

INDEX

Note: Page numbers followed by “n” indicate notes.

- Abbott Coalition Government, 79
- Advertisers, 72, 84
- Advertising, 49
 - agencies, 72
 - restrictions, 82
- Advertising and Marketing Communications Code, 76
- Advertising Claims Board (ACB), 75
- Advertising Code of Ethics, 72
- Advertising Standards Board (ASB), 75, 83
- African Bible College radio, 31–32
- African Media Development Initiative, 48
- African media systems, 26
- American Association for Public Opinion Research, 118
- Americanization, 25
- Anti-advertising sentiment, 72
- Australian advertising regulatory system, 85
- Australian Association of National Advertisers (AANA), 75, 81
- Australian Broadcasting Authority (ABA), 75
- Australian broadcasting system, 77
- Australian Broadcasting Tribunal (ABT), 74
- Australian Communication Authority (ACA), 75
- Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA), 76, 78
- Australian Consumer Law (ACL), 82
- Australian economy, 84
- Australian Food and Grocery Council (AFGC), 74
- Australian National Health Preventive Agency (ANPHA), 79
- Authoritarian regimes, 25
- Authoritarian tradition, 95
 - under Putin, 102–104
- Awareness, 21
- Billboard Utilising Graffitists Against Unhealthy Promotions movement (BUGA-UP movement), 73–74
- Bolsa-Família Program, 124
- Book censorship, 12–14
- Brazil
 - foreign non-fiction titles published in, 20
 - non-fiction works by foreign authors published and censored in, 14–16
- Brazilian Constitution (1989), 21
- Brazilian military dictatorship, 13–14, 21
- Brazilian Popular Music (MPB), 19
- Brazilian welfare program, 129
- Bribes, gifts and, 57–58
- British Broadcasting Corporation (BBC), 32
- Broadcasting Services Act (1992), 74
- Bureaucracy, 50
- Bureaucratic capture, 50, 57
 - cultural capture, 59–60
 - gifts and bribes, 57–58
 - intersectional forms of political and bureaucratic capture, 57
 - legal capture, 59
 - retaliation and intimidation, 58–59
 - societal capture, 60–61

- Capture, 49
- Cashgate scandal, 36
- Casual interactions, 119
- Censored books, 16–18
- Censorial regulations, 12–14
- Censorship, 21
 - of culture, 11
 - laws, 20
 - reasons for, 12–14
- Centralization of censorship, 12
- Change, 24
- Chemical weapon attacks, 47
- Child domestic labor (CDL), 126–128
- Children's Code, 76, 81
- Children's Television Standards (CTS), 74
- Citizenship, 126
- Civic contexts, 121
- Civilização Brasileira, 18–21
- Coco Pops, 83
- Code of Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Point (HACCP), 74
- Comisión Económica para América Latina y el Caribe (CEPAL), 1
- Commercialization, 25
- Committee to Protect Journalists (CPJ), 35
- Common sense, 24, 28
 - liberal media model as, 36–38
 - Malawi's liberal media model as, 30–36
- Communication, 119
- Communicative layers, 5
- Communicative realms, 5–6
- Communicative situation, focus group as, 120–123
- Communist Party, 101
- Communist principles, 100
- Competition and Consumer Act (2010) (see Trade Practices Act (1974))
- Conditionalities, 30
- Conflictive situation, focus group as, 120–123
- Contemporary Community Safeguards Inquiry, 80–81
- Cowen, 24
- Cultural capture, 51, 59
- Cultural imperialism, 48
- Daily emancipation, 119
- De Beauvoir, Simone, 20
- Deciphering, 129–130
- Declaration of Rights of Man, 21
- Decree 1077/70, 13
- Decree 898, 13
- Deliberative theory, 126
- Democracy, 24, 84, 100
- Democratic Progressive Party (DPP), 34
- Development theory, 4
- Developmental patrimonialism
 - governance, 31–32
 - mandate, 37
- Developmentality, 7, 24, 27–30, 37–38
- Diário Oficial da União (DOU), 14
- Difel, 18–20
- Disinformation campaigns, 55–56
- Divisão de Censura de Diversões Públicas (DCDP), 14
- Dominance of state as political trend, 97–98
- DStv, 34
- Dynamic interpenetration of realms, 6
- Early Russian publications, 97–98
- Echo Moskvy*, 107
- Economic capture, 49, 53–54
 - intersectional forms of economic and political capture, 56–57
- Economic developments, 72
- Economic growth, 24
- Educational policies, 5–6
- Efficacy of self-regulation, 82–85
- Ekonomicheskaya Gazeta*, 107
- Elio Gaspari, 20
- Enemy image, 100
- Equality, 24

