

INDEX

Note: Page numbers followed by “n” with numbers indicate notes.

- Actors
  - age, 100
  - gender, 100–101
  - race of, 100
- Adaptive regulation strategy, 79
- Addiction, question of, 45–46
- Adolescence, 93
- Affect, behaviors, and cognition/knowledge (ABC), 10–11
- Affective needs, 38
- Affordance, 36–37
- Age of actors, 100
- “Agonistic” status-claiming gifting,
119
- AirDrop, 11
- Alagoas*, 205
- Amateur videographers, 92–93
- Analog to digital photography,
111–114
- Animated videos, 96
- Artificial intelligence (AI), 24
- Attention, 130
- Attitudes toward Obama and Twitter,
137
- Audio, data-driven content, 13, 20, 25
- Availability heuristic, 19
- Baby boomers, 6, 11, 149, 166
- Balanced gifting, 119
- @BarackObama, 131, 134, 136,
141, 143
- Bona fide home-grown communication theory, 205
- Bonding social capital, 65
- Boston Globe*, 15
- Branding, 154, 157, 163–164
- Brazil, 215n1
  - internet access in, 202
  - internet use and social-economic disparities in, 202–204
- Brazilian Association of Digital
Inclusion (ABCID), 204
- Brazilian Institute of Geography and Statistics (IBGE), 202
- Brazilian Internet Steering Committee, 203
- Brazilian LAN houses, 204
- Brazilian telecommunications sector, 210
- Brazilian youth
  - overall perception and social construction of internet and, 211
  - reasons, 210
- Broadband access, 203
- Business Insider, 160
- Cambridge Analytica, 16, 75
- Catholic Church, 15
- Causal attribution, 134–135
- Celebrity Selfies, 120–121
- Chat
  - Fireside, 130
  - MSN, 208–209
- Citizen journalists, Generation Z’s rising trust in, 161–162
- Cognition, 10, 24, 132
- Cognitive gratifications, 41–42
- Cognitive needs, 38
- Cold intimacies, 112
- Collaboration, 24, 102
- College students, 23, 34, 72
- Commodification, 118
- Communication, Information
Technologies, and Media
Sociology Section
(CITA MS), 27fn

- Communicative memory, 108–109
 Communities, 94
 Companionships, 205
 Comprehension, 130
 “Computer for All” program, 201
 Computer knowledge, 202
 Computer ownership, 201–202, 207
 Computer technology, 192
 Computer-mediated communication (CMC), 54
 Conflict avoidance strategy, 82
 Connection, 18–19, 55–56, 149
 Connective journalism, engaging with, 153–154
 Consensual hallucination, 13
 Containment process, 108
 Contemporary communication, 14
 Content analyses, 103
 Content creating community, 93–94
 Convenience, 12, 18–19, 25, 136, 154, 169, 183–185
 Corporate technology visionaries, 178
 Counter-practices, 123<sup>n9</sup>, 124<sup>n15</sup>
 Credibility, 19, 164
     news, 150, 162
     source, 6, 25, 134–135, 139, 141, 162
 Credit profiling, 123–124<sup>n13</sup>
 Cross-disciplinary studies, 11, 22–23
 Cultural memory, 108
 Curated-news-only repertoire, 159
 Curation, 24, 112
 Customized content, 15
 Cybercafés, 215<sup>n3</sup>
 Cyberspace, 13–14

 Demographic cohort, 12–13
 Digital access, 17
 Digital age, 66
 Digital cameras and applications, 112
 Digital devices, 14
 Digital divide, 180, 202, 214
 Digital engagement, 161
 Digital generation, 10–13, 24, 27
 Digital inclusion, 214
 Digital interaction, 72

 Digital media, 13, 121
     millennials cherish, 20, 25
 Digital natives, 95
 Digital outlets, 153
 Digital photography, medium of, 108
 Digital pioneers, 95
 Digital public sphere, 6–7
 Digital self-portraiture practice, 101–102
 Digital snapshots, 112
 Digital spheres, 8
 Digital technologies, 15, 73, 177
     growing up with, 73–76
 Digital video, 20, 25
 Digitally-connected media, 14
 Digitally-networked media, 20, 25
 Diversion needs, 38
 “Do No Harm Lest Harm Be Done to You” principle, 72–73, 76–77, 79–80, 84
 “Dutiful citizens”, 20
 Dystopian theory, 178–179
     research questions, 182

