

INDEX

- Accountability audits, 10
- Administrative Code of 1987, 155
- Administrative Management
  - Agency, 7, 11, 21, 23
- Administrative reform. See Public Sector Reform (PSR)
- Advisory council, 31–32
- Anti-corruption, 96–100, 132–133
  - policies, 222
  - procedures, 10
- Anti-red tape, 159
- Asian Financial Crisis (AFC), 54
- Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) region, 154
- Australian leadership in reform
  - administrative tradition, 234
  - Australian Public Service Commission (APSC), 233
  - comprehensive reform
    - implementation, 250
  - continual public sector change, 232
  - demanding environments, 236
  - Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet (DPMC), 232
  - existing approaches failure, 235
  - factors, 235
  - Financial Management Improvement Programme (FMIP), 237–238
  - fiscal stress and economic crisis, 236
  - Labor government's proposal, 249–250
  - leadership discourse, 234
  - leaders types, 233
  - Management Advisory Board (MAB), 239–240
  - management culture, 249
  - management deficiencies, 235
  - Management Improvement Advisory Committee (MIAC), 239–240
  - neo-liberal thinking
    - ascendancy, 236
  - performance management
    - reform, 240–242
  - political control, 236
  - public management
    - reform, 249
  - Public Service Act, 234
  - public service leadership, 251
  - reform agenda, 245–249
  - reform diffusion, 236
  - service delivery coordination, 242–245
  - TFMI, 239
  - top-down control, 249
  - Westminster-type of
    - parliamentary system, 233
- Australian Public Service Commission (APSC), 233
- Autonomous public organization (APO), 105–106

- Balanced scorecard (BSC), 62
- Better public service (BPS) reforms
  - Better Public Services Advisory Group, 274
  - Better Public Services Reform Themes, 275
  - central components, 272
  - citizen focus, 277–279
  - diagnostic tools, 269
  - four-year excellence horizon, 271–274
  - global financial crisis, 268
  - improvement themes, 273
  - leadership role, 268
  - organizational culture, 274
  - performance focus, 279–280
  - PIF reviews, 270
  - results focus, 276–277
  - systematic survey, 273
  - system collaboration and long-term investment, 267
- Better Public Services Advisory Group, 274
- Better Public Services Reform Themes, 275
- British Westminster model, 208
- Buddhism, 104
- Budget
  - administrative reform and, 35
  - allocations, 13, 69, 117, 122
  - Australian public sector, 236
  - components, 272
  - deficit financing bonds, 23
  - delegation, 193
  - expenditure, Thailand, 125
  - finance tertiary/additional state functions, 66
  - fiscal policy and, 58
  - FMIP implementation, 237
  - and human resources, 109
  - leadership mechanisms, 170
  - performance-based, 67
  - policy adviser role, 242
  - price rates of, 60
  - public organizations, 106
  - Thai government, 114
- Build-operate-transfer (BOT) schemes, 170
- Bureaucratic routine and rules, 3
- Ceiling Number Control Act, 23
- Central agencies, 6
- Central Government Organizations, 27
- Chinese leadership in reform
  - advancing the development, 89–91
  - anti-corruption leadership, 96–100
- Communist Party of China (CPC), 86
  - feature of, 86
  - innovative leadership
    - complicated situations and risks, 93–94
    - decision-making, 95
    - developmental approaches, 93
    - factors, 93
    - innovation ability, 94
    - national governance, 95
    - planning, 94
  - Marxist philosophy, 86–87
  - open leadership, 91–92
  - seven reforms of, 87–89
- Citizen focus, 277–279
- Civilian workforce, Thailand, 125
- Civil Registry Law, 162
- Civil Service Commission (CSC), 22, 157
- Civil Service System And Management, 28

