INDEX

Note: Page numbers followed by "n" indicate notes.

Acceptance, 32
African Muslim youth, 97–98
Agency, 5
Alba's conceptualization of boundaries, 56–57
All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE), 174
Alternative Church School's perspective on returning Roma children, 128–130
Apprehensions, 16–18
Aspiration(s), 188
  changing aspirations for global human capital building, 174
  construction of aspirations for overseas education, 176
  market for fulfilling students' aspirations for overseas education, 177–180
Aspirational capital, 116–118, 128
Asylum laws, 13

Belonging, 82, 185
  school sense of belonging for Italian and NIC Students, 82–84
  sense of, 76–78, 186–187
Bilingual (English-Hungarian) programme, 122
'Black capital', 128
"Blackness", 53
"Borderlandization" of Mexico, 13, 15
  2014 unaccompanied child migrant crisis, 14–15
  in 2014, 16–18
  data and methods, 13–14
  Mexican immigration laws fail to protect minors, 18–20
  minor migrants' experiences and responses to, 22–25
  propaganda campaigns, 20–22
Boundaries, 56
Bourdieusian capitals, 118
Bourdieusian concept of capital, 128
"Burmese" Diaspora in Mae Sot, 151–152

Capital, 117
Capital devaluation, school contexts effects on, 126
Career aspiration, 108–111, 185
Central American
  immigrant children and teens, 33
  immigration, 33
  migrants, 13, 20–21
  youth, 33
Chain migration, 120
Checkpoints, 16–18
Child/children
  affect relationship between parents and children in reunification process, 32
  centering voices of children and youth on move, 190
  high-status families with children abroad and returned, 132–135
  lives of transnationally mobile, 8
  migrants, 23
  migration, 5, 20, 185
  mobility, 1–3
  mobility among, 5
  narratives, 125–126

non-dominant cultural capital of, 7
predicament, 36
returning children of elite in middle-class bilingual school in pest, 123–126
returning Roma children and families' narratives, 130–132
school reintegration of, 116
Christianity, 98
Closed-ended questions, 38
Cognitive bias, 165*n*24
Competitive global knowledge economy, 168
Conversational-level Thai Language, 158–160
'Creative class', 176
Crisis in Indian higher education, 174–176
Critical Race Theory (CRT), 118
Cultural capital, 116–118, 121, 182*n*4
Culture, 54
Customs and Border Protection (CBP), 34

'Degree mobility', 176
Depopulation, 74
Deportations, 16–18
Descriptive statistics, 38
Diversity, unity in, 151–152
Diversity education (DE), 149, 153
Burmese, Thai, and English, 158
Domestic formal education sector, 178
Dominant cultural capital (see Legitimated cultural capital)
Dual frame of reference, 55–56

Economic and Cultural Status Index (ECS Index), 90*n*7
Economic capital, 116–117, 182*n*4
Education, 76, 168–169
in migrant community, 152
in Mosque, 101–102
and opportunity, 143–144
opportunity trap in, 146
potential highest attainment of, 161
transnational opportunities in, 145–146
via TV Shows, TV Characters, and internet, 110
Education credentials, 143
El Salvador
political and economic instability in, 40
young people in, 36, 41–42
Elite migrants, 120
"Emotional withholding", 36
Employability, 174
Enforcement in Mexico, 13
English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL), 38
Equivocal ideas about legal identifications within migrant community, 162–163
Ethnic capital, 128
Ethnic identity, 63–67
Ethnic return migration, 54–56
Ethnographic studies, 118
Ethnography, 148, 150
untangling complexity of ethnic relations and languages in Myanmar, 150–151 Examinations, 178
Exclusion
of ethnic groups, 74
Italian school between, 75–76
Existential agency in transitions, 4–6

Faith schools, 121
Familial capital, 118
Family
benefits of, 40
members as influences, 110–111
narratives, 130–132
reunification, 32, 33, 35
separation, 34–37
Formal education, 164*n*1
Future career solutions (FCS), 149, 153, 158–160