 E-mail, 112, 211
 Easy access, 23, 27, 103, 159
 Economic benefits, 188–189
 Economic growth, 200
 Economic influence, 16
 Economic status, 201
 Electronic newspaper, 20
Emerald Studies in Media and Communications, 3, 11, 149
 Emotional gratification, 41
 Emotional reinforcement, 192
 Employment, 185–186
 Engagement, 20
 Enjoyment, 205
 Entertainment, 12–13, 18–19, 20
 Escape, 205
 Excitement, 205
 Explosion in consumer digital image production, 112

 Facebook, 11, 15, 19, 43, 53–56, 66, 73–74, 77, 83, 92, 112–113, 178, 187, 206, 209, 211–212

- Fake news
 Generation Z struggles to spot, 162 post-millennials lack confidence in deciphering, 162–169
- Family memories, 109
- Family photo album, 110
- Family photography, 6, 109, 112–113, 119
- Fashion, 206
- Faustian bargain of online visibility, 119
- Fear of missing out (FOMO), 43–44
- Financial Times*, 15
- Fireside Chats, 130
- First digital generation, 10
- First Industrial Revolution, 17
- Flickr, 112–113, 117–118, 201
- Ford Foundation, 213
- Fourth Industrial Revolution, 16–17
- Free speech, Generation Z's perceptions about, 160–161
- Friendship, 52, 113
 online and offline, 54–57
- “Future of the First Amendment” survey (2018), 160
- Gaming, 52
 research, 53–54
- Gender of actors, 100–101
- Generation X (Gen X), 6–7, 10–11, 149, 166
- Generation Y (Gen Y) (see)
 Millennials
- Generation Z (Gen Z), 6–7, 12, 148–150 changing expectations, 162–163
 consumers, 153
 consumes and curates news media, 163–164 declining consumption, trust in news, 161 engaging with social media and connective journalism, 153–154 news repertoires and political participation, 159–160 perceptions about free speech, 160–161 preference for sensory journalism, 155 rejecting journalistic “objectivity”, 155–156 rising trust in citizen journalists, 161–162 struggles to spot fake news, 162
 TV, Snapchat, and mental health concerns, 160 uses media, 154–155
 uses social media, 152
- Gibson, William, 13–14
 conception, 36
 cyberspace in twenty-first century, 13–14
- Gift-giving, logic of, 118–119
- Github, 158
- Globalization, 200
- Goal-directed thought, 134
- Google, 42
- Google+, 95
- Gratifications, 4, 39
 cognitive, 41–42
 emotional, 41
 instrumental, 42–43
 integrative, 43
 sought, 39
- Grooming calls, 112
- Guardian*, 15
- Halo Reach, 57
- “Hard” institutional practices of civic culture, 108
- Hippocratic Code of principled awareness, 5
- Human impact, 17
- Identity, 11, 14, 93–94, 104, 118, 121, 153, 161
- Image manipulation, 97
- Imagined affordance, 37
- Immersive storytelling, 13, 20, 25
- In-depth interviews, 182–184
- Incidental news exposure (INE), 4, 13, 21–22, 26
- Inclusion, 115

