

INDEX

- Ability, 171
  - impact on sex trafficking, 117
- Ableism, 172
- Abolitionism, 40
- Abuse, 155–157
- Academia, 68
- Academic disciplines, 2
- Addiction, 157–159
- Adult men trafficking, 126
- Afro-American Patrolmen’s League (AAPL), 55
- “Ambiveillance”, 190
- American criminal justice system, 5
- American Society of Criminology, 30, 53
- Anti-bias curriculum, 66–67
- Anti-bias training, 67, 68–69
- Anti-Black “violence work”, 42
- Anti-Black racial violence, 44
- Anti-Black racism, 43, 49
- Anti-Blackness, 42
- Anti-carceral approaches, 143–145
- Anti-criminology, 40
- “Anti-oppression”, 49
- Anti-racism, 49
- Anti-rape movements, 139
- Anti-trafficking, 123
- Anti-transgender bias, 127
- Anti-violence work, 86
- Artificial intelligence, 184–185
- Authorship, 16
- Bear Clan Patrol, 92
- “Behavioural surplus”, 188
- “Biometric system failures”, 191
- Black, Brown and Red Power Movements, 42
- Black, Indigenous, and People of Color (BIPOC), 144
- Black and Minority Criminology, 42
- Black Canadian woman policing, 67
- Black community, 13
- Black criminalized women, 123
- “Black criminology”, 53
- Black Experience Project (BEP), 65
- Black Feminist Criminology, 140–143
- Black feminist theory, 140–141
- Black individuals, 123
- Black Lives Matter movement, 1
- Black people, 66, 158
  - disproportionate incarceration rates of, 158
  - opioid overdose rates for, 159
  - unlawful police violence against, 110
  - use drugs, 158–159
- Black Radical Tradition, 3, 40, 51–55
- Black Radicalism, 52
- Black sexuality, 123
- Black women, 140
  - abused, 143
  - drug use among, 158
  - identities, 142
  - trafficking, 123
- Blacks traffickers, 120
- Blurred consent, 5, 184, 187–190
- California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, 152
- Calls for Justice, 84–86
- Canada’s Evidence-Based Policing (CAN-EBP), 71
- Canadian criminology, 47–48
- Canadian police, 43–44
  - evaluating Canadian police service implicit bias training, 67
- Canadian policing
  - exploring racial bias in, 66
  - functions, 64

- Canadian Residential Schools
denunciation, 103–104
deterrence, 102–103
researching causes, 105–108
rethinking punishment and human rights, 108–111
- Capitalism, 45, 190
- “Capitalism-in-crisis”, 190
- Carleton University Institute for Criminology and Criminal Justice (ICCJ), 3, 40–42 critique of, 48–51
George Floyd and ICCJ’s cutting of police/prison intern program, 42–44
- Castells’ identity framework, 186
- Chattel enslavement, 120–121, 123–124
- “Chemical aversion therapy”, 190
- “Child advocacy program”, 48
- Childhood, abuse in, 157
- Civil society, 186
- Claims-making process, 153–154
- Class-based inequalities, 187
- Collaborative approach, 87, 89
- Collaborative research, 16–17
- Collective identity, 190
- Colonialism, 43, 45, 124
- Colonialist-racial-capitalist state, 51
- Colonization, 120, 122 legacies of, 144
- Combatting denial, 177–179
- Commemorations, 91
- “Communities”, 85–86
- Community patrols, 92–93
- Constellations of justice, 90–95
- “Conversion therapy”, 190
- Corporate interests, 188
- “Correctional sentimentality”, 41
- Correctional Services Canada, 40
- “Counter-colonial criminology”, 53
- Counter-storytelling, 3
- Crime, 161
criminology of, 105
theory on, 19
- Crimes against humanity, 101 predictors of, 105
prosecutions of, 103
- Crimes Against Humanity and War Crimes Act, 101
- Criminal justice, 10, 15, 44, 154
diversity, 12–18, 20–21
diversity and criminal justice faculty, 18–20 education industrial complex, 44–47 professionals, 125–126 programs, 48
research, 5
- Criminal justice system, 1–2, 122, 153 trafficking in, 120
- Criminal law, 10, 12, 14, 109
- Criminal legal system (CLS), 144–145
- Criminality, 117
- Criminalization, 92, 127–128
of IPV, 144
- Criminological disciplines, 28
- Criminological inquiry, 153
- Criminological phenomenon, 118
- Criminological scientism, 41
- Criminological theory, 12–13
- Criminologists, 14
- Criminology, 2–3, 10, 26, 41, 44–48, 50, 106, 125, 136, 141, 154 attitudes toward down syndrome and politics of normalization, 170–172 comfort in queer lurking with/in mainstream criminologies, 35–37 comfort zone, 101 of crime, 105
critical intervention, 172–174 down syndrome and definitions of genocide, 174–177 of genocide, 168 genocide as collective action, 176 imagining new and different futures, 177–179 intersectional, 119–120
intersectional feminist, 139–141

