsy, 128, 129–133

- Fibromyalgia, 55, 128
- Football
 - and identity reconstruction, 171–172
 - as a safe space, 167–168
 - and social relationships, 168–171

- Gameness, 13
 Gate Control Theory (GTC), 26
 Goffman, Erving, 10
 Goffman's concept (of stigma), 10

 Hegemonic masculinity, 115–117
 Hidden/invisible disability epilepsy as an, 129–133
 Homo clausus conception, 88
 Homophobia, 12
 Hypoglycemia, 128

 Identity, politics of, 11
 Identity reconstruction and football, 171–172
 Illness and mental health, 80–91
 Impression management, 11
 Inflammatory bowel disease, 128
 Information control, 17–18
 Ingham, Alan, 11
 Ingham analysis, 11
 Integrity, 13
 International Association for the Study of Pain (IASP), 25
 Irritable bowel syndrome, 128

 Lactose intolerance, 128
 Lupus, 128
 Lyme disease, 128

 Marxist critical theory, 18
 Mass media
 and mental illness, 147–151 and sport, 145–147
 Material-discursive approach, 47
 Material-intrapsychic-discursive approach, 47
 Mental health athletes, 10
 football and, 166–172
 and illness, 88–91
 and place, 163–164
 recovery, 164–165
 spectacle of, 154–156
 women's embodiment, 47

 World Health Organization
 definition, 144
 Mental health care, 17–18
 Mental health literacy, 147
 Mental illness accessing and witnessing experiences of, 181–183
 athletes, 151–154
 communicating, 187–190
 diagnostic categories, 179
 invisible disabilities, 127–140
 mass media, 147–151
 mass mediation of, 144–156
 misunderstanding, 178
 neuro/biological abnormality, 100 and physical activity, 47–50
 prevalence of, 81
 sick role, 151–154
 spectacle of, 154–156
 stereotypical characters, 149
 stigma, 12–13, 178–179
 in sport, 13–17
 stigmatized, 103–105 tackling through football, 165–166
 treatment, 179–181
 understanding experiences of,
 183–186
 Migraines, 128
 Misunderstanding, 178
 Mixed martial artists (MMA), 24
 Multiple sclerosis, 128

 Narcolepsy, 128
 National Health Service (NHS), 166
 Natural recovery concept, 119
 Neuro/biological abnormality, 100
 New materialist approach, 47

 Obsessive-compulsive disorder
 (OCD), 46–47
 Office for National Statistics (ONS), 81

 Pain
 Badge of Honor, 29

- interconnection through, 31
- in medicine, 25–26
- reconstructed methodology, 39–40
- reflection of identity, 30
- sociology of sport, 28–31
- in sport psychology, 26–28
- Parsons' postulates, 151
- Personal identity, 10, 17–18
- Personality disorders, 128
- Personal recovery, 163
- Physical activity
 - embodied limitations, 53–55
 - mental illness and, 47–50
 - public health messages, 51–53
 - research approach, 50–51
 - role of, 51–55
- Physical cultural studies (PCS), 28
- Physical pain, 35–36
- Place
 - mental health, 163–164
- Politics of identity, 11
- Production studies, 146
- Psychological pain, 38–39

- Racism, 12
- Reception/consumption, 146
- Reduction of stigma, 18–20
- Rheumatoid arthritis, 128

- Schizophrenia, 128
- Second Chance Programme, 119
- Seizures, 129
- Sexism, 12
- Social identity, 10, 11–17
- Social isolation, 164
- Social pain, 33–35
- Social relationships, 164
 - football and, 168–171
- Sociology of sport, 28–31
- Spiritual pain, 36–38
- Spoiled identity, 11
- Sport-alcohol nexus, 116, 118
- Sport and alcohol, 113–118
- Sport ethic, 100

- Sport in Society*, 151
- Sport-plus model, 119
- Sport psychology, 26–28
- Sports Coaching Review*, 149
- Stigma, 9–21, 178–179
 - disordered eating, 98–105
 - information control, 17–18
 - mental health care, 17–18
 - personal identity, 17–18
 - reduction, 18–20
 - the social identity, 11–17
- Street Soccer program, 165
- Stress, 10
- Substance misuse, 10
- Sudden unexpected death in epilepsy (SUDEP), 129
- Suicide, 81
- Suicide and depression
 - athlete experiences of, 83–88
 - ideation, 83–88
 - mental health and illness, 88–91
 - prevalence of, 80–83
 - in professional sport, 81

- Total institution, 14
- Total pain, 31
 - physical pain, 35–36
 - psychological pain, 38–39
 - social pain, 33–35
 - spiritual pain, 36–38
- Trauma
 - impacts of, 69–71
 - qualitative methodologies, 71–74
 - silencing, 71–74
 - socio-cultural dimensions, 65–69
 - survivors of, 47
- Treatment, 179–181

- Virtual social identity, 11

- World Health Organization, 144

- Years Lived with a Disability (YLD), 80