- digital, 214
- Inequalities, 7–8
- Information, 205
  - appraisal, 134
  - integration, 133, 135–136
- Information and Communication Technology (ITCs), 177
- Information Processing Theory, 130–136
- Instagram, 11, 15, 73, 77, 95, 112, 157, 170
- Instrumental gratifications, 42–43
- Integration, 130
  - integrative gratifications, 43
  - integrative social needs, 38
- Inter-coder reliability, 97
- Interactive experience, 13, 18, 25–26
- Interactivity, 20, 158, 161
- Intercultural Communication Apprehension (ICA), 23
- Intercultural Communication Competence (ICC), 10–11, 23
- International Telecommunication Union (ITU), 16, 200
- Internet, 7, 10, 16, 35, 73–74, 83, 112, 132, 151, 177
  - cafés, 214–215
  - dividing internet users, 181–182
  - inclusion policy, 214
  - news options, 159
  - penetration rates, 16
  - server, 136
  - social construction, 210–213
  - use in Brazil, 202–204
- Internet access, 16, 24, 202, 214–215
- Internet Archive, 16
- Internet Connections, 42, 202–203
- Interviews, 40, 176, 183–184
- iPhone, 95, 115
- IPhoto, 112
- Ireland's economic policies, 85*n*1
- Israel, mobile phones and smartphones in, 35–36
- Job searches, 185
- Journalistic “objectivity”, Generation Z rejecting, 155–156
- Journalists, 163, 170
- Knowledge, 15, 20, 38, 41, 62, 102, 117, 163, 177–179, 182
  - institutional knowledge of legacy mediums, 151
  - linear regression model for added, 63
  - personal, 59
  - political, 133
  - superficial, 156
  - of ties and types of interaction, 65
- Kodak, 110, 113, 118
  - chemical film stock, 110–111
  - culture, 122
  - moments, 110–111
  - philosophy of perfect moment, 122
- Legacy media, 15, 152, 154–155, 167
- Legacy News Organizations, 26
- Letterboxed videos, 98
- Local area network house phenomenon (LAN house phenomenon), 200, 204–205
  - activities Brazilian youth performance, 208
  - using among youth of 2000s, 207–208
- Brazilian Youth's overall perception and social construction of internet and, 211
- Brazilian Youth's reasons, 210
- Brazilian's uses and gratifications, 208–209
- countries with highest numbers of internet users, 201
- examples, 213
- frequency of LAN house use per day in 2000s, 208
- internet access in Brazil in 2000s, 202

- internet use and social-economic disparities in Brazil, 202–204
- key functions, 212–213
- mobile phones and diminish of, 210–211
- research questions, 206
- services offering by, 212
- social construction of “internet” and, 210–213
- study, 207
- use and implications in other countries, 213–214
- uses and gratification theory, 205–206
- Local newspapers, 157
- Location-based smartphone services, 37
- Loneliness, 41
- Long-form journalism, 25
- Love–hate relationship, 44–45
- Low-income communities, 179

- Magazines, 6, 148, 167
- Market exchange wealth, 119
- Marketing, 4, 13, 21, 26, 110
- Marshall Project, The, 153
- Massive multiplayer online (MMO), 3–4, 8, 52–53, 56
- Massive multiplayer online games (MMOGs), 52
- Media
  - affordance, 36
  - channels, 15, 18
  - consumers, 15
  - consumption, 10
  - credibility, 165
  - ecosystem, 14–15
  - engagement, 11, 25
  - gatekeepers, 15
  - landscape, 21
  - literacy, 93
  - millennials and, 3–4
  - misuse in post-digital era, 16
  - power of media platforms, 152–153
  - producers, 170
  - skepticism among post-millennials, 164
  - storytelling, 13, 20, 25
  - technologies, 11
  - use, 3, 6, 10–11, 13, 23, 26–27, 38, 148, 151, 155, 205
  - user engagement, 40
  - “Mediated Millennials” theme, 148–149
- Memory, 132
  - from home, 109–111
  - palace, 110–111, 115
  - texts, 108
- Mental health concerns of Generation Z, 160
- Message
  - credibility, 165
  - effects, 132
  - exposure, 132
  - orientation, 139
  - potency, 132
- Message orientation, 134–135
- Meta-analytical research, 9, 11, 22–23, 166
- Miami, 182–183
- Micro-celebrity, 120
- Microsoft System Network chat (MSN chat), 208–209
- Millennial Social Self, The*, 3–5
- Millennials, 3, 10, 23, 40, 72–74, 82, 101, 132, 149–150, 166
  - cherish digital media and immersive storytelling, 20
  - consume news through multiple media platforms, 17–18
  - demographic cohort, 12
  - depend on social media for news, entertainment, and sense of connection, 18–19
  - directions for future research, caveats and limitations, 22–23
  - influential demographic cohort, 21, 26
  - lessons learning, 23–26

- and media, 3–4
- news, and digital public sphere, 6–7
- News-finds-me mindset* affects, 21–22
- study objectives and research method, 11–12
- theoretical constructs, 12–13
- un-mediated, 7–8
- Usher Post-Digital Era, 13–17
- Millennials, News, and the Digital Public Sphere*, 3
- Mnemonic labor, 110, 112, 124n18
- Mobile
  - communication technologies, 34
  - connectivity, 211
  - internet, 211
  - media, 46
  - use, 214
- Mobile phones, 34, 44
  - and diminish of LAN house, 210–211
  - in Israel, 35–36
  - in society, 34–35
- Mozilla, 213
- Multiplatform news use index (MPI), 18
- Multiple media platforms, millennials consuming news through, 17–18, 24–25
- Music, 94
- Music video, 94, 96, 103
  - on YouTube, 94
- MySpace, 92, 115, 209

