

INDEX

- Aarhus Convention, 35
- Adaptive leadership, 78
- African culture of environmental stewardship, 93
- Airport governance and stakeholder issues, study
  - competition and prices, 198–199
  - economic regulations, impact of, 202
  - impact of public, private, or PPP provision of services, 196–199
  - market power, 198–199
  - methodology, 196
  - operational and managerial efficiency, 196–198
  - price cap regulation, impact of, 202
  - rate of return (ROR) regulation, impact of, 201–202
  - regulatory issues, 201–203
  - safety and social responsibility, 200–201
  - service quality, 199
- Airports
  - public interest and, 190–192
  - stakeholders of, 192–196
- Areas of impact (AOIs), 64
- Associational value, 7, 9
- Balanced scorecard (BSC), 51
- Bangladesh's textile and apparel industry, 230–231
  - export sector, 233
  - factory disasters, 241–244
  - free trade agreement with European Union, 232
  - integration of global production and markets, 231–235
  - labour relations and working conditions, 233
  - outsourcing phenomenon, 234–235
  - retailer–supplier relationships, dynamics of, 236–237
  - See also* Global apparel industry
- Bilateral or reciprocal exchanges, 8
- Blame culture, 81–83
- Brundtland Report (1987), 208
- Business-opportunity driven strategy, 16
- Business Responsibility Reports (BRRs), 177–178
- Bus–NGO partnerships
  - bilateral or reciprocal exchanges in, 8
  - case studies, 9–18
  - formation and motivation, 8, 16–18
  - goal fulfillment, 22–23
  - implementation and execution of, 8–9, 19–21
  - literature on, 5–6
  - managerial challenges, 27–28
  - monitoring and evaluation, 23–25
  - motivations and strategic direction, role of, 8
  - nature of resources, 19–21
  - outcomes and challenges, 9, 21–25
  - partners' motivations and, 7–8
  - resource complementarities in, 8
  - resources and capabilities for, 8
  - value-added and challenges in, 9, 25–30

- CARE International, 10, 24
- Central Public Sector Enterprises (CPSEs), 178
- Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD), 76
- Clean drinking water project, Africa, partnership project partnership design and operation, 12
 partnership formation and selection, 11–12
- Climate White Paper, 11–12
- Code of Conduct Principles for Responsible Investment, 50
- Cognitive legitimacy, 119
- Collaboration Value Construct (CVC), 6
- Collaborative value, definition of, 6
- Conscience repayment, 106
- Constitution of Bangladesh, 41–42
- Continuum of Well-Being Influence, 85
- Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEADAW), 36
- Copenhagen Declaration and Programme of Action of the World Summit for Social Development, 40
- ‘Corporate citizenship’ (CC), 219
- Corporate legitimacy, 117–119
- Corporate responsibility (CR), 116–117, 167
 as antecedent to corporate legitimacy, 119–120 reporting, 181
 as social contracts, 120
 in United Kingdom, 219
 value sharing and, 120
- Corporate social liability of environmental degradation, 102–103
- Corporate social responsibility (CSR), 5, 78–79 business case argument of, 216–217 business (corporate) law assumptions of, 217–218 business management model, 208 clean water to poor communities in Africa, 11–12 conceptual analysis, 209–215
 corporate responses toward, 179–182
 definition of, 167
 dodgy practices, 215–218 driving development using, 212–213 environmental protection and, 215 explicit, 167, 169
 financial inclusion and, 213–214 governance norms, 167–168 human capital development and, 214–215 institutionalizing, 170–176 law-based regulatory approach, 168–169 matrix, 182
 policies, 176
 reform proposals for, 218–221 role of government in, 175 social inclusion and, 213 sustainable development and, 214
 “voluntary-mandatory” dichotomy, 168
- Corporate social responsibility (CSR) reporting, 50
 limitations of, 50–55
- Cross-sector partnerships, 5, 29
- Cross-sector social partnerships, 4
- Danish Consumers’ Cooperative Society, 13–14
- Decentralization, 42

- Declaration on the Right to Development, 39–40
- Defending legitimacy, 118
- Deontological ethics, 235
- Dutch National Research Programme, 20

- Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC), 77
- Economic legitimacy, 117
- Education system, social responsibility in
  - cognitive impact, 156
  - educational impact, 156
  - mapping and analyzing stakeholders, 156
  - organizational impact, 156
  - school social responsibility, 146–147
  - social impact, 156
  - stakeholders in, 149–154
  - transitioning role of stakeholders, 156–158
  - university social responsibility (USR), 147–149
- Employee well-being at work, concept of, 78–80
- Enlightened Shareholder Value, 221
- Environmental, social and corporate governance (ESG) reports, 48–50, 57
  - assurance and stakeholder engagement, 50
  - non-financial elements, 49
  - risks and opportunities, 62–64
  - sustainable development and portfolio investments, 49
- Environmental costs, 92
- Environmental degradation
  - air quality in urban centres, 93–94
  - plastic pollution, 101–102
- Environmental degradation, corporate social liability of, 102–103
- Environmental performance, 52
- Environmental stewardship, 93, 99–101
- Equality, 41
- Ethical trade, 236
- Ethical Trading Initiative, 236
- Ethics of care, 235–237
- Extended Producers Responsibility (EPR) regulations of OECD, 102
- Extending legitimacy, 118