- Client-centred leadership, 200
- Commission for Corruption
  - Eradication, 55
- Commission-type organization, 118–119
- Communist Party of China (CPC), 12, 86
- Communist Party of Vietnam (CPV), 128
- Consensual leadership, 201
- Constitution Drafting Council, 108
- Constitution-independent organizations, 107
- Consultative leadership, 200
- Corporate leadership, 201
- Corporate model, Singapore leadership
  - budget delegation, 193
  - Land Transport Authority (LTA), 197–199
  - personnel matters, 193–194
  - procurement, 194
  - statutory boards, 194–196
- Cross-border pollution, 2
- Customer-centredness creation, 185–187
- Decentralization, 2
  - Philippines leadership, 160
  - Singapore leadership
    - budget delegation, 193
    - Land Transport Authority (LTA), 197–199
    - personnel matters, 193–194
    - procurement, 194
    - statutory boards, 194–196
  - Thailand leadership, 109–110
- Decentralized systems, 9
- Decision-making, 7
- Democratic centralism principle, 128
- Democratization process, 55
- Department of Family and Community Services (FaCS), 243
- Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet (DPMC), 16, 232, 258, 259
- Departments and agencies, 6
- Deregulation And Regulatory Reform, 28
- Digital government, 3
- Digital processes, 2
- Digital transformation programme (DTP), 211
- Early-retirement policy, 66
- Economic management programmes, 217
- Economic transformation programme (ETP), 211
- Education Reform Movement, 115
- Education sector, Thailand, 114–116
- E-Government, 5, 28, 186, 187, 210
- Financial Management Improvement Programme (FMIP), 237–238
- Functional leadership, 280–281
- Gawad Kalinga, non-government organization, 164–165
- Geographic Information System, 112
- Government-linked companies (GLCs), 182, 215
- Government planning and execution, 4
- Government processes/structures, 2
- Government Transformation Programme (GTP), 15, 212, 213

- Hashimoto Administrative Reform, 47
- Health sector, Thailand, 116–117
- High economic growth period,
  - Japan, 22–23
- High-level policy, 7
- HR accreditation, 159
- Increase Fairness and Transparency of Government, 28
- Indonesian leadership in reform
  - Asian Financial Crisis (AFC), 54
  - bureaucracy reform, 56–57
  - central–local fiscal balance, 55
  - Commission for Corruption Eradication, 55
  - democratization process, 55
  - economic recovery and development, 54
  - government effectiveness and efficiency, 57
  - Indonesian politico-administrative system, 54
  - law enforcement, 55
  - leaders determination
    - cascading ideas, 61–64
    - operational capacity, 64–67
    - public values, 59–61
    - reformist leadership, 57–59
  - political and economic reform, 55
  - pragmatic reform, 56
  - reactionary reform, 56
  - reform sustainability
    - authorizing environment creation, 75–76
    - bad governance awareness, 75
    - collaboration beyond bureaucracy, 76–77
    - education and training, 74
    - potential leaders and allies, 72–74
    - reform-oriented executive training, 74
  - risk management
    - dealing with resisting actors, 69–70
    - public distrust, 67–69
    - reconciliation strategies, 70–72
- Information and Communication Technology (ICT), 65, 159
- Innovative leadership
  - complicated situations and risks, 93–94
  - decision-making, 95
  - developmental approaches, 93
  - factors, 93
  - innovation ability, 94
  - national governance, 95
  - planning, 94
- Inter-ministerial and inter-agency committees, 15
- Interpersonal approach, 63
- ISO certification, 159
- Japanese leadership in reform
  - administrative organizations, 29
  - administrative reform
    - advisory council, 31–32
    - Central Government Organizations, 27
    - Civil Service System And Management, 28
  - decentralization, 28
  - Deregulation And Regulatory Reform, 28
  - efforts, 20
  - E-Government, 28
  - government organizations, 27