Gains of migration, 116–117
Gender equality, 107
General Educational Development (GED), 153
Global industries, 52
Global North, 8
  colleges and universities in, 189
Global South, 8
Globalisation, 1, 98, 170
  and changing economic structure of India, 171–172 knowledge economy and world class higher education, 172–174 rise of middle class in India, 172
Globalized youth culture, 2
Guardian, The, 15

Health and Human Services (HHS), 34
Higher education, 168
  knowledge economy and world class, 172–174
  quality higher education in India, 169
"Home" concept, 34–37
"Household Contexts and School Integration of Resettled Migrant Youth", 37–38
Human capital, 169
  accumulation, 170–174
  changing aspirations for global human capital building, 174
  construction of aspirations for overseas education, 176
  determinants of demand for overseas higher education, 176–177 neo-liberalism and crisis in higher education in India, 174–176
Human capital theory (HCT), 144
"Humanitarian crisis", 20
Hungarian education system, 121
Hungarian Roma, 119
Hungary
  returning Roma migrant children by teachers in rural, 126–132 transnational migration from/to, 119–122

Identities, 56–57
  sites of negotiating, maintaining, and constructing, 187–188
"Illusory assimilation", 84, 90*n*12
Immigrant workers in Italian, 74
  youth, 35
Immigration, 84 (see also Migration) enforcement, 13, 16
  laws, 22
  from Mexico, 33
  policies in Mexico, 13
Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), 40 Inclusion
  of ethnic groups, 74
  Italian school between, 75–76
Inclusive education, 142–143
India
  demand for quality higher education in, 169
  globalisation and changing economic structure of, 171–172
  middle class in, 172
Indian American youth
  ethnic return migration, 54–56
  methods and data, 58–59
  multiculturalism, identity, and super-diversity, 57 nation-states, boundaries, and identity, 56
  transnational Indian American youth and identity, 60–67
  transnational migration, 52–53
  transnational youths' social positioning in USA and India, 53–54

Indian economy, 172
Indian higher education system, 169
Indian Institute of Technology Bombay (IITB), 173
"Indianness", 53
Individual migratory trajectories, 185
Inequalities, newer forms of, 179–180
Informal institutional arrangements, 178–179
Information technology (IT), 53
Interrogating marriage, 105–106
Interrogation, 2
Intersectionality, 186–187
  of migration, 120
Irregular migrants, 19
Irreplaceable multifunctionality of MLCs, 160
Islam, 98–99, 104
  in United States, 98–99
Islamic fundamentalists, 98
Islamic Tenets, 105
  choosing friends, 107–108
  gender equality, 107
  interrogating marriage, 105–106
  issues of modesty, 106–107
Islamophobia, 97
Italian Institute of Statistics (ISTAT), 90*n*7
Italian school between inclusion and exclusion, 75–76

Knowledge, 169
Knowledge economy (KE), 171–172
  and world class higher education, 172–174

Latin American Youth Center (LAYC), 34
Law enforcement, 40
Legitimated cultural capital, 118
Legitimation, 118
Life transitions, 4
Likert scale, 82
Linguistic capital, 118
Losses of migration, 116–117

Madrassa, youth in, 103–105
Marginality
  Borgoantico, 78–79
  case study, 78
  data analysis, 82
  description of research participants, 80–81 experiences of students at school, 85–86 experiences of students in district, 84–85
  Italian school between inclusion and exclusion, 75–76
  reflections of privileged witnesses, 86–88
  research findings, 82
  school "Diomede", 79–80
  school sense of belonging for Italian and NIC Students, 82–84
  sense of belonging and educational contexts, 76–78 study design and research processes, 81–82
Marginalization, 60, 74
Marriage, 105
Mexican immigration laws fail to protect minors, 18–20
Mexican law, 26*n*2
Mexican Media Campaign, 21
Mexican transnational families, 36
Mexico's borderlandization in 2014, 16–18
Middle-class bilingual school, returning children of elite in, 123–126
Migrant community, education in, 152
Migrant learning centers (MLCs), 7, 143, 147, 154–158, 189
  irreplaceable multifunctionality of, 160 Migrant students perceived purposes of current education, 154–158
  in Thailand, 143, 148–149