- Nano, 204–205
- Narrative content, trends in, 99–100
- Narrative expression, 99
- Narrative linearity, 97
- NBC Nightly News, 149
- Network, 55, 109, 114
- Networked photography, 118–119
- Networked snapshots, 114
- Networked technology, 95
- Neuromancer*, 13

- New media, 130
- New technologies, 16, 24, 40, 46, 85, 200
- New York Times*, 15, 149, 153–154, 158
- News
  - algorithms, 14, 24
  - audience, 20, 25
  - avoiders, 159
  - consumption, 6–7, 20, 166, 169
  - consumption habits of post-millennials or Generation Z, 148
  - content, 4, 13, 19, 21–22, 25–26, 149, 151, 157
  - credibility, 165
  - gatekeeper, 15
  - Generation Z consumes and curates News media, 163–164
  - millennials and digital public sphere, 6–7
  - omnivores, 159
  - outlets, 170
  - platforms, 12, 18, 23, 152, 156, 163, 166–167
- News-finds-me mindset*, 4
  - affects millennials, 13, 21–22, 26
- Newspapers, 151
- Newsrooms, 159

- Offline
  - friendship studies, 54–57
  - life stereotypes, 57
- Online
  - advertising, 153
  - audience, 15, 158, 167
  - communication, 55
  - community, 92
  - cue-laden communication modalities, 66
  - engagement, 20, 40, 170
  - friendships, 54–57
  - gaming, 52–53, 56
  - media, 58
  - online-based social networks, 52
  - public, 83–84

- self, 53
- sharing, 115, 120
- Online social networks sites (OSNSs), 53, 56, 66
- Online–offline social ties
  - bonding social capital, 65–66
  - data and methods, 58–60
  - findings, 60
  - framework and development of
    - analytical concepts, 57
  - gaming research, 53–54
  - linear regression model for added knowledge, 63
  - logistic regression comparison
    - between online and offline subsets, 64
  - logistic regressions for relationship
    - dummy variables and type of tie, 62
  - MMO community, 52–53
  - MMOs, 65
  - online and offline friendships, 54–57
  - relationship importance by
    - type of tie offline/online crosstabulation, 61
  - social capital online–offline, 58
  - symbolic and social boundaries, 57
- Onscreen demographics, 102
  - trends in, 100–101
- Opinionator, 164
- Organization for Economic Co-Operation and Development (OECD), 92
- Orkut, 209
- OSNS XFire, 55
- Panoptic gaze, 123–124n13
- Paraapebas*, 205
- Pareto’s principle, 181
- Pastime, 206
- Performance, 55–56, 94, 99–100
- Pernambuco*, 205
- “Perpetual contact”, 43
- Personal integrative needs, 38
- Pew Research Center, 150, 155
- Photo-ontological shifts, 116
- Photo-sharing apps, 115
- Photography, 108, 111
- Photos, 114, 152–153, 207, 209
- Physiognomic rule, 111
- Pinterest, 95
- “Platonic” photographs, 113
- Point-and-shoot box camera, 110
- Political
  - avoidance, 83–84
  - communication, 4, 13, 21, 26
  - engagement, 18, 87
  - influence, 140
  - interest, 133, 135, 139
  - participation, 18, 22, 132, 142–143
  - process, 130
- Post-digital era, 14–15
  - deleterious misuse of media in, 16
  - fruition of Gibson’s cyberspace, 13–14
  - innovations transform media ecosystem, 14–16
  - millennials usher, 12–13, 24
  - new realities of post-digital era, 14
  - ushers Fourth Industrial Revolution, 16–17
- Post-digital innovations transform media ecosystem, 14–15
- Post-digital world, 12–14, 17, 24
- Post-millennials, 148–150
  - age shapes media use and news preference, 151–152
  - lack confidence in deciphering fake news, 162–169
  - lessons learned, discussion, and key implications, 166–169
  - limitations, caveats, and directions for future research, 165–166
  - literature review, 149–150
  - media skepticism among, 164
  - news use spurs industry innovations, 154–156
  - prefer viewing news over reading, 152–154