- lurking with/in criminological and policing disciplines as queer criminologist, 28–31
- lurking with/in research
  - accountability, 31–35
- Crip contribution, 170
- Crip criminology, 168
- Crip theory, 169–170, 172–174
- “Crippling” tool, 172
- Critical Criminology, 3, 41, 43
  - Black Radical Tradition and neo-maximism, 51–55
  - critique of ICCJ, 48–51
  - George Floyd and ICCJ’s cutting of police/prison intern program, 42–44
  - Haggerty’s response, 47–48
  - sociology, criminology and criminal justice education industrial complex, 44–47
- Critical race method, 3
  - of storytelling, 65
- Critical race theorists, 68, 140
- Critical race theory, 11, 13–14
- Cultural competency, 20
- Cultural diversity, 21
- Cultural race-related stress, 158
- Curriculum, 50

- Data flywheel, 192
- Decolonization, 3, 4, 42
- Denunciation, 103–104
- Deterrence, 102–103
- Devil Finds Work*, 54
- “Digiqueer” criminology, 185–186
- Digital identity harms, 185
- Digital media technologies, 185
- Digital surveillance, 184
- “Dignity-denial”, 158
- Direct marketing datamining techniques, 188
- Disability, 170, 172
  - hierarchies of, 170
  - unintelligibility and non-normalization of, 171
- Disappearing act, 72–73
- Disciplinary institutions, 155
- Disciplinary knowledge, 28
- Discomfort, 26, 34
  - of being queer criminologist, 27
  - ethics of, 34–35
  - of failing, 31
  - feelings of, 33
- Discrimination, 10
- Disparity, 15
- Disrobing the Aboriginal Industry*, 104
- Diversity, 2–4, 14, 51–55
  - and criminal justice faculty, 18–20
  - of faculty in criminal justice, 11
  - in field of criminal justice, 12–18
  - in higher education, 10
  - and impact on criminal justice, 20–21
  - policies, 10
- Domestic criminal offenses, 105
- Domestic human trafficking, 119
- Domestic trafficking, 118
- Domestic violence (DV), 145
- Down syndrome, 5, 168–173, 178
  - body, 171, 173
  - and definitions of genocide, 174–177
  - termination, 169
- Drag Queen Storytime, 191
- Driving While Black (DWBs), 13
- Drug
  - offenses, 161–162
  - use, 158

- Education, 46
- “Electroshock aversion therapy”, 190
- Enlightenment principles, 153
- Enslavement, 121
- Equity, 3, 4, 51–55
- European colonization, 122
- Evidence-based policing, 29
- Evidence-based policing community (EBP community), 64–66, 78
  - anti-bias curriculum, 66–67
  - black on blue, 68–77
  - CAN-EBP, 77–78

- evaluating Canadian police service implicit bias training, 67
  - exploring racial bias in Canadian policing, 66
  - method, 68
  - moment of reflection, 68
- “Evil practices”, 178
- “Ex-gay therapy”, 190
- Executive Branch of United States Government, 110
- “Exorcism”, 190
- Exploitation, 116, 122
  - labor, 123–124
  - sexual, 118, 121, 126
  - trafficking, 117
- Exploring racial bias in Canadian policing, 66

