

INDEX

- Abusive supervision, 154–155
- Accountability pressures, 143
- Adaptability, 75–76
- Administrative leadership, 4
- Administrative tasks, 53
- Administrator support, 52–53
- Affective empathy, 68
- Affinity groups, 22
- Agentive PE teacher, 124–125
- Alternatively certified teachers, 84–85
- Analysis tools of narrative inquiry, 31
- Anger, 29
- Anthropology, 83
- Anti-gay curriculum laws, 109–110
- Anxiety, 29
- Art classes, 66
- Art education, 66, 69
 - analysis, 71
 - Binh and Kersten’s teacher entry motivations and beliefs, influencing retention, 74
 - findings, 71–75
 - implications, 75–77
 - literature review, 68–69
 - method, 70–71
 - theoretical framework, 70
 - theories, 67–68
- Art practices, 3
- Art teachers, 3
- Art therapy, 67, 69
- Attachment, 67–68
 - theory, 67–68
- Attacks, 100
- Authentic teacher identities, 183–187
 - autobiographical narratives, 183
 - education shortcomings, 186
 - gender game, 184–185
 - Jordan, 186–187
 - projects, 183–184
- Basic Interpersonal Communication skills (BICS), 95
- Behavioral problems, 51–52
- Big D discourse, 100–101
- Black educators, 9
- Black female teachers (BFTs), 9
- Black Girls Teach (BGT), 22
- Black Male Educator Alliance (BMEA), 22
- Black male teachers, 9–10, 14
- Black psychology, 10
- Black teachers, 3, 8
 - burnout, 9
 - conceptual framework, 10–11
 - context, 11–12
 - data analyses, 13
 - demographic information of black educators, 12
 - experiences, 9
 - findings, 13–18
 - literature review, 9–10
 - macro-level recommendations, 21–22
 - methodology, 11–13
 - micro-level recommendations, 22
 - participants, 12–13
 - positionality, 13
 - radical healing framework, 10–11
 - state of black teachers in United States, 9–10
- Black women educators, 9–10
- Black youth, 9–10
- Briggs initiative, 108–109
- Broadening, 84, 123
- Burnout (see also Momentary burnout), 1–4, 27, 47–48, 138
 - among teachers, 86
 - book bans, 109–112

- Briggs initiative, 108–109
 impact of burnout on teacher
 attrition, 87–88
 classroom with gay, 104 existence to colleagues, 104–105 fag as elementary teacher, 101–103
 first grader's teacher, 105–107
 gay-straight alliances and Equal Access Act, 109
 historical contexts, 107–112
 implications, 112–113
 students defending gay teacher on playground, 103–104 symptoms and indicators of, 85–86
 theoretical framework, 100–107
 warnings of gay teacher, 104
- Burrowing, 84, 123
- Campus climate, 87
- Career adaptability, 75–76
- Career Trajectory Pivot, 54–55
- Challenge, 120–121
- Chronic interpersonal stressors, 86
- Classroom observations, 53
- Closeness, 67–68
- Cognitive Academic Language
 Proficiency (CALP), 95
- Cognitive empathy, 68
- Collectivism, 10–11, 13, 15, 20
 exploitation and missing, 17
- Communication, 158
- Community, 15, 158
 spaces, 22
- Compassion fatigue, 1
- Competition, 120–121
- Conflict zones, 66
- Coping strategies, 30
- Coping with stress, 32–33
- Core subjects, 120–121
- Counseling, 138
- COVID-19 pandemic, 8–9, 54–55,
 61–62, 82–83, 121, 149–150
- Crisis as opportunity for teacher identity transformation,
 131–132
- Critical consciousness, 10–11, 13–14, 19
- Cultural authenticity, 10–11, 13, 15, 20
- Culturally relevant pedagogy, 68–69
- Culturally responsive classroom management (CRCM), 21
- Cynicism (see Depersonalization)
- Daddy's Roommate (Willhoite), 110
- Defense of Marriage Act, 110
- Department of Education (DoE),
 164–165
- Department of Labor (DoL), 164–165
- Depersonalization, 171–172
 for teachers, 138
- Depression, 29
- Diminished personal accomplishment,
 172
- Discourse, 119
- Discriminatory practices, 8
- Disillusionment among novice
 teachers, 3
- District level, 141–143
- Diversity, 158
- Early childhood education, 201–203
- Education, 83
- Education service center (ESC), 89
- Education-related public institutions, 118
- Educational authorities and institutions, 118
- Educational leaders, 154
- Educational pivot, 185
- Educator narratives
 authentic teacher identities,
 183–187
 professional educator, image of,
 188–197
- Educators, 55–56, 88, 138, 152–153 implications for educator preparation programs, 144
- Effective leaders, 153–154
- Emotional exhaustion, 171
- Emotional intelligence, 1–2, 159