- Fair trade, 236
- Fair trade development, partnership project
  - partnership design and operation, 13–14
  - partnership formation and selection, 13
- Fan Milk Plc projects, 110
- Financial inclusion and financial literacy, partnership in
  - partnership design and operation, 15
  - partnership formation and selection, 14–15
- Friedman, Milton, 169

- Gap, 237
- Global apparel industry
  - consumers, 240–241, 243–244
  - ethical obligations, 239–240
  - ethical trading, 236
  - retailer–supplier relationships, dynamics of, 236–237
  - sweatshop exploitation, 239
- Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), 181
- Governance paradigm, debate in, 166–170

- Government-Linked Companies (GLCs), 116, 136
See also Malaysian GLCs—corporate legitimacy relationship, study of
- Guest Model, 76
- Health Work and Well-being Executive (HWWE), 77
- Human resource management (HRM), 75–77 best-practice school of, 76
 multiconceptual normative models of, 76
- IGNOU Shillong, 255, 259
- Indian CSR, 176–179
 Activities and Non-Compliance Eligible Activities Schedule VII of the Act, 179 guidelines, 176–177
- Institutionalization of CSR, 170–176
 Bourdieusian notion, 172
 in India, 176–179
 stages of institutionalization, 170–171
- Institutions, definition of, 171
- Integrated reporting (IR), 55–61
 implementation of, 62–65
 pros and cons, 58–61
- Integrated thinking (InTh), 57, 61–62
 implementation of, 62–65
 relationship between IR and, 61–62
- Interaction value, 7, 9
- International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR), 35
- International Covenant on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights (ICESCR), 1966, 35
- International Integrated Reporting Council (IIRC), 56–58, 61, 182
- Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis (IPA), 72, 80
- Isomorphism, definition of, 171
- Job-related well-being, 79
- Justice ethics, 235
- Knippers, Jan, 39
- Kuswidiati, Wiwit, 38
- Lagos Waste Management Authority (LAWMA), 95
- Leadership practices and well-being, 78–80
- Legitimacy, concept of, 117
- Line management leadership and employee well-being, study of findings, 86–87 meaning of job, 83–84
 research method, 80–81
 rewards, role of, 83–84 trust in management, support and communication, 84–86 work organisation viewpoint, 81–83
- ‘Maatschappelijk Verantwoord Ondernemen’ (MVO), 219
- Magna Charta Universitatum, 147
- Maintaining legitimacy, 118
- Malaysian GLCs—corporate legitimacy relationship, study of characteristics of NGOs, 124–127 corporate legitimacy constructs, 132–134 corporate legitimacy measurement, 131–132 data analysis and hypothesis testing, 124 discriminant validity, 130–131 factor analysis, 127–130

- GLCs' CR activities and performance, 135
- implications for NGOs, 134–135
- implications for policy and practices, 134
- measurement model, 127
- measurement of corporate legitimacy, 122–123
- population of, 121
- reliability tests, 131
- research design, 121
- research paradigm, 121
- unit of analysis, 121
- Market-place model of environmental stewardship, 103–106
  - balancing factory-level cost saving with social cost minimisation, 105
  - benefits and burden, 104, 108–109
  - cost savings through eco-efficiency, 108
  - enlightened self-interest, 108–109
  - tax considerations for, 109–110
  - TEK perspective, 105–106
  - through strategic alliance, 106–108
- Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs), 256
- Mayo, Elton, 76
- Meghalaya
  - climatic conditions, 251
  - distance education, 254–256
  - education through ICT, 256–260
  - geography, 251
  - higher education, 252–254
  - history of formal education and schooling, 251–252
  - Institute of Vocational and Training (IIVET), 259
  - languages for communication, 251
  - literacy rate, 252
  - National Optical Fibre Network (NOFN), 259
  - original inhabitants, 251
  - population and sex ratio (2011), 251
  - Skill Assessment Matrix for Vocational Advancement of Youth (SAMVAY), 259
  - telecom density in, 256–258
- Mission-driven motivation, 18
- Moskowitz, Milton, 169
- Motivational categories for NGOs, 16–18
- Multi-capital scorecard, 64–65
- National development, 41
- New Public Management (NPM), 75
- Nigeria
  - air quality in, 93–94
  - CSR bill in, 221
  - CSR regime in corporate, 216–217
  - dumpsites in, 94–96
  - littering of non-biodegradable wastes in, 92, 94
  - market-place tradition in, 93
  - mobile supermarket, 97–99
  - packaging industry of, 96–97
  - plastic waste pollution in, 92–96, 102
  - Stakeholder theory of business (corporate) law in, 220
- Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), 5
- Nonprofit organizations, 4–5
- Nordic Climate Facility fund, 12, 19
- Nordic Climate Fund (NCF), 12
- Normative (moral) legitimacy, 119
- Organisational leaders, 78
- Organization-specific resources, 19
- Outsourcing of production and services, 234–235
  - anti-globalisation movement and rules of engagement, 234–235
  - multinational retailers and, 236–237

