

INDEX

- Action, Collaboration, Transformation (ACT), 81
- Africa, 187, 201
- Agenda 2030, 60, 76
- Alignment, 22–23
- Alliance for Beverage Cartons and the Environment (ACE), 143
- Alpa (Swedish company), 85
- American Marketing Association (AMA), 34
- Apple, 77, 85
- Audit-based governance strategy, 202
- Authentic approach, 97
- Aware™, 47
- B2B Textiles
  - circular economy and textile recirculation from technical perspective, 41–43
  - ethical challenges in marketing textiles, 38–39
  - ethical challenges related to current production and consumption patterns, 37
  - managerial implications, 51–53
  - managing circular economy value chain, 43–46
  - Schijvens' response to ethical challenges in marketing corporate fashion, 46–50
- Bangladesh, 102–103
  - H&M and water management in, 120–122
  - whole environment agenda really challenging in, 103–104
- Biogas, 41
- Biological nutrients, 40–41
- Biomass, 200
- Blending, 158
- Bohinj ECo Hotel, 82–83
- Bonsucro, 140
- Bottom-level stakeholders, 99
- Brand commitment, 223, 227
- Brundtland Commission Report, 130
- Business (es), 37, 69, 133
  - continuity concept, 211
  - finance, 146–147
  - governance, 144–145
  - networks, 142–144
  - ownership, 145–146
  - paradigms, 61
  - purpose, 141
  - redesigning business pillars, 141
  - sustainability, 155
- Buyer–seller relationships in global markets, 155
- Carbon neutrality, 181
- Carbon Trust certification, 143
- Carbon Trust-certified carbon neutral Tetra Rex line of packaging, 140
- Case study, 99, 105
  - approach, 136
  - of competing institutional logics, 158
  - of international firms, 159
- Certificate of Authenticity, 48, 51
- Chemicals, 207
  - recycling, 42
- Children Safe Zones, 22
- Chinese suppliers, 168
- Circular business models, 182
- Circular economy (CE), 6, 35, 39, 179, 199, 201
  - business model, 181, 192
  - managing circular economy value chain, 43–46
  - practices, 183–185

- principles, 34–35, 37, 43, 48, 53, 180
- system, 183
- from technical perspective, 41–43
- Circular supply chains, 44
- Circular value chain, 44
- Clean energy, 69
- Climate change, 119
- Climate strategy, 104
- Closed-loop production process, 51
- Closed-loop supply chains (CLSC), 202, 204
- Coca Cola, 123
- Collaborative dynamics, 202
- Collaborative relationships, 210
- Company strategies, 29
- Competing institutional logics in global markets towards sustainability, case study of, 159–161
- Competing logics, 155, 163, 167
- Competitive advantage, 60, 79, 238–239
  - de-growth lead to, 83–85
- Competitive position, 2
  - international firms driving sustainable and ethical business practices, 2–3
  - structural and cultural variations between markets, 3
- Consumers, 154
- Convenience sampling method, 226
- Conventional supply chains, 51
- Conventional textile industry, 38
- Cooperative advantage, de-growth strategies for, 84–85
- Cooperative stakeholder networks, 45
- Corporate crisis team (CCT), 211
- Corporate Environment Director, 210
- Corporate fashion, Schijvens response to ethical challenges in marketing, 46–50
- Corporate social responsibility (CSR), 78, 94
- Corporate strategy, 2, 13
- Corporate Sustainable Reporting Directive (CSRD), 240, 242, 245
- Corporate To Do List, 133, 135, 138–139
- COVID-19 pandemic, 29, 206
- Credibility, 18–19
- Dairy processing, 140
- Decision process, 192
- Decision-making process, 145, 203
- Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work (1998), 199
- Deep decarbonization of economy, 239
- De-growth
  - de-growth-adapted product design, 84
  - de-growth-oriented standard setting, 85
  - lead to competitive advantage, 83
  - strategies for competitive and cooperative advantage, 84–85
- Design for X, 182
- Design process, 40
- Dishwasher, 24
- Do-it-yourself (DIY), 160
- Doing Mission Zero, 139, 141
- Doughnut economics, 130, 133–135
- Doughnut Economics Action Lab (DEAL), 133
- Dunkin', 65
- E-commerce context, relationships in, 222
- Eco-design approach, 210
- Education, 50
- Electronics industry, 200
- Embedded sustainability, 82–83
- Emerging markets, 60
  - context, 94
  - settings, 95
- Empirical data, 14
- Empirical material, 161
- Energy-consuming process, 42
- Environment, health and safety (EHS), 209