- government roles, responsibilities and functions, 26
- Increase Fairness and Transparency of Government, 28
- Manpower Control And Reform, 28
- permanent administrative organization, 29–31
- public administration examination, 26
- Public Corporations, 28
- public policies, programmes and projects, 27
- rationalization and government expenditures reduction, 26
- reasons and objectives of, 25
- tools, process and procedure, 26
- Administrative Reform Council, 25
- case studies
  - Hashimoto and Administrative Reform Council, 36–41
  - Koizumi and leadership, 41–47
  - Nakasone and Provisional Commission, 33–36
- deregulation and regulatory reform, 25
- government-wide big reforms, 48
- high economic growth period, 22–23
- low economic growth period, 23–24
- occupation period, 21–22
- political issues, 32
- Provisional Commission for Administrative Reform, 48
- reform sustainability, 49
- ‘Jazz-based’ model, 7, 13
- ‘Joined up’ efforts, 3
- Key Performance Indicators (KPIs), 112
- Koizumi Administrative Reform, 47
- Labor government’s proposal, 249–250
- Land Transport Authority (LTA), 197–199
- Law enforcement, 55
- Law-making process, 13
- Law on Cadres and Civil servants, 131
- Law on Public servants, 131
- ‘Learning-by-doing’ approach, 146
- Legal/legislative actions, 6
- Local board of Development Planning, 64
- Local Government Leadership Award’, 160
- Low economic growth period, Japan, 23–24
- Malaysia leadership in reform
  - anti-corruption policies, 222
  - British Westminster model, 208
  - centralisation, 209
  - civil service codes, 222
  - civil service reform, 218
  - development process, 208
  - economic management programmes, 217
  - financial losses, 218
  - globalisation, 209
  - governmental transparency, 219
  - institutionalisation, 217
  - inter-governmental relationships, 209

- leaders and policies, 223–226
- Malaysian anti-corruption commission (MACC), 218, 220
- Malaysian Communications and Multimedia Commission Act, 223
- operational capacity, 218
- Panama-based law, 222
- principal–agent anti-corruption framework, 219
- public policies and
  - modernisation, bureaucracy
  - community transformation programme, 211
  - dependency syndrome, 215
  - development administration and institution, 210
  - digital transformation programme (DTP), 211
  - economic transformation programme (ETP), 211
  - GDP growth, 215
  - government-linked companies (GLCs), 215
  - government transformation programme (GTP), 212, 213
  - Malaysian Competition Commission, 213
  - national key results areas (NKRAs), 211
  - Outline Prospective Plan, 214
  - political transformation programme (PTP), 211
  - poverty eradication, 214
  - racialism, 216
  - social transformation programme (STP), 211, 212
  - strategic reform initiatives (SRIs), 211, 212
  - state-centred public administration, 217
  - state–society relations, 209
  - United Malays National Organisation (UMNO), 221
  - values-based leadership, 221
  - Western state model, 216
- Malaysian anti-corruption commission (MACC), 218, 220
- Malaysian Communications and Multimedia Commission Act, 223
- Malaysian Competition Commission, 213
- Management Advisory Board (MAB), 239–240
- Management Improvement Advisory Committee (MIAC), 239–240
- Manpower Control And Reform, 28
- Market economy, 14
- Market-oriented socialist economy, 134
- Marxist philosophy, 86–87
- Meritocracy, 182–183
- Millennium Development Goals, 105
- Ministry of Interior, 22
- Nakasone Administrative Reform, 47
- National Development Agency, 12
- National Education Act, 114
- National Government Employees Act, 21–22
- National Government Organization Act, 21
- National key results areas (NKRAs), 211