- Facebook–Cambridge Analytica scandal, 189
- Facial recognition software, 187–188
- Fair treatment by authority, 189
- Family-induced trafficking, 126
- Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), 123
- “Feed-forward” processes, 191
- Female offenders, 15
- Female perpetrators of human trafficking, 125
- Female traffickers, 126
- Feminism, 4, 11, 137–138, 146
- Feminist
  - criminology, 4, 139–140, 145
  - female, 26
  - movement exclusion, 146
  - research, 137–139
- Feminist criminologists, 139
- Feminist Criminology*, 136
- Feminist theory, 11, 13
- First Nations communities, 100–101
- Foucault, social theory of, 155

- Gender, 124, 137
  - of faculty member, 17
  - gender-based violence, 136
  - and human trafficking, 124–128
  - impact on sex trafficking, 117
  - superiority, 125
- Genocide, 42, 178–179
  - as collective action, 176
  - down syndrome and definitions of, 174–177
- George Floyd and ICCJ’s cutting of police/prison intern program, 42–44
- Government legitimacy, 188
- “Grand theory”, 170
- Grant acquisition, 17
- Great Recession (2007–2009), 159–160
- Grievability, 174

- #BlackLivesMatter movement, 145
- #MeToo movements, 19
- #Times Up movements, 19
- Health harms, 159
- “Heterosexism”, 190
- Higher education, diversity in, 10
- Historically gender inequality, 142
- “Homophobia”, 190
- Human physiology, 13
- Human rights, 20, 102
  - rethinking punishment and, 108–111
- Human Rights Council of the United Nations, 110
- Human trafficking, 116
  - gender and, 124–128
  - intersectional criminology, 119–120
  - race and, 120–124

- Identity alignment, 189
- Identity-based rights claims, 189
- Immigrant women, 144
- Imperialism, 45
- Implicit bias, 66–67
- In part reluctant, 175
- Incarceration rates, 157
- Inclusion, 51–55
- Inclusivity, 3, 4
- “Indian Country”, 87
- “Indian reserves”, 87
- Indian Residential Schools, 100

- “Indigenous grassroots”, 86, 89, 94–95
 Indigenous people’s human rights, 110
 “Indigenous spatial justice”, 90
 Indigenous-based community patrols, 92
 Indigenous-led community patrols, 92
 Individual rights-based agency, 192
 Inequality, 1, 146
 Inmates, 155
 Innocence, 119
 “Innocent victims”, 119
 Institutional exclusion, 76
 Institutional legitimacy, 185
 Interdisciplinary social movement work, IPV and, 145–147
 International Commission of Inquiry, 109–110
 International Criminal Court (ICC), 101, 103
 International criminal law, 102, 103, 109
 International deterrence, 102–103
 International Lesbian Gay Bisexual Trans and Intersex Association (ILGAWorld), 192
 Intersectional criminology, 119–120
 Intersectional feminism impact on criminology, 136
 Intersectional feminist criminology, 139–141, 143
 Intersectionality, 4, 136 feminist research, 137–139
     intersectional feminist criminology, 139–141 intimate partner violence, 142–147 theory, 119
 Intersectionality perspective, 119
 Interveillance, 189
 Intimate partner violence (IPV), 136, 142
     anti-carceral approaches, 143–145
     and interdisciplinary social movement work, 145–147
 Intimate partner violence (IPV), 4
 Invocation, 186
 “Just another blood test”, 168, 177
 Justice
     constellations of, 90–95 mapping grassroots justices, 89–90
     spatial, 88
 K-9 bomb detection, 44
 Kamloops Indian Residential School, 100–101
 Knowing, 28
 Knowledge, 138
 Labeling theory, 13
 Land-based commemorations, 91–92
 “Large empty shells”, 193
 Law, 21
 Law, Crime and Deviance program (LCD program), 44, 45
 Legacies of colonization, 144
 Legitimizing identity, 186
 Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Queer communities (LGBTQ communities), 5, 184 agency, 188
     blurred consent and redistributed privacy, 187–190
     communities, 15, 193
     identities, 189–192
     rights, 185
     segments mobilize, 190 surveillance capitalism, 190–192
     technology, 185
 LG BTQI+ communities, 2
 LGBTQ+ community, 10
 Liberal feminist activism, 143–144
 Life without parole (LWOP), 161
 Life-course theory, 13
 Likelihood, 157–158
 Litigation, 10
 Lombroso (Father of Criminology), 12
 Long Recovery (2009–2019), 159–160
 Long-term recidivism, 152