- Environmental, social and governance (ESG), 4, 29
- Environmental sustainability, 22, 78
- Environmental-related issues, 201
- Ericsson (company), 23
- Ericsson case, The, 26
- Ethical behavior, 2, 7
  - importance of international firms for achieving sustainability goals, 3–7
  - sustainability and competitive position, 2–3
- Ethical business practices, international firms driving sustainable and, 2–3
- Ethical challenges in marketing textiles, 38–39
- Ethical challenges related to current production and consumption patterns, 37
- Ethical leadership, 112, 115
  - challenge of water management in readymade garment production, 119–120
  - conceptual framework, 116–117
  - data collection and analysis, 118–119
  - ethics and sustainable development in MNEs, 113–115
  - findings, 119
  - H&M and Water Management in Bangladesh, 120–122
  - H&M as water steward, 122–123
  - method, 117
  - theoretical background, 113
- Ethics in MNEs, 113–115
- EU Green Deal, The, 181, 239
- EU with the Emissions Trading System (EU ETS), 238
- European Green Deal, The, 238
- European organizations, 76
- European Semiconductor Industry Association (ESIA), 210
- European Union (EU)
  - CE Action Plan, 181
  - challenges for, 241–242
  - CSRD and Taxonomy, 240–241
  - mapping and reporting of sustainability risk among listed firms and investors in Sweden, 243
  - survey design, 243
  - survey results, 243–246
  - Sustainable Finance Platform, 238–239
  - Taxonomy on Sustainable Development, 240
- Extended value chain, sustainability of, 208–211
- External organizations, 142
- Fair Wage project, 81
- Fair Wear Foundation, 48
- Fairphone, 85
- Fashion industry, 186
- Fashion retailer, 160
- Fast-fashion companies, 101
- Finance, 146–147
- Financial firms, 243
- Financial investors, 154
- Firms, 181, 247
  - infrastructure, 45
  - sustainability strategy, 243
- Flygskam*, 85
- Focus group analysis, 229
- Food waste, 61, 64
  - crisis, 64–65
- Foreign direct investment (FDI), 198
- Forest Stewardship Council (FSC), 18
- Forest Stewardship Council-certified carton (FSC-certified carton), 140
- Fossil fuels, 200
- Fridays for Future, 76
- Frugal production techniques, 192–193
- Gama (Turkish textile company), 48
- Gases, 207
- Global consumers, 220–221
  - sustainable orientation, 221