- National Personnel Authority, 22
- National Reform Steering
  - Assembly, 105
- Networked government approach,
  - 188–189
  - case study, 189–193
- New Public Governance (NPG), 258
- New Public Management (NPM),
  - 112, 155, 258
  - Treasury's leadership, 263–267
- New Zealand leadership in reform
  - better public service (BPS)
    - reforms
      - Better Public Services
        - Advisory Group, 274
      - Better Public Services Reform
        - Themes, 275
    - central components, 272
    - citizen focus, 277–279
    - diagnostic tools, 269
    - four-year excellence horizon,
      - 271–274
    - global financial crisis, 268
    - improvement themes, 273
    - leadership role, 268
    - organizational culture, 274
    - performance focus, 279–280
    - performance of, 272
    - PIF reviews, 270
    - results focus, 276–277
    - systematic survey, 273
    - system collaboration and long-term investment, 267
  - capability development and
    - deployment, 281–282
  - context, 259–260
  - core agencies, 261–263
  - Department Of Prime Minister
    - And Cabinet (DPMC),
      - 258, 259
    - functional leadership, 280–281
  - New Public Governance
    - (NPG), 258
  - New Public Management (NPM)
    - reforms, 258
    - Treasury's leadership, 263–267
  - New Zealand State Sector Act
    - (1988), 261
  - NZ Treasury (Treasury), 258
  - State Services Commission (SSC),
    - 258, 259
- New Zealand State Sector Act
  - (1988), 261
- Nonaka's phronetic leadership
  - paradigm, 162
- Occupation period, Japan, 21–22
- Office for National Education
  - Standards and Quality
    - Assessment (ONESQA), 114
- Office of Public Funds (OPF), 105
- Office of Public Sector
  - Development Commission
    - (OPDC), 106
  - and system-wide reforms,
    - 112–114
- One-party systems, 9
- Open leadership, 91–92
- Operational leadership, 200–201
- Organizational culture, 11, 274
- Organizational practices, 7
- Outline Prospective Plan, 214
- Peace Treaty, 21
- 'People's Constitution', 107
- Performance-based budgets, 67
- Performance-based reporting, 8
- Performance focus, 279–280
- Performance improvement
  - framework (PIF), 9

- Performance management
  - frameworks, 3
- Permanent administrative
  - organization, 29–31
- Philippines leadership in reform
  - in academia, 167–170
  - Administrative Code of 1987, 155
  - anti-red tape, 159
  - Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN)
    - region, 154
  - ‘bureaupathology,’ 152
  - Civil Service Commission (CSC), 157
  - continuous monitoring and
    - evaluation, 154
  - decentralization, 160
  - exemplary performance, 157
  - globalization standards, 154
  - HR accreditation, 159
  - information, communication and
    - technology (ICT), 159
  - ISO certification, 159
  - Local Government Leadership
    - Award’, 160
  - local governments, 159–161
  - marketing, 159
  - New Public Management (NPM), 155
  - Philippine political administrative
    - history, 152
  - ‘phronetic’ leaders
    - ASEAN region and Japan, 161
    - bureaucracy and cynicism, 166
    - Civil Registry Law, 162
    - corruption, 166
    - financial resources, 166
    - Gawad Kalinga, non-government organization, 164–165
    - group discussions and
      - interviews, 165
    - initiatives and innovations, 166
    - national and local
      - governments, 162
    - Nonaka’s phronetic leadership
      - paradigm, 162
    - NSO’s human resources, 163
    - practical wisdom concept, 162
    - Quezon City (QC), 163–164
  - Presidential Commission on
    - Government Reorganization (PCGR), 156
  - presidential-driven reforms, 157
  - public administration system, 153
  - reform implementation, 160
  - reorganization initiatives, 157, 158
  - resource generation and
    - management, 159
  - restructuring, 159
  - revolutionary government, 154
  - ‘silo mentality,’ 152
  - strategic performance
    - management system, 157, 159
  - streamlining processes and
    - procedures, 153
  - Policy making and policy
    - execution, 129
  - Political-economic policy, 128
  - Political elites, 5
  - Political leadership, 12
  - Political transformation programme (PTP), 211
  - Pragmatic reform, 56
  - Procurement processes, 3
  - Professional civil service, 131
  - Provisional Commission for
    - Administrative Reform, 22
  - Public consultation, 187–188

