

INDEX

- Adolescents, 32–33
  - sports participation, 31
- American youth sports, 53
- Athletic apparel companies, 126
- Athletic governing bodies, 126–127, 134–135
- Athletic visibility continuum, 5–6, 108, 110–111
  - negotiating, 113–114
- Athletics Canada (AC), 127

- Bicultural approach, 142
- British colonial rule, 64–65

- Californians, 49
  - parents, 48
  - sailing, 53
- Call to action, 134, 141
- Childhood socialization, 141–142
- Children, 12, 14, 16, 19–20
- Class strata, 59
- Coaches, 12, 16–19, 74
  - comments about parents, 17–18
- Coach/parent relationship, 15
- Communication, 17
  - gap, 90–92
- Context, 110–111
- Contextualization, 46
- Conventional Arab culture, 61
- Corporate marketing, 125–126
- Corporate sponsors, 125–126, 134–135
- Corporate sponsorship, 124–125
- Critical thematic analysis (CTA), 95
- Cultural background, 62
  - capital, 60–61
  - practices, 65
- Cultural capital, 60–61
- Cultural change, 100
- Cultural (deficit) discourses, 74
  - practices, 75
- Cultural script, 46
- Cultural socialization, 141–142
- Culture, 58

- Data analysis, 63
- Decision-making, 46
- Deficit thinking, 75
- Dominant social discourses, 118

- Economic capital, 60–61
- Economically dominant class (EDC), 48
- Educational organizational cultures, 54–55
- Electronic communication, 95–96
- Elite athlete-mothers, 125
- Elite female athletes, 124
  - findings, 129–133
  - literature review, 124–127
  - methods, 127–129
- Elite female distance runners, 135–136
- Elite running, 125–126
- Embodiment of inequality, 61
- Endurance sport identity, 107–108
  - athletic visibility continuum, 110–111
  - findings, 113–118
  - literature review, 108–110
  - methods, 112–113
- Epistemological belief, 63
- Eurocentric ocular, 61
- Extended family issues, 97–98
- Extracurricular activities, 29

- Familial values, 59
- Familism, 75
- Family socialization, 141–142
- Family-sport socialization, 5, 141
- Family system, 90

- Father's absence on children, effects
  - of, 98–99
- Father-child relationships, 26
- Fatherhood, 36
- Fathers, 26, 108
- Female athletes, 125–127, 131
- Female runners, 126
- Femininity, 29–30, 111
- Feminist methodologies, 128
- Field, 61
- Footballer, 94
  - African, 90
  - families, 90
  - findings, 95–100
  - methods, 94–95
  - Nigerian, 90
  - participant data, 103
  - wives, 94
- Funding models, 128

- Gender, 34
  - differences, 33
  - dynamics, 36
  - inequality, 59
  - patterns, 36
  - roles in Indian subcontinent, 59–60
  - socialization, 141–142
  - and sports, 73–74
- Gender relations, 50
  - roles, 51
- Gender roles, 109
  - shifting, 109
- Gendered
  - construction of sports, 27
  - findings, 32–35
  - literature review, 27–30
  - methods, 30–32
  - norms, 61–62
  - space, 27
  - stereotypes, 25–36
- Gendered values, 46
  - division, 50
  - division of labor, 50
  - division of tasks, 50
  - language, 50
  - sailing practice, 51
- Girls and sports, 73–74
- Governing bodies, 126–127
- Great Sport Myth (GSM), 5, 12
  - findings, 14–20
  - literature review, 12–13
  - methods, 13–14
- Grounded theory approach, 113

- Habitus, 61–62
- Health card, 127
- Housework, 108
- Hymen rupture stigma, 59, 62
  - findings, 64–67
  - gender roles in Indian subcontinent, 59–60
  - methods, 62–63
  - social reproduction theory, 60–62

- Identity, 108
  - “do it all”, 109
  - maintenance, 119–120
  - “super mom”, 109
- Indian subcontinent, gender roles in, 59–60
- Individual sponsorship model, 126
- Inheritance process, 48
- Intentionality, 114
- International Association of Athletics Federations (IAAF), 129
- International Olympic Committee (IOC), 124–125
- Interviews, 14, 47, 62
  - in-depth, 112
  - phenomenological, 62
  - semi-structured, 13, 47, 76, 94–95, 127–128
- Intimacy loss on wives, 99–100
- Iron moms, 107–108, 113–114
- Iron-distance racing, 111
- Iron-distance training, 110–111
- Islamic laws, 66
- Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 59–60