- Emotional self-regulation, 66
 Emotionality, 76–77
 Empathy, 66, 68
 as prerequisite skill, 173–174
 English, 120–121
 English as a Second Language (ESL), 89
 English Language Arts and Reading (ELAR), 207
 Entry beliefs, 69
 Entry motivations, 69
 Envisioned self, 127, 129–130
 Equal Access Act, 109
 Ethnopolitical psychology, 10
 Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), 84–86
 Expectancy-value theory, 69
 Expression, 120–121
- Female educators, 182
 First grader’s teacher, 105–107
 Flooding, 66
 Four-day school week, 163–164
 Frequency of burnout, 171
 Frustration, 29
- Gay-straight alliances (GSA), 109
 Guidance, 158
 Gun violence, 66
- Healing circles, 22
 Health, 120–121
 Heather Has Two Mommies (Newman), 110
 Heuristic Model of Child Self-regulation and Reactivity and School outcomes, 70, 72–73
 High-stakes accountability, 143
 Highly exhausted teacher, 178–179
 Historically Black colleges and universities (HBCUs), 19
 Hope, 81–83
 Hopefulness, anchors for black teachers to support, 14–16
- Hurricanes, 66
 “I am still and will be who I had been”, 132–133
 Imagination, 119–120
 Inclusive leaders, characteristics of, 159
 Inclusive leadership, 158–159
 Increased workload, 85–86
 Increasingly exhausted teacher, 176–178
 Individualized education plan (IEP), 50
 Innovative PE teacher, 123–124
 Intensification, 41
 Interdisciplinary partnerships, 144
 Interpolation tools of narrative inquiry, 31–32
 Intersectionality theory, 10
 Invisible tax, 153
- Joy, 140
- K-12 educators, 150
 K-12 public school, 101
 Korean educational system, 120–121
- Leader-membership exchange theory (LMX theory), 154–155
 Leadership style, 154–155
 Learners, 66, 83–84
 LGBTQ teachers, 111–112
 LGBTQ2+, 102
 Liberation psychology, 10
 Liberation theory, 9
- Mathematics, 120–121
 Member-checking, 33–34
 Mental health, 154
 meaningful supports for, 142
 Metanarrative, 119–120
 Microaggressions, 152–153
 Microaggressive black teacher experiences, 153
 Milieu, 83–84
 Mindfulness strategies, 30