- Lurking, 27
 with/in criminological and policing disciplines as queer criminologist, 28–31 with/in research accountability, 31–35
- Mama Bear Clan, 92
- Mann Act (1910), 124
- Mapping justices methodology, 85, 89
- Marginalized communities, 67
- Mass imprisonment, 160
- Mass incarceration, 153, 160–162
 abuse, 155–157
 addiction, 157–159
 C. Wright Mills, 154
 constructionist view, 153
 Foucault, 155
 literature review, 153
 unemployment and poverty, 159–160
- Maternity, 12
- Medical gaze, 170
- Membership, 175
- Methadone, 158
- “Militarized” policing, 52
- Mills, C. Wright, 154 framework, 154
- “Minority” criminologists, 54
- Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls and Two-spirit+ People (MMIWG 2S+ people), 84–85, 86–87
 constellations of justice, 90–95
 methodology, 89–90
 theoretical framework, 87–88
- MMIWG2S+ people, 3
- Modus Vivendi*, 48
- Multi-authored scholars, 17
- Narratives, 65–66
- National Family and Survivors Circle (NFSC), 86
- National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls (NIMMIWG), 84, 94
- Native Women’s Association of Canada (NWAC), 84, 87
- Negative behavior, 19
- Negotiations, 185
- Neo-Marxism, 3, 51–55
- Neo-Weberian pluralism, 51
- Neo-Weberianism, 52
- “Neoliberal capitalism”, 190
- Neoliberal trade policies, 117
- Neoliberal governance on LG BTQ, 186–187
- “Neoliberal” governance, 184, 186, 187
- “New homonormativity”, 190
- “Non-hierarchical monitoring practices”, 189
- Non-normalization of disability, 171
- “Non-systematic monitoring practices”, 189
- Non-violent crimes, 152
 LWOP for, 161
- Norm’s function, 171
- Offenders, 13
- Ontario Human Rights Commission reports (OHRC), 64
- Opioids, 158–159
- Ottawa-Carleton Detention Centre (OCDC), 40
- Pandemic conditions, 1
- Patriarchy, 137
- Penal policy, 15
- Personal narrative approach, 68
- Phrenology, 184
- Physical abuse, 155
- Place, 94
- “Platform biometrics”, 185
- (p)olitical society, 46
- Police
 lethality, 1
 professionalization, 52
- Policing disciplines, 28
- “Political correctness”, 40
- Political science, 12, 21
- Politico-epistemolog, 41

- Politics of normalization, 170–172
 “Post-gay” identity, 189, 191
 Poverty, 117, 159–160
 Pre-emptive control, 188
 Predictive marketing segmentation, 188
 Prenatal testing, 171 for pregnant people, 168
 Prison(s), 152, 155
     vocational training, 162
 “Professionalization”, 46–47
 Project identity, 186
 Property crime, 15
 Prosecution for crimes against humanity, 101–104
 Pseudo-scientific theories, 184
 Psychological factors, 13
 Psychology, 12, 21
 Psychopharmacological approach, 157
 Public administration, 21

 Queer criminologist, 27
     lurking with/in criminological and policing disciplines as, 28–31
 Queer lurking with/in mainstream criminologies, 35–37
 “Queer surveillance”, 186
 Queer theory, 30
 Queer(y)ing criminological research, 31–35
 Queerness, 26–27