Migrants
equivocal ideas about legal identifications within migrant community, 162–163
experiences in different countries, 52 limited employment opportunities for, 161–162 Migration, 1, 98 (see also Immigration)
among children and youth, 5
attempts to Canada and UK, 129 contexts within global landscape, 3–4 experience, 116
home in, 37
and opportunity, 144–145
transnational opportunities in, 145–146
trends, 33
Minor migrants, 19
experiences and responses to "borderlandization" of Mexico, 22–25 minors face taxing physical and mental conditions, 23–25 protection, 20
targeted minor migrants, 23
Mixed methods study, 37–38
"Mobile childhoods", 1–2
"Mobilities paradigm", 2
Mobility, 3–4
among children and youth, 5
turn, 2
Modern mass education, 142–143
Morality, 103–104
Multicultural transformation of Italian society, 74
Multiculturalism, 57, 98–99
Multidimensional approach, 76
Multiple correspondence analysis (MCA), 82
Myanmarese migrant students
data analysis, 150
education and opportunity, 143–144
equivocal ideas about legal identifications within migrant community, 162–163
ethnography, 148, 150–152
findings and results, 150
inclusive education, 142–143
interviews with faculty members, 152–153 interviews with students, 153–160
literature review, 143
in Mae Sot, Thailand, 143
methods, 148
migration and opportunity, 144–145 opportunities or traps, 160–161 opportunities trap between secondary education and employment prospects, 162 opportunity trap in education, 146
phenomenological research, 148–150
potential highest attainment of education, 161 transnational opportunities in migration and education, 145–146
transnational opportunity, 163–164
transnational opportunity trap in education confronted by Myanmarese migrant youth, 146–147
unity in diversity, 151–152
work, 161
Myanmarese migrant youth, 189

Nation-states, 56
National Commission on Human Rights of Mexico (CNDH), 15
National Council of Ghanaian Associations (NCOGA), 100
National Institute of Immigration (INM), 16

National Sample Survey (NSS), 174
Navigational capital, 118, 128
Neo-liberalism in Indian higher education, 174–176
New York City (NYC), 96
  centrality of Mosques for Ghanaian Muslim immigrants in, 99–100
Non-dominant cultural capital (see Non-legitimated cultural capital)
Non-formal education (NFE), 164*n*1
Non-Italian citizenship (NIC), 74, 90*n*1
Non-legitimated cultural capital, 7, 117, 118

Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR), 34
Open-ended questions, 38 Opportunity
  education and, 143–144
  of migrant students, 143
  migration and, 144–145
  trap between secondary education and employment prospects, 162
  trap in education, 146 Overseas education
  construction of aspirations for, 176 demand for, 177–178
  and domestic formal education sector, 178
  and informal institutional arrangements, 178–179 market for fulfilling students' aspirations for, 177
  newer forms of inequalities, 179–180
Overseas higher education, 176–177

"Paradox of integration", 84, 90*n*12
Pedagogical approaches, 121
Pest school, 122
Phenomenological research, 148–150
Post-traumatic stress, 37
Precarity, 188
Primary data, 13
Principle of Education For All (1999), 142
Private schools, 121
Programa Frontera Sur (see Southern Border Plan)
Propaganda campaigns, 13, 20–22
Pseudonyms, 90*n*4
Public schools, 121

Quacquarelli Symonds (QS), 173
Quality education, 176
"Quédate" (Stay) program, 20
Questioning teachings at Mosque, 107

"Racialized social relations", 85
Refugee and immigrant family reunification abroad, 32
Religion, 99
Research participants, 80–81
Residential segregation, 90*n*2
Resistant capital, 118
Resolution, 142
Returning children of elite in middle-class bilingual school in pest, 123–126
Returning Roma children and families' narratives, 130–132
Returning Roma migrant children by teachers in rural Hungary, 126–132
Reunification, 32–33, 34–37
  experiencing, 37
  period, 33
Role models, 110
Roma migrant children returning by teachers in rural Hungary, 126–132
Rural schools, 74