- Public Corporations, 28
- Public enterprise (PE), 105
- Public policy, 1, 2, 27, 30, 91, 210–216, 232, 251
- Public–private partnerships, 3
- Public Sector Development Commission (OPDC), 13
- Public Sector Reform (PSR), 13
  - in Asia
    - accountability, 3, 9–10, 16
    - advisory councils, 7, 12
    - barriers, 7
    - bureaucratic routine and rules, 3, 8
    - champion leaders, 12
    - citizens, 2
    - definition, 2
    - examples, 2
    - five-year plans, 12
    - implementation, 7–9
    - initiating proposals, 6–7
    - innovations, 9–11
    - New Public Management, 16
    - path dependency, 10
    - Presidents/Prime Ministers, 6, 12, 14, 16
  - in Australia. See also Australian leadership in reform
    - accountability, 237, 238, 240, 246
    - bureaucracy, 235, 236, 246
    - citizens and client orientation, 246
    - implementation, 236, 239, 245, 247, 249
    - initiatives, 237
    - innovations, 244
    - New Public Management, 234, 237, 246
    - path dependency, 245
    - Prime Ministers, 246, 247
  - in China. See also Chinese leadership in reform
    - accountability, 96–100
    - examples, 96, 97
    - five-year plans, 87, 101
    - implementation, 97, 99
    - importance of, 101
    - innovations, 93, 94
    - Presidents, 99, 101
  - in Indonesia. See also Indonesian leadership in reform
    - accountability, 61, 67, 72
    - barriers, 55
    - bureaucracy, 57, 63, 76–77
    - champion leaders, 78
    - citizens, 59, 68
    - examples, 62, 68
    - implementation, 64–67
    - importance, 78
    - initiatives, 67–72
    - innovations, 57
    - Presidents, 54, 59, 65–66
  - in Japan. See also Japanese leadership in reform
    - advisory councils, 24, 25, 31–32, 38
    - barriers, 25
    - bureaucrat executives, 33
    - examples, 27, 31
    - implementation, 22, 24, 27, 41–42
    - importance of, 32–47
    - initiatives, 30
    - Presidents/Prime Ministers, 25, 33–48
    - successive administrative reform, 24
  - in Malaysia. See also Malaysian leadership in reform

- accountability, 209, 210, 216, 219
  - bureaucracy, 210–216
  - citizens, 210, 219
  - examples, 217, 218, 221
  - implementation, 218, 226
  - initiatives, 210, 217, 221, 223, 224, 228
  - innovations, 210, 219, 224, 226, 227
  - New Public Management, 224
  - Prime Ministers, 210, 220–222
  - publicity, 227
- in New Zealand
  - accountability, 262, 265, 280
  - bureaucratic advisors, 266
  - citizens, 275, 277–279
  - examples, 276
  - implementation, 263
  - importance of, 259, 284
  - initiating, 262
  - innovations, 273–275
  - New Public Management, 258
  - Prime Ministers, 261–262
- in Philippines
  - accountability, 152–154, 156, 157, 166
  - bureaucracy, 152, 156, 157, 166
  - citizens, 153–154, 172
  - definition, 152
  - examples, 169
  - implementation, 160, 167, 170, 172
  - initiatives, 154–159, 163, 165, 166
  - innovations, 152, 160, 161, 170
  - New Public Management, 155
  - Presidents/ Prime Ministers, 155–159, 167–170
- in Singapore
  - accountability, 183–185
  - barriers, 192
  - bureaucratic procedures, 186
  - client orientation, 200, 201
  - examples, 185, 186, 188, 190, 197
  - implementation, 181
  - initiatives, 185
  - Presidents/Prime Ministers, 180, 199
- in Thailand, 103–126
  - accountability, 107
  - bureaucracy, 118, 119
  - champion, 120
  - citizens, 112, 119
  - examples, 114
  - implementation, 113
  - initiatives, 117–119
  - innovations, 113
  - New Public Management, 112
  - Prime Ministers, 106–108
- in Vietnam
  - accountability, 132, 133
  - barriers, 139
  - bureaucracy, 130, 139
  - citizens, 129
  - examples, 138, 145
  - implementation, 141–143
  - importance of, 137
  - initiatives, 128, 138, 143
  - New Public Management, 133, 134
  - Prime Ministers, 137, 139, 140
- Public Service Act, 234
- Racialism, 216
- Reactionary reform, 56
- Revenue-sharing mechanism, 60
- Risk management, Indonesia
  - dealing with resisting actors, 69–70
  - public distrust, 67–69
  - reconciliation strategies, 70–72