- reshaping news with usage, 169–170
- theoretical constructs, 150–151
- verbal, visual, and viral news cycle replete with risks, 157–162
- Posting, 118
- @POTUS, 131, 134, 136, 141, 143
- Poverty, 179–180
  - dividing internet users, 181–182
  - earnings and employment, 180–181
- Pre-digital theory, 72
- Prepubescent actors, 100
- Prestige, 108, 118–119, 121
- Price customization, 181–182
- Primordial narcissism, 122
- Privacy, 74, 186–187
  - dilemma, 75
  - scandals, 16
- Private messaging, 72, 78
- Production strategies, trends in, 98–99
- Profile construction, 122
- Promiscuous preference, 4, 12, 17, 24
- ProPublica, 158
- Protestant Reformation, 15
- Proximity, 54, 65
- Public sharing, 78
- Public sphere, 3, 6, 130, 177, 190
- Public transportation system, 185

- Qualitative research, 184
- Question of addiction, 45–46
- Quilombo of Palmares*, 205

- Race of actors, 100
- Radio, 151
- Real money transactions, 57
- ReCal OIR, 97
- ReCal2 OIR, 97
- Refinery29, 153
- Relaxation, 205
- Rich-get-richer syndrome of post-digital era, 16
- Rocinha*, 204
- Root, The, 153

- Schwab, Klaus, 16
- Second Industrial Revolution, 17
- Self
  - adiaphorization, 122
  - visual culture and creation of, 5–6
- Self-censorship, 75
  - as self-protection, 78–79
- Self-identity, 121
- Self-presentation, 206
- Self-protection, 84
  - and privacy tools, 78
  - self-censorship as, 78–79
- Selfie, 101, 109
  - commoditized or gifted performance, 119–120
  - culture, 6, 101
  - morselizing web of association, 120–123
  - social semiotics of, 114–118
- Sensory journalism, 157
  - Generation Z's preference for, 155
- Service providers, 112
- Shareable content, 20
- Sharing, 79
  - norm, 78
- Silent generation, 6, 11, 149–150, 166
- Similarity, 54, 65
- Smart devices, 74
- Smartphones, 34, 112, 169, 211
  - cognitive gratifications, 41–42
  - criticism of uses and gratifications, 38–40
  - emotional gratifications, 41
  - fear of missing out, 43–44
  - instrumental gratifications, 42–43
  - integrative gratifications, 43
  - in Israeli, 35–36
  - love–hate relationship, 44–45
  - methods, 40–41
  - question of addiction, 45–46
  - results, 41
  - in society, 34–35
  - usage from affordance technology perspective, 36–37
  - uses and gratifications, 37–38

- Snapchat, 73, 77, 95, 108, 112–113, 123n4, 157, 170
  - of Generation Z, 160
- Sociability, 186–187, 206
- Social boundaries, 57
- Social capital online–offline, 58
- Social construction of “internet” and “LAN house”, 210–213
- Social contract, 5
- Social dynamics, 54
- Social inequities in computer access, 180
- Social information, 206
- Social interaction, 205
- Social media, 19, 73, 93, 131–132, 134, 136
  - acceptable interactional norms, 79–81
  - analysis, 77
  - avoiding “drama”, 82
  - conflict avoidance, 81–82
  - Generation Z engaging with, 153–154
  - Generation Z uses, 152
  - growing up with, 73–76
  - methods and participants, 76–77
  - millennials depend on, 18–19, 25
  - for news, entertainment, and sense of connection, 12–13
  - norms and negative behaviors, 82–83
  - online “public”, 83–84
  - self-censorship as self-protection, 78–79
  - self-protection and privacy tools, 78
  - usage, 77–78
  - uses and gratifications, 206
- Social media apps, 14, 24
- Social network
  - Orkut, 209
  - users, 206
- Social networking sites, 54, 92, 209
- Social norms, 75–76
- Social semiotics of selfie, 114–118
- Social-economic disparities in Brazil, 202–204
- Socio-technology, 203–204
- Sociocultural interactions, 54, 57
- Socioeconomic status (SES), 176–177, 179, 184, 189, 191–193
  - policy solutions, 192
- “Soft” institutions, 108
- Source credibility, 134–135, 139, 165
- Source orientation, 134–135, 137–139
- Spotify, 11
- “Start-up nation”, 35
- Storytelling, 15–16
- SuperData, 53
- Surveilling internet users, 181
- Symbolic boundaries, 57
- Symbolic Interaction, 53
- Synopticism, 123–124n13
- Tablets, 169
- Technological automation, 184, 188, 191
- Technological Inclusion, 204
- Technology, 36
- Technology Revolution, 27
- Teenagers, 81–82, 92, 100, 113, 116–118, 156, 158
- Telecommunication policies, infrastructures, and education, 214
- Telecommunications Act (1996), 181
- Television, 151
  - viewing motives, 205
- Temporal persistence of images in public, 115
- Texas Tribune*, 158
- Text
  - messages, 35, 45
  - sharing, 78–79
  - synchronous text communication, 82
- Theoretical Construct
  - of millennial generation, 12–17
  - of post-millennial generation, 150–163
- Third Industrial Revolution, 17