- Global corporations, 60, 63, 67–69
 food waste crisis, 64–65
 global waste crisis, 62–64
 innovations to tackle waste crisis, 67–70 plastic waste crisis, 65–67
- Global fashion company, 105, 108
- Global fashion retailer aiming to become climate positive, 101–102
- Global institutional logic, 167
- Global markets, 167
 case study of competing institutional logics in global markets towards sustainability, 159–161 competing logics for sustainability in, 156–157
 contesting global market practices towards sustainability with institutional logics navigation, 164–167 navigating competing institutional logics in global markets towards sustainability, 161–167 supporting global market practices towards sustainability with institutional logics navigation, 161–164 sustainability values in, 155–156
- Global multinationals, 76
- Global municipal solid waste, 63
- Global Partnership for Sustainable Development, 202
- Global Reporting Initiative's sustainability reporting guidelines, 239
- Global stakeholders, need to engage, 104–105
- Global sustainability, 15, 167
 approach, 15, 17
 building attractive cases, 21–22
 contributions, 3–6, 26–29 creating alignment, 22–23 developing internal support, 15 establishing legitimate sustainability network position, 18–21 establishing long-term salient structures, 24 establishing sustainable practices, 16–18 monitoring and safeguarding sustainability achievements, 25 presenting incentives and gains lead to action, 21 relevance for organization, 15–16 relevance for SDGs, 29–30 research method, 13–15 resistance and inertia, 23–24 structures and processes for further development, 25
- Global textile industry, 34, 38
- Global value chains (GVCs), 4, 198–199, 200–204
- Global waste crisis, 62–64
- Governance, 144–145, 147
- Governments, 2
- Grassroots movements, 76
- Green Deal, The, 239
- Green-washing, 240
- Greenhouse Gas Protocols, 139
- Greenpeace, 18
- Hennes & Mauritz (H&M), 3, 15, 19, 24, 76–77, 79–82, 112, 117, 119
 in Bangladesh, 120–122
 Conscious Actions Sustainability Report, 120
 Group, 120–121
 sustainable solutions, 81
 as water steward, 122–123
- Home improvement retailer, 160
- IKEA, 13–14, 16–17, 19, 21, 77, 85, 137–139, 141–142, 144, 147
 People and Planet Positive strategy report, 138
 sustainability strategy, 139
 urban farming initiative, 145

- Incident Review Board, 25
- Incremental reductionist approach, 53
- IndustriALL, 81
- Industry, 205
  - building resilience against
    - uncertainty in semiconductor industry, 206
  - semiconductors and sustainability, 205–206
- Inertia, 23–24
- Influential theories, 222
- Informal sectors, 63
- INGKA group, 143
- Ingka group, 146
- Innovations, 44
  - process, 144, 247
  - waste capitalization through, 69–70
- Institutional logics, 154, 156, 163
  - approach, 155
  - case study of competing institutional logics in global markets towards sustainability, 159–161
  - competing logics for sustainability in global markets, 156–157
  - contesting global market practices towards sustainability with institutional logics navigation, 164–167
  - dissonance, 157
  - literature review, 155
  - navigating competing institutional logics in global markets towards sustainability, 161
  - navigation techniques among competing institutional logics towards sustainability, 157–158
  - outcomes of navigation among competing institutional logics, 167–168
  - supporting global market practices towards sustainability
    - with institutional logics navigation, 161–164
    - sustainability values in global markets, 155–156
    - theoretical perspective, 158
- Institutions, 203
- Intentional marketing design approach, 34
- Inter IKEA group, 146
- Interinstitutional system, 156
- International business (IB), 2, 113
  - contexts, 62
  - literature, 95
  - researchers, 202
- International dimension, 156
- International firms, 2, 154
  - contributions to global sustainability goals, 3–6
  - driving sustainable and ethical business practices, 2–3
  - importance of international firms for achieving sustainability goals, 3
  - importance of small and large international firms, 6–7
- International Labour Organization (ILO), 16, 201
- International online brands
  - analysis, 229–231
  - limitations and future research suggestions, 232–233
  - managerial implications, 232
  - pre-study, 225
  - quantitative data collection project, 226–227
  - relationships in e-commerce context, 222
  - research methods and results, 225
  - results from main study, 228–229
  - sustainability orientation, 222–224
  - theoretical background and hypothesis development, 222
  - theoretical implications, 231
  - validity, 227–228
- International online business models, 220

- International platforms, 18
- International production networks, 202
- Internet, The, 220
- Internet of Things (IoT), 207
- Isomorphic process, 170