- See also* Bangladesh's textile and apparel industry; Global apparel industry
- Participation
 definition of, 34
 as human rights, 35–37
 indigenous people's, 37 minorities group, 41–42
 public, 35, 37
 right to development (RtD) and, 35 role in good governance, 34 role of state and non-state actors in, 42–43 women, 36, 41–42
 World Bank Learning Group on, 34
- Participatory development, notion of, 37–38 role of civil society, 42
- Partnered governance, 174
- Personal well-being, 79
- Plan International, 10–11
- Plastic pollution, effect of, 101–102
- Political legitimacy, 117
- Pragmatic legitimacy, 119
- Primark, 237
- Psychosocial factors, 76
- Public participation, 35
- Recycling, 107
- Red Cross, 10, 24
- Refuse collection points, 107–108
- Regulatory legitimacy, 119
- Resource-based view (RBV) of partnerships, 8 for sustained competitive advantage, 7
- Resource complementarities, 8
- Resource directionality, 8
- 'Responsabilidad Social Empresarial' (RSE), Spain, 219
- 'Responsabilita Sociale delle Imprese' (RSI), Italy, 219
- 'Responsabilite Social des Entreprises' (RSE), France, 219
- Responsible corporate behavior, 166
- Rewards, role in employee well-being, 83–84
- Right to development (RtD), 35, 37, 39–41
- Right to participation (RtP), 35–36, 39–41
- SAKSHAT, 256
- School social responsibility, 146–147
 stakeholders in, 149–153
 transitioning role of stakeholders, 156–158
- School stakeholder management strategies, 154–155
- Scientific Management, 76
- Securities Exchange Board of India (SEBI), 177
- Social legitimacy, 117
- Social license, 209
- "Socially responsible," notion of, 120
- Socially Sensitive Corporation, 219
- Social performance, 52
- Stakeholders
 definition of, 220
 engagement in sustainability accounting and reporting, 48–49 groups, 193
- Stakeholder theory, 192–196, 202
- Stewardship-orientation, 16
- Storey Model, 76
- Strategic alliances, resource complementarities in, 8
- Study Webs of Active–Learning for Young Aspiring Minds (SWAYAM), 256

- Sustainability reporting, 53–55
  - concerns in, 53–54
  - corporate rhetoric critique of, 54–55
  - isomorphism critique of, 54
- Sustainable business-led development, 17
- Sustainable corporate, 53
- Sustainable packaging, 107–108
- Sustained competitive advantage, 7
- Synergistic value, 7, 9

- Taylor, Fredrick, 76
- Telecommunication networks, 251
- Traditional development,
  - concept of, 38
- Transferred resource value, 7
- Transferred value, 9
- Triple bottom line (TBL), 51–53, 55
  - lack of integration, 52–53
  - measurement of, 52
- Trust, role in employee well-being, 84–86

- University social responsibility (USR), 147–149
  - academic freedom and university autonomy, 147
  - cognitive impact, 156
  - definitions of, 148
  - educational impact, 156
  - management strategies, 155–156
  - organizational impact, 156
  - social impact, 156
  - stakeholders in, 153–154
  - transitioning role of stakeholders, 156–158
- UN ‘polluter pays principle,’ 108
- ‘Unternehmerische Gesellschaftsverantwortung’ (UG), Germany, 219
- Utilitarian ethics, 235

- Value creation, 7
- Value Creation Spectrum, 6
- Values-driven orientation, 16
- Value sources, 6–7
- Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action, 40
- Village environmental sanitation, 93
- Virtue ethics, 235, 237

- Welfare-based Personnel Management (PM), 76
- Well-being philosophy, 72–75
  - hedonic approach, 77
  - HRM and, 75–77
  - leadership and, 78–80
  - treatment of employees and, 75–77
  - at work, 78–80
- Wellness promotion, 76
- Work, challenges and tensions of, 74–75
- Workers’ ill-health to organisations,
  - cost of, 73–74
- Work-related stress, 73