LIST OF FIGURES

Fig. 2.1	The Production Function Defense-Growth Model Based on Easton (1965, p. 32).	24
Fig. 3.1	Zone of Agreement and Conflicts in Bargaining.	37
Fig. 3.2	Nash Bargaining Solution of Israel versus Egypt, Jordan, and the PNA.	38
Fig. 3.3	Camp David Accord and Wadi Araba Agreement Zones of Conflict and Agreement of Nash Bargaining Solution.	54
Fig. 3.4	The Oslo Accords Zones of Conflict and Agreement between Israel and the PNA.	59
Fig. 4.1	Egyptian, Jordanian, and Syrian Military Expenditures from 1998 to 2006 in $US Million (Constant Values).	79
Fig. 4.2	Pakistani Military Expenditures from 1960 to 2006 $US Million (Constant Values).	87
Fig. 4.3	Indian Military Expenditures from 1960 to 2006 $US Billion (Constant Values).	87
Fig. 7.1	The Impact of Political Freedom, Economic, Military, and Non-Military Factors and Their Externalities on Economic Growth.	135
Fig. 7.2	The Impact of Institutional Freedom, Economic, Military, and Non-Military Factors and Their Externalities on Economic Growth.	136
Fig. 7.3	The Impact of Regime Type, Economic, Military, and Non-Military Factors and Their Externalities on Economic Growth.	137
Fig. 7.4	The Impact of Regime Stability, Economic, Military, and Non-Military Factors and Their Externalities on Economic Growth.	139

Fig. 7.5 The Impact of Regime Ideological Base, Economic, Military, and Non-Military Factors and Their Externalities on Economic Growth. 140
Fig. 7.6 The Impact of Internal Conflicts, Economic, Military, and Non-Military Factors and Their Externalities on Economic Growth.. 141
Fig. 7.7 The Impact of External Conflicts, Economic, Military, and Non-Military Factors and Their Externalities on Economic Growth.. 142
Fig. 7.8 The Impact of Total Conflicts, Economic, Military, and Non-Military Factors and Their Externalities on Economic Growth.. 144