- Landfilling, 62
- Large corporations, 67
- Learning process, 116
- LED-lighting, 24
- Legitimacy, 18–19
- Legitimate sustainability network position
  - credibility and legitimacy, 18–19
  - establishing, 18
  - stakeholder relationships for sustainability, 20–21
- Lego, 77, 85
- Linear systems, 62
- LISREL analysis, 227
- Local communities, 192
- Local Motors, 85
- Local stakeholders, 114
  - need to engage, 104–105
- Logics for sustainability in global markets, competing, 156–157
- Lund University, 136–137

- Manufacturing process, 189
- Marketing
  - approach, 53
  - ethical challenges in marketing textiles, 38–39
  - research field, 222
  - response to tackle ethical challenges in marketing management, 39
  - scholars, 223
- Markets (see also Global markets)
  - market-positioning strategies, 154
  - structural and cultural variations between, 3
  - values, 154
- Materiality exercise, 209
- Materiality matrix, 209
- McCafe, 65
- Mechanical recycling process, 42
- Metals, 200
- Milestone-based approach, 144
- Milk project, 27–28
- Minerals, 200
- Mobile manufacturers, 85
- Model's reliability, 228
- Multi-level approach, 132
- Multinational enterprises (MNE), 3, 12, 16, 19, 29, 94, 77, 101, 105, 108, 112, 130–133, 198
  - ethics and sustainable development in, 113–115
  - internal organization, 24
  - largest production markets for, 102–103
  - MNE-led sustainability efforts, 131
  - sustainability approaches, 78
- Multinationals, 113
  - analysis, 105
  - Bangladesh, 102–103
  - data collection and analysis, 99–101
  - empirical findings, 101
  - global fashion retailer aiming to become climate positive, 101–102
  - goal, 102
  - implications, 107–108
  - method, 99
  - need to engage local and global stakeholders, 104–105
  - proactive CSR approach, 105
  - with proactive CSR approach, 95
  - proactive CSR approach, 96–99
  - strategic-oriented or Stakeholder-oriented Practices, 106–107
  - theoretical framework, 95
  - whole environment agenda really challenging in Bangladesh, 103–104
- Multiple logics, 156

- Narrative analysis techniques, 100
- NasdaqOMX stock exchange, 243

- Natural fibres, 42
- Natural gas, 103
- Natural resources, 200
- Navigation techniques, 164, 167
  - among competing institutional logics towards sustainability, 157–158
  - approach, 161
  - of blending, 158, 165
  - of replacement, 166
- Neon, 206
- Networks, 142–144
- NextGenerationEU, 238
- Nike, 85
- Non-Financial Reporting Directive (NFRD), 240
- Non-governmental organizations (NGOs), 2, 19, 21, 97
- North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), 199
- NVIVO 12 software package, 78

- Operation National Sword, 63
- Organic waste, 62
- Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), 60
  - Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises, 239
- Organizational fields, 157, 167
- Our Strategy 2030, 140
- Ownership, 145–146

- Palladium, 206
- Panafrica, 186
  - committed brand, 188–192
  - contextual factors, 181–182
  - creation on brand, 187
  - literature review, 181
  - managerial capabilities and practices, 182–183
  - methodology, 185–186
  - practical implications, 193
  - SMEs and CE practices, 183–185
  - theoretical contributions, 192–193
- Paradoxical environments, 167

- Paris agreement, 16
- Paris Climate Agreement, 238
- Patagonia (company), 85
- People, Planet, Perception and Profit (4P), 144
- People's Republic of China, 163
- Personal protection equipment (PPE), 66
- Physical risks, 242
- Pillars of Business, 141
- Plant-based polymer packaging, 146
- Plastic waste, 69
  - crisis, 65–67
- Plastic-producing corporations, 67
- Plastics crisis, 66
- Porter's linear value chain model, 44
- Porter's value chain approach, 35
- Poverty alleviation, 19
- Primary data, 100, 118
- Prioritization process, 209
- Proactive CSR
  - approaches, 96–99, 105
  - practices, 95, 99
- Procurement, 44
- Product-service systems, 183
- Production process, 186
- Prototypes, 189
- Purchase intention, 227
- Purpose, 141–142