SafetyNet (SN), 149, 153, 158
Scholars conceptualise migration, 119
School
  belonging, 76–77
  contexts effects on capital devaluation, 126

experiences of students at, 85–86
reintegration of children, 116 role, 74
segregation, 90*n*3
selection, 149
sense of belonging for Italian and NIC Students, 82–84
School "Diomede", 79–80
Schooling, 185
Second-generation immigrant, 63–67
Second-generation Indian Americans, 53–54
Secondary sources, 13
Semi-structured questionnaire, 82
Sense of belonging, 186–187
Social capital, 116–118, 182*n*4
Social network, 2
Social position, 117–119
Social services organizations, 47
Sociality, 76
Socialization in Mosque, 101–102
Socioeconomic inequality, 168
Southern Border Plan, 12–13, 15–18, 26*n*1
'Specialised human capital', 168
State-invested education, 142–143
Stereotyping, 98
Stigmatization, 74
Students
experiences at school, 85–86 experiences in district, 84–85
international movement of, 169
school sense of belonging for Italian and NIC Students, 82–84
Sub-Saharan Africa, 97
Super-diversity, 57
Symbolic capital, 117

Teachers' perspectives on transnationally mobile children, 123–125
Technological innovation, 98
Teleparenting, 43
Television commercial, 20
Trading cultural capital limits
alternative Church School's perspective on returning Roma children, 128–130 different school contexts effects on capital devaluation, 126
high-status families with children abroad and returned, 132–135
methods, data, 122–123
research context, 119
results, 123
returning children of elite in middle-class bilingual school in pest, 123–126
returning Roma children and families' narratives, 130–132
returning Roma migrant children by teachers in rural Hungary, 126–132
theoretical framework, 117–119
transnational migration from/to Hungary, 119–122
Traditional rural public school, 126–128
Transitional processes, 4
Transitions, existential agency in, 4–6
Transnational families, 36–37
Transnational Indian American youth and identity, 60 different contexts of reception, 60–63 transnational migration, ethnic identity, and being second-generation immigrant, 63–67
Transnational living, 98
Transnational migrants, 2, 52–53, 99
Transnational migration, 2, 63–67, 117, 169–170, 182*n*2
from/to Hungary, 119–122
Transnational mobility, 119
Transnational opportunity, 163–164
gap, 7
in migration and education, 145–146

trap in education confronted by Myanmarese migrant youth, 146–147
Transnational parenting, 32
Transnational professionals, 52
"Transnational social fields", 2
Transnational young migrants, 186–187
migration experiences, 185
social positioning in USA and India, 53–54
Transnationalism, 2, 169, 182*n*1

Unaccompanied child migrant crisis (2014), 14–15
Unaccompanied children, 37
Unaccompanied Refugee Minor (URM), 34
Uncertainty, 188
Understanding, 32
Undocumented migrants, 142
Unity in diversity, 151–152
Urban–rural gap, 74
US Border Patrol, 12

War on Terror, 98
Well-being, 119
West African immigrants
African Muslim youth, 97–98
career aspirations, 108–111
centrality of Mosques for Ghanaian Muslim immigrants in NYC, 99–100 education and socialization in Mosque, 101–102
immigrant Muslim youth, 96–97
Islamic Tenets, 105–108
main subjects taught to youth in Madrassa, 103–105
methods, 100–101
multiculturalism, 98–99
"Whiteness", 53
William Wilberforce Trafficking Victims Protection Reauthorization Act (TVPRA), 34
Work, 161

Young immigrants findings, 39–40
interpreting and following rules, 41–42
methods, 37–39
migration trends, 33
minors, 45–46
moving in with biological parents, 42–45 reunification process, 32–33
social services organizations, 47
understanding reunification, family separation, and idea of "home", 34–37
Youth
centering voices of children and youth on move, 190
in El Salvador, 36
experienced Mexico as border, 25
lives of transnationally mobile, 8
in Madrassa, 103–105
migration, 5, 37, 185
mobility, 1–3
mobility among, 5
taking ownership of career paths, 108–111