- Escobar, Arturo, 24
- European Modernity, 5
- European Union (EU), 26
- Everyday conversation, 118
- Face-to-face conversations, 1
- Facebook marketing communication platform, 82
- Feeling of democracy, 100
- Ferguson, James, 24
- Finlyandskaya Gazeta*, 99
- Focus groups, 120
 - communication on politics, 123–126
 - as communicative and conflictive situation, 120–123
 - procedure, 129
- Food and Beverages: Advertising and Marketing Communications Code, 77
- Food Code, 77, 86n3
- Foods, 83 (see also Unhealthy food)
 - and beverage advertisements, 74
 - industry self-regulation of food ads, 76–82
- Foreign aid, 27
- Foreign authors, 11–12
 - censored books, 16–18
 - national censorship, 20–21
 - non-fiction works by foreign authors published and censored in Brazil, 14–16
 - publishing houses Civilização Brasileira, Paz e Terra, José Alvaro, Sabiá, Saga and Difel, 18–20
 - reasons for censorship, 12–14
- Fourth estate, 96
- Frank, Andre Gunder, 24
- Free market principles, 27
- Freedom, 24
- French Revolution, 96
- Fundação de Amparo à Pesquisa do Estado de São Paulo (FAPESP), 21
- GE06 Agreement, 34
- General audience programming, 83
- Gifts and bribes, 57–58
- Global Forum on Media Development, 48
- Global media studies, 3–4
- Global South, 24, 26–27
- Globalization, 24–25
- Good governance, 24
- GoTv, 34
- Gramophone, 4
- Group's discussion, media material in, 126–129
- Growth, 24
- Gubernskiye vedomosti*, 99
- Healthier food, 83
- Highly Indebted Poor Countries (HIPC)s, 30
- Home and Away*, 83
- Homogenization thesis, 25
- Howard Government, 75
- Human rights, 24
 - violations, 21
- Human wellbeing, 75
- Ideology, 24
- Illiteracy, 7
- Independence, 24
- Index Librorum Prohibitorum, 7
- Indigenous community in Amazon, 4
- Individual liberty, 75
- Industry self-regulation of food ads and industry initiatives, 76–82
- Information and Communication Technologies (ICTs), 35
- Institutional Act Number 1 (AI1), 12
- Institutional Act Number 5 (AI-5), 12
- Instituto Brasileiro de Geografia e Estatística, the Brazilian (IBGE), 13
- International Financial Institutions (IFIs), 29
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), 26
- International payments, 32

- International Programme for Development of Communication (IPDC), 26
- International Relations (IR), 29
- International Telecommunication
Union (ITU), 34
- Internet advertising, 82
- Intimidation, 58–59
- Iraq, 8, 45–47, 49–50, 52, 56, 62
- Iraqi Kurdistan, 46
 - disinformation campaigns, 55–56
 - economic capture, 53–54
 - findings, 53
 - intersectional forms of economic and political capture, 56–57
 - intersectional forms of political and
bureaucratic capture, 57–
 - media capture as concept, 49–51
 - media development, 47–48
 - media in, 46–47
 - method, 51–53
 - political capture, 54–55
 - US-led coalition occupation of, 47
- Islamic State of Iraq and Syria (ISIS), 46
- José Alvaro, 18–20
- Journalism in Soviet, 101
- Journalistic attitude toward west,
100–101
- Journalistic profession, 100
- Journalists, 100
- KFC, 84
- Kommersant*, 106
- Kurdistan Democratic Party (KDP), 52
- Kurdistan Region of Iraq (KRI), 46–47
- Kursk*, 94
- Language, 24
- Legal capture, 50, 59
- Liberal democracy, 84–85
- Liberal media model, 25, 27
 - developmentality, 28–30
 - liberal media model as common sense, 36–38
 - Malawi's liberal media model as
common sense, 30–36
 - name of development, 24–28
- Liberal model, 3
- Liberalization, 7
- Literacy, 2, 4
- LiveJournal*, 107
- Mad Money*, 30
- Malawi Broadcasting Corporation
Act (MBC Act), 31
- Malawi Communications Regulatory Authority (MARCA), 31
- Malawi Congress Party (MCP), 31
- Malawi Digital Broadcasting Policy, 34
- Malawi Growth and Development
Strategy, 35
- MALAWI's liberal media model as
common sense, 30–36
- Malraux, André, 20
- Manufacturing sector, 72
- Marxist thinking, 17
- MasterChef*, 80, 83
- Media
 - assistance, 48
 - under communist influence, 99–100
 - configurations, 3, 9
 - cooptation, 8
 - coverage, 94
 - in developing countries, 1
 - development, 1–3, 47–48
 - dynamic of, 6–7
 - economic trends, 104–106
 - freedom, 100
 - history, 95
 - in Iraqi Kurdistan, 46
 - material in group's discussion,
126–129
 - participation, 2
 - political bias in, 106–108
 - segmentation, 6
- Media capture, 46 (see also Bureaucratic capture)
 - bureaucratic capture, 50
 - as concept, 49

- cultural capture, 51
- economic capture, 49
- legal capture, 50
- political capture, 50
- societal capture, 51
- typology of, 68–69
- Media Council of Association, 72
- Media Council of Australia (MCA), 72
- Media Council of Malawi (MCM), 33
- Media Institute of Southern Africa (MISA), 33
- Medical Act Bill, 125
- Medical practitioners, 73
- Middle East, 49, 59
- Military dictatorship, 11
- Modern media, 103
- Modernity, 24
- Modernization, 7, 25
- Mount Soche Declaration, 36
- Mtenga Watu*, 31
- Multinational meat processing, 4