- Latina teen athletes, 82–83

- Latinas and sports, 73–74
  findings, 76–83
  Latina teen athletes, 82–83
  literature review, 74–76
  methods, 76
  parental reluctance or lack of involvement, 80–81 parents' overprotection of daughters, 81–82
  sports as pathway to college, 78–80 value of sports for girls, 77–78
- Latinx culture, 82
- Leadership, 46
- Liberal feminism, 127–128
- Loneliness, effects of, 99–100
- Long-distance marital communication, 95–96
- Marianismo, 75
- Masculine characteristics, 54–55 domination, 54–55
  hierarchies, 52
  identity, 54–55
  traits, 46
  values, 46
- Masculine-dominated sailing, 54–55
- Masculinity, 26, 67
  traditional, 27
- Maternal relationships, 31, 34–35
  “Me time”, 115
- Mental health stigma, 65
- Mom guilt, 115–118
- Mother–child relationships, 27
- Motherhood, 36, 118, 125
- Mothers, 26–27, 29, 32–33, 112, 134–135
- Muslim women athletes, 58–59
  sport participation, 59
- National Analysis of School Sport
  New Zealand, 13–14
- National Longitudinal Study of Adolescent to Adult Health
  Study, The, 30–31
- New Zealand, 11–14
- Nigeria, 90
- Nigerian culture, 90–92
- Nigerian footballers, 94
- Nigeria Professional Football League
  (NPFL), 94
- Nonelite sport, 12
- Olympics, 130
- Olympic moms, 125
- Ontological beliefs, 63
- Overinvolved parents, 141–142
- Overinvolvement, 141–142
- Pakistan, 57–58, 63
- Pakistani societal tapestry, 59–60
- Parental dominance, 141–142
- Parental involvement, 80–81
- Parental reluctance, 80–81
- Parental socialization, 141–142
- Parent–child relationships, 141–142
- Parenthood, 124
- Parenting, 109
  findings, 47–52
  methods, 47
  strategy, 53
- Parents, 12, 14, 16, 21–22
- Paternalistic culture, 82
- Paternalistic family culture, effects of,
  97
- Patriarchal belief, 59
  chastity, 125
  constructs, 126–127
  norms, 127–128
  paradigms, 126 society, 127
  structures, 133 system, 132
  values, 132
- Patriarchal culture, 142–143
- Patriarchal families, 82, 91
  gender norms, 82
- Patriarchy, 142–143
- Physical deformities, 65
- Popular culture, 59

- Positionality in qualitative research, 62–63
- Post-colonial structures, 59
- Postpartum, 125
- Pregnancy, 125
- Privileged social classes, 49–50
- Professional female athletes, 134
- Qualitative research, 47
- Quinceañera effect, 82
- Radical feminist thought, 127–128
- Religious scriptures, 59
- Religious tenets, 59
- Sailing, 54–55
  - regattas, 49
  - school-based programs, 47
- Scholars, 26
- School sport sailing programs, 54–55
- Self-exclusionary behavior, 52
- Semi-structured interviews, 128–129
- Serious leisure, 110–111
- Sexism, 111, 135–136
- Snowball sampling, 128–129
- Social capital, 60–61
- Social class
  - distinction, 53
  - hierarchies, 52
  - norms, 47
  - relationships, 46
  - reproduction, 46
- Social control, 142
  - sport as, 5
- Social institution, 2–3
- Social reproduction theory, 59–60, 62
- Socialization process, 12–13, 141–142
- Socio-critical ideas, 46
- Sociocultural norms, 59
- Sociology of family, 1
- Sponsorship, 125–126
- Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC), 127
- Sporting organizational cultures, 54–55
- Sports, 1, 4, 27–28
  - governing bodies, 126–128
  - marriage, 1–2
  - participation, 27–28, 32, 34–35
  - as social control, 5, 141
  - socialization, 141–142
  - spaces, 28–29
- Spouses, 90
- Stigmas, 65
  - associated with race, religion, or nationality, 65
- Strategic essentialism, 127–128, 135
- Teamwork, 16
- Thematic analysis of interview data, 95
- Transgender, 31
  - adolescents, 31
- Triathlon, 107–108
- Upper-class masculinity, 47
- Vaginal opening, 58
- Visibility, 114
- Western society, 21
- Women soccer athletes, 60
- Women's virginity, 58
- Work–family challenges, 5–6, 141
- Youth sports, 73–74