- Mindfulness/meditation techniques, 139
- Minimally exhausted teacher, 175–176
- Ministry of Education (MoE), 118
- Momentary burnout, 169–170
 - depersonalization, 171–172
 - differentiating, 175
 - diminished personal accomplishment, 172
 - emotional exhaustion, 171
 - empathy as prerequisite skill, 173–174
 - highly exhausted teacher, 178–179
 - increasingly exhausted teacher, 176–178
 - minimally exhausted teacher, 175–176
 - principals and teacher burnout, 172
 - reality check, 174
 - task-focused principal, 172–173
 - understanding burnout, 170–171
- Multilevel approaches
 - addressing burnout at various levels, 139–144
 - psychological burnout, 138–139
- Multivoiced selves, 127
- Narrative, 119
 - inquirers, 84
 - therapy, 84
- Narrative inquiry, 2, 4, 28, 83–84, 100
 - aims, 28
 - keeping candle lit, 40
 - lack of administrative support, 38–39
 - lack of communication, 37–38
 - method, 30–37
 - parental supports and sadness surrounding students, 39–40
 - research method, 70
 - review of literature, 28–30
 - tools, 31–34
 - top-down directives, 37
- New teachers, 84–85
- New York City (NYC), 27–28
- News media, 119–120
- No Child Left Behind (NCLB), 84–86
- Nostalgic self, 127–129
- Novice teachers (see also Black teachers), 48
 - learning to teach, 49–53
 - and navigating reality shock of teaching, 61–62
 - reality shock, 56–61
 - work-life balance, 53–56
- Nursing, 138
- Obergefell et al. v. Hodges, 110
- Oppression, missing anchors for black teachers reinforce, 16–17
- Organizational burnout, 152
- Organizational culture, 141–142
- “Other mothering” pedagogical modes, 9–10
- Outstanding leader, 154
- Pandemic, 28, 118, 138
- Parallel stories, 120
- Parental Rights in Education, 110–111
- Passion, 199–201
 - over-optimistic, 208–211
 - overextended, 211–222
 - overwhelmed, 203–208
 - overworked, 201–203
- Pay, 142–143
- PE teacher identity, 118
 - conceptual underpinnings, 118–119
 - crisis as opportunity for teacher identity transformation, 131–132
 - data collection and analysis, 122–123
 - I am still and will be who I had been, 132–133
 - innovative, agentive, and responsible, 123
 - methods, 120–121
 - narrative plots, 131

- nostalgic self and envisioned self, 127
- parallel stories and teacher identity, 120
- participants, 121–122
- public narratives and teacher identity, 119–120
- stories, 118–119
- study context, 120–121
- temporary versions of self, 127–128
- People of Color and Indigenous (POCI), 22
- Performance-based funding systems, 143
- Perseverance, 81–82
- Persistence
 - burnout among teachers, 86
 - impact of burnout on teacher attrition, 87–88
 - Erin’s story, 89–90
 - in face of burnout, 88
 - literature review, 84–86
 - Margaret’s story, 93–95
 - Natasha’s story, 91–93
 - stress among teachers, 86
 - theoretical framework, 83–84
 - three educators’ stories, 88
- Personal burnout, 152
- Personal ontological narrative, 119–120
- Phenomenological approach, 12–13
- Physical Education (PE), 4, 122
- PK-12 classrooms, 8
- Policy, 143–144
 - documents, 119–120
- Post-COVID-19 pandemic, 48–49
- Principals, 139, 172
 - as climate changers, 153–154
 - leadership style, 154–155
- Prison system, 56–57
- Productive teacher-student relationships, 66
- Professional burnout, 152
- Professional educator
 - appearance of appeasement, 188–189
 - cookie cutter conformity, 189–190
 - image of, 188–197
 - mismatch between preparation and practice, 190–191
 - navigating and surviving pecking order, 192–194
 - professional unprofessional/amateur, 194–195
- Professional efficacy, 172
- Professional Learning Community (PLC), 94
- Professionalism, 194
- Professionalization of teaching, 118–119
- Prolonged engagement, 33–34
- Psychiatry, 83
- Psychological burnout, 138–139
- Psychology, 83
- Psychosocial coping strategies, 30
- Public discourse, 119–120
- Public imagination of teacher identity, 124
- Public narratives, 119–120
- Publicly told stories of PE teachers, 122
- Queer educators, 112
- Queer people, 3
- Queer teachers, 100
- Queer theory, 101
- Queer worldmaking, 101
- Queerness, 100–101
- Quest for Balance, 54–55
- Racial tensions and protests, 66
- Radical healing framework, 10–11
- Radical hope, 13, 15, 19–20
 - and envisioning possibilities, 10–11
 - loss, 18
- RAND Corporation, 163–164
- Reality check, 174
- Reality shock, 56–61
 - destination education, 58
 - early career struggles, 59–60
 - false start, 58–59
 - intriguing encounter, 57