- Narrative identities, 122
- National censorship, 20–21
- National interests, traitors of, 102
- National Preventative Health Taskforce (PHT), 78
- National Security Law, 13
- Neoliberalism, 75
- News outlets, 49
- Newspapers, 73
- Non-fiction
 - by foreign authors, 11
 - works by foreign authors, 14–16
- Non-governmental organizations (NGOs), 33, 81–82
- Novaya Gazeta*, 107

- Oddities, 5
- Oil crises, 32
- Ordinary talk interactions, 118
- Otechestvenniye Zapiski*, 98

- P-rated programs, 86n1
- Participation, 28

- Paz e Terra, 18–21
- Perceived advertisements, 73
- Photocopying, 4
- Photograph, 4
- Political bias in media, 106–108
- Political capture, 50, 54–55
 - intersectional forms of economic and political capture, 56–57
 - intersectional forms of political and bureaucratic capture, 57–
- Political economy of media, 3
- Political leadership, 107
- Political management in Russia, 95–96
- Political practices, 118
- Politicization, 118
- Politics, 119
 - focus group communication on, 123–126
- Post-development theorists, 26
- Post-war economic boom, 72
- Postcolonial development process, 29
- Poverty reduction, 24
 - strategy, 29
- Poverty Reduction and Growth Facility, 34
- Poverty Reduction Strategy Papers (PRSPs), 35
- Power being central, 29
- Press freedoms, 97
- Printing, 4
- Productivity Commission, 75
- Public Entertainment Censorship Division, 14
- Public opinion in Russia, 96
- Putin, Vladimir, 102
 - authoritarian tradition under, 102–104

- Quality of mass information, 94–95
- Quantifiable objectives, 83–84
- Questioning prejudices, 120
- Quick Service Restaurant Industry (QSRI), 79

- Radio, 4, 31
- Recognition of crimes, 21
- Regional Radio-communication Conference (RRC-06), 34
- Regulating unhealthy food advertising
 - Advertising Code of Ethics, 72
 - BUGA-UP movement, 73–74
 - efficacy of self-regulation, 82–85
 - human wellbeing, 75
 - industry self-regulation of food ads and industry initiatives, 76–82
- Reporters, 49
- Research democratic practices
 - casual interactions, 119
 - focus group as communicative and conflictive situation, 120–123
 - focus group communication on politics, 123–126
 - media material in group's discussion, 126–129
 - politicization, 118
 - reflections for further analysis, 129–130
- Research methods, 120
- Responsible Marketing to Children Initiative (RMMCI), 79
- Retaliation, 58–59
- Rodney, Walter, 24
- Rudd Government, 75
- Russian media, 94–95
 - authoritarian tradition prior to 1917, 95–97
 - authoritarian tradition under Putin, 102–104
 - early Russian publications, 97–98
 - Gorbachev and beyond, 101–102
 - journalistic attitude toward west, 100–101
 - law, 97–98
 - media under communist influence, 99–100
 - media's economic trends, 104–106
 - political bias in media, 106–108
 - post-reform years, 98–99
 - Ukraine, 108–110
- Russian television, 108
- Russkiy Vestnik*, 98
- Sabiá, 18–20
- Saga, 18–20
- Sankt-Peterburgskkiye vedomosti*, 106
- Sartre, Jean Paul, 20
- Secularization, 25
- Self-regulation, efficacy of, 82–85
- Self-Regulation of Broadcasting, 74
- Self-regulatory codes, 84
- Semi-structured qualitative interview approach, 46
- Shadow media, 52
- Shenton, 24
- Social control, 51
- Social media, 51
- Social recognition, 120
- Societal capture, 51, 60–61
- Sovershenno Sekretno*, 107
- Soviet journalists, 101
- Soviet political system, 100
- Sovremennik*, 98
- Stigmatizations, 120
- Stimulating disidentifications, 120
- Structural adjustment programmes (SAPs), 32
- Subversive propaganda, 13
- Tape recorder, 4
- Technical language, 1–2
- Technology, 4
- Telegraph, 4
- Television, 4, 72
- Television Malawi (TVM), 33
- Trade, 2
- Trade Practices Act (1974), 73
- Transition period, 102
- Transmission of ideologies, 29
- Turnbull Coalition Government, 81–82

- Ukraine, 108–110
- Unhealthy food, 82–83
 - advertising, 83
 - and drinks manufacturers, 84
- United Democratic Front Party (UDF), 33
- United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), 26, 48
- United States Agency for International Development (USAID), 26
- Universities' Mission to Central Africa (UMCA), 31
- Urbanization, 4, 7
- Value structures, 51
- Vedomosti*, 97
- Vesti Nedeli*, 109
- Violence, 21
- Voluntary self-regulation system, 75
- Western democracies, 25, 27
- Westernization, 7
- World Bank (WB), 26
- World Health Organization (WHO), 76
- World Trade Organization (WTO), 26
- Zavtra*, 107
- Zero Deficit Budget, 35, 37