- Second Provisional Commission, 24
- Singapore leadership in reform
  - client-centred leadership, 200
  - consensual leadership, 201
  - consultative leadership, 200
  - corporate leadership, 201
  - customer-centredness creation, 185–187
  - decentralization and corporate model
    - budget delegation, 193
    - Land Transport Authority (LTA), 197–199
    - personnel matters, 193–194
    - procurement, 194
    - statutory boards, 194–196
  - features, public sector
    - executive domination, 182
    - meritocracy, 182–183
    - strict accountability, 183–185
  - impact of, 201–202
  - networked government approach, 188–189
    - case study, 189–193
  - operational leadership, 200–201
  - public consultation, 187–188
  - public sector reforms, 199–200
  - structure of, 181–182
  - system of government, 180–181
- Social and economic development, 4, 20, 50
- Socialist market economy system, 95
- Social transformation programme (STP), 211, 212
- Special delivery units (SDUs), 105
- State-centred public
  - administration, 217
- State Services Commission (SSC), 258, 259
- State universities and colleges (SUC), 167–170
- Strategic reform initiatives (SRIs), 211, 212
- System-wide changes, 2
- Tambon administrative organization (TAO), 105
- Thailand leadership in reform
  - autonomous public organization (APO), 105
  - Autonomous Public organization Act, 105–106
  - Buddhism, 104
  - budget expenditure, 125
  - civilian workforce, 125
  - commission-type organization, 118–119
  - decentralization reform, 109–110
  - education sector, 114–116
  - health sector, 116–117
  - line authorities, 118
  - local administration, 105
  - Millennium Development Goals, 105
  - National Reform Steering Assembly, 105
  - Office of Public Funds (OPF), 105
  - Office of Public Sector Development Commission (OPDC), 106
    - and system-wide reforms, 112–114
  - political landscape, 106–108
  - Prime Ministers, 126
  - public enterprise (PE), 105
  - public organizations, 110–111
  - public sector reform initiative
    - outcomes, 119
  - reform movements, 120–122

- special delivery units (SDUs), 105
- tambon administrative organization (TAO), 105
- ‘Thai Rak Thai’ party, 107–108
- Thaksin government, 108
- Transnational cooperation, 3
- Trans-national working groups, 2
- United Malays National Organisation (UMNO), 221
- Values-based leadership, 221
- Vietnam leadership in reform
  - case study, 142–145
  - central and local leaders, 146
  - Communist Party of Vietnam (CPV), 128
  - continuity and stability, 146–147
  - democratic centralism
    - principle, 128
  - ‘double subordination,’ 129
  - in institutional arrangement, 136–137
  - ‘learning-by-doing’ approach, 146
  - National Assembly, 129
  - policy making and policy execution, 129
  - political-economic policy, 128
  - public sector reform (PSR)
    - anti-corruption, 132–133
    - global context challenges, 133
    - growth and social progress, 130
    - high level of corruption, 132
    - Law on Carders and Civil servants, 131
    - Law on Public servants, 131
    - market-oriented socialist economy, 134
    - organizational problems, 132
    - overview of, 135
    - professional civil service, 131
    - regulatory framework, 134
    - Vietnamese economy, 130
  - reform progress, 137–138
  - reform risks management, 138–140
  - reform sustainability, 140–142
  - ‘self-sufficiency,’ 129
  - strong leadership tradition, 146
- Weberian bureaucracy, 171
- Western state model, 216
- Westminster system, 16
- Westminster-type of parliamentary system, 233
- ‘Whole of government’ approach, 6, 188–189
- World Trade Organization (WTO), 88