- TicToc, 157
Times of London, 15
 Tinder, 73, 95
Tonight Show, 130–131
 Toxic online environments, 161
 Traditional media, 95, 150, 159, 169
 Traditional news only segment, 159
 Traditional news sources, 159, 165
 Tributary gifting, 119
 Trusted social media presence, 165
 Truth, 16, 26, 166
 Tweet, 136–137, 140, 143–144, 165
 21st century, 3
   digitally networked society, 14 fruition of Gibson's cyberspace in, 13–14 media ecosystem, 14–15, 25
   news audience, 20
 Twitter, 8, 11, 15, 19, 55, 73, 77, 83, 95, 163
 Twitter handles, 131
   information processing theory, 131–136
   limitations and directions for future research, 144
   literature review, 131–136
   methods, 136–139
   procedure, 136
   regression coefficients predicting political interest, 140 regression coefficients predicting source credibility, 141
   results, 140–141
   sample, 136
   scale reliability analysis results, 140 scales and measures, 137–139 voting rates by age group in United States presidential elections, 131
 (U)nthinkable complexity, 13
 Ubiquitous Computing, 14, 24
 Un-mediated millennials, 7–8
 Unbiased news, 148
 Unemployment, 182
 Uni-directional gifting, 119
 Universal service policies, 214
 User-generated content (UGC), 92–94, 96, 104
 Uses and gratification theory, 34, 37–38, 93, 205–206
   criticism of, 38–40
 Utopian communication technologies in, 176–177
   dividing internet users, 181–182
   internet rhetoric, 192
   scholars, 190
 Utopian theory, 177–178
   methodology, 182–184
   research questions, 182
   findings and analysis, 184–1489 theoretical framework, 176–179
 Verbal media, 151–152
   integration, 157
 Video blogs, 92
   gaming, 53
 Video logs (vlogs), 92
 Video creation, 93
 Vine, 95
 Viral media, 151–152 expressing opinions on, 158
   integrating, 157
 Virtual ethnographic methods, 52
 Virtual worlds, 54
 Visual culture and creation of self, 3, 5–6
 Visual media, 151–152
   engaging with, 157–158
   integrating, 157
 Voice, 187–188

Wall Street Journal, 15–16
Washington Post, 15, 154
 Web Media, 25
 Weibo, 95
 WhatsApp, 43, 73, 77, 114, 211–212
 World Economic Forum, 16

- Xexéu*, 205
- Youth, 47, 95
  - democratic, 159
  - dimensions, 200
  - empower, 93
  - identity development, 103
  - life in Brazil, 200
  - social media and, 153
  - subculture, 94
- Youth-created music videos as
  - emerging genre, 94–96, 103–104
- Youth-generated content, 94
- YouTube, 5–6, 8, 15, 73, 92–93
  - adolescence, social media, and creating content, 93–94
  - analyses, 97
  - coding strategy, 97
  - comments, 101
  - digital self-portraiture practice, 101–102
  - future research, 103–104
  - limitations, 102–103
  - literature research, 95
  - methods, 96
  - narrative content, trends in, 99–100
  - onscreen demographics, trends in, 100–101
  - production strategies, trends in, 98–99
  - sampling strategy, 96–97
  - youth-created music videos as emerging genre, 94–95
- Zuckerberg, Mark, 16