- Qualitative case studies, 14, 117
- Quantitative data collection project, 226–227

- R-strategies, 47, 51
- Rana Plaza disaster, 38
- Range Upgrading Program, 26
- Re-cycle-box, 47
- Re-cycle-rolcontainer, 47
- Reactive approach, 95
- Reactive CSR approach, 94, 106
- Readymade garment production,
  - challenge of water management in, 119–120
- Recycling, 189
  - activities, 63
  - materials, 48

- Redistribution mechanisms, 156
- Regenerative business models, 133
- Relational exchange approach, 232
- Relationship-oriented researchers, 222
- Remapping, 52
- Resilience, 202–204
  - building resilience against uncertainty in semiconductor industry, 206
  - synergy, 211–213
- Resilience management system (RMS), 211
- Resistance, 23–24
- Responsible business alliance (RBA), 208
- Responsible Supply Chain, 208
- Retriever Business database, 100, 118

- Samsung, 85
- SBTi, 142
- Schijvens (Dutch company), 37
  - Corporate Fashion, 46–47
  - response to ethical challenges in marketing corporate fashion, 46–50
- Scholars, 36
- Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM), 210
- Science-Based Targets initiative (SBTi), 140–141
- Secondary data sources, 100
- Secondary markets, 65
- Semiconductor
  - building resilience against uncertainty in semiconductor industry, 206
  - industry, 206
  - manufacturing process, 207
- Silicon, 207
- Single in-depth case studies, 185
- Single-stream systems, 63
- Small-and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs), 6, 76, 192 (see also Multinational enterprises (MNE))
  - practices, 183–185
- Social license, 4
- Social movement organizations, 160
- Social sustainability, 78, 200
  - logic, 163
  - perspective, 202
  - social sustainability-related issues, 201
- Society, 2
- Socio-technical regime, 132
- Stakeholders, 2–3, 78, 82
  - CSR approach, 97, 99, 107–108
  - involvement, 96–97
  - relationships for sustainability, 20–21
  - stakeholder-oriented practices, 106–107
- Starbucks, 65
- Start-up, 189
- STMicroelectronics (ST), 200
  - case of, 204
  - GVCs, sustainability and resilience, 202–204
  - GVCs and sustainability, 200–202
  - industry, 205–206
  - overview of company, 206–207
  - sustainability of extended value chain, 208–211
  - value chain, 207–208
- Strategic CSR approach, 96, 106
- Strategic-oriented practices, 106–107
- Subcontractors, 200
- Supply chain, 20
- Sustainability, 2, 21, 34, 36, 50, 60, 76, 145, 154, 156, 170, 200–206
  - approach, 35
  - Bohinj ECo Hotel, 82–83
  - building capability for sustainability, 209–211
  - case study of competing institutional logics in global markets towards, 159–161
  - competing logics for sustainability in global markets, 156–157
  - contesting global market practices towards sustainability with institutional logics navigation, 164–167