 Race and human trafficking, 120–124
 Race/ethnicity, 17
 Racial bias exploration in Canadian policing, 66
 Racial injustices, 13
 Racism, 42–43
 Racist experiences, 158
 Racketeering, 41, 45
 Radical neo-Weberianism, 3
 Reasonable person, 14
 Recidivism, 152
Reclaiming Power and Place, 88
 Redistributed privacy, 187–190

 “Reform capitalism”, 190
 Rehabilitation, funding for, 162
 (re)-mapping methods, 90
 Research accountability, lurking with/in, 31–35
 Resistance identity, 186
 Ressentiment, 34
 Rethinking punishment and human rights, 108–111
 Retributive justice, 103
 “Return-for-investment”, 29
 Risk assessments, 15

 Second Wave Feminism, 42
 Securitization, 45
 Selective termination, 168–172, 176–179
 Self-regulation, 46
 Settler colonialism, 43
 Sex trafficking, 4, 117
     in Native American communities, 122
 Sexual abuse, 121, 155
 Sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression change efforts” (SOGIECE), 190
 Sexual violence victimization, 19
 Sexualized terror, 121
 Slavery-like conditions of Native Americans, 121
 Social behaviors, 67
 Social constructionism, 153–154
 “Social contract capitalism”, 190
 Social control theory, 13
 Social factors, 13
 “Social group”, 175
 Social identity, 189
 Social injustices, 13
 Social institutions, 152–153
 Social movements, 190 in North America, 1
 Social problems, 153–154
 Social science, 10
 Social strain theory, 13
 Social stratification, 117
 Social theory of Foucault, 155

- Sociological imagination, 153, 154, 158–159
- Sociological theory, 5
- Sociology, 3, 12, 21, 44–47, 154
discipline of, 28
- Sociopharmacology, 157–158
Sources of Social Power, The, 52
- Sousveillance, 185, 194
- “Spatial justice”, 88
- “Spatializing justice”, 85
- “Spiritual/miracle cure”, 190
- State sovereignty, 102
- State-sponsored trafficking, 121
- Storytelling, 65
- Structural harms, 185
- Structural inequalities, 21
- Surveillance, 187–188
- Surveillance capitalism, 5, 184, 186–188, 190–192
- Systemic racism, 1
- Teaching, 16–18, 28
curriculum, 21
- Tearhurt Regional Police (TRP), 68
- Tech corporation, 187
- “Technicity of technologies”, 185, 189
- “Tracheotomy”, 173
- Traffickers, theoretical analysis of, 125
- Trafficking, 117
in criminal justice system, 120 severe forms of, 123
Trafficking in Persons, 118, 122, 127
- Trafficking Victims Protection Act (TVPA), 116
- Transgender individuals, 127
- Trauma, 26, 156–157
- Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada (TRC), 100, 104
- Unearthing Justices collaborative research project, 85, 89, 93
- Unemployment, 159–160
- Unintelligibility of disability, 171
- United Nations (UN), 192
- United States Congress, 110
- United States criminal justice system, 123, 152
- United States Department of Justice, 161
- United States Sentencing Commission, 152
- University, 47
and violence work, 44–47
- US Christian anti-LG BTQ, 191
- US sociopolitical structure, 119
- Victimhood, 117
- Victimization, 13
theory on, 19
- Victims, 120
- Violence, 139
extrusion of, 45
university and Violence work, 44–47
- Violence Against Women Act (VAWA), 122
- Violent interpersonal crimes, 119
- Violently repressive actions, 107
- Vocationalism, 48
- Vulnerability for sex traffickers, 117
- Walk4Justice, 93
- War on Drugs, 158
- War on terror, 46
- Western liberal democracies, 184
- Western style, 52
- White people, 158
- “White Slave Traffic Act”, 124
- White supremacy, 160
- “Wokism”, 48
- Women in academia, 16 of color, 15
offenders, 12
traffickers, 126
- “Women’s choice” narratives, 169
- World Health Organization, 142, 154