- time for self-care, 60–61
- Relationships, 158
- Resilience, 15
 - burnout among teachers, 86
 - impact of burnout on teacher
 - attrition, 87–88
 - Erin’s story, 89–90
 - in face of burnout, 88
 - literature review, 84–86
 - Margaret’s story, 93–95
 - Natasha’s story, 91–93
 - stress among teachers, 86
 - theoretical framework, 83–84
- Resistance, 101
- Responsible PE teacher, 125–126
- Restorying, 31, 84, 123
- Rural school dynamics, 53–54

- Safety, 120–121
- School climate, 87, 153–154
- School districts, 141, 225
- School leaders, 152–153
- School-based leadership, 139
- School-based level, 139–140
- Science, 120–121
- Second language acquisition theory, 94
- Self-care planning, 140
- Self-education, 140
- Self-knowledge, 10–11, 13, 15, 20
- Self-reflection, 159
- Self-regulation process, 75–76
- Sexuality, 101–103
- Social and emotional learning (SEL), 144, 216–217
 - integrating social emotional learning curriculum, 144
- Social network services, 119–120
- Social work, 138
- Societal burnout, 152
- Sociocultural linguistic perspective, 94
- Socioemotional learning, 68
- Spanish Language Arts (SLA), 93
- Special education (SPED), 50
- STAAR testing, 220
- Stakeholder voice, 157

- State and federal education policies, 143–144
- Stonewall uprising, 108
- Stories, 30
- Storying, 31, 123
- Strength and resistance, 10–11, 13–15, 20
- Stress, 3
 - among teachers, 86
 - lessening sources of, 142
 - stress/ors among teachers, 29–30
- Subject matter, 83–84

- Task-focused principal, 172–173
- Teacher attrition, 1
 - impact of burnout on, 87–88
 - and turnover, 28–29
- Teacher burnout, 1, 18, 48, 59, 112–113, 139, 149–150, 172, 195, 225
 - changing teacher credentials, 163
 - characteristics of inclusive leaders, 159
 - consequences in form teacher shortages, 159–160
 - emblems, 160–163
 - experience, 150–151
 - factors, 152–153
 - four-day school week, 163–164
 - inclusive leadership, 158–159
 - principal’s leadership style, 154–155
 - principals as climate changers, 153–154
 - response from White House, 164–165
 - transformational leadership style, 155–158
- Teacher identity, 118–119
 - parallel stories and, 120
 - public narratives and, 119–120
- Teacher migration, 28–29
- Teacher retention, 48, 69, 75–76
- Teacher shortages, 159–160
- Teacher stress, 29, 48
- Teacher turnover, 154

- Teacher well-being, 138
- Teacher workload, 48
- Teachers, 1, 83–84, 150
- Teaching, 1, 29, 84–86, 170–171, 226
- Tension, 29
- Three-dimensional inquiry space, 83–84
- Training, 50
- Transformational leadership
 - components, 156
 - style, 155–158
- Transformational leadership, 154–155
- Triangulation, 33–34
- Trustworthiness and validation of research, 33–34
- Truth, 33
- Two-Way Dual Language program, 94
- U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), 2
- Understanding tools of narrative inquiry, 32–33
- Unions, 152–153
- United States, state of black teachers in, 9–10
- Well-being, 4
 - meaningful supports for, 142
- White House, response from, 164–165
- Will & Grace*, 102–103
- Work-life balance, 53–56
- Working conditions, 9
- ZipRecruiter, 164