- de-growth lead to competitive advantage, 83–85
- demands, 168
- of extended value chain, 208
- goals setting, 209
- H&M, 79–82
- importance of international firms
  - for achieving sustainability goals, 3–7
- international firms driving sustainable and ethical business practices, 2–3
- mapping and reporting of sustainability risk among listed firms and investors in Sweden, 243–246
- method, 77–78
- navigating competing institutional logics in global markets towards, 161–167
- navigation techniques among competing institutional logics towards, 157–158
- orientation, 222–224, 226
- practices, 94, 96
- and resilience synergy, 211–213
- as source of sustainable advantage, 85–88
- stakeholder relationships for, 20–21
- strategy, 13, 140, 209, 244
- structural and cultural variations between markets, 3
- supporting global market practices towards sustainability with institutional logics navigation, 161–164
- sustainability as source of competitive advantage, 78
- sustainability-orientated consumption, 222
- sustainability-oriented consumers, 221–222, 226
- values in global markets, 155–156
- Sustainable advantage, sustainability as source of, 85–88
- Sustainable Apparel Coalition, 25
- Sustainable approach, 189
- Sustainable Brand Index, The, 137
- Sustainable competitive advantage, 79, 86–87
- Sustainable de-growth, 83
- Sustainable development, 130, 155, 181
  - in MNEs, 113–115
- Sustainable development concept, 76, 155
- Sustainable Finance Platform, 240–241
- Sustainable innovations, 132
  - conceptual framework, 135–136
  - data analysis, 138
  - doughnut economics, 133–135
  - findings, 138
  - innovation for sustainable development, 131–133
  - mapping corporate to do list, 138–141
  - methodology, 136
  - redesigning business pillars, 141–147
  - theoretical background, 131
- Sustainable orientation, 223
- Sustainable product, 24
- Sustainable solutions via collaboration, 81–82
- Sustainable strategy, 12, 130
- Sustainable supply chain management, 165
- Sustainable transformation, 135
- Sweden, mapping and reporting of sustainability risk among listed firms and investors in, 243–246
- Swedish entrepreneurs, 145
- Swedish firms, 7, 243
- Swedish MNEs, 13, 137
- Swedish multinationals, 131
  - conceptual framework, 135–136
  - data analysis, 138
  - doughnut economics, 133–135
  - findings, 138

- innovation for sustainable development, 131–133
- mapping corporate to do list, 138–141
- methodology, 136
- redesigning business pillars, 141–147
- theoretical background, 131
- Swedish organization, 14
- Synthetic fibres, 42
- Take-back systems, 183
- Taskforce on Climate-Related Financial Disclosures, 239
- Taxonomy, 240
- Teams, 100
- Technical cycles, 41
- Technical nutrients, 40
- Technology, 44
- Tesla (automobile company), 85
- Tetra Laval Group, 14, 146
- Tetra Pak, 14, 27, 137, 141–143, 145–146
  - in Brazil, 23
  - case, 22, 24
  - interviewee, 143
  - mission, 140
  - packaging, 140
- Textile industry, 187
- Textile recirculation from technical perspective, 41–43
- Theoretical sampling strategy, 99
- Traditional CSR marketing strategies, 35
- Transaction cost theory, 222
- Transformation, 239
- Transition risks, 242
- U.S. Department of Labor, 201
- UFS (Dutch-owned company), 48
- Uncertainty in semiconductor industry, building resilience against, 206
- United Nations (UN), 76
  - Brundtland Commission, 34
  - Global Compact, 16, 208
  - Global Impact initiative, 155
  - Sustainable Development Summit, 200
- United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, 198
- United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC), 104
- United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (UN SDGs), 3–7, 12, 60, 76, 112–114, 116, 137, 179–180, 241
  - pursuit of, 113
  - relevance for, 29–30
- United States Securities and Exchange Commission, 204
- US Department of Labor, 205
- USA–Mexico–Canada Agreement (USMCA), 199
- Validity, 227–228
- Value, 191
  - creation process, 182
  - value-chain repositioning, 85
- Virtue ethics, 116
- Walmart, 85
- Waste, 60, 64
  - capitalization through innovations, 69–70
- Waste crisis
  - innovations to tackle, 67
  - rethinking global innovation approaches, 67–69
  - waste capitalization through innovations, 69–70
- Waste management, 62
  - efficiencies, 60
- Water, 120
  - challenge of water management in readymade garment production, 119–120
  - H&M as water steward, 122–123
  - malpractices, 121
  - management in Bangladesh, 120–122

stewardship mission, 122
stewardship strategy, 121
water-related goals, 122
Western companies, 167
Wishcycling, 63

World Economic Forum, 18
World Wildlife Foundation (WWF),
18, 120–